INDEX FOR 1962 ................................................ 161
MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES:

As the last issue of ANSEARCHIN' NEWS goes to press for 1962, your president is pleased to report that all four local projects, outlined in January, have been completed. The last of these was the microfilming of ELMWOOD CEMETERY RECORDS, 1853-1904. Two rolls of original records on film were presented to the Memphis Public Library in September.

We would like to say a sincere THANK YOU to:

all our subscribers and contributors for their support.

our study group hostesses. In July it was my pleasure to entertain for the night meeting. In August Mrs. L. D. Bejach, 43 Belleair Drive, was hostess. In September Mrs. Joseph Mobley invited us to her home, 2240 North Parkway. New ideas and new books are exchanged at these meetings.

Libby (Mrs. Reginald H. Tolar, Jr.), vice-president, for serving as a most able technical advisor.

Jerry (Mrs. W. R. Blair), corresponding secretary, for doing double duty editing our query section and sending the monthly notice of meeting cards.

D'Ann (Sullivan), recording secretary, for keeping our business transactions in order.

Henrietta (Mrs. Roy Gilley), treasurer, for her up-to-the-minute bookkeeping system which also provides a double check on mailing addresses.

Judith (Mrs. Scott Julian), director of research, for filing over 10,000 surname index data cards on our ancestors.

Margaret (Mrs. Willis E. Ayres), librarian, for her capable leadership of the library committee.

Virginia (Mrs. Harry E. O'Hara), editor, for persevering where ANSEARCHIN' is concerned.

Myrtle (Shelton) for addressing all of the envelopes which bring the bulletin to you. She also had the master-job of indexing all of the names in our 1962 editions.

the committee of volunteer workers who gaily assemble to complete and mail this bulletin to you. It just could not be done without their help.

Many persons working together with mutual interest have made the Memphis Genealogical Society possible.

In January we will present new plans and projects for 1963. We need suggestions from our members. Won't you please continue to offer new ideas, send new material for print and last, but not least, be with us in 1963?

Let's continue the search for all our ancestors and as each line is completed, we will stand a little taller knowing that many before us helped to make America the wonderful free country it is today.
OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK:

The growing number of family histories, books of genealogical source material, conferences on genealogy and a noticeable improvement in Society publications all point up the fast increasing interest in the subject.

Our Society exchanges publications with approximately thirty-five other groups and all issues are carefully read before being sent to the library. The work on the part of society members from coast to coast has been noted and is reflected in the many now worthwhile bulletins available to the public. Whether you are a contributing member or just a subscriber makes you a needed partner in order to keep the work going. If you have never "written an article" or "addressed an envelope," why not volunteer this coming year? You will enjoy the fellowship and contribute your bit to the finished product.

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS:

The Ohio Genealogical Society has a unique periodical called the REPORT. They publish ads and answers for the genealogist and the historians, as well as genealogical and historical articles of local, state and national interest. The REPORT is printed in newspaper style which makes it very readable, but rather hard to file. The price is $5.00 a year from the Editor, 454 Park Avenue West, Mansfield, Ohio.

To celebrate "The Tenth Anniversary Year" of the NEW JERSEY GENESIS, the Editor, Mr. Harold A. Sonn, has decided to publish A FIFTH EDITION OF THE NEW JERSEY FAMILY INDEX, the first since August 1959. It will be ready in early 1963. For order and enrollment form write the editor at 105-C Troy Drive, Springfield, New Jersey. THE NEW JERSEY GENESIS, a quarterly devoted to genealogy and history of New Jersey, may be ordered for $3.00 a year. (Deadline for INDEX entries -- December 15, 1962.)

They will contain copies of old estate court records, marriages, deaths, land plats, etc. The magazines will be mailed every other month. Subscription to each bulletin is $3.00 a year.

The very popular North Carolinian now bears the official title of JOURNAL OF NORTH CAROLINA GENEALOGY. This excellent quarterly of North Carolina records may be ordered from the Editor, Mr. William Perry Johnson, Box 531, Raleigh, North Carolina, for $7.00 a year.

FAMILY HISTORIES:

GOVERNOR GARRARD OF KENTUCKY, HIS DESCENDANTS AND RELATIVES was published in 1898 by Anna Russell des Cognets. A second edition is now available, being a photographic reproduction of the original. It is indexed — more than 3,000 names — and it also contains A POSTSCRIPT ABOUT THE GARRARD FAMILY by Mr. Louis des Cognets, with about a hundred pages of material that was unknown sixty-four years ago. The Garrards are carried into an earlier period of Virginia, and the Mountjoy are followed back from Stafford County to Wiltshire, England. There are 279 pages, cloth, illustrated, price $8.00 a copy, postage paid, from Mr. Louis des Cognets, Jr., P. O. Box 163, Princeton, New Jersey.

We wish to thank Mrs. Peyton Randolph, 219 Beech Street, Plainview, Texas, for a copy of the book she wrote titled, SLAUGHTER-COOK-BEAUMONT FAMILIES. It is an interesting compilation and a nice addition to our library.

Thanks, also, to Mr. G. S. Stein III, 503 West 2nd Street, Muscatine, Iowa for the biographical sketch of THE STEINS OF MUSCATINE, IOWA. The present family have been traced to the Rhine Palatinate in 1645 in a well written story.

The North Carolina and Tennessee branches of the TROUSDALE FAMILY have been published by J. B. Trousdale, 107 Kay Street, Ithaca, New York. Price $4.50.

Mrs. Frank Cline, 914 Summer St., Hot Springs, Arkansas bought a copy of HOUSE OF Fowler published in 1940 by G. P. Fowler. After buying the book she found it did not contain an index, so she made one. She offers her 69 pages, mimeographed and bound index to owners of the book. Write her for details.

Mrs. Frank Sherman, 518 Hamilton Avenue, B-2, Peoria, Illinois has a few copies of the HISTORY AND GENEALOGY OF JOHN CALVIN DAVIS left. The book contains the allied families of Toliver, Connelly, Reed, Bull, Garner, Goble, Rodes, Turner, Phelps, Waltrip, Hall, Renneis, McKenzie, Adkins, Watson and Edwards. 116 pages, hard back and well indexed with many pictures for $6.00 a copy. She also has THE MAUPIN FAMILY, a genealogical and historical record of over 5,000 descendants of General Maupin, born in France in 1650. The 160 pages of lithographed material includes many pictures and a full index. Price $10.00.

Mr. S. F. Tillman, 3212 Cummings Lane, Chevy Chase 15, Maryland, has just completed a new family record titled, SPES ALIT AGRICOLAN, the Family Record of the Tilghman (Tillman, Tilman) and Allied Families, from 1225 to 1961. Bound in light blue hardback cover, printed on 8 x 11 paper, it contains the family coat of arms in color, pictures of old English homes and 50 individual pictures of outstanding members of the family. $10.00 from the compiler. Mr. Tillman has also published the REYNOLDS FAMILY, 1500-1959 and has a few copies for $5.00 each.

THE CARSON-BENT-BOGGS GENEALOGY compiled by Miss Quantrille D. McClung and published by the Denver Public Library shows the extent of the exhaustive research done to get into print the line of William Carson, ancestor of "Kit Carson," famous scout and pioneer of the Rocky Mountain area. Order from the Manager of Business Office, Denver Public Library, 1357 Broadway, Denver 3, Colorado. Price $3.50 per copy, postpaid.

DESCENDENTS OF THOMAS BRUMFIELD OF BERKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA is a nine generation genealogy of the Brumfield family. The book has a skeleton outline of the families of Lincoln, Boone, Tallman and Van Pelt and their marriages into the Brumfield line. Address communications to John Woolman Press, 4002 N. Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis 8, Indiana. Price $6.00.

Thanks to Mrs. E.B. Lipscomb for securing a copy of BEATTY, A FAMILY HISTORY by Troy Beatty, Jr. for the library.

CONGRESSIONAL RESERVATION

Many readers have requested a list of counties (present day) to be found in the CONGRESSIONAL RESERVATION as established in 1806. (See article PETITION OF PERSONS LIVING IN THE CONGRESSIONAL RESERVATION ASKING THE LEGISLATURE FOR RELIEF - 1812 in Vol. IX, No. 3, July 1962, page 80.)

The following rough drawing of a map of west Tennessee will show the counties, as we know them today, in the Reservation. The heavy line on the right indicates the eastern boundary. (The editor.)

DILLAHUNTY CEMETERY, HENRY COUNTY, TENNESSEE
Contributed by: Elizabeth Greer McMaster (Mrs. Guy W.)

Located between Paris, Tennessee and Henry, Tennessee, at now extinct Routon, Tennessee off U. S. Highway 79. The cemetery is easily accessible. William Dillahunty, the owner of the land, whose interment in 1838, opened this cemetery, was the grandson of John Dillahunty, a Revolutionary War veteran. Joining this cemetery to the west was a Negro burial ground for slaves of the Dillahunty's and Haynes's, but ruthless land owners have cultivated this land and there is nothing left to identify it. Efforts are now being made to restore that part of the cemetery that is identifiable. Tombstones mark the following graves.

Due to mutilation of last pages of records the remaining part of the Stewart County Minute Book will be concluded with this issue. We are omitting the Docket List of Cases for the years 1806-1807 as the cases have been covered and would be repetitious. I sincerely hope many have been benefited by the context of this long lost Minute Book of Stewart County and the missing link of an ancestor brought to light.

BIBLE RECORD AND NOTES ON FAMILY OF WILLIAM ROBINSON NEWLEE, 1785-1862

Compiled by: Milburn Divine

Wm. R. Newlee b. 1785 d. June 26 1862 (was buried in Cumberland Gap but removed to Tazewell when the railroad was run through and under "the Gap").

Mary Glen Newlee (wife of William) b. 1784 d. Feb. 18 1851 m. Nov. 8 1807

To them the following children were born:

Adolphus Newlee Feb. 23 1815
James Newlee Oct. 19 1817
Robert Glenn Newlee Mar. 14 1819
George B. Newlee May 6 1821
Syrena Kathryn Newlee Oct. 3 1823 (married Rev. Frazier Otey of Bedford Co., Virginia. They had a daughter, Mrs. Fanny Otey Kesterson, who lived almost a century, see picture in D.A.R. Magazine Dec. 1955, page 1154. Age at that time 94 M.D.)

Charles Augustus Newlee Apr. 1, 1828 (Married Capt. Huff's daughter and went to Missouri)

Mellie H. (Melanie) Newlee Dec. 22 1832 (Died in Cumberland Gap, Tenn.)

*John Glen Newlee married Elizabeth Kyle (b. June 3 1818 d. Mar. 19, 1844) eldest child of Sir William Emmet Kyle, Jr., of Tyrone County, Ireland. Sir William was descended from Kyles of Ayr Scotland and is said to have been the first licensed merchant of Lynchburg, Fincastle and Christiansburg. He bought Lynches Ferry on the James River and land that is now most of downtown Lynchburg. Wm. Kyle's brother, Jeremiah, survived him in Christiansburg. The old Kyle house is a square brick with double galleries about opposite site of the old Newlee house in Christiansburg.

The old Newlee house in Cumberland Gap, build about 1842, was used as a hospital during four battles at "The Gap." It was a double galleried log house. The mill and forge used during the Civil War have been restored. Some of the Newlee grave stones, on the hill under their apple tree, were lost during the war, as soldiers used them for bread boards. J. Glen Newlee deeded the land with the soldier's graves to the U. S. Government so the Blue and Grey could be side by side and remain in peace forever. (M.D.)
