MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES:

Vacations are over and we are eager to settle down to intensive Ansearchin'. Not all of our members have spent the summer in indolence. Many have spent long hours turning the pages of books and burned the lamps of microfilm readers, and their patient persistence has been justly rewarded. We are indeed proud of the achievement of Mrs. Wm. H. Elder (Pat), Qtrs. N-30-C, U.S. Naval Air Station, Memphis, Tenn. While visiting this summer in her husband's home town, Toledo, Illinois, Pat so charmed the owner of the weekly newspaper that he permitted her to have all of them (1833-99) microfilmed and placed in the State Archives at Springfield, Ill. In many instances, births, marriages and obituaries of as many as five generations were recorded. Another of our members, Mrs. Lois D. Bejach (Wilena) enjoyed the privilege of working in the famous LDS Library at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Thanks to the capable officers who so efficiently carried on the work of the Society when I attended my son's wedding in July. It was reported that the July meeting was a great success, which demonstrates the great amount of talent we have in our organization; and it verifies the humbling fact that we are permitted to hold various offices, not because we are indispensable, but because of our beneficent friends.

Not being present to dismiss the By-Laws Committee, Mr. Wm. Crawford, Miss Jessie Webb, and Mr. J. Kenneth Kerby, I now do so, with grateful appreciation for the difficult task of revising and presenting our new By-Laws.

ATTENTION: The By-Laws Committee, for the convenience of the editorial staff, has changed the publishing dates of ANSEARCHIN' to February, May, August and November. This change becomes effective January 1, 1965.

REMEMBER, the dues ($5.00) of the Memphis Genealogical Society, including your subscription to ANSEARCHIN', are now due and payable for the year 1965. Please mail checks to Treasurer, Mrs. Charles W. Reid

Mrs. Robert Cox was the gracious hostess for the August study group. New member, Mr. Horace Colby, generously shared his material with interested members. Mrs. E. M. Standefer cordially invites the group to meet in her home at 727 Goodlett, on September 14th. In November, your President offers her home, 99 Cherokee Drive, Memphis.

Research Director, Mrs. Charlotte Elam, 494 Williamsburg Lane, Memphis, has acquired for the Society, without cost, a cabinet for our ancestor file cards. We appreciate this much needed equipment.

Let us continue to support the activities of the Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities which opens its recently restored "Fontaine House" soon.

Happy Ansearchin',

Cleo Webb (Mrs. Bunyan), President

Memphis, Tennessee
OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK:

Your editor has tried never to be critical of any printed work prepared by an individual, a society, or a publishing firm. However, there is a growing tendency to copy or duplicate records already in print, and which are currently being offered for sale by the person originally doing the research. We could work for years to come and never get everything into print. Why duplicate existing work (this has nothing to do with the reprinting of out-of-print material) when there is so much that has never been presented?

Several queries and some new book notices will be missing from this issue because your editor is assembling the edition in August in anticipation of a September-October vacation. Vacation plans include attending The Third Annual Oklahoma Conference on Genealogy, October 16-17, University of Oklahoma, Norman. Guest speaker for the Conference will be Dr. Conrad Swan, Rouge Dragon, Pursuivant of Arms, College of Arms, London.

FAMILY HISTORIES:

From our energetic member to the south, Judge Zelma Wells Price, comes two more volumes to add to the imposing array of genealogies she has compiled in recent years. The two new books, VOL. VI (part 3), THE BOLLING VOLUME and VOL. VII, THE ROBERTSON VOLUME, will be placed in the Genealogical Section of the Memphis Public Library where they can be enjoyed by all who wish to see them. The books are not for sale, but any person interested in knowing where they might see a copy should write Judge Price at P. O. Box 766, Greenville, Mississippi.

Another member of M3S, Myra Smith Fischer (Mrs. A.R.), 167 North Hollywood Street, Memphis, Tennessee, has arranged and compiled A ROTHWELL BOOK, Comprising the Descendants of Claiborne Rothwell of Albemarle County, Virginia. The book dates from Claiborne Rothwell who was born about 1747. The author has done a nice job of presenting the nine generations of this family, and has illustrated her work with many well preserved family portraits. We appreciate the copy of the book given our Society, and it will be placed in the library where all may see and use it. Price per copy is $11.00.

ANCESTORS ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM:

THE FONTAINE HOUSE, A HUGUENOT DESCENDANT'S HOME IN MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

Research by Eleanor D. Hughes (Mrs. T. P., Jr.), 4140 Chanwil Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee, August 1964

THE FONTAINE HOUSE is built of hand-made brick. Its walls are 14" to 16" thick, and rise from a full basement up through the first, second and third stories. A front tower section continues upward through fourth and fifth floor levels, with equivalent of a building six stories high. Filigreed iron decorates the mansard roof edge, somewhat like a tiara crowning an elegant lady. Stonecoat quoins at building corners and on front tower add interesting exterior detail.

Many local firms and artists have donated time, talent, services and materials to assure an authentic preservation of this home, built in 1871, which has stood nearly a hundred years.

The FONTAINE HOUSE, unfurnished, is scheduled to be opened Sept. 13, 1964 for one month to public view of its preserved basic loveliness. It will then be closed during a furnishing program, and re-opened at a winter 1964 date to be announced.

Of interest is the documentation, by compiler of this article, of the Huguenot lineage of Noland Fontaine I, whose family lived in the home from 1884 to 1928.

For details of the lineage of this branch of Fontaines, please turn the page.
The surname "Fontaine" is, of course, time-honored the world over among historians and genealogists, who recognize and salute the Huguenots (French Protestants) forced into exile for religious beliefs. After the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685, the New World was the hope of these devout and determined expatriates. As early as 1562, Admiral Coligny directed plans for asylum across the seas, but that attempted colonization on our shores did not succeed. The 1620 trip of the "Mayflower" was assisted financially, along with other exile migrations, by Huguenot silk weavers in Holland. But the Huguenots were largely homemakers rather than pathfinders, as revealed by history's pages.

Among the names recorded at Manakintowne, the 1700 French settlement in Powhatan County, Virginia where the rebuilt Huguenot Church welcomes hundreds of annual visitors, is that of FONTAINE. And now, at 680 Adams Avenue in Memphis-on-the-Mississippi, there stands a French-Victorian mansion bearing the name "Fontaine House," former home of a Huguenot descendant. It is the preservation and restoration civic project of the Memphis Chapter of Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities.

The Fontaine House was built by Amos Woodruff, native of New Jersey, in 1871 as disclosed by workmen's carved inscriptions found on the reverse of a sham door. A wealthy carriage manufacturer, Mr. Woodruff served as President of the Merchants National Bank and as director of several Memphis institutions. He imported craftsmen, some of Canadian and Danish origin, to ply skills of which some are lost arts today. In 1884 he exchanged residences with Noland Fontaine I, a prominent cotton factor and merchant.

Noland Fontaine I lived there until his death in 1912. For 44 years (1884 to 1928) it was occupied by the Fontaine family -- the scene of gracious living, much lavish entertaining, debut parties and weddings among the eight children. Thus it is still known today as the "Fontaine House," at 680 Adams Avenue.

History attached to the Fontaine House goes back further than 1871, however. Next door at 690 Adams Avenue, in 1843 William Harsson (native of Baltimore) had built a "little square brick house," where his daughter Laura continued to live after her marriage in 1849 to Charles Wesley Goyer. A distinguished citizen and merchant of the river town, Mr. Goyer added between 1853 and 1873 two sections to the house at 690 Adams, and an imposing front tower. After his death in 1881, it was acquired by Captain James Lee Jr., owner of the famous Lee Line packets and "floating river palaces" of that day. Thus the title "Lee House" came into use, at 690 Adams Avenue, and so remains today.

Miss Rosa Lee, Captain Lee's daughter, acquired about 1930 the adjoining Fontaine House. Then it was that the Lee and Fontaine Houses and the old carriage houses on the rear grounds became the home of Memphis' first Free Art School, eventually dedicated to posterity by Miss Rosa. Under directorship of Miss Florence McIntyre, granddaughter of C. W. Goyer, here for several decades the intent faces of art students were reflected in hugh gold pier mirrors on walls and over mantels. In the Carriage House a 100-seat auditorium was built, and here also the Memphis Little Theatre held sway before removing to our "Pink Palace" (the Memphis Museum, castle-like one-time home of Clarence Saunders on Central Avenue).

Miss Rosa's will directed that the James Lee Memorial properties, as an educational and cultural center, be held by the City of Memphis and for use of the Memphis Art Association's free school. The buildings deteriorated during and after the depression of the 1930's. In 1958 after the Memphis Academy of Arts built modern quarters in Overton Park, the old land-marks seemed destined for the bull-dozer and probable replacement by high-rise in-town apartments.

"Not so!" cried members of Memphis A.P.T.A. After a long struggle and A.P.T.A. rescue, came endorsement from the Tennessee Historical Commission and the Nat'l Trust for Historic Preservation. Financial aid came from the public, the State A.P.T.A., the Tennessee Historical Commission and the Tennessee Legislature. These funds followed an initial 1961 A.P.T.A. fund drive to save the homes.

The house, unfurnished, is scheduled to be opened September 13, 1964 for one month to public view of its preserved basic loveliness. It will then be closed during a furnishing program, and re-opened some time in winter 1964.

Research has proven that Noland Fontaine I was a direct descendant of an early Huguenot martyred in 1563 -- John de la Fontaine of France. As a young man, John received a commission in the house of Francis I, which he retained through the succeeding reigns of Henry II, Francis II, and until the second year of Charles IX. About 1534 he had embraced Protestantism with his father. He, his wife and eldest son were murdered in 1563 by soldiers of Charles IX. The lineage outline follows:

1st Generation: John (1) de la Fontaine. Born about 1500 in the Province of Maine on borders of Normandy. Martyred in 1563. His son,

2nd Generation: James (2), or Jaques, Fontaine, born in 1549 (married twice, died in 1633); fled to Rochelle, became a merchant. His son,

3rd Generation: (Reverend) James (3) Fontaine, born 1603, died 1666. Married (1st) in London in 1628 Miss Thompson, who died in 1640, by whom 5 children lived to maturity. Married (2nd) in 1641 Mlle. Marie Chaillon of Pons in Saintonge (she died age 63), by whom he also had 5 children, including a youngest son,

4th Generation: (Reverend) James (4) Fontaine, born April 7, 1658 at Jenouille, died in England. Married Feb. 8, 1686 in the Parish Church at Barnstaple, North Devon, England to Anne Elizabeth Boursiquot, daughter of Aaron Boursiquot and wife Jeanne Guillot (Anne died in Dublin Jan. 29, 1721). Rev: James Fontaine fled to England after the 1685 Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, landing on Dec. 6, 1685. He was admitted to holy orders by the Protestant Synod at Taunton, England on June 10, 1688. (Left an autobiography published in 1853.) His son,

5th Generation: (Reverend) Peter (5) Fontaine, born 1691 at Taunton, England; emigrated in 1716 to Virginia; died 1757. Rector of Westover Parish. Married (1st) Elizabeth Fourreau. Married (2nd) Elizabeth Wade. His son,

6th Generation: (Capt.) Aaron (6) Fontaine I; born Nov. 30, 1753 in Virginia. Lived in Louisa County where in 1779 he was commissioned as Ensign in a Louisa Militia Company of the American Revolution; received a land grant for services. Moved in 1796 to Kentucky (5,000 acres are recorded in Lincoln County, Ky. Land Grants in his name); settled on Harrod's Creek. Married (1st) on May 19, 1773 in Louisa County to Barbara Terrell, daughter of Richmond Terrell and wife Ann Overton, by whom he had 12 children. He died in April, 1823 in Louisville, Ky. By his 2nd wife Eliza (Whiting) Thruston he had 4 children, including a son,
Aaron B. (7) Fontaine. Born Sept. 4, 1811 in Kentucky, died Aug. 29, 1800. Married Mary Elliott (born in Ireland). In 1850 he was practicing law in Louisville, Ky. The first four of his children were born in Ind., including his son,

Noland (8) Fontaine I, born July 6, 1840 at Terre Haute; died Sept. 14, 1912 at Memphis, Shelby County, Tennessee where he married April 21, 1864 Virginia Eanes. At age 21 he came from Louisville, Ky. to Memphis and soon became head of the Hill, Fontaine & Co. cotton firm. A careful and conservative man, he served as a director of the First National Bank, Union Planters Bank, Merchants Cotton Compress & Storage Co. and Hernando Insur. Co., and as President of the Factors Insur. Co. At his death he had been engaged in Memphis business over 50 years. His wife died in 1928. Their children were:

1. Mollie (9), died in 1939. Married Dr. William W. Taylor.
2. Williamson (9), died in 1884. Unmarried.
5. Seward (9), died in 1886, aged 11 months.
7. Emma (9), died in 1951. Married Majors Louis Meacham.

FONTAINE ARMS: Argent, a fesse embattled between two elephant heads erased with tusks depressed in chief, in base a 3-masted ship with sails spread and flying a pennant. CREST: An elephant's head erased with tusks elevated. (Authorities: "American Armoury & Blue Book," p. 33 Armorial Addenda, Matthews, 1907; "Virginia County Records" Vol. 5, Crozier.)

Descendants of other branches of the Fontaines of Virginia also live in Memphis. Miss Zelia Fontaine's grandparents were Col. Charles Fontaine of Pontotoc, Mississippi and wife Sarah Ann Dandridge (also direct descendants of Patrick Henry), to whom the compiler is indebted for early Fontaine material. The compiler is a Fontaine descendant through the marriage of Rev. James (5) Fontaine, daughter of Rev. James (4) Fontaine and wife Anne Elizabeth Boursiquot, to Matthew Maury who emigrated in 1719 to Virginia and were among Manakintowne founders; their home was established on the Pamunky River at Hickory Hill in King William County, Virginia.

SOURCE REFERENCES FOR KITTRELL- TALBOT LINEAGES

The following references are given as proof of the lineages on the chart on page 163. Mrs. Kittrell has given only the most vital reference from many she has on each generation.

1) Marriage records Hill Co., Tex., V 8, p 49; Wills of both, recorded Dallas Co., Tex.
2) Qualls Family Bible.
4) Marriage record C & D, p 304 Monroe Co., Tenn., death certificate for #6, BVS, State of Mo.
5) Tombstone inscription for #9, Pannin Co., Tex., Skyrma Cemetery, statements of son #4.
6) Qualls (Charles) Family Bible Record; photostat on file DAR - also in personal file.
9) Tombstone inscriptions "Old Hay Creek Graveyard" Harpersville, Miss. Will of #26.
10) Census for both. Marriage record, Vol. 1857-1861, p 61, Smith Co., Tenn. Service as a Confederate Soldier confirmed by Affidavit of his Capt., Buck Moore. Notarized statement concerning these her parents, by Olivia Belle Sampson Talbot (DAR #491309) - also concerning her grandparents.
11) Census records. Many Deed and Court records of Monroe Co., Tenn. Father's Will. For #16, an inscribed Tombstone, New Hope Cemetery, Monroe Co., Tenn. #17 Unknown or unproven as yet.
18) "Macon Co. Times" of Fayette, Tenn., 1940. Census records. Affidavit of Olivia Bell Sampson Talbot, their gr.dau - and from much Family history told to me personally by my grandfather, John Sampson, their son, who lived in our home until I was past 20 years of age. Census. Plus same information as for #28 & #29.
19) Marriage records Granville Co. - Deed File #60, Orig. Will Monroe Co., Tenn. 1854. Deeds Wake Co., N. C., where they lived from their marriage in 1821 till after 1826. Tenn. Land Grants. Believe him to be son of Solomon Cittrell (Isaiah, Jonathan, Jonathan 1) - or of Solomon, son of Jonathan. But have never been able to prove. Need some help badly on this.
21) Will of father - Package N-1000-1899 Files, Williamson Co., Tenn. Many rec. of this man in this county.
24) See records under DAR #280-253 and 467-424. Also Will, on file among orig. court papers Bc/45-6 of Walton Co., Ga. in a large bundle in the Ga. State Archives. This will had been "buried" until it was unearthed in 1956. As a result, this William Talbot, a Rev. Sold., has been a shadowy figure in many written accounts of the Talbot family. His death date has been misquoted - and accepted as such - by as many as 15 years! And nowhere has he been credited with a second wife - as plainly shows in his will, and even the place of his death has been wrong. #49 was his first wife and mother of all his many children (all named in his will). Also see Family Bible mentioned above under #12. Need parents of #49. William Talbot was a Rev. Sold. and Patriot. "W&M 62 V 6, p 123; "Land Lottery" Ga., as Rev. Sold. 1826.

52) Will, Wilkes Co., Ga. Bk 1, p 85. Will Bk DB, p 52, Wilkes Co. Bible record of Charles R. Carter Mills shows birth dates, marriage and death dates for parents, John and Lucy Mills. Who were their parents? Could they have been Alexander and Alice (Alias) Mills of Wilkes Co. - with Alex's will prov. 11-1-1777 (Mixed records 1777-1778 p 13) leaving many children including a son "John?"

53) Deeds of Gift from Francis to sons Jesse and Stephen Samson (DB 8, p 46, Smith Co., Tenn.) Deeds of Gift to all his children - naming each 5-10-1843 (DB B, p 72-73, Smith Co., Tenn.) Census. Deed Bk 22, p 21, Halifax Co., Va. 1808 names his wife Lorana, also Hogan Creek Ch. Min. (See #112)

54) Census records Smith Co., Tenn. Deeds and Grants - Smith County.

55) Family Journal kept by James Shelton, son of #56 & #99, now owned by his gr.dau Mrs. Cora Winfrey, Smith Co.

56) I apologize for placing this name here - as only family tradition says it is so. Need proof.

57) Nothing on her.

58) Census records Smith Co., Tenn. Deeds and Grants - Smith County.

59) Nothing solid. Believe her father to be William Atkins - but can't prove.

60) - (99) Nothing.

61) - (71) Nothing.

62) All records point to this name. The names of his known sons in Eloungt Co., Tenn. and their very close relationship and dealings with each other and with Richard Gay - the naming of all their children - including daughters named "Mary C." - and the naming of their children after each other. Ages also conform. Need further proof that the sons of William and Mary Craig Gay of Eloungt Co., Tenn. included William, Samuel, Alexander and Richard.

67) - (87) Nothing. Need help on these.

69) Same. Census records - and Probate Williamson County.

70) - (91) Nothing.

200) Mark Anthony on Quit Rent Roll of New Kent in 1704.

201) Came to Henrico ca 1699 and 1700-1710 Isabella Hart, dau of John and Susannah (Rush) Hart. John Hart and W Susannah and "several children" ca over 1685. Other accounts in "Va. Hist. Mag." 80, 92, 1952; "McKenzie's Va." 6, pp 204-5 and "Virginia Genealogical Record of 1776" (Va. Hist. Soc. of Va.) 1867 (ibid. of Cons. - 1667). He was the son of William Rush, and was on the passenger list of the "Amity." ("Historic Homes & Institutions & Gen. & Personal Memoirs of Chester Co. & Pa." by Gilbert Cope & Henry Graham.) Also, the early Quaker notes "Friends' Miscellany" 7, p 100 says John Hart and W Susannah and "several children" ca over 1665. Among the records of the H. T. H. Hart Family of Pa. (ibid. of Cons. - 1667) says Susannah Rush was dau of William and Aurelia Rush who ca to Am. with Wa. Penn 1682 with their 6 children of whom John Hart took one ... to wife in the Summer or fall of 1683. "John Hart b 11-16-1651 at Strine, Oxfordshire, England to Christopher Hart and W Mary - was granted over 1000 acres of land by Wa. Penn July of 1681 and was a preacher of ability and influence." Was a member of the Assembly for Philadephia Co. at its first session in March of 1683, and served on the first grand jury in the State of Pa.

202) Christopher Clarke m Penelope 1. (When?) Born before 1700, he became a Va. Lawyer, made his will 8-14-1701 and it was probated 5-20-1702. Left his large accumulation of law books to his son Bolling. This was in Louisa Co., Va. This name "Bolling" or "Boulting" is the only lead I have found that might take us to Penelope's family. Christopher was a Justice of Louisa Co. in 1714 and law partner of Nicholas Meriwether who called him "Captain Clarke." He was a Quaker and in 1749 "Overseer" of the Quaker Meeting near Sugarloaf mountain. "Hist. of Albermarle" by Rev. Edgar Wood, and "Quaker Records," would be "proof of parentage" of this couple. Was he son of Christopher Clarke who lived in Barbados 1679 with 50 ac and 31 negro slaves? Or of Edward who was also in Barbados at that time? Or of the widow Margaret Clarke who among the Clark clan in Barbados owned the most acreage, white servants and negro slaves? "Orig. List of Persons of Quality" p 475, Hotten - listing inhabit. of Christ Church Parish in Barbados. Was he descended from the Christopher Clarke and his sister (or wife?) Mrs. Elizabeth Clarke, who were mentioned with bequests in the will of Ann Ingoldsby, widow, of Frieston, England - 1-2-1669, naming them as her bro and sis. ("Lincoln Consistory Court Wills 1659, Folio 297")

204) We are the parents of Henry Tate #102? My research has failed to prove anything on this line. It is a coincidence, however, that the parents of Matthew Talbot last (no.30) are said by many references (including Burke Peerage) to have been Thomas Talbot (son of the 10th Earl of Shrewsbury) and Ann, dau of Sir John Tate. Then, we find ch. of the same names living in the same area in Va. at the same time and marrying connecting families.

205) Who were the parents of Sarah Tate? Who m Henry Tate? They named one of their daughters "Sarah Henry" Tate. But of course, this is not too meaningful.

206) William Willis m Sarah Tate. 1. as her 1st husband and was succeeded in this capacity by husband Wood, Rush, Hudson, and Turberville. As Sarah Turberville, she did and her will was probated 5-20-1761, Orange Co. Will Bk 2, p 310. What her name was when she married Willis, I have never learned. William d 1717 and was the son of John Willis (1648-1717) who was granted land in Hanover Parish, King George Co., Va., 10-21-1669 and whose will was proven in Richmond Co., Va., 1-6-1715. For proof of father to son relationship see Deed Bk 2, p 106, King Geo. Co. and Deed Bk 3, p 68, Richmond Co., Va.

225) William Sampson (Sampson) b before 1730 in Henrico or Goochland Co., Va. d 1803 Halifax Co., Va. Married bef. 10-5-1778. In Goochland Co. Will of Thomas Sampson for brother Joseph, who called him "Captain Clarke." He was a Quaker and in 1749 "Overseer" of the Quaker Meeting near Sugarloaf mountain, Nephew of "Va. Hist. Mag. 9-220. "Hist. of Albermarle" by Rev. Edgar Wood, and "Quaker Records," would be "proof of parentage" of this couple. Was he son of Christopher Clarke who lived in Barbados 1679 with 50 ac and 31 negro slaves? Or of Edward who was also in Barbados at that time? ("Lincoln Consistory Court Wills 1659, Folio 297")

226) William Sampson (Sampson) b before 1730 in Henrico or Goochland Co., Va. d 1803 Halifax Co., Va. Married bef. 10-5-1778. In Goochland Co. Will of Thomas Sampson for brother Joseph, who called him "Captain Clarke." He was a Quaker and in 1749 "Overseer" of the Quaker Meeting near Sugarloaf mountain, Nephew of "Va. Hist. Mag. 9-220. "Hist. of Albermarle" by Rev. Edgar Wood, and "Quaker Records," would be "proof of parentage" of this couple. ("Lincoln Consistory Court Wills 1659, Folio 297")

249) Mr. W. E. Garrison, a fam. genealogist worked many years on the Kyle line, of which he was a descendant.

249) (#124-5) The record as given to Mrs. D. D. Garrison of Bartlesville, Okla. and by her sent to me, contained no proofs. However, inasmuch as all the records pertaining to the Kyles who remained in Botetourt Co., Va. (and whose recorded records I have) are borne out in Mr. Garrison's chart, I assume the record of David Kyle's fam. is also correct. Even so, I quote it as an assumption until I find Authentication. According to Mr. Garrison, John William Kyle of Kyle, Ayrshire, Scotland as the first known ancestor. His son Robert Kyle b 1708 Co. Tyrone, Ireland, ca to Am. 1736-9 and settled in Albermarle Co., Va. He was missing the name of Robert's wife but quoted his children as being: 1. Joseph; 2. William; 3. David b 1736 in Elizabeth Chambers and had: (a) Nancy m her cousin, Barclay Kyle, son of William; (b) Jane m Guy Lee; (c) Barclay who m Jane, sister to Guy Lee, and moved to Smith Co., Tenn.; (d) Joseph who m Miss Penn of Nelson Co., Va.; (e) Roland m Sophia Jane of Amherst Co.; (f) Pocohontas died; (g) George Washington m 1st William Kings; 2nd Garrard; 3rd John; 4. Robert, son of Robert; 5. DeW; 6. Jane. Then he lists the family of James Kyle (No. 2 above, son of Robert) who settled in Botetourt and whose children married into families of Rowland, Pogue, Beale, Dickenson, McCausland, Price, Pitts, Runnels, McDonald and Kyle. I should like more information on the family of David Kyle above who is stated as having the son Barclay Kyle who moved to Smith Co., Tenn.
