THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear TGS Members,

TGS - TENNESSEE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. Doesn't that sound interesting? With such an impressive title we shall strive to live up to it and equal and surpass, if possible, the past administrations.

May I introduce your elected officers for 1966-1968:

Vice-President: Mr. William L. Crawford. Bill, a traffic expert with the Postoffice Department, will guide us along rewarding genealogical paths with excellent programs.

Treasurer: Mrs. James A. Murphy. Frances, a Certified Professional Secretary, is tops in her profession and will keep us in the black.

Recording Secretary: Mrs. Henry Norfleet Moore. Betty is a housewife with an eye for antiques and a torch for genealogy.

Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. Byron G. Hyde. Myrtis has a flare for genealogy and willingness to help her fellowmen.

Librarian: Mrs. Bunyan Webb. Cleo's work as our just past President speaks eloquently for her. She requests suggestions on good books to purchase for the library.

Director of Research: Miss Jessie T. Webb. Jessie's job is three-fold: Directing the collection of original source material; Helping individual members with research problems, which will be taken care of in our workshops this year; and Receiving charts and filing lineage cards in the Master Index, from which she will answer queries if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

Editor: Mrs. Charlotte E. Elam. "Dee" is a rare phenomenon, a 'jack of many trades and good at all'. Last year, "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS reached its largest circulation.

Advisor: Mrs. James B. Cartwright. Betty Goff, a former President, co-authored with your President the early Tennessee source book, NORTH CAROLINA LAND GRANTS IN TENNESSEE, 1778-1791.

Advisor: Mrs. Frank B. Liddell. Rebecca has two loves, music and genealogy. She holds national office in musical circles.

Advisor: Mr. John J. Valentine. John has served our society in so many helpful ways we feel most fortunate to have him on the advisory committee. Between times, he published a book on his family lines.

Parliamentarian: Mrs. Lois D. Bejach. Wilena, an attorney, is also a past President of the society.

Goals set up yardsticks by which we may measure our progress. Let us all work toward these goals:

1. Collection of Tennessee source materials (Bible and cemetery records, diaries, wills, deeds, marriages, etc.) for publication.
2. Individual members' material in typescript or print. A copy to us is insurance against loss by fire or disaster.
3. Workshops for Senior and Junior Genealogists.
4. Complete file of genealogical materials at Cossitt-Goodwyn Library.
5. A Genealogical Seminar in the Fall.
6. Establishment of qualifications for "Fellowships" in TGS.

The hour from 11 a.m. to 12 Noon will be set aside at our regular day meetings for any routine business that needs attention and for interim reports from officers and committee chairmen. We also plan to have a speaker, usually one of our members, give a short talk on topics of interest. A Junior Workshop for members who need help will be led by Mrs. L.D. Bejach, Chairman, from 10 to 11 a.m. at both the February and March meetings. "Charts - How To And Why" is the topic for February. Senior Workshops will be held later.

Mrs. R.L. Cox has arranged our evening meetings to be held at the Memphis Public Library, 258 South McLean, from 7 until 10 p.m., on April 18, July 18, and October 17, 1966. Our daytime study meetings will be held from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. with the following hostesses:

February 21, 1966: Mrs. Henry Norfleet Moore, 33 South Yates Road
March 21, 1966: Mrs. W. Osceola Gordon, 2780 Natchez Lane
May 16, 1966: Mrs. Otis Jones, 3693 Central Avenue
June 20, 1966: Mrs. Thomas L. Phillips, 1813 Carr Avenue
September 19, 1966: Mrs. James Cartwright, 4533 Park Avenue
November 21, 1966: Mrs. Myron Scruggs and Mrs. Frank Bright, 32 South Evergreen.

Looking forward to seeing many of you at the meetings, and with sincere good wishes to all our members for a wonderful year.

Happy Ansearchin'

BOOK REVIEWS BY JOSEPH KENNON SMITH

SOME TURNERS OF VIRGINIA (1965, Mrs. Lucius D. Turner, IV, 2526 West Newton, Route 6, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74127. Price $4.50)

This double-indexed genealogy is cleverly compiled and neat. It begins with "Old Terisha" Turner who founded his family in Albemarle and Amherst counties, Virginia, during the latter half of the eighteenth century. The reader may advantageously turn to lineage diagrams located in the middle of the book, an aid to the index. The compiler was prudent in her choice of records, utilizing public and military records in substantiating her lineages. Anyone falling within range of this descent should benefit from this TURNERS.

PIONEERS OF ROANE COUNTY, TENNESSEE (1965, Mrs. Mable Harvey Thornton, Rockwood, Tennessee. Price $10.00)

This is another of the excellent record-abstract compilations coming our way from East Tennessee lately, and a meritorious volume it is. Within it is an 1819 map of Tennessee (a fascinating item for those of us with early-day roving ancestors in the broad Tennessee territory), early tax lists, voters, muster-rolls (including those of the Creek War, 1813-1814), school reports, etc. This is a solidly bound secondary resource, chuck-full of thousands of surnames.

MISSISSIPPI GENEALOGICAL NOTES, NO. I (1965, Norman E. Gillis, 1485 West Chimes Street, Baton Route, Louisiana. Price $5.00)

A commendable genealogical aid, this compilation of the Gillises, as they state in the Preface: "We have abstracted basic data from the various biographies of executive, official, and legislative officials, contained in the Register (Mississippi Official and Statistical Registers of 1917) and arranged these data in alphabetical order". There are many counties and localities mentioned. A representative notation reads: Rogers, Ben. G., BA 1850. Married Mary Kirby and lived in Lebanon, Tenn. He was a soldier in the Civil War.

ABSTRACTS OF THE RECORDS OF THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS IN INDIANA, Part Two. (Edited by Willard Heiss, 1965. Indiana Historical Society, 140 North Senate Ave., Indianapolis, Indiana. Price: $10.00, paper cover; $12.50, clothbound)

The first volume of this set dealt with the history and customs of the Friends Society, more commonly known as the Quakers. "In it will be found lists of early Friends meetings in the Midwest and where they are located". Anyone familiar with the monumental Friends records edited by the late William W. Hinshaw will feel right at home in these concisely, beautifully prepared pages. It is a splendid memorial to exacting and well-prepared genealogical material. The Wayne, Randolph and Jay counties, Indiana, monthly meetings records are bountifully abstracted and classified according to surnames alphabetically listed.

A GENEALOGY OF WILLIAM MARROTT AND LOUISA FOWLKE, LATTER-DAY SAINT PIONEERS. (1965, Dr. Kenneth C. Bullock, 1035 North Ninth East, Provo, Utah. No price listed.)

In keeping with the genealogical zeal of his faith, Dr. Bullock has produced a thorough and attractive account of the William Marrotts and their descendants in present-day America.

EARLY EAST TENNESSEE TAX LISTS (by Mary Barnett Curtis, 1964. Arrow Printing Co., 1208 Commerce Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102, $7.50)

To quote the compiler, "This book was compiled to assist those who are looking for people in the 22 East Tennessee counties for which there was no 1820 census". In order to effect this, the tax lists of the numerous counties have been selectively chosen and reported in this volume.

THE TENNESSEE CENSUS INDEX PROGRAM

Would you like to participate in a non-profit program to copy and index by counties the 1850 Census of Tennessee? There were 79 counties in the 1850 census. A capable typist, using a reading machine and typing directly from the film, can put about fifty names on an ordinary letter-sized page. Information from the films will be:

1. Stamped number in upper right corner. (This covers two pages.)
2. District, town or ward
3. Date of enumeration
4. Name of every person in the family unit
5. Age, sex and color of each person in the household
6. Place of birth of each person
7. Profession, occupation or trade of each male person
8. Value of real estate and personal property.

A county population of 10,000 can be tabulated in the foregoing manner on about 200 typewritten pages, and the index pages would take about 8 or 10 pages.

A non-profit organization to be known as "The Tennessee Census Index Program" is now being set up to compile this index. The individual county indexing job lends itself to individual accomplishment or, at most, the collaboration of a very few. Recognition will be given to all who thus participate.

When the first rough draft, typed directly from the film, has been made and then a final copy has been typed, this can be microfilmed and also can be photo-offset printed to go into a bound volume at costs well within reason. Already an offer has been made to microfilm, at no cost to this program, the proposed tabulation and index of each county in the entire state of Tennessee. As for printing in a bound volume the proposed tabulation for any one or for all of the Tennessee counties, this question can well be left for later consideration when the work is further advanced.

What is needed now are dedicated workers who can find the time and capably use a typewriter (or can procure and contribute the services of a capable typist) and who will volunteer alone or in conjunction with one or two others, to tabulate and index the 1850 Census of one Tennessee county. Each volunteer should state his preferences for two or more counties in case his first preference has already been assigned to another volunteer.

U. S. Census film will be loaned to the volunteer to whom a county has been assigned. If the volunteer does not have access to a reading machine and is not in a position to pay the rental of a reading machine alone or with the help of interested friends, funds will be supplied to cover this expense item. Such request should state as accurately as possible the length of time required and the rental charge of the machine.

From those interested persons who cannot participate in the typing work but want to advance the program, relatively small contributions may be given to "The Tennessee Census Index Program" to pay for the U.S. Census films, for the rental of film reading machines, and the final typing of sheets preparatory to microfilming or photo-offset printing. It will serve in either case.

Those who are interested in giving sufficient time to copy the census information on one county, and those who would be interested in contributing funds to advance the index program, please write or contact

FIVE GENERATION CHARTS

The Tennessee Genealogical Society can supply five generation charts for the family lines you are researching. If you would like charts, they may be ordered, two for five cents, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MASTER SURNAME INDEX

The Master Surname Index of The Tennessee Genealogical Society contains several thousand cards representing individuals found in the family trees of many of our members.

Won't you please help all of the members by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card for each member of your family tree?

These cards will be indexed and added to our file to assist everyone working on a similar family. Send as many cards as you wish. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

Please follow this outline in preparing your cards:

Surname	First Name	Middle Name	M or F
B. _____	Where _____
D. _____	Where _____
M. _____	Where _____
Name of Spouse: _____
Your Name _____
Address _____
City, State, Zip _____

Cards should be typed or printed. Be sure that your name and address do not cover the round circled area at the lower center of the card. That space will be drilled to accomodate the rods of the file drawers.

Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th Century is a different person from someone (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th Century.

Please mail all cards and requests for information to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, Post Office Box 12124, Memphis, Tennessee 38112.

Requests for information from the file will be sent upon receipt of a STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED envelope.

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

At the beginning of a new year, everyone needs something else new, and we have a new name! The State of Tennessee sent our amended charter in December, 1965, and all of us are now members of THE TENNESSEE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. We have attempted to make our coverage State-wide since publication of "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS began in 1954. We believe our new name will be more representative of our aims.

With the new year well started, there are many new genealogical books on the market:

Richard T. and Mildred C. Williams, 3374 N.W. 35th St., Miami, Florida 33142, in addition to their magazines THE PENNSYLVANIA TRAVELER and THE GENEALOGIST'S POST, are advertising several publications on Pennsylvania data including several Philadelphia Church records, and other records of Montgomery and Bucks Counties. Write them for a list of these.

Mrs. John T. Martin and Mrs. Louis C. Hill, 3227 Ferndale Avenue, Waco, Texas 76706 have published Volume I of MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS, RECORDS. Their purpose is to replace many of the records for the period 1837-1874 which were lost in a courthouse fire. Included are original land grants and patents, index to the 1850 census and 33 pages of records from the oldest cemeteries along the Brazos. Price $7.50.

The Society of The Mayflower Descendants in the State of Illinois, 1134 Wildwood Lane, Glenview, Illinois 60025, has published a record of its members. It contains the detailed line of descent from a Mayflower passenger to each member of the Society. The volume is available in a leather binding for $32.95 or in Cordoba binding for $25.75.

The Genealogical Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 107 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, sent a copy of their booklet PEDIGREE REFERRAL SERVICE SUPPLEMENT which describes another service provided by them for all genealogists. They wish to assist in reducing the duplication of research. Persons interested should contact them for registration forms.

The East Tennessee Historical Society, Lawson McGhee Library, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902, has published a CUMULATIVE INDEX to its Annual PUBLICATIONS, Numbers 21-35, for the years 1949-1963. The price of this index is $7.50.

Walker P. Nance, Rt. 5, Box 118-A, Austin, Texas 78745, has organized a Nance Book Fund to republish THE NANCE MEMORIAL which was originally published in 1904 by George W. Nance of Bloomington, Illinois. It is reported to contain all descendants of Zacariah Nance, Revolutionary soldier who had many Tennessee descendants. Orders should be accompanied with a check for $10.00, and Mr. Nance says money will be refunded if not enough orders are received to reprint the volume.

The Central Texas Genealogical Society, c/o Waco Public Library, 1717 Austin Ave., Waco, Texas 76701, has published McLENNAN COUNTY, TEXAS, CEMETERY RECORDS, Volume I, a 233 page book, for $7.50.

Mrs. H.P. Leeper, 1112 - 17th Avenue South, Nashville, Tennessee, has abstracted the long-out-of-print SPENCE'S HISTORY OF HICKMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE, and offers copies of the mimeographed, bound abstract for $5.00. Also included are data on Dickson, Humphreys, Perry, Lewis, Maury, and Williamson counties.

In 1945, two of our charter members, Elisabeth Wheeler Francis and Ethel Sivley Moore, published a book LOST LINKS which contained many genealogical data from many States. Both of these members passed away some years ago, and their splendid work was thought to be out of print. Recently, a trunk of copies was discovered, and the volumes have been placed on sale again at $10.00 each. The book may be ordered from Mrs. Mary Francis Etzold, 1220 E. Cincinnati, El Paso, Texas 79902.

A new genealogical group, THE SOUTHERN ARIZONA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, was established in May 1965. Those interested in membership should contact Mrs. Thomas P. Salyer, 1801 S. Avenida Del Sol, Tucson, Arizona 85710. We wish you much success and welcome you to the field.

THE HUTCHESON GENEALOGY has been prepared and emphasizes the family and descendants of Charles (1763-1839) and Rebecca (1767-1846) Hutcheson of Virginia and Tennessee. Orders should be placed with Maude Sneed, 1801 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas 76107, the pre-publication price being $4.00 and after publication $5.00.

Mr. Norman E. Gillis, 1485 West Chimes St., Baton Rouge, Louisiana, has several Mississippi volumes for sale. They are MISSISSIPPI GENEALOGICAL NOTES, $5.00; EARLY INHABITANTS OF THE NATCHEZ DISTRICT, $8.00; ABSTRACTS OF GOODSPEED'S MISSISSIPPI MEMOIRS, $20.00; 1820 MISSISSIPPI CENSUS, $10.00; and 1830 MISSISSIPPI CENSUS, $12.50.

Garrett and Lightfoot, Fairview Drive, Mount Pleasant, Tennessee 38474, announce their new book MAURY COUNTY, TENNESSEE, CHANCERY COURT RECORDS, 1810-1860, Volume I, is ready for shipment. The book contains 340 pages, and the cost is $10.00 postpaid.

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS, EVERGREEN CEMETERY, MURFREESBORO, RUTHERFORD COUNTY, TENNESSEE, an indexed 208 page volume, may be ordered from Mrs. Charles Embry, 6305 St. Henry Drive, Nashville, Tennessee 37205. The price is $7.50.

The Micro Photo Division, Bell & Howell Co., 1700 Shaw Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44112, has a reprint program of genealogy books. They feature THE INDEX TO 1810 CENSUS OF PENNSYLVANIA for $30.00, and also have a list of some 50 or more other volumes.

Mrs. Emma Robertson Matheny, 1718 Glenview Road, Richmond, Virginia 23222, announces the publication HIGHLAND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1850 CENSUS, price $6.50. She comments that Highland County was only formed in 1847 from parts of Bath and Pendleton counties, but the census enumerator saw fit to show the exact birthplace of each resident, so many persons born in Augusta and surrounding counties, including those now within West Virginia, are located.

The Florida Genealogical Society, 220 Beach Place, Tampa, Florida 33606, was chartered by the State in 1958. The group has started publication of a newsletter, and plans to release two issues in 1966. Subscriptions will be $1.00 per year. Queries and advertisements (38 words or less) will cost $1.00. Our congratulations and best wishes for your success.

We also wish to extend congratulations to The Genealogical Society of Riverside, Mrs. Laurence L. Tiffany, President, 4145 Jackson, Riverside, California. Their first bulletin comments that they have many unpublished records. Their dues are $5.00 per year.

THE PARRISH FAMILY EXCHANGE is published by Mrs. Jay H. Ross, 10455 S.E. 86th Street, Renton, Washington 98056. This quarterly magazine's subscription price is $2.00 a year.

Do all members of the Haines, Hanes, Haynes (any variant) family know about the HAYNES EAGLE? It is a family research bulletin, published quarterly, annual membership $3.00. If interested, contact Mrs. Miles S. Quinn, Route 1, Box 354, Creswell, Oregon 97426.

Deane Porch, Route 2, River Road, Nashville, Tennessee 37209, advises that his book, TAX RECORD OF MARSHALL COUNTY, TENNESSEE, 1839-1841, is ready for delivery. Price $5.00. This county was formed in 1836 from parts of Maury, Lincoln and Rutherford.

The Eastchester Historical Society, Town Hall, 40 Mill Road, Eastchester, New York

10709 has published the RECORDS OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH of Eastchester. Volume I contains the Register from 1787 to 1834. Price $7.50. Volume II contains the Church Receipts, the Deacon's Book and the Sexton's Book, dates ranging between 1787 and 1851. Price $10.00.

Our congratulations to the North Texas Genealogical and Historical Association, 3107 Cumberland, Wichita Falls, Texas 76309. This association was chartered in 1965, and will publish a monthly bulletin called NORTH TEXAS PIONEERS. Annual dues $3.00.

The Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202 is advertising several books: SOUTH CAROLINIANS IN THE REVOLUTION by Sara Sullivan Ervin, $10.00; MARRIAGE NOTICES IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA GAZETTE, by A.S. Salley, Jr.; and an indexed edition of IMMIGRANTS TO PENNSYLVANIA, 1727-1776, $12.50. Their catalog No.212, The South, contains many basic genealogical reference books, arranged by states. Another catalog describes the genealogical works of John Bennett Boddie. A special catalog shows the seven volumes of COLONIAL FAMILIES OF THE UNITED STATES. These seven volumes can be purchased for $100.00. The individual prices vary. VIRGINIA WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS by Clayton Torrence has been reprinted. The price is $10.00. THE HISTORY OF CAPE COD by Frederick Freeman, two volumes, is available for $45.00. PENNSYLVANIA OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE, 1777-1789, price $7.50; STRYKER'S REGISTER OF NEW JERSEY IN THE REVOLUTION, price $7.50; and BOLTON'S MARRIAGE NOTICES, 1785-1794, price $7.50, are three new reprints.

Our good member, Mr. Talbot Feild, 2501 Hickory, Texarkana, Ark.-Tex., writes about our October-December issue of 1965, Page 170, where, among the Tennessee lawyers, is listed Wm. H. Field of Pulaski. Mr. Feild advises us that this man's full and correct name was William Hume Feild. He lived in or near Pulaski, Giles County, Tennessee, married Mary Amanda Flournoy, and moved to Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1843, where he was a Judge. One of his children, Silas Flournoy Feild married Jane Marshall Talbot in 1854, in Jackson, Tennessee. Their child, Silas Talbot Feild, was born in 1855, married Annie Rose Terry, and they were the parents of our correspondent.

Mrs. R.D. Deford of Cookeville, Tennessee, has contributed the following tidbit from the Cookeville newspaper, THE CITIZEN, of February 6, 1962. Mrs. Mae Stockton, 627 Douglas Street, Cookeville, was having a drainage ditch dug across her property. A tombstone was unearthed! The data are: Adam Haun, born Dec. 26, 1811, died May 11, 1877. Mrs. Stockton would like to hear from any of Mr. Haun's long-lost relatives and would be glad to surrender the stone to them.

One of our members, Mrs. G.W. Buhler, Jr., 3606-58th Street, Lubbock, Texas, is looking for information about William Washington Moore. She wrote the archives in Washington and received the service record of a Confederate soldier named W.W. Moore, but he is not the man for whom she was searching. She sent the record to us, and the data are: W.W. Moore, Private, 2d Company A, 10 Regiment Tennessee Cavalry, enlisted Nov. 16, 1862, in Humphreys County, Tennessee, by Captain T.J. Whitfield, for a term of three years, last paid by Major Severson, April 30, 1863.

CORRECTION: The following name and page number should be added to the 1965 index:

Eisele 164

We apologize to Miss Florence Eisele of Natchez, Mississippi, for this omission.

Our 1964 volume of "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS is out-of-print, and we do not have plans to reprint the volume before late in 1967 or in 1968. Mrs. Hickman Riley, 4825 Montgomery Avenue, Downers Grove, Illinois 60515, has a copy of the volume, and offers to photo-copy it in exchange for a photo-copy of our 1960 and 1961 volumes.

INVITATION TO FUNERAL OF MISS ORA LEE FOREMAN, OCTOBER 24, 1885

Mrs. L.D. Bejach, 43 Belleair Drive, Memphis, Tennessee 38104, recently broused through a Memphis used furniture store and found the following funeral notice inserted between the leaves of an old Bible.

"FUNERAL NOTICE The Friends and Acquaintances of MRS. MATTIE FOREMAN are Respectfully Invited to Attend the Funeral of Her Daughter, Ora Lee Foreman, From the Christian Church Tomorrow (Sunday) Morning, at 9 o'clock. Services at the Church by Rev. R.W. Dunlap. Interment at City Cemetery. Paris, October 24, 1885."

We believe the Paris referred to is Paris, Tennessee, county seat of Henry County. This fragile paper on which the invitation is printed, with its black border, is offered to the first Foreman descendant who asks for it.

SHILOH CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CEMETERY, MCKENZIE, CARROLL COUNTY, TENNESSEE

NORTH CAROLINIANS IN TENNESSEE

Part II.

(Contributed by Hugh B. Johnston, Jr., Route 4, Box 133, Wilson, North Carolina)

Henry Pitt, son of Robert Pitt and wife Mary Bridger of Edgecombe County, was born 1759 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, and died February 13, 1845, in Sumner County, Tennessee, whither he had gone in 1796. His brother, Joseph Pitt, arrived in Sumner County about 1807, but removed in 1816 to Muhlenburg, Kentucky, where he died March 16, 1836. Both had served from Edgecombe County in the Revolutionary War. Henry's daughter, Susannah Pitt, married Samuel Frost Dorris and, about 1825, settled on Front Street in Nashville.

Samuel Burdette Eskridge of Roane County, Tennessee, is said to have bequeathed his fortune to his nephew, Frederick Gible Thomas, Jr. It is a matter of record that Frederick G. Thomas, Sr. was born in Edgecombe (now Wilson) County, North Carolina, spent the better part of his life in Hancock County, Georgia, and died testate in 1851 in Macon County, Alabama. The grandfather, Rev. John Thomas, was a preacher in North Carolina before settling in Georgia and founding the Shoulderbone Creek Baptist Church in 1790.

On August 9, 1803, Josiah Horn of Montgomery County, Tennessee, sold Jonas Williams of Nash County, North Carolina, for L55.0.0 Virginia currency, 320 acres south of Great Swamp adjoining Cobb and Benjamin Flowers; witnessed by William Hall. (Nash County, Deed Book 7, p. 145) His parents were Henry and Lurana Horn of Nash County.

Joseph Philips moved from Edgecombe County in 1791 to Davidson County, Tennessee. About 1782 he had married Milberry Horn, daughter of William Horn and wife Mary Thomas of Edgecombe County.

Moses Horn of Shelby County, Tennessee, and Feliciana Parish, Louisiana, was from Halifax County, North Carolina, and his parents were presumably Moses and Milly (Amelia) Horn of Northampton County.

On June 4, 1792, William Deloach "of the Territory South of Ohio Cumberland Davidson County" appointed his brother, Samuel Deloach, and Simeon Horn of Edgecombe County his attorneys; witnessed by Rhody Allen and Henry Bloodworth. (Edgecombe County, Deed Book 6, p. 506)

On July 19, 1802, Hardy Bloodworth of Sumner County, Tennessee, gave a power of attorney to Simeon Horn of Edgecombe County; witnessed by Richard Powell and Henry (x) Bloodworth. (Edgecombe County, Deed Book 10, p. 331) On October 4, 1802, Henry (x) Bloodworth gave Simeon Horn a power of attorney; witnessed by Lamont Ruffin, Etheldred Ruffin, and James G. Lamont. (Deed Book 10, p. 350)

Urias Johnson, son of Travis Johnson, married Jane Carrell in Johnston County in 1794 and was living in Maury County, Tennessee, in 1809, and in Hickman County in 1813.

Joshua White, son of William and Martha White, was born about 1785 in Edgecombe (now Wilson) County, North Carolina, and died about 1866 in Marshall County, Tennessee, where he had lived as early as 1831.

On May 27, 1828, Elizabeth Benson, daughter of Jacob (?) Benson and wife Judah Woodward, married in Edgecombe County, Patrick Boyt "late of Tennessee." They apparently went to Tennessee in 1829, but by 1840 had moved to Calhoun County, Mississippi.

On April 23, 1851, an affidavit in Breathitt County, Kentucky, indicated that Thomas and Sarah Stapleton were married October 1783 in Rowan County, North Carolina, lived five or six years on farm of father of Thomas T. Johnston (born 1771) and Robert R. Johnston (born 1776). All were later in Sullivan County, Tennessee, and later in Kentucky. Robert Johnston married Rachel Helton.

On November 20, 1806, Priscilly (x) Brake of Montgomery County, Tennessee, sold Moses Spicer of Edgecombe County, for $70.00, her dower in 207 acres that belonged to the late Benjamin Brake on the north side of Tyancokey Swamp on Great Swamp and Little Swamp; witnessed by John Proctor, Aaron Proctor, and James Reasons. (Edgecombe County, Deed Book 12, pp. 38/40) She was the widow of Benjamin Brake who had died in 1795 in financial difficulties, as a result of which the Sheriff had sold three tracts of his land. (Deed Book 8, pp. 332 and 509; Deed Book 9, p. 168)

Answer of Samuel Bennett filed in the Supreme Court at Knoxville...he supposed the note marked Exhibit "A" is a true copy of the note executed by said Walker...but that said note was executed at Calhoun in the State of Tennessee and was given for money loaned...at the City of Washington for the purpose of paying his tavern Bill and bearing his expenses home as said Walker told this Defendant he was without money...note not given for a gambling consideration...Some time after he passed through this Country to attend the land sales in Alabama...called on said Walker at Calhoun and then settled with him and took an Indian Poney at sixty dollars...left balance of $234 for which he took said Walker's note...Respondant states he was not at the city of Washington in November 1819 nor for some months before nor has he been since..

Samuel Bennett swore to the above before James Park (JP) in Knox County, 21 Feb. 1824 and signed, Saml Bennett.

The decree handed down by the Honorable Jacob Peck, one of the Judges of the Supreme Courts &c setting(sic) at Kingston, Tennessee...Complainant was drawn in by the defendant in a state of intoxication to gamble...won that and much more from him gambling unfairly...hereby perpetually enjoined and stayed from the collection of the judgment...said Samuel Bennett...pay costs of case...

Pages 72-78 June Term 1825: John Goddard VS Matthew Russell. John Goddard made bond with Wm. Campbell and William Goddard his security, to prosecute his case, filed in the Supreme Court of Errors and Appeals for the Second Circuit Court held at Knoxville, 7 Nov. 1820.

...Orator John Goddard of the county of Knox, (Tenn.)...early in 1818 your Orator and a certain Jonathan Pickle descended the rivers Holston* and Tennessee to what is now the State of Alabama with a quantity of Indian corn...Pickle had been previously in that Country, and had promised a quantity of corn to a certain L. Vaughn who then resided and still resides there. (At Gunter's landing they found Matthew Russell).. of the county aforesaid who had likewise descended the river with corn. (Vaughn desirous of the corn for himself and a certain Martin Mead) who lived about thirty miles from the place...(Vaughn without funds to buy, they reluctantly agreed to sell on credit and he to be hauling away while they sold to any with ready money.)...(Russell, making his own decision, also decided to sell to Vaughn and Mead. Mead refused to sign the notes. While Pickle went to another place on other business they agreed to make the notes to him and divide later.) Orator...afterwards to wit 18th of April 1818...being about to return to Alabama Country, Russell brought said notes to him.. to endeavor to collect...(Russell was given a due bill for his part, $303.50, dated 18 April 1818)...unable to collect said monies...Matthew Russell has instituted an action of debt upon said due bill...

John Goddard swore to the above before Edw. Scott, Judge, 4 Nov. 1820.

Answer of Matthew Russell...that he did descend the river with a boat load of corn, that he was cribbing the same about 2000 bushels a little below Gunter's landing... Complainants arrived with corn...after staying their boats at Gunter's landing... Pickle went on with cedar and apples to Ditto's landing...there finding that from the Contractors to Jackson's Army then on their way to Florida, he could get a good price in cash for his corn, returned back and proposed to this Respondent to fill his agreement with Vaughn and Mead...the notes from Vaughn were put into his hands...(a due bill to be given later)...denied that it depended on any collection from Vaughn as Goddard claims...believes Vaughn and Complainant were about or had entered into some kind of partnership in merchandising....

Matthew Russell swore to the above, before Hugh Brown, clerk and master, 20 Nov. 1820.

The decree was given at Chancery Court in Roane County, 9 June 1825, before the Honorable Jacob Peck, Chancellor. Matthew Russell won the suit.

THE ABRAHAM COOPER FAMILY

The manuscript presented below was contributed by Mr. Biffle Owen, Box 10, Clarksdale, Mississippi. It is signed by John S. Cooper, May 9, 1917, from Trenton, Tennessee. Mr. Cooper concluded the sketch by commenting that the statements were dictated to his sister, Tempie E. Cooper, by their father, John Linzapher Cooper, Bedford County, Tennessee, in December 1886. John L. Cooper was 79 years of age at that time and died in May 1895. All statements were made by him from memory. Mr. Biffle Owen advises that he has obtained proof of part of the data.

"The father of Abraham Cooper came from England and settled in Culpepper County, Virginia, most probably between the dates 1750 and 1760. He had five sons, among whom was Abraham, the direct ancestor of our branch of the family. The names of the other four sons are unknown or not remembered. One of these four sons went from Virginia to South Carolina, one to Georgia, another to Kentucky, and the fourth remained in Virginia."

Abraham Cooper, our ancestor, married a Miss Browning in Virginia about the year 1775. They removed from Virginia to Tennessee soon afterward and settled in Carter* County where they brought up a family of five sons and two daughters, in order of birth: John, James, Sarah, William, Jane, Robert and Charles. Abraham Cooper's wife died at their home in Carter County. Abraham Cooper and his family moved from Carter County and settled in Smith County on the Caney Fork River, about three miles above Carthage, about 1805. His son, Robert Cooper, did not come to Smith County until two years later, 1807. John L. Cooper, the eldest child of Robert Cooper, was born prematurely upon this journey. About the year 1812, Abraham Cooper, with his daughters and three sons, William, Robert and Charles, came from Smith County and settled in Bedford County. In 1820, Abraham's son, James, came to Bedford, leaving only one member of the family, the eldest son, John, in Smith County, where he lived and died. This John Cooper, in early life, while yet in Carter County, married a Miss Moffitt, and brought up a family of two sons and five daughters. His son, Abram, married a Miss Hale. His son, Bluford, removed to West Tennessee, and, while hunting, was thrown from his horse and killed. This was the supposition concerning his death. He married in West Tennessee. The oldest daughter of John Cooper, Lavina, married a Mr. Jones. Jane, the second daughter, was the second wife of Wm. Sharp of Bedford County. Sarah, the third daughter, married Green Moore of Bedford County. He was a brother of Col. John A. Moore, long a well-known citizen of this county. The fourth daughter, Letha, married John Sharp, the son of Wm. Sharp, her sister's husband. Thomas Sharp and his sister, Mrs. T.F. Bates of Shelbyville, are children of Jane Cooper Sharp. I have lost sight of the fifth daughter and do not remember whether she was ever married or not.

James Cooper, familiarly called "Uncle Jimmy", the second son of Abraham Cooper, while a young man in Carter County, Tennessee, married Elizabeth Bogart. As has been stated, he settled in Bedford County in 1820. His children were all born in Smith County, the oldest of whom at this time (1820) had reached manhood and womanhood. His oldest child, Polly, married John Tune, and was the mother of a large family of sons and daughters. Of these, John B. Tune, K.L. Tune, Mrs. Mat Williams and Mrs. Mary Boman reside in Bedford County. The second daughter, Sally, married Dennis Springer. They had several children, all of whom went to Hickman and Dickson counties. The third daughter, Jane, married Alsea, otherwise known as "York" Harris, and died without children. The fourth daughter, Elizabeth, married Price Cooper Steele. The fifth daughter, Catherine, married Carlos D. Steele. The sixth daughter, Malinda, married Caswell Puckett of Rutherford County. Of Elizabeth Steele's children, only four survive: Rev. Marion Steele of Arkansas, Hon. John W. Steele, Miss Fanny Steele and Mrs. T.N. McCord of Bedford County. Of Catherine Steele's children, only two remain: Capt. B.P. Steele of Tullahoma, and John Bell Steele of Arkansas. Mrs. Puckett left three sons and five daughters, all living in Rutherford

* Ed. Note: Carter County was taken from Washington County in 1796.

County.

Washington Bogart Cooper, the oldest son of James Cooper, is an artist by profession. He has long been a resident of Nashville, Tennessee, and is now about 84 years of age. He married, in 1842, Miss Ann Litton, a native of Dublin, Ireland. They have three children: James Litton, Kate Litton and Joe Litton.

Jonathan J., the second son of James Cooper, married Mary Ann Young, a Kentuckian by birth and a schoolmistress. In 1860, he removed from Bedford County to Arkansas, first to Benton County and then to White County, where he died. His widow and two daughters reside in Fayetteville, Arkansas, while the three sons, as I am informed, are in Benton County, Arkansas.

William Browning, the third son of James Cooper, is also an artist of distinction and resides in Nashville. His wife was first a Miss Berkeley of Williamson County, then Mrs. Reedy, then Mrs. Breckenridge, and as Mrs. Cooper, is the mother of two children: John L. and Mrs. Slaughter, of Louisville, Kentucky. The two brothers, Washington B. and William B., are the only survivors of James Cooper's family.

The third son of Abraham Cooper was William H., who married Sarah Jamison of Dixon Springs, Smith County. They reared five daughters and one son. The oldest daughter, Betsy, was the second wife of John Woods of Bedford County. Her five children are all dead, except Jesse. She died in August, 1883. The second daughter, Clarissa, died while young. The third daughter, Jane, married Robert Brooks of Giles County, a first cousin of Bishop Pain of the Southern Methodist Church. Brooks removed from Giles County to Yalobusha County, Mississippi, where he reared his family. The fourth daughter, Mary, died unmarried, at Mrs. Woods'. The fifth daughter, Nancy, married Mr. Dodson of Mississippi, and is the only surviving member of the family. Thomas Jamison, the only son, married in Giles County, went to Leake County, Mississippi, and settled there and died in 1882. He left some children, all of whom live in Mississippi.

Robert Cooper, the fourth son of Abraham Cooper, married Rebecca McInturf in Carter County, Tennessee. They were both born in Carter County in 1784. They had nine children, eight sons and one daughter, the daughter having died when six months old. All of the sons grew to manhood except Abram, who died at three years of age.

John Linzapher Cooper, the oldest son of Robert Cooper, was born November 20, 1807, as had been stated, upon the trip from Carter to Smith County, and therefore cannot claim any county as the place of his nativity, but has been a citizen of Bedford County since 1812. He was married May 15, 1834, to Frances G. Lindsey of Rutherford County. She was the daughter of Caleb and Temperance (House) Lindsey, and was born June 28, 1813, in Granville County, North Carolina. They were the parents of five children: Caleb Lindsey, Adalaide Rebecca, John Summerfield, Temperance Elizabeth and Robert Browning. Caleb L. married Miss Isabella Smith of Rutherford County, November 14, 1860. They have no children. Adelaide R. was married August 17, 1858, to Rev. J.S. Malone of the Southern Methodist Church, and died December 24, 1876, leaving no children. John S. was married October 15, 1879, to Miss Anna Hess, a daughter of Dr. Nelson I. Hess, long a prominent physician of Trenton, Tennessee. They have two children: Arthur F. and Gussie Lee. Frances Green, wife of John L. Cooper and mother of his children, died March 25, 1874. He married Sarah W. Jamison of Rutherford County in December 1875.

The second son of Robert Cooper was Abner James. He was born in 1810 and died in '28 or '29. William Browning was the third son. He was born in 1812 and died of dropsy in 1834. The fourth son, Abram, died in childhood.

The fifth son, Charles Dickson, was born in 1814 and died in Tallahatchie County, Mississippi, in 1862. He first married Elizabeth Lindsey, a sister of his brother John's wife, in June 1835. She died in June 1840. He next married Elizabeth Rogers of Bedford County, and after her death, he married Mrs. Crenshaw of Mississippi, who survived him, but who is now dead. Elizabeth Lindsey left three children: William H., Sally T.E., and Wise A. Cooper. Wm. H. became a surgeon of distinction in the Confederate Army, and died unmarried July 10, 1866. Sally T.E. married Lewis Sims of Rutherford County and died October 1881, leaving one child, Bessie Sims. Wise A. Cooper married in September 1866, Miss Senie Shaw of Gibson County, Tennessee. They have a large family of children and now reside in Fort Smith, Arkansas. The second wife of C. D. Cooper left a son, John F., whose whereabouts are unknown.

Bedford Campbell was the sixth son of Robert Cooper. He was born about 1816. (I am not positive as to dates, not having a record.) His first wife was Elizabeth Tinnin. She died, leaving three children, and then he married her sister, Laura Tinnin. He and his wife are both living near Bloomfield, Missouri. His oldest son, William, was a Confederate soldier, and was killed at Tupelo, Mississippi. Robert, the second son, received a wound in the same battle, from the effects of which he died a year or two afterward.

Robert Caldwell was the seventh son of Robert Cooper. He was born about 1820, and is still living, unmarried.

Thomas Price was the eighth and youngest son. He was born in 1827 and died February 3, 1877. He married Lucretia W. Rogers, and they had seven children, all sons. Their names were: Samuel, Morgan, Robert Linzapher, William, John Harris, Thomas Oliver, George Franklin, and "Rob". All are dead except John H. who is a resident of Nashville.

Robert Cooper, the son of Abraham, died suddenly of heart disease in June 1833, and is buried at the old home in Rutherford County, Tennessee. His wife, Rebecca, died in December 1862.

Charles Cooper was the fifth son of Abraham Cooper. He married Sarah Brooks of Bedford County and died in 1822, leaving three sons and five daughters. John B., the oldest of these, first married Miss Sivley of Alabama, and after her death, he married Miss Jane McGuffin of Middletown, Rutherford County. They reared a family of children, one of whom, Mrs. James L. Goodrum, resides in Bedford County. John B. died at his home in Alabama in '82 or '83.

Abram was the second son of Charles Cooper. His first wife was Miss Martha Sample of Bedford County. His second wife was a lady of Giles County, Tennessee. They removed to Crawley's Ridge, Arkansas, where he died.

William Franklin was the third son of Charles Cooper. His first wife was Mary Morton who left him three children: Sarah (Mrs. Claxton), Mary (Mrs. Hunter), and W.C. Cooper of Bellbuckle, Tennessee. His second wife was Miss McCrory. His third wife was Miss Hunter of Marshall County, who is the mother of four children: Sue (Mrs. Claxton), John T., Virgil E., and Maggie Cooper. "Frank" Cooper, as he was called, was killed instantly by the accidental discharge of a soldier's gun, in camp, near Shelbyville, Tennessee, in March 1862. He had gone to camp to visit his son, W.C. Cooper, who was one of the most daring of Confederate soldiers.

Charles Cooper's oldest daughter was Maria B. who is still living in Nashville, Tennessee. She was born in 1814, and was married while young to Learner Knott, who died in 1871. They were the parents of eleven children, only three of whom survive: Mrs. R.D. Reed and Mrs. Landon Hollowell of Nashville, and W.C. Knott. Their oldest son, Rufus, was a Confederate soldier and was killed at the Battle of Shiloh, 1862.

Matilda was Charles Cooper's second daughter. She was married while young to Anderson J. Goodrum of Williamson County, Tennessee. They made their home in Bedford County, where they brought up a large family of sons and daughters, all of whom are living except the oldest son, Charles, who was killed by lightning at his home in Kentucky. The second son, James L., was a gallant Confederate soldier, and left a leg on the field of Chickamauga. He has three times filled the office of Trustee of Bedford County.

Malinda and Adeline were the third and fourth daughters of Charles Cooper. They married brothers, William and Sam Phillips, and removed to Illinois. I know nothing of their families.

Elizabeth was the fifth daughter of Charles Cooper, and was born after her father's death. She married William Holt, and they reside near Wartrace, Tennessee. They have several children.

The oldest daughter of Abraham Cooper was Sarah. She married Richard Coop of Bedford County. In 1828, they removed to Gibson County and settled near Katon. I remember the names of only the four oldest children: Jane, William, Elizabeth and Henderson. And I also remember Mrs. Hays, another daughter, who once visited us. Richard Coop and his wife both died in West Tennessee.

Jane was the second daughter of Abraham Cooper. She married John Montgomery of Rutherford County, Tennessee. They removed to Gibson County in company with Richard Coop's family, and settled in the same neighborhood. There John Montgomery died, and after his death, his widow and children removed to Arkansas.

John Cooper, the eldest son of Abraham, outlived all his brothers and died about 1840. I omitted to mention in the proper connection that he married the second time. I do not remember the lady's name. She had two children, Timothy Walton and a daughter who married a Walton. They both reside in Smith County, Tennessee.

James Cooper, the second son of Abraham, died in 1823 in Bedford County, and is buried on what is known as the Steele Farm, where he lived for some years.

William, the third son of Abraham, died about 1818, at his home in the northeast part of Bedford County, three or four miles from Bellbuckle, and was buried there. His father, Abraham Cooper, was also buried there.

Charles, the fifth son of Abraham, as stated, died in 1822, and was buried on his home place five miles from Shelbyville, on the Fairfield Pike.

OBITUARY OF C.P. CLOYS, CITIZEN OF OBION COUNTY, TENNESSEE

(Contributed by Mrs. Robert Louis Cox, 626 McConnell, Memphis, Tennessee)

This article is a copy of a newspaper clipping. "Obion Pioneer Dies. Born in 1828 and was married nearly 73 years. Wife survives. Union City, Tennessee. February 26, 1922. C.P. Cloys, 94, of this city, died yesterday at his home on Cheatham Street, following months of ill health. Mr. Cloys was one of the pioneer settlers of Obion County. He was born in Henry County, Tenn., Aug. 12, 1828, and came to this county with his father's family in early childhood. In 1850 he married Mary Burns, who survives him at the age of 90 years. They bought and cleared land for their home in the first civil district of this county, on what was then called the Dresden turnpike road. Many years later they moved to Union City. He is survived by his widow, Mary Cloys, four sons, Thompson Cloys of this county; Rev. Calvin Cloys of Paragould, Ark.; James Cloys of Bald Knob, Ark.; and William Cloys of Memphis, and by three daughters, Mrs. Herman Dietzel and Mrs. Josie Scates of this city and Mrs. Dora Whitefield of Cripple Creek, Colo. He is also survived by four generations of descendants. Mr. and Mrs. Cloys celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary last May, with five generations represented at the family reunion. Both come of long lived ancestors, it being a matter of family history that a grandmother of Mrs. Cloys drove a one horse carryall through from Virginia to this country at the age of 105 years and lived to be 115 years old, and that a grandfather of Mrs. Cloys lived to be 110 years. Mr. Cloys was a member of the Mt. Zion Methodist Church. Funeral services were conducted this morning from the residence by Rev. E.M. Mathis and the body was buried in East View Cemetery."
