Dear TGS Members,

It doesn't seem possible that this is my last letter to you. Two years have flown by. Thank you all for making this a happy, worthwhile administration. We have an all-time high membership as I write this in September.

Our Seminar is a pleasant memory. The lecturers, Dr. Jean Stephenson and Mr. Milton Rubincam, even surpassed all the superlatives we had expected. The 110 participants from 10 states are looking forward to another get-together in 1969.

It is exciting to know that the Tennessee Historical Commission had a panel on Genealogy at its 1967 conference on Local History. Local History and Genealogy have a definite connection. People are History. It is up to us to become more scientific in our approach to our subject.

I am sure I speak for all our members when I express to the Officers and Committee Chairmen and lay workers our sincere appreciation for the many long hours they have labored to make our organization one of the most outstanding in the field. Things don't just happen. The magazine must have good material prepared in proper form, indexed, and after it is printed it must be gathered, stuffed, sorted, zoned and mailed. The Library books are selected, checked against Cossitt's file for duplicates, ordered, checked in and checked out. Our minutes are typed once to be read for approval, then retyped in our permanent register and signed. Notices of meeting, with notation of speakers, and special business go to local members. Letters of invitation are sent dozens of prospects during the year. Our name file index seems to multiply over night, but it takes a steady hand at the helm, preparing new cards, filing them, and answering numerous queries pertaining to them. By-laws take hours of thought for proper form and revision. The bookkeeping necessitates hours and hours of work. We are big business now.

All of these jobs and many more are done by our members gratis so that we can save enough out of our income to buy books and publish more original records in "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS.

Everyone is asked to contribute interesting documented information pertaining to Tennessee for the magazine. Small items of a few lines, or genealogical oddities of interest, are needed for "fillers," as well as good documented articles of any size, from a page upward.

Add to your cards in our ancestor files. The first issue for the year of "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS tells you the correct way to prepare the cards.

Learn to conserve the valuable microfilm we have access to at Cossitt. Use the reader only 45 minutes out of each hour - let it cool 15 minutes. This preserves the reader and keeps from burning the film.

We are indebted to Cossitt Reference Library for their valuable assistance in many ways. There isn't enough space to adequately thank all of you for your wonderful spirit of cooperation. To all of the officers and chairmen I say Thank You! God Bless You! Happy New Year!

Sincerely,

Lillian Gardiner

Mrs. Laurence B. Gardiner

President.
NOTES FROM THE EDITOR’S DESK

We received the following announcement in August 1967:

The National Genealogical Society has withdrawn its sponsorship of the 1850 Tennessee Census Project. This was voted at a Special Meeting in July 1967. The cost of sponsorship was of such magnitude that the society could not continue it. Additional information will be published or distributed later. Mr. Bartlett can be reached at Apt. J-947, 1021 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22209.

Mrs. Reed Johnson, 1414 N. Jefferson St., E’ Dorado, Arkansas 71730 writes to tell us that she can add information to one of the biographical sketches appearing in the article "Tennesseans in Texas." On Page 118 (last quarter): Judge J. N. Hall. His father was Joseph W. Hall who married Alvira Pugh, daughter of John Elijah Pugh of Clarke County, Alabama. Mrs. Johnson's husband is a descendant of Robert Pugh, brother of John Elijah Pugh. Mrs. Johnson has the CHAPMAN-PUGH GENEALOGY by Minnie May Pugh, and advises that there is another copy in the D.A.R. Library in Washington, D. C.

The Indiana Historical Society, 140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis 46204, should be congratulated on the genealogical program that they are developing. They have already published EARLY MARRIAGES OF WAYNE COUNTY, INDIANA, 1811-1822, by Irene M. Strieby ($3.00); the 1820 FEDERAL CENSUS OF INDIANA by Willard Heiss ($10.00); an ABSTRACT OF THE RECORDS OF THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS IN INDIANA, PART I ($7.50) and PART II ($10.00). Now the group is promoting interest in the younger generation by publishing a booklet titled FINDING INDIANA ANCESTORS. It is intended for the teenage groups in the hope that they will become interested in securing information now from grandparents, great uncles and great aunts, rather than waiting until later when these sources of information may not be available. The pamphlet may be obtained for 25 cents.

An INDEX TO WILLS OF CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO, 1800-1915, contains about 3500 names and may be ordered for $5.00 from Mrs. Grace Hirschauer, 4504 Tealtown Road, M. R. 5, Batavia, Ohio 45103. It is a D.A.R. project for the benefit of the local chapter.

Mrs. L. R. Langley, 213 Laramie Road, Griffin, Georgia 30223 has compiled two volumes entitled THE DUPRE' TRAIL, abstracts of court records and miscellaneous information relating to the Dupre (various spellings) French Huguenot families of America. The price for each volume is $16.00.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, GEORGIA, RECORDS may be ordered for $9.00 from Frances Wynd, 2009 Gail Avenue, Albany, Georgia 31705. The county was established in 1784 from the Cherokee and Creek cessions and was an original county. Included will be land records, marriages, will abstracts, census, military, land lottery and miscellaneous records.

The Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Inc., 107 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, continues their series of fine research papers with Series A, No. 6, WELSH PATRONYMICS AND PLACE NAMES IN WALES AND MONMOUTHSHIRE; and Series C, No. 1, MAJOR GENEALOGICAL RECORD SOURCES IN GERMANY. These may be obtained for 25 cents each.

The Kentucky Historical Society, Box H, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, is publishing KENTUCKY IN RETROSPECT - NOTEWORTHY PERSONAGES AND EVENTS IN KENTUCKY HISTORY, 1792 - 1967. The tentative price is $5.00. A 175th ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATIVE COIN is also being struck and may be ordered for $1.00 each plus postage.
MAURY COUNTY, TENNESSEE, HISTORICAL SKETCHES, 282 pages, is a collection of articles written by early settlers. These were originally published after the Civil War in various county newspapers and are collected in one volume now. Price $6.50. Order from Mrs. R. Y. McClain, 610 Terrace Drive, Columbia, Tennessee 38401.

The Sacramento Branch Genealogical Library, 5343 Halsted Avenue, Carmichael, California 95608, has compiled CEMETERIES OF EL DORADO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, price $3.00. A subscription to their monthly bulletin GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH NEWS is $3.00 per year.

OUR ANCESTRAL PLOTS, 302 pages of all known cemeteries of Caldwell County, Kentucky, may be ordered from Mrs. E. Arawana Kyle, 102 S. Trim Street, Dawson Springs, Kentucky 42408. The price is $15.00.

The 1850 CENSUS OF CALDWELL COUNTY, KENTUCKY is available at $12.00. The 1850 CENSUS OF CALLOWAY COUNTY, KENTUCKY may be ordered for $8.00, and the 1860 CENSUS OF LYON COUNTY, KENTUCKY for $6.00, from Thomas H. Jones, R. R. #1, Box 177, Edwards-ville, Illinois 62025. All three have a family name index.

Mrs. Nadine Miller Tuttle, P. O. Box 248, Portales, New Mexico 88130, has released a new family bulletin titled MILLER SEARCHERS, U.S.A., AN INDEX OF MILLER SURNAME RESEARCHERS. This first edition contains 30 mimeographed pages and an index for surnames other than Miller. No price was quoted.

The Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202, has issued a new catalog about six volumes available for THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND. They have also published their Spring 1967 catalog containing notice of 18 new books. A major reprint is also advertised: the six volume, 2000 page, ROLLAND'S ILLUSTRATIONS TO THE ARMORIAL GENERAL, by J. B. Rietstap, containing 85,000 Shields of Arms, price $75.00. Their new catalog No. 217 containing news of books of American Local History and Genealogical Records has also been issued. Another catalog features eight books on early settlers, including GENEALOGICAL GUIDE TO THE EARLY SETTLERS OF AMERICA at $20.00.

OUR LOGAN HISTORY, price $10.00, lists some 2400 descendants of Tarlton L. Logan, 189 pages, and may be ordered from Mrs. Marshall W. Doyle, 717 S. Sycamore, Greensburg, Kansas 67054.

Mrs. Lea F. Duholm, 305 - 15th Avenue, S.W., Austin, Minnesota 55912 has announced publication of A GENEALOGY - BUNTON-BUNTON FAMILIES, dedicated to John Wheeler Bunton, 1807-1879. The price is $7.50.

WHAT TO SAY IN YOUR GENEALOGICAL LETTERS is a new booklet by J.R. Gobble, P.O. Box 2442, Idaho Falls, Idaho 83401. No price was quoted. The book's 25 pages are filled with helpful suggestions for presenting data in both letter and chart form. Mr. Gobble has also authored WHO'S WHERE IN YOUR GENEALOGICAL RECORDS and LINEAGES OF THE MEMBERS, IDAHO SOCIETY, S.A.R., 1909-1961.

Bulletin III of CARDINAL "ANCESTRAL" NOTES salutes Corydon, Jefferson County, Kentucky, on its 100th Anniversary. Price $1.00. Published by Mrs. Oscar Baskett, 426 Center Street, Henderson, Kentucky 42420.

THE LONG YEARS - A PATERNAL GENEALOGY may be ordered from Jean M. Maire, 2717 Ector Road North, Jacksonville, Florida 32211. The price is $4.00. Families included are Coffin, Knight, Lovelace, Sill, Cook, Vernon, Stanfield, Middleton, Holtzclaw, Stout, Spaulding and others. Bound, paper-back, 96 pages.

BOOK REVIEWS

TALES OF OLD WHITEHAVEN (Tennessee) by Anna Leigh McCorkle, 4334 McCorkle Road, Memphis, Tennessee 38116. Published by McCowat-Mercer Press, Jackson, Tennessee. 173 pages. Price $3.65)

Review by Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. L. D.)

This charming account of local history is to be admired, appreciated and emulated. In this day of rapid transformation of the land from country village surrounded by green fields and forest to a world of concrete, shopping centers and "high rise" dwellings, even this memory of the not so long ago is fading.

Miss McCorkle has preserved the past for us in chronologically recording events of one small rural community in Shelby County, Tennessee - Whitehaven - immediately south of Memphis and immediately north of the State of Mississippi. Mostly, however, the book is about the people who made the community from its earliest times to the present. The author writes with love and understanding and has the happy faculty of imparting this feeling to the reader. Old settlers on their farms, new settlers in their subdivisions, the great, near great, the common man and the lowly are all included. All were neighbors and friends.

Although the book is called TALES OF OLD WHITEHAVEN, it is quite well documented. Traditions are labeled such, but quotes from diaries and other primary sources of the times are liberally used. Maps, pictures and facsimiles set the scenes and increase the reader's interest.

An appendix vividly recalls the just past world of close friendships between the old Negro families and their white neighbors or employers, with a plea for a return to peace and understanding between the races in a changed world.

Miss McCorkle dedicates her book to "The newer residents of Whitehaven who constantly ask, 'Who are the older ones?'" We are fortunate that she has answered that query.

THE DAVISES AND ALLIED FAMILIES (By Mayola Davis, 5617 Dana Drive, Fort Worth, Texas 76117. Mimeograph. Price $3.00)

Review by Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. L. D.)

Miss Davis states that this is a family family history, springing out of family reunions, compiled for the edification of the family, incomplete, but with a plea for help with omissions and errors. It seems to us that this is a worthy approach, resulting in this instance, in 80 pages, including index, of important data on this Davis family.

The author begins with the progenitor in America, one Joseph Davis who arrived from Ireland shortly before the Revolution, buying land in Charlotte County, Virginia, in 1771 and dying there in 1792. Descendants moved to Madison County, Tennessee, in 1847; some later went to Hardeman County.

Although generally the statements are not documented, wills and Bible records are included, and the casual reader quickly gains the feeling that it is an honest effort when the compiler reveals that neither the progenitor nor his son could read or write.

We feel that Miss Davis should be proud of her work.

THE SPARTA GAZETTE, Sparta, Tenn., Saturday August 30, 1845. Obituary - THE NORTH GRAND RIVER CHRONICLE printed in Chillicothe, Livingston County, Mo., has the following notice of the death of Andrew Bryan, who for many years resided in this county. Died, at his late residence in this County, on the 5th August, after a protracted illness, Mr. Andrew Bryan, aged 72 years and 9 months. The deceased was a native of Virginia and emigrated to Tennessee at an early day; and when the people of what is now the State of Tennessee suffered so much from the merciless incursions of the Indians, he was among the number who volunteered in defense of this country, and quelled in a great measure those savage depredations. He removed to this county in the year 1838 where he lived respected and esteemed by all to whom he was known.

Died - At Winchester (Franklin County), Tenn., of apoplexy, on the 22nd inst., Col. Miller Francis, late Treasurer of Tennessee. (Note: This is probably the one by the same name who is of record in Roane County, Tennessee, 1801-1807, and then in Rhea County when it was formed from Roane in 1807.)
HERALD TIMES - SPARTA, TENNESSEE, Saturday, Sept. 23, 1854. Death - Hon. Ephriam H. Foster ... night of 6th inst., at 11 o'clock ... lawyer, soldier and statesman ... copied from the NASHVILLE GAZETTE, Sept. 14.

Died - At home, at Stony Point, in Bledsoe County, Tennessee, with fever on the 28th of August 1854, after all possible means that could be used by a skillful Physician, Mrs. Lettis H. Sloan, the kind and affectionate wife of Thos. Sloan ... aged about 67 years.

THE SPARTA INDEX - Friday, March 17, 1876. Died - on the 12th inst., James T. Williams in the 91st year of his age ... born in Maryland, Dec. 11, 1785; removed to White County, Tennessee, in the year 1807.

(Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Hutcherson note that they borrowed this microfilm through their local library from the Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville, Tennessee, neither of them have ancestral paths through White County, and cannot help with further information on these names.)

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS AND DEATH RECORDS, CALVARY CEMETERY, KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE, 1869-1967. (Compiled by Mrs. Charles F. Wayland, Sr., Mrs. James A. Grady and Mrs. Floyd L. Ambrister, Jr. Order from Mrs. James Ault Grady, 4404 Holston Drive, Knoxville, Tennessee 37914. Price $5.00.)

Review by Betty Givens Moore (Mrs. Henry N.)
Burial in this cemetery began in 1869, with birth dates going back to about 1810. While it is not an early cemetery, it covers one of our important migratory periods. Following the Civil War, many families crossed the Mississippi to take up land in the mid-West. Frequently, this was just after older members of the family had died. Thus, the cemeteries of this period are a vital link in our ancestral climb.

The most valuable feature of these records is the unusually large number of inscriptions that give the place of birth. The majority of those for whom birthplaces are given were born in another country.

Some friends of Wilena Roberts Bejach (Mrs. Lois D.) made contributions to purchase genealogical books to be placed in Cossitt-Goodwyn Library as a memorial to Mrs. Bejach's Mother, Mrs. William Woodson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who passed away recently.

Your Librarian was asked to select and order the books. After consulting with Mrs. Bejach, an order was placed for two volumes of Maryland records by G. M. Brumbaugh.

These records were contributed by James Piper Taliaferro Goodbread, Route 1, Cleveland, Oklahoma. There are many descendants of Wiley Davis in Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and points west, most of whom are not aware that this Bible is still in existence. The Bible records show the name spelled Wilie, but all official records at Bolivar, Tennessee, spell the name Wiley; and Mr. Goodbread's grandmother, Edith (Davis) Moore, stated the correct name was Wiley.

The records are in the handwriting of Mary Ann Tedford, wife of Wiley Davis. Mary Ann Tedford was the daughter of David Tedford, a son of Alexander Tedford, Sr. of Virginia. David died in Hardeman County, Tennessee, in 1825. His wife was Frances Doss of Virginia.

The Bible at one time was in the possession of Edith Davis, wife of Peyton English Moore. She gave it to her sister, Ida Narcissa Davis, wife of Frank M. Gardner. It finally was given to William Charles Davis, and at his death, passed to the present ownership of his son, Cletis Alto Davis, of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The photostats of the records were supplied to Mr. Goodbread by Mrs. Lassie (Moore) Howard, cousin of Cletis Alto Davis. Lassie (Moore) Howard was the daughter of Edith Davis and Peyton Moore, and sister of Nettie Moore Goodbread of Columbia County, Florida. Edith Moore Davis also had a son, Andrew Garnett Moore, who married Sarah Carmichel of Florida, moved to Portales, New Mexico, and raised a large family.

Wilie Jarrett Davis was born in Lincoln Co. Tenn. July 19, 1811.
Mary Ann Tedford was born in Tenn. Oct. 29, 1814.

John Meek vs Marcus D. Bearden and Morton Peterson

John Meek made bond to prosecute his case with George Blang and John Rutherford his securities, 20 Feb. 1824.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Chancery for the second Judicial Circuit sitting at Knoxville. ...your Orator John Meek of the County of Grainger...Tennessee ...about 26 Dec. 1820...contracted with Marcus D Bearden of Knox County for the purchase of a tract of land lying on the south side of Holstein river, represented to your Orator by said Bearden to contain 640 acres in the counties of Jefferson and Grainger...for $3000....May 1823 a certain John Cocke in whom the title was at the time, to join him the said Bearden in executing a deed to your Orator...deed marked exhibit A...land on the north side is owned by a certain William Cocke... There will be a deficiency of some 80 or 90 acres...Bearden assigned his bond to a certain Morton Peterson late of Knoxville....Peterson sued your Orator on said note and obtained a judgement against your Orator in the County Court of Granger May Sessions 1823...Bearden and Peterson wholly refuse to make any compensation...for the deficiency in said land....prays a perpetual injunction of the collection of said judgement...sworn to by John Meek 20 Feb. 1824.

EXHIBIT A

This indenture made 19 May 1823 between John Cocke and Marcus D Bearden of the Counties of Grainger and Knox...and John Meek of the County of Granger...$3000... certain tract of land situate in the counties of Grainger and Jefferson on the south side of Holstein river subject nevertheless to the dower of the widow of James Collison deceased late of Grainger County...which land was conveyed by the heirs of James Collison to John Cocke and John F. Jack...subject to the dower of the widow of James Collison...surveyed by Charles McAnally...640 acres.

John Cocke
M. D. Bearden

Answer of Marcus D. Bearden filed May 17, 1824

...answers...true in December 1820...entered into a written agreement relating to the exchange of the tract of land in the Complainants bill mentioned...for a tanning establishment in the town of Knoxville...believes the calls of the deed will include within 16 acres of the quantity mentioned in said deed...Sworn to 17 May 1824.

Interlocutory Decree-Robert Armstrong be appointed to make a survey of the land... report with plats within two months...Final Decree-8December 1825...that Complainant recover of said Bearden the sum of $276.58 the amount due Meek for the deficiency of 59 acres. The defendant prays an appeal to the Supreme Court of Errors and Appeals to be held at Knoxville on the Second Monday of July next which is granted...

William Trigg and Abram Trigg vs Rufus Morgan and Abram Trigg

Bond-Abram Trigg and Thomas S. Williams...bound unto Rufus Morgan and M. Trigg... 11 March 1820.

To the Honoroble the Judges of the Supreme Court of Errors and Appeals for the Second Judicial Circuit
...your Orator William Trigg a citizen of Sumner County and Abram Trigg a citizen of Giles County...Tennessee...that in the year 18__(blank) they erected a Bagging factory in Gallatin in the County of Sumner, for the purpose of making bailing lining, having made a considerable quantity of linen at that factory and not finding ready sale for the same...concluded to send the same to Natchey, then in the Mississippi Territory where they were informed the price was better...concluded to send the same to the house of Trigg & Morgan if they would agree to receive it, and undertake the selling thereof...your Orator William Trigg addressed a letter to one of the firm...Orators in reply were informed they would receive & sell said linen for them...been informed and believe that Stephen Trigg now deceased, Abram Trigg who now resides in the State of Virginia and Rufus Morgan were the individuals who composed the firm of Trigg and Morgan...year 1811 they sent twenty pieces of Bagging lining to the defendants for which they give a receipt...Exhibit No. 1...(several shipments listed)...total of near 12,000 yards...have not received any compensation whatever, said defendants utterly refuse to settle with your Orators...

There are five receipts recorded marked Exhibits and signed by Jesse Pierce, Adam Crump, Edward Saunders, Jesse Weaver and David Dement.

Answer of Defendants filed May 15, 1820

Abram B. Trigg and Rufus Morgan...answer to the bill filed against them by William Trigg and Abram Trigg...they are two of the persons who formerly belonged to the house of Trigg & Morgan at Natchez in the Mississippi Territory, that prior to the establishment of said house several other persons had been established and doing business at the same place...Stephen Trigg was partner to wit the house of "Trigg King & Co., Trigg Doherty & Co., Doherty King & Co. and Trigg & Giles"...defendants had no interest in none of these houses. The King mentioned was known to be William King of Abingdon... have no knowledge of any such articles having been ever sent by them to the house of Trigg & Morgan...Probable that it was sent to Stephen Trigg alone or to some of those other houses, in which he was concerned. James Trigg who signed receipt number two and three as agent for Trigg and Morgan never was agent for Trigg and Morgan and your Respondant Abram Trigg well remembers that said James left Abingdon with Stephen Trigg...employed by said Stephen and going to Natchez with and to do business for him. Francis Day was once employed of the house of Trigg & Morgan, but James Trigg never was...The house of Trigg & Morgan was entirely dissolved in the summer of 1812...your respondent Abram B. was present when one of the Complainants applied to John J. Trigg as executor of Stephen Trigg for payment...denies all manner of fraud...humbly prays to be dismissed...

A. B. Trigg
Rufus Morgan

Decree - 8 December 1825 The Complainants bill was dismissed for want of proof.

67-150 BAINES, COX, GRAY, HALE, WHEELOCK, KINCHELOE: John Cox m. 1817, Washington Co., Tenn., Ruth Gray. 1850 census, as family #1932, they lived next to #1933, my grandparents Nathan Baines b. 1830, and Mary Ann Cox Baines b. 1830. Heretofore, I have claimed this John and Ruth as parents of my Mary Ann Cox. But were they? I found two wills that seem to disprove my assumption. I know Mary Ann Cox had a brother James W. Cox b. 1825, m. Hannah, dau of Chase Hale. Hale's will in 1872 mentions dau. Hannah Cox and also, James W. Cox, son of Sallie Cox, dcd. The other will, of John C. Wheelock, Sr. (wife Sarah Kincheleoe) in 1837 mentions "to dau. Sarah Cox's children--$40." Could Sarah and Sallie be same person? Next door to John and Ruth Cox in 1850 was another Cox family: John Cox age 31, w. Hannah age 31, 5 children and a Sarah Cox age 61. Was this Sarah Cox the widow named in Wheelock's will of 1837! Please help!
