Dear Members:

The October Meeting at Colonial Country Club was a huge success! With 86 in attendance, an excellent speaker, Dr. Allen Cabaniss and a delicious dinner the evening was enjoyed by all. We were pleased to have had such a large gathering for the election of the Officers for the next two years.

The following Officers were elected:

- President: Mrs. Henry N. Moore, 33 So. Yates Rd.
- Vice-President: Mrs. Augusta Brough, 8504 Macon Rd.
- Treasurer: Mr. S. Caya Phillips, 1813 Carr Ave.
- Corr-Secretary: Mrs. Thomas K. Blalock, 386 Meadvale St.
- Recording Sec.: Mrs. Dan West, 825 So. Perkins Rd.
- Director Research: Mrs. R S. Wilroy, 954 Mosby Rd.
- Librarian: Mrs. Chas. R. Gilley, 95 So. Mendenhall Rd.
- Editor: Mrs. E. M. Standefer, 727 Goodlett
- Associate Editor: Mrs. W. R. Blair, 979 Colonial Rd.
- Advisor: Mrs. Byron G. Hyde, 475 So. Perkins
- Advisor: Mr. Laurence Gardiner, 1863 Cowden Ave.

Due to the resignation of Mrs. Bunyan Webb on the Library Committee, Mrs. Laurence Gardiner, according to the by-laws, will replace Mrs. Webb. We are sorry Mrs. Webb found it necessary to resign. Mrs. Gardiner needs no introduction to our Society since she has long been a loyal member.

Our November 15th study meeting will be at the home of Miss Jessie Webb, Vice-President, 1360 Harbert, 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Members will receive due notice.

The retiring President and Board Members wish continued success to the next President and her Board. We have had many happy hours working together, including the accomplishments and the problems that are always present in the process of producing any publication.

Sincerely,

Katherine M. Young

President
NOTES FROM THE EDITOR’S DESK

In this last issue for 1971 of "Ansearchin'" News we wish to express our appreciation to our Staff for their cooperation and assistance during the past three years. We are especially grateful to our ever-ready and untiring Secretary, Lucile Cox; to our prompt and efficient Subscription Manager, Col. Byron G. Hyde; to our faithful and accurate indexers, Edwina Campbell and Carrie Boals; to our infallible treasurer, Caya Phillips and last, but of great importance, to T. P. Hughes, Jr. and Jonathan K. T. Smith for their hours of work with microfilms and court records to bring you unpublished source material. We thank our typists, Margaret Hudgins and June Fischer, who prepare the beautiful pages which make up our bulletin and the members who have so bountifully supplied us with family and other valuable records for publication. Without this assistance and cooperation we would not have the kind of magazine which we present to you. We ask your further assistance in suggestions for future publications. Let us know what type records you would like to see in "Ansearchin'" News and please continue to send us Bible records, Family records and other data. We welcome both suggestions and materials.

BOOK REVIEWS

Reviewed by Herman L. Bogan

PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA HUSTINGS COURT MARRIAGE BONDS- MARRIAGE REGISTER AND MINISTERS' RETURNS 1784-1854, compiled and indexed by Thomas P. Hughes, Jr. and Jewel B. Standefer, (1971) 178 pages, 8½ x 11, soft cover. Order from Hughes & Standefer, 727 Goodlett, Memphis, Tennessee 38111. $15.00

These marriage records were carefully copied from the original bonds and ministers' returns. All names appear just as they are on the original papers without alterations in spelling. Marriages after June 1850 are from the Ministers' Returns or the Register, as bonds were not required after that date. Grooms' names are arranged alphabetically and brides' names are indexed separately. A complete index of all persons giving consent and those appearing as witnesses or sureties, is included, as well as a list of ministers found in this area at that time. This is an exceptionally well organized and well done book.

MARRIAGE RECORDS OF KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON 1853 to 1884, by members of the Seattle Genealogical Society on their 40th anniversary (1963), 119 pages, index, soft cover. Order from the Society, P. O. Box 549, Seattle, Washington 98111. $5.00

The material presented in this book was copied from the marriage and license record ledgers. When both license and marriage returns or record were found they were consolidated with no attempt to correct differences in spelling. Chinese names are given just as they are found. Grooms' names are arranged in alphabetical order with other names in the index. Officiating Justices, Ministers and their church affiliations, along with records from the early Methodist Church in Seattle, are included.

Volume II, a companion genealogy to Volume I (1967) conforms in format, quality and binding. The book is divided into two parts. Part One concerns John and Sarah Cooper Woodruff. John is the son of John Woodruff who helped found Elizabethtown, New Jersey in 1665. Part Two is an introductory resume of the children and some descendants of Joseph and Hannah Woodruff who came to "Westfields", Essex County, New Jersey from Long Island in 1770. An addendum adds data about the lines of descent treated in Volume I, part two. There is a generation chart, a historical map and five appropriate illustrations.

Part I deals mostly with the early settlement of the community of Patilo, Texas; its schools, churches, cemeteries, early marriages and census records. Part II gives the history of closely associated neighboring schools whose people were identifiable with the Patilo people in their church and social life. Both books contain much information about the families of the community and give an insight into the times, customs and lives of these people.

ARKANSAS MILITARY BOUNTY GRANTS (War of 1812), compiled by Katheren (Mrs. Paul) Christensen (1971), 256 pages, index, soft cover. Order from "Arkansas Ancestors", Mrs. Gerald B. McLane, 112 Leach Street, Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas 71901. $10.00

Many Bounty Grants of the War of 1812 contain genealogical material. Survivors, of a veteran, who had a grant issued are listed by name and their relationship to the deceased is indicated. The applicant is listed by name, county, year and warrant number. The Little Rock Land Districts was opened in 1818, with the first entry being made in 1821. The 1820 Arkansas Census records were lost, but this book helps in placing families or people in Arkansas at that time.

LISBON WEST OF THE TRINITY by Helen B. Anthony (1971), 145 pages, index, hard cover. Order from the author, P. O. Box 3855, Dallas, Texas 75208. $6.95.

This is a warm and friendly book concerned with the birth, development and maturity of a Texas community. Lisbon was annexed to Dallas in 1929. In this book one will find a collection of family histories and a list of tombstone inscriptions of Lisbon Cemetery. Also, a map showing land area names of early settlers is included. There is a very unique system of notes which fill the last five pages.

A FAMILY HISTORY Wright, Lewis, Moore and Connected Families compiled and published by John Wright Boyd (1968), 724 pages, index, hard cover, gold lettering on blue. Order from the author, 521 Hillside Drive N. W., Atlanta, Georgia 30342. $20.50.

Members of these and other related families were among the early English settlers in Virginia and Maryland. Immigrants are listed as to dates and where they landed. Many later moved to Georgia, particularly into Greene County.

This accumulation of material has been documented in an amazing order of facts, dates and names. Wills, deeds, marriages and census records are copied in their entirety. Coats of arms of the Moore, Wright and Lewis families are beautifully depicted. The kind of life these people lived, their careers and schooling are covered through eight generations.
Many years of diligent searching have made this remarkable genealogical book possible. Descendants of these people can truly be proud of their heritage.

THE McMinn FAMILY IN AMERICA, compiled by Virginia (Thompson) Brittain (1970), 460 pages, index, 8½x11, soft cover. Order from Globe Publishers International, P. O. Box 5386, Pasadena, Texas 77503. $15.00

An introduction featuring the origin of the name McMinn in the Old World is quite interesting. The author has a well documented record of a typically southern family. Starting in Rutherford County, North Carolina in 1775, she has traced the family across the Southern States into the southwest, with present generations included.

This is a documented and well written family story. The introduction features the origin of the name and of the people in the Old World. Georgia is the setting for these families, with a few migrating into Alabama. Data of current generations are included. It is hoped that an index can be prepared soon.

THE CENTENNIAL HISTORY OF WINSTON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, compiled by William T. Lewis (1876), reprint 1970, 210 pages, soft cover. Order from Globe Publishing International, P. O. Box 5386, Pasadena, Texas 77503. $10.95

William T. Lewis, a native of North Carolina, lived most of his life in Winston County. He held several elective offices and kept in touch with county affairs. His presentation reveals firsthand observation of activities on the local scene. Names of early settlers with amusing and heartbreaking anecdotes make the book interesting. Names of Civil War Soldiers, where they served, where injured, and died, comprise half of the book. An index would have been helpful.

THE OVERMOUNTAIN MEN 1760 - 1795 by Pat Alderman, 286 pages, 8½x11, hard cover. Order from The Overmountain Press, P. O. Box 126, Johnson City, Tennessee 37601. $10.00

Short, interesting, factual stories of people, places, battles and happenings of times before and after the Revolutionary War comprise this unusual historical book. It dramatically tells of the exploration, settlement and founding of the first free government in America and its struggle for survival, culminating in the Battle of King's Mountain. The text has five general divisions: The Overmountain Men; One Heroic Hour at King's Mountain; The Cumberland Decade; The State of Franklin; and Southwest Territory. A review cannot do justice to the readability of this comprehensive history.
OUR COKER KIN, Volume I by June B. Barekman (1967), 207 pages, index
8½x11, soft cover. Order from the author, 3302 West Diversey,
Chicago, Illinois 60647. $10.00

The Coker name originated in Somerset County, England. This county is one of the most interesting historical sites in the British Isles. There seems to have been an East, North and West Coker. Coker originated from a Norman ancestor who was rewarded with a grant, after the Battle of Hastings.
Included is a Coker coat of arms. Joseph, Charles and William Coker migrated to Virginia around 1600 and later moved southward to the Pee Dee River region in South Carolina. Joseph was a Tory and William and Charles were Whigs during the Revolution. Charles and William later settled at Knoxville, Tennessee, where the Coker line was perpetuated through William. The succeeding generations (and their many accomplishments) are traced throughout the south and the west.

SOME EARLY TAX DIGESTS OF GEORGIA by Ruth Blair, State Historian and Director (1926), 316 pages, plus index of 174 pages in this reprint (1971), hard cover. Order from Georgia Genealogical Reprints, 405 Virginia Way, Vidalia, Georgia 30474. $20.00.

The 1790, 1800 and 1810 Census records of Georgia were destroyed when the British burned Washington in 1814. This book, combined with the 1805 and 1807 Georgia Land Lotteries, furnishes a much needed replacement. There were 82,548 persons of all races and sex in Georgia in 1790. This book contains names of 36,000 persons, including those whose land adjoined that of persons in the Tax Digest and/or the original Grantor-Grantee of the Land. If one has the 1805 and 1807 Georgia Land Lotteries one will need this book also.

OUR FERRELL GENEALOGY researched and compiled by Hubbard O'Dell Ferrell (1965), over 200 pages, 8½x11, looseleaf, Acco Binder. Contact the author, 2081 Woodland Drive, Stephenville, Texas 76401 for further information.

The genealogy of the O'Farrell, Farrell, Ferrall families is followed from Genesis through the migration to America and includes the latest descendants.
In 708 AD, E Ferghal is number 156 in the line of Gaelic Kings. Other family names found in these records are Drew, Driver, Hobson, O'Dell, Lynch, and Nolan. These people came first to Pennsylvania and then later moved to the South and Southwest. Some are found in the Memphis Area.

LINEAGES AND GENEALOGICAL NOTES by Mrs. Harry Joseph Morris (1967), 412 pages, 8½x11, hard cover, index. Order from the author, "Twin Oaks" 4700 West Stanford, Dallas, Texas 75209. $16.00.

Louise Elizabeth Burton Morris, a Certified Genealogist, has traced her ancestors to the immigrant on 21 different lines. Many of these people came over on the Mayflower, some landed in Jamestown.

She has proven her direct lineage through Charlemange, William the Conqueror, Surety Barons of the Magna Charta and Knights of the Garter.
This book is documented with full references. A classified and a general index have a combined total of over 4500 names.

In the 15th century, the new art of printing made the Bible available to many for the first time. Owning a Bible was punishable by death; therefore, religious groups met in secret to study their Bibles. Literacy and membership in these groups set the Huguenots apart from the French people as a whole, since few other than the Clergy could read and write. Not since the early Christian Martyrs had such religious zeal been felt. Influenced by their studies of the Bible and the teaching of John Calvin, the great French Reformer, the Huguenots urged reforms in the Established Church and protested, among many things, the "Divine Right" of the Church and the feudal lords to rule the people. For several years they worked in peace and were among the leading thinkers of France. As they gained some political power, they were considered dangerous and when Louis XIV became King of France, their freedom was taken from them by the "Revocation of the Edict of Nantes" in 1685. Their property was confiscated, often their Bibles were used as fuel to burn them at the stake. Thousands were tortured and killed, rather than renounce their faith. The order "Flee or Die" forced all who were able, to escape to England, Holland and the Colonies. Jean Marion and his wife Perinne Boutingnon did not escape.

Their son, Benjamin Marion and his young wife, Judith Baluet, of LaChaume en Poitou, France, settled in South Carolina in 1690 on the Santee River. He was our first Marion Huguenot ancestor, the grandfather of General Francis Marion, "The Swamp Fox".

Benjamin Marion and wife Judith Baluet, settled near her kin, the Cordes, who had preceded them to South Carolina and settled on Santee River, later known as French Santee. Their children were: Esther, Gabrielle, Benjamin. After Judith's death, Benjamin married Mary ____ by whom he had a son John (1st).

John Marion (1st) born in South Carolina after 1695, died 1739-married Frances, they had a son John (2nd). John Marion (1st) was ½ brother of Gabriel who married Esther Cordes, a cousin. Esther Cordes and Gabriel Marion were the parents of General Francis Marion, b. 1732; d. 1795

ABSTRACT OF THE WILL OF BENJAMIN MARION

Translated from the French: pp 162-65 Will Bk 1732-75, Charleston Co. S. C. I direct that my executors shall give to the poor fifty pieces. When I settled my son Gabriel and my daughter Gignilleat, I gave them all I could, but to my son Gabriel a Bond of Two hundred and fifty pieces. To my granddaughter Esther Gignilleat when she comes of age or marries, a negro. I have already settled my son John and my son Benjamin. I gave them each land. John sold his land and I let him use one hundred acres at Wasmesaw joining my son Paul's. Benjamin sold his land back to me, and I acquit him of a debt to the children of Peter Guerin, dec'd. To my son Paul, I gave him land at Wasmesaw.

To my daughter Mary, on her marrying I gave her a negro called Cools, his wife and three children. To my grand-daughter Nensy, a young negress. To my three other daughters, Anne, Elizabeth and Judith, they shall have the same as their sister Mary, when marrying.

To my dear wife, I give daddy Giny and his last two children. If my wife remain a virtuous widow, I appoint her my executrix, with my son Peter and my son James, when he is of age. When God shall take your mother from this world, you will not fail to bury her by my side. After the death of my wife, Peter is to have choice of the two plantations. If he die without heirs, all to James. If James die without heirs, all to Peter.

Made in Caroline, on my plantation, this 13th January 1734.

Wit: Peter Guerin, Jas. Saunders, Daniel Caliot.
Pr: 2 May 1735 by Peter Guerin and Daniel Caliot s/ B. Marion (L.S.)
John Marion (2nd) born in South Carolina ca 1738 died 1785. He married 1st Mary Sanders ca 1760, who was mother of Mary and John Marion (3rd). His second marriage was to Mary Wickam ca 1765. His will in 1785 lists his two oldest children, Mary Roberts and John Marion. His second wife preceded him in death. Their children mentioned are: Nathaniel Wickam Marion and Martha Wickam Marion.

John Marion (3rd) born in South Carolina 1763 died 1799-1800. He married Catherine Palmer, had one son Job V. Marion. John Marion died at an early age, about 35-36, too early to be listed in 1800 Census of Abbeville, S.C., according to South Carolina Archives and Records of Huguenots of South Carolina. He served as private and corporal in S. C. Line in 1783 as per audited account from S. C. Archives and family record.

Job V. Marion born 1799 in South Carolina died after 1861, Lafayette Co. Mississippi. His will dated 29th December 1861, W. B. A p 143 lists his wife Martha E. Marion and Charlotte, her daughter. His son John; daus. Caroline E. Campbell, Georgianna H. - Execs. wife Martha and son John. Job Marion moved from Abbeville, S. C. to Lafayette Co. Mississippi and was a member of the oldest Presbyterian Church, where he was among the first settlers and built at College Hill in 1836.

"Ansearchin'" News

Correction of information published in July 1961 issue of "Ansearchin'" News titled "Woodward and Gower Family Bible Records"

Corrections made by Mrs. W. H. Lee, g.g. dau of Berry Franklin Gower, who owns the Bible. Mrs. Lee says the records were sent to Miss Irene Gower, our contributor, by herself, in the correct form. We sincerely wish to correct the errors made in our earlier record.
