INDEX TO 1972 VOLUME
Dear People,

I really feel like I am writing an obituary. We are losing two of our most diligent officers at the end of the year. Both have held their positions since 1968.

You all know the wonderful job that our editor, Jewel Standefer, has done. Under her capable hands, we have had a large increase in circulation and "Ansearchin'" has become one of the top genealogical periodicals in the country.

While our treasurer, Caya Phillips, has been more behind-the-scene, he has really been the coordinator of the entire Society by keeping up with the expenditures of all departments and letting us know what projects and equipment we can afford.

I know I am speaking for every member when I say a most inadequate, "Thank you", to them both.

Our new editor will be Augusta Brough, who is now our Vice-President. I am sure you will continue to be pleased with "Ansearchin'". The Board has not yet selected a new treasurer and vice-president.

Thanks for being with us this year. We hope you enjoyed it.

Happy Holidays,

Betty H. Moore

Mrs. Henry Norfleet Moore,
President

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Because of other responsibilities it has become impossible for your Editor to continue. Therefore, her resignation has been accepted as of January 1, 1973. A lasting expression of gratitude is extended to our faithful staff and to our loyal subscribers who have contributed much valuable data for publication. Our best wishes to your new Editor, Mrs. Augusta Brough, for the continued success of "Ansearchin'" News.

The Diocese of Ardagh in the Ecclesiastical Province of Armagh, was located mainly in counties Longford and Lectrim, but also extended into parts of counties Sligo, Roscommon, Cavan and Westmeath. Up to 1692 it was a separate Diocese; from 1751 it was held by the Protestant Bishops of Kilmore; from 1751 to 1839 by the Archbishops of Tuam, and then it was finally united to the Diocese of Kilmore. Ardagh Diocese towns and civil parishes are listed. Other pertinent information is given along with the index.

houses, a collection of will abstracts relating to the Hamilton Family, a lineage of the Beretons of Carriglaney and New Abby, an account of some ordinary Irish emigrants to Canada and their extraordinary descendants, the Odell Family published in 1969, book reviews and other items of interest.

BEDWELL BEAUX AND BELLES by Carolyn Reeves Ericson (1972.) Hard covers.
Over 134 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Joe Ericson, 1614 Redbud
Street, Nacogdoches, Texas 75961. $10.00

Mrs. Ericson has produced a wonderful genealogy, well organized and with good work through out. The Bedwells came first to Virginia from England then moved to Delaware. From there, as other American families did, the descendants scattered south and west. There were Bedwells in New England and they too furnished their share to the settlement of America. The Bedwells furnished many names, some well known and some not so well known, to the building of the nation. People doing genealogical work will want to look through this book.

WILLIAMSON COUNTY TENNESSEE HISTORICAL JOURNAL, No. 3, 1971-72. Published

History. Many names and events are discussed. Clues for the genealogist are many. Are you from middle Tennessee? You will be interested in this third volume of Williamson County History even if you are not.
DRIGGS FAMILY IN AMERICA. History of an American Family, Book two.
By L. Lynne Driggs, President of Driggs Family Association (1971.)
Order from the President, 51 North First Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85003. $25.00.

A monumental work with hundreds of photographs and thousands of biographies which tell of a great family. Seventy-five years ago, Driggs men started work on this genealogy. From all of the states the compilers have brought in the facts for this history of a stable and numerous family. Read it, someone whom you are looking for may be here. Read it anyway, if you love stories about vigorous and successful people.

ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS OF DOHRMAN J. SINCLAIR AND MARY DONALDSON SINCLAIR.

Mr. Sinclair has presented the ancestors and descendants of Dohrman J. Sinclair and Mary (Donaldson) Sinclair in a real and life-like way. The genealogy is well organized. The Sinclairs came to Ohio from Ireland and from there spread over the nation. These fine people have contributed much to America. Many names and places found in the book beckon to the searcher.

Alvaretta Kenan Register has produced one of the better family histories. She has traced her lineage from Charlemagne through Magna Charta Sureties to John Johnstone in Scotland. Thomas Kenan and wife Elizabeth Johnston were immigrants to North Carolina from Armagh, Ireland. They were the progenitors of James, Owen, Michael, Arabella, Elizabeth, Penelope and Jane Kenan. Felix and William Kenan are thought to have been brothers of Thomas. Sketches of the allied families of Brannen, Donaldson, Everett, Fraser, Hardy, Hedleston, and Routledge are given.

Published by the Teague Family Memorial Association, Inc. Soft covers, 250-275 pages per volume. Indexed by Vol. Order from Mrs. Lavette C. Teague, 2516 Mountain Brook Circle, Birmingham, Alabama 35223. $12.00 per year.

The Teague family magazine is a very well done and informative publication. The tremendous amount of information, illustrations and photos means work for someone. The Teague Family has a southern origin and you may find whom you have been looking for in this great quarterly.

INDEX FOR COMPILED SERVICE RECORDS ALABAMA UNITS-FLORIDA WAR by Benjamin Achee and Margery Wright (1971.) Soft covers. 51 pages. The book is an index. Order from Margery Wright, K105 Villa del Lago, Shreveport, Louisiana 71109. $6.50.

This is a very nice and useful little book. It is a list of Alabama people in The Florida War. Your ancestor may be listed with his rank, unit and county given.
"Ansearchin'" News

HIRAM AND SUSANNAH (COLE) MILLER, PIONEER SETTLERS, SMITH COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.
By Granville W. Hough and other great-grandchildren and relatives. 1971
Soft covers. Over 132 pages. Indexed. Order from Granville W. Hough, 1026 North Richman Ave., Fullerton, Calif. 92632. $5.00.

This is a very excellent book concerning a family and the people of Southern Mississippi allied to it by blood and marriage. A very interesting chapter telling of the migrations, history and development of Smith County and the southern part of Mississippi is included. This chapter has much, before now, unpublished material, regarding Indian Land Cessions, the migrations and trails of the Southern Loyalists during and after the American Revolution. Frontier changes and various State boundary changes and county formations are listed.

Mrs. Fahnestock has produced a comprehensive history of her people in New Hampshire. Although she has given a full historical background the restriction to New Hampshire was necessary. The recording of 13 generations of Bickfords is a gold mine of genealogy for New Hampshire backgrounds.

This is a very comprehensive compilation of the Jernigans of North Carolina (Bertie, Wayne, Duplin and Sampson Counties). This great family has spread over the Southern States and the Nation. The book is well documented and a genealogical gem.

Mrs. Townsend has finished a compilation begun by her father. This is an excellent little genealogy of the Tyner family and relatives in Robeson County, North Carolina. Court records, cemetery records, Bible records and personal recollections make this book interesting and a useful genealogical instrument.

This history of the Barrett Family has a genealogical chart of each individual line. A pedigree chart showing the main lines is followed by a division of the book for each line. Mrs. Reeves writes of the early English and Irish Barrett families. Then from the New England family in Mass. she follows it to Va., North Carolina, Tenn. and Texas.

Hard covers. Over 166 pages. Indexed. Order from J. Howard Binns, 1919 Western Drive, Richmond, Indiana 47374. $11.00.
A genealogy of a Quaker Family descended from Thomas Edgerton of County Wexford, Ireland and Sarah Stephens of Haddonfield, New Jersey. The story traces the family from New Jersey to North Carolina, Ohio and to many parts of the United States. Many biographical, historical notes and family portraits of this nationally known family are included along with a list of allied families.

This is a Texas story telling of David E. Lawhon's part in the Texas War for Independence. David, and his brother John C. Lawhon, were natives of Tennessee and moved to Texas about Nov. 1, 1835. He volunteered for service in the Texas Army. When it was learned that he knew the printing trade he was persuaded that he could do more for Texas by printing the needed forms, war news and proclamations. His was the typical story of a sturdy pioneer who established his family in this exciting early period of our country. Much genealogy is included.

The book contains over 2000 names arranged in alphabetical order as to groom's names, complete with an index of brides. The "Southern Recorder" was a weekly newspaper published at Milledgeville, Georgia for a period of fifty years. This book should be helpful to those doing research in Georgia.

This is a history of the Sitzlers of East Tennessee, the Sistlers and Sitchlers, and the Gibsons and Rexers of Pope County, Illinois. It is an excellent production by Mr. Sistler (as all of his works are) with many genealogical implications.

This book is a continuation of Kathleen Booth Williams' first marriage records of Goochland County (1733-1815) which was published in 1960. A methodical search was made in the Goochland County courthouse and the information checked from films in the Virginia State Library to produce this much needed genealogical tool.

Andrew Moody came from Ireland to Augusta County, Virginia. From there the Moody family moved to Knox County. Sons went to Bourbon and Fayette Counties, Kentucky. Descendants moved to Newton County, Missouri, Bryan County, Oklahoma, Hunt County, Texas, Swisher County, Texas, Curry County, New Mexico, Gentry County, Missouri, Dade County, Missouri, Montgomery County, Ohio, Custer County, Montana and Los Angeles County, California. This is a well done and informative genealogical source book.

The original History had 100 sketches of pioneers, lists of officials, biographies, early churches, land grants, pioneer settlers of 1830-1860, militia and 19 pages of photographs. Added are lists of Marriage Records from 1837-1843, new photographs, a map of the Great Locomotive Chase, death notices, location of forgotten sites, laws, etc. and many other new and important data about the county and its people. This publication is a genealogical reservoir.

Twiggs County, Georgia was formed from Wilkinson County in 1809. The county is important from a genealogical standpoint but unfortunately nearly all of the early records were destroyed by a courthouse fire. This reprint attempts to fill the need by giving what few records remain. With census records and tax lists some concept of the early settlers can be secured. The book gives early history, Indian History, War Between the States information, Churches and membership rolls, etc. Needless to say, it fills the space, in a remarkable way, caused by the fire loss. If you are searching for relatives and people once in Twiggs County this book is a must.

Mrs. Domonske has compiled a very elaborate family history. The extensive table of contents is informative. The family originated in Virginia and went 'that away' through the Southern States, the Southwest and ultimately over the U. S. There is much genealogy here.

Mrs. Smoot's background and lineage (descendant of Colonel Fielding Lewis and his wife Betty Washington, sister of George Washington, and also of many other colonial Tidewater Virginia families) with the people of the "Northern Neck" of Virginia makes the book of keen interest to those interested in a history of the area, its mansions and plantations. Of great interest are the illustrations and the many, many great names of early American History and their blood relationships.

A SPECIAL "THANK YOU" goes to Mrs. Richard Thorpe of Nashville, and to Mrs. Richard Doughtie, Miss Jennie Allensworth, and Mrs. Charles Griffin of Memphis for the wonderful collections of quarterlies and microfilm each of them gave to us. We are most grateful.
BETHELHEM METHODIST CHURCH CEMETERY

Located west of Moscow, Tenn., south of Hwy. 57, just west of Troxel Mfg. Co. plant. The church is about 2½ miles down the first road on the left past this factory.

The graveyard beside the church is well fenced. The only stones copied below are random ones which are found to the left of the entrance gate in older part of the cemetery. Most of the stones copied were the broken ones and those in very poor condition. I did not attempt to copy those in good condition. Stones to the right of the entrance gate are not included. Copied by Anna Baker Thompson on April 23, 1967.

Rowan County, North Carolina records have Cox names in the years shown as follows: Harmon and wife Jean 1757; Isaac 1759; Zachariah and wife Mary, Israel, Moses 1761; Benjamin, John 1763; Solomon, Thomas 1766.

Israel and Moses Cox's first purchase of land in Rowan County (now Davidson) was recorded December 1761. Moses, in his will drawn January 20, 1788, names wife Sarah, three sons and four daughters, all unnamed, with his brother Israel as executor. Israel drew his will May 26, 1788 naming his wife Mary, son David and other sons under age, with Benjamin Davis and Moses Park as executors.

In the sale of land belonging to Moses Cox, 1791, we find the following names: John Cox and wife Sarah, Charles Cox and wife Ann and Moses Cox. A division of the estate of Israel Cox has not as yet been found. Both men owned large tracts of land and were active in civic affairs.

A cemetery in Cabin Creek area, on land owned by Israel Cox has about 35 graves with head and foot stones but the only marked graves were:
Israel Cox died June 3, 1788, aged 42 years; David Cox born Aug. 27, 1766, died June 15, 1840, 73 years; Martha Cox born Sept. 22, 1764, died Oct. 17, 1822, age 58 years (records show that David Cox married Martha Cole April 5, 1788 in Rowan County, N. C.); William Cox born April 5, 1792, died Nov. 18, 1840; Dr. Chas. Cox died Sept. 25, 1828, age 26 years; Oma Scarlett, born 1821, died Oct. 13, 1881, aged 60 years.

Moses Cox, son of Moses and Sarah, married in Rowan County, N.C., July 13, 1799, Hannah Beard------who was born July 15, 1778, daughter of Andrew Beard------(proven Revolutionary War Patriot), and his wife Hannah. Andrew Beard was born Jan. 28, 1737 and died in 1785. His wife was born May 5, 1746 and died Apr. 2, 1811. Both are buried in the church cemetery of Jersey Baptist Church out from Lexington, North Carolina. Listed in the records of Jersey Baptist Church, established 1784, are Moses and Hannah Cox, members in 1802. In 1804 they were granted letters of dismissal. We next find them along with other Cox, Beard and Green families in Barren County, Kentucky.

A letter from John Knox Polk Cox in 1911 to his cousin in Tennessee states that John Cox of Rowan County, N. C., brother of Moses, moved to Ohio and then to Indiana and the other brother Charles Cox settled in Georgia.

In the 1810 and 1820 census records of Barren County, Ky., there are both Moses Cox the Little and Moses Cox the Big. Court records show that Moses Cox the Little wrote his will on March 16, 1826, naming his wife Hannah and three eldest sons, Levi, Moses and John C. Cox; the will was probated in April 1826. Land sold Oct. 1847 gives the names of the legatees: Hannah Cox, widow, Francis Marion Cox, Martha Cox Armstrong, Levi Cox and wife Lucy, Leroy Wine and wife Louisa of Missouri, Moses Cox of Gibson County, Tenn., Benjamin Myers and wife Sarah and John C. Cox of Tipton County, Tenn. Lewis Allen Cox was not named in this instrument, however, he was named among the children in a later document.

Most of these people were farmers and active in community affairs. They belonged to the Church of Christ at Coxes Chapel, and are buried in the Church cemetery. Moses Cox, dying in 1890, left a will, (Crockett Co., Tn.) naming all of his children.

3. John Carr Cox, called Carr, born Jan. 21, 1804 in N. C. and died in Tipton Co. Tenn., married Dec. 18, 1823, in Barren Co., Ky., Anna McGuire. Before 1830 they moved to Randolph, Tipton County, Tenn. He, along with a son-in-law William Walton, operated a brick kiln while in Tenn. They built the two story brick courthouse and made the brick for The First Methodist Church. Sometime in 1849 they moved to Macon County, Mo. Tipton Co., Tenn. We place them there in the 1850 census with a son James buried in Salem Cumberland Presbyterian Church cemetery, Macon Co., Mo. The 1870 census shows the following children: F. M. (male) age 20; Martha J. 16

(who married James F. Roebuck; Sarah E., who married Jerome B. Albright; Moses L. Ten, who married Mary Agnes Raybuck in 1844.) Mary 4 (born Dec. 8, 1865, died Aug. 25, 1893, married Lafayette Coulter); John C. 18; Joseph 6;
and Mary H. Tedford 17 (his sister's daughter). In the 1850 census his mother, Hannah Cox, age 73, was living with him. She died in 1852 and is buried in Missouri. Francis Marion Cox, his son, born in 1850 and Andrew S. Cox, son of Lewis Cox, made a trip by covered wagon to Texas to bring Martha Cox Armstrong Tedford, their aunt (a widow) and her children back married Demelvill Tedford, born Nov. 27, 1807, as his second wife (his first wife by whom he had seven children was Amytis A. Thelso). He died Sept. 22, 1866 in Freestone or Burnett County, Texas. Martha Ann Cox died April 9, 1869 and is buried in Salem Cumberland Presbyterian Church cemetery near Woodville, Mo. Her children were: Francis Marion Armstrong, born Sept. 6, 1841 and died Feb. 4, 1873; Amytis Ann Tedford, born Sept. 12, 1850 who married a Walker; John Carr Tedford born Nov. 27, 1851; Mary Hannah Tedford born March 16, 1853, who married first Jan. 22, 1871, F. M. Cox (apparently the cousin who came to Texas for the family for she is found in her father's household in the 1870 census) - she married secondly James M. Wine (could this have been a cousin also, a son of Louisa Cox Wine?); Finis Newton Tedford was born May 29, 1854, married Amy Jane __; Christopher Columbus Tedford born December 16, 1855; Demelvill Moses Tedford, born April 25, 1858, was married to Amelia Wine by A. S. Cox (was Amelia a daughter of Louisa Cox Wine?); Samuel Caldwell Tedford, born Feb. 6, 1860, died Sept. 9, 1866; Martha Elizabeth Tedford, born Oct. 16, 1861, married Samuel Lewis Cress (both are buried in Cox cemetery at the Christian Church in Coxtown, Mo.); Joseph Andrew Tedford, born May 18, 1864. Francis Marion Cox, brother of Martha Cox Tedford was made guardian of Finis N., Moses D. and Martha E. Tedford in March 1871.

Moses Cox, the Big or the Hatter as he was also known, married Sarah Deweese, Sept. 28, 1800, in Barren County, Ky. In the will of Elisha Deweese he devises 1/12 interest to Israel Cox, son of Moses Cox, 1/6 interest to Moses Cox, husband of his wife's daughter Sarah Bell. Apparently Sarah Bell assumed the name of her stepfather Sarah Bell. In the will of Moses Cox, the Big, dated June 1846 and probated August 1847 he names his two sons, Israel and John W. and daughters Elizabeth Jameson (George), Mary Smith (Thomas G.), Emily Depp (Albert L.) and Susannah Everett (Wm. G.) along with his wife Sally Cox. In the 1850 census Sally Cox was 68 years old and a native of North Carolina (born ca 1782). We do not know the father of this Moses Cox. However, theory has it that he was a son of Israel of N. C. Note he was in Ky. in 1800, while the other Moses Cox did not leave N.C. until after 1804. In the 1820 census of Barren Co. Ky. Chastean Cox, Jesse Cox, Moses Cox the Little and Moses Cox the Big are listed. No doubt these were all relatives.

The above information has been taken from Bible Records, Court records, Census records and Goodspeed histories. My thanks go to the many people who have been accumulating this data. A book about this family, bringing them on down the line, is now in the making, by another of our researchers.

ALEXANDER CEMETERY
Contributed by Mrs. H. H. Jones

14th District, Rutherford County, Tennessee

Blankenship, Bethiah 1838-1868
Damron, Edmond S. 1808-1889
Damron, Sallie G. 1878-1882
Damron, Middy 1788-1870

This cemetery is about one acre, but these were the only markers. There were many more graves. It is located about one mile from the H. H. Jones farm, way back in the woods and fields.
Located on State Highway 25 about 3½ miles east of Hartsville (Trousdale Co.), Tennessee, the Stalcup Cemetery is a part of the 357 acre tract granted to William Stalcup by the state of North Carolina in 1787. The date of the first burial is not known. William Stalcup died in 1819. His son, William Stalcup, Jr. stated in his Will dated 1845 that this was a large burying ground. The Will set aside one acre to be kept open for a "public burying ground". About half of this acre has been used by white families and the other half by colored people. At present both have been enlarged and are still being used. This record includes only the part used by white families.

Only those born before 1860 are included in this record. Many more graves with dates in the late 1890's and as late as 1961 have been copied by Mr. Jones, but he gave us the privilege of abstracting the early dates. ED.

THOMAS BROWN
Contributed by Mrs. Edwin H. Smith

Abstracted from 16 pages.

Pensioner was born Feb. (he thinks the 28th), 1753 in Augusta Ca., Va. His father had a Bible, but it was left behind at Waxau. While a youth, his father moved from Augusta to Roan, N. C. not far from the Adkin River. From there, while a boy, they moved to Waxau, S. C. not far from the N. C. line, a quarter of a mile from the Catawba River, 45 miles from Camden, and 3 miles from Widow Jackson, the mother of Gen. Andrew Jackson. His father was William Brown, and his brothers Alexander, Robert and William also joined the army.

On his way back to Waxaw, S. C. he came across his brother William who had entered for 5 months serving under Gen. Rutherford. There, a William Houston who "being tired of the service" gave him $40 to take his place. Served under Capt. Wm. Houston, a Corp. Campbell, Col. Locke. Then returned to Waxhaw.

In spring or summer of 1780, Waxaw was over run and residents took their "portable effects" and went into N. C., the line being but a small distance off. He and his father's family then fled to McLenburge (Mecklenburg?) Co., N. C. His brothers Alexander, Robert, William joined the army. His last tour from McLenburge was under Capt. Oliver Wily, Lt. Thomas Shelly, and Insign Thomas Wray. It was from Gilbert's Mill. In 1780 when he left the army he moved to the Holston River, settling in what is now Sullivan Co., Tenn. and stayed for several years. Then went to Church River in Roan Co.; then to Smith Co. where he made one crop. Then to Warren where he has lived for 24 or 25 years. He was 80 last Feb. He knew a Lt. Charles Burnet and a Sgt. McDonald, who he thinks was killed by a cannon.

He can prove by ROBERT BROWN that he was at Charleston when Sullivan's Island was attacked by Clinton.

Affidavits from:
WILLIAM F. LUCK, clergyman.
