ABSTRACTS OF THE DEEDS OF CARTER COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1796-1825 by Mary McIver. 1985. Hard back. 136 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. McIver, 1207 Michigan St., Elizabethton, TN 37643-2429. $27.50. TN residents add $2.15 tax.

Abstracts of the earliest deeds, as recorded in Deed Books A, B, C and seventy-five pages of Book D, include many transactions dated before 1796 but recorded later. There are numerous early North Carolina and Tennessee Land Grants, one dated 1777. Claims of title, bills of sale, and powers of attorney span the period for which census records were destroyed, and divisions of estates, deeds of gift and sales of land often establish family relationships. In this period Carter County included the area that would later become Johnson County and a part of Unicoi County. This was the site of the first court west of the mountains, and this book is a valuable asset for early Tennessee research.

LANIER by Louise Ingersoll. 1981. Soft back. 696 pp. Indexed. Order from Virginia Kauffman, 5717 Anola Ct., Springfield, VA 22151. $35.00.

From Paris, London, the Barbados and on to Virginia came the family of Lanier. Many are listed as musicians, and in London the Laniers are well recorded in the books of the Huguenot Society. Extensive research is reflected in the commentary on the Laniers of the 16th and 17th centuries. The most distinguished is Nicholas the Younger, son of John and Frances Lanier, founder of the family of musicians and the American Laniers. The book is divided into the following sections: (1) John Lanier to Virginia by 1656; (2) Robert Lanier to the Barbados and his sons to Virginia in 1687; (3) unplaced Laniers, a most unusual addition to a family book. These are people having the family name, but proving not to be of this line. Among the numerous allied lines are Adams, Adkins, Bowen, Carter, Durham, Evans, Ford, Green, Gray, Lee, Mason, Nash, Peacock, Sealy, Ward, Westmoreland, and many more.

RUPPENTHAL HISTORY by Kathern Ruppenthal Allemong. 1984. Soft back. 98 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Allemong, Rt. 4, Box 27, Berkeley Springs, WV 25411. $16.50.

In the preface the author informs the reader that "this genealogy is far from being complete" and gives sources of the material as Bible records, gravestone inscriptions, official records from courthouses and libraries, family remembrances, and personal interviews. The book briefly traces the etymology of the Ruppenthal name and then moves quickly to Konrad Ruppenthal born c1754 in Germany. The immigrant to America, Adam Martin Ruppenthal [born 30 April 1814 in Helpershain, Germany, died 1 June 1878, came to Baltimore, Maryland 1837] was of the third generation. He married Christiana (Weaver) Weber [born 1819 in Germany, daughter of John David and Regina Weber, died 1880, came to America 1836] in Jefferson County, Virginia in 1842, and it is their descendants who are traced to the present day. The index includes lines of Allemong, Aulabaugh, Batt, Chewning, Clark, Fearnow, Fisher, Henry, Hovermale, Jones, Johnson, Michael, Miller, Shirley, Webber, Wethington, Widmyer and Yost.

HISTORY OF THE DESCENDANTS OF THE JERSEY SETTLERS ADAMS COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI Vols. I and II edited by Frances Preston Mills. 1981. Hard back. Vol. I 949 pp. Vol. II 1,091 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. D.W. Huff, 3033 Gilbert Dr., Baton Rouge, LA 70809. $75.00.

This extensive work compiles the history and genealogy for descendants of the Reverend Samuel Swayze and his brother, Richard, sons of Judge Samuel Swayze of Chester County, New Jersey. They were the pioneer leaders of the Jersey Settlers who came to the wilderness of the Mississippi Territory in 1773 to claim and settle on an English land grant known as the "Ogden Mandamus." The family is traced back to William King and John Swayze, immigrants, who were in Salem, Massachusetts by 1630. With 737 pages of Swayze genealogy traced to 16th Century France, 182 pages of History Sources, and a map of the division of 19,000 acres of the grant, these volumes present not only a comprehensive package for Swayze-King research, but also a background and history for the whole area. They contain wonderful mid-nineteenth century family pictures, cemetery pictures and facsimiles of old documents, court and land records. Major allied families include Coleman, Griffing, Cory, Luse, King, Ogden, Carter, and many others.

PAMUNKEY NEIGHBORS OF ORANGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Ruth Trickey Sparacio and Sam Sparacio. 1985. Hard back. 597 pp. Indexed. Order from Sam and Ruth Sparacio, 1320 Mayflower Dr., McLean, VA 22101. $30.00.

More than 100 years after the Virginia Colonists arrived at Jamestown, the authors' ancestral families had migrated to the forks and branches of the Pamunkey River. Beginning in 1650, court records, wills, deeds, marriages and trials chronicle the stories of these families: Mountague, Stevens, Mills and Lindsay. The first Peter Mountague came to the Virginia Colony in 1621. Sarah, John Stevens' daughter, was born 1767 in Orange County. Charles Mills' daughter, Ceiley, married Landon Lindsay there in 1811. Records on these and other families date to 1900, and the families are followed on western migrations. In the appendix more information referring to persons in the text is numbered, much like footnotes.

LIZZIE'S LEGACY AND OUR COFFEY COUSINS by Mary Elizabeth Coffey Self and Bennie Lou Coffey Loftin. 1984. Hard back. 188 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Loftin, P.O. Box 160, Kiowa, OK 74553. $22.00.

The book has two purposes: to record "Lizzie" Self's memoirs and Mrs. Loftin's research on the Coffey family. Mrs. Self, born 26 October 1897 in Rockcastle County, Kentucky, recounts much information. A county map helps locate places she names. Mrs. Loftin's ancestry begins with Edward Coffey who died before 20 October 1716 in Essex County, Virginia. His will names widow, Ann, and children, John, Edward, Marther, Ann, Austes and Elizabeth. Family migrations are traced to North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Oklahoma. There are many pictures and much documentation of Bible records, property settlements and pension papers, and a Grainger County, Tennessee map. The book also has three pages of names and addresses of Coffey kin.

SCALF FAMILY HISTORY by Elmer D. Scalf. 1982. Soft back. 235 pp. $20.00.

THE SEALS FAMILY HISTORY by Elmer D. Scalf. 1984. Soft back. 171 pp. Order both books from Mr. Scalf, 6056 De Lay Ave., Glendora, CA 91740. $10.85.

Mr. Scalf explores early variations of his name and concludes that the earliest version was Scarfe. To support this conclusion, he cites a 1663 land grant from the first documented American ancestor. John Scarfe (Scalf) was living in the Albemarle region of North Carolina in 1719. The Revolutionary soldier ancestor, born about 1761, was John Scalf. One chapter of the book covers the related families of Killion, Hodge, Edwards, Seals, Jones, and Lanham; another is a listing of Tennessee and Kentucky Scalf marriages. An appendix includes copies of a 1719 deed and a 1751 will. There are maps of South Mills, North Carolina; Hawkins County, Tennessee; and Clay, Knox and Laurel Counties in Kentucky.

After briefly discussing the English and German origins of the Seals name, the author moves quickly through the colonial history of the family, focusing on the Hancock County, Tennessee descendants. He proclaims that area of Tennessee "Melungeon country...beautiful and secluded..." and writes with genuine appreciation of his family's Tennessee heritage. His anecdotes, well chosen and charmingly related, are presented against the background of the Melugeon mystique and the seclusion that was early Hancock and later Hawkins County. Charming and provocative, this unpretentious little book is a must for Seals and the following related descendants: Bowlin, Brewer, Vaughn, Cantwell, Trent, Odom, Jones, McCarty, Webb and Cope.

TENNESSEE COUNTY HISTORY SERIES, RUTHERFORD COUNTY by Mabel Pittard. 1984. Hard back. 138 pp. Indexed. Order from Memphis State University Press, Memphis, TN 38152. $12.50.

Rutherford County was formed in 1803 from Davidson County and therefore had its beginnings very early in Tennessee history. Settlers in the area before 1800 included: Robert Weakley, Thomas Bedford, William Atkinson, Owen Edwards, John Etta, Thomas Howell, Thomas Nelson, Samuel Wilson and Nimrod Meniffee. The book views the various historical facets which have had an impact upon the county such as: the economic development and progress, religion, education, commerce and the effect that the various wars have had on the area. County points of interest detailed are: Stones River National Battlefield Park, Middle Tennessee State University, the boyhood home and grave of twenty-one year old Confederate Sam Davis who was hung as a spy, and the home of James K. Polk, eleventh president of the United States. Thirty-nine photographs, a map appendix, and a bibliography are added resources. This is volume seventy-five in a continuation of county histories published by Memphis State University Press.

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH DIRECTORY Regional & International edited by Keith A. Johnson and Malcolm R. Sainty. 1985. Soft back. 704 pp. Order from Mrs. N. Schreiner-Yantis, 6818 Lois Dr., Springfield, VA 22150. Write for price.

This sixth edition reflects over 80,000 research entries from contributors and contains only newly submitted entries, inasmuch as there are no repeats from previous editions unless re-submitted. Entries include an alphabetized listing of surnames, each followed by a date, a place, and a code number for the contributor. A separate section gives contributors' names and addresses. A majority of the listings are seeking information outside of the USA. There are listings of major genealogical conferences, numerous genealogical societies in the USA and Canada, as well as names and addresses of 5,200 plus contributors in twenty-five countries. Entry forms for inclusion in the 1986 Directory may be obtained from Mrs. Schreiner-Yantis, preferably by August 31, 1985.

1860 CENSUS OF CALHOUN COUNTY, ARKANSAS published by the Ouachita-Calhoun Genealogical Society. 1983. Soft back. 67 pp. Indexed. Order from publishers, P.O. Box 2092, Camden, AR 71701. $10.00.

On 6 December 1850, Calhoun County was officially organized, being formed from lands taken from Dallas and Ouachita Counties. However, the earliest known settlers in this area arrived about 1841-43. The county seat of Hampton came into being in 1851 at the farm of Nathaniel Hunt, Hampton, Arkansas' first settler. Neatly compiled, this census publication contains all pertinent information on the head of household and each of its inhabitants, townships, and dates recorded by the census taker. The Mortality Schedule is also included, being a list of all reported deaths, black and white, during the twelve months prior to 1 June 1860. One also will find an 1885 map of the county showing its communities.

THE PHILADELPHIA CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH 1847-1985 compiled by Frances D. Rowan and Eva Reeser. 1985. Soft back. 80 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Rowan, 463 Grove St., Bishop, CA 93514. $9.00.

This small book is full of information on approximately 600 people and contains many photographs concerning this Limestone, Tennessee church. Part I presents the organization of the church in 1847 with twenty-four charter members. The Cumberland Presbyterian historians give James McGready credit for the revival preaching that set into motion the groundwork for its being. Names of early pastors, elders, and deacons, and records of the new church and other interesting facts are found. Part II is comprised of membership records, baptisms, marriages, deaths and many miscellaneous records. Part III relates the happenings in the year 1910 to the present. Among the many names mentioned are Capp, Broyles, Bitner, Beasley, Brown, Freeman, Glaze, Hardin, Hammer, Miller, Moore, Painter, Rush, and Walter(s).

DRAKE-ARRINGTON, WHITE-TURNER, LINN-BROWN and Two Dozen Related Southern Lines by Jo White Linn, C.G. 1984. Hard back. 469 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Stahle Linn, Jr., Box 1948, Salisbury, SC 28145-1948. $35.00.

In a very unique manner the compiler introduces the researcher to the main subjects of her book, with family charts on the title's surnames, together with available birth and death dates. The earliest Drake ancestor, John Drake, died 1729 in Bertie County, North Carolina. The Arrington line descends from William who died 1725 in Isle of Wight, Virginia. William White married Rachael Treadwell in Henry County, Georgia in 1825. Samuel Turner was born in 1760 in Maryland. Thought to have been a sea captain, Hugh Linn died c1785 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Leaving Pennsylvania, Michael Braun/Brown also settled in Rowan County and died there in 1807. These six lines are charted so that the researcher can get a complete picture before delving into the contents which are neatly divided into six parts. Further documented information is gleaned from the numerous photographs, Bible listings of deaths, births, and marriages, newspaper clippings and tombstones. Some of the allied lines are Treadwell, Slade, Lacey, Harrison, Cathey, Redwine, Krider, Wood, McNair, Peden, Sandefer, Tompkins, Bennett, Hodges, Goodrich, Bechinoe, Williams, Bustin, Outlaw, Fox, Smith, George, Doll and Stahle. Mrs. Linn says "This book describes everything I know in direct descent of my maternal and paternal lineage and everything I know of my husband's". She feels that "something now" in book-form is better than "everything never", a warning we might all take to heart.

MORGAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1850 CENSUS compiled by Lee M. Cross, edited by Larry R. Spurling. 1985. Soft back. 75 pp. Indexed. Order from Heritage Books, Inc., Suite 300, 3602 Maureen Ln., Bowie, MD 20715. $13.50.

Morgan County in eastern Tennessee was formed in 1817 from Roane County. This edition of census lists the 581 households in alphabetical order by the surname of the head of the household. Family numbers are retained for the benefit of those who may want to refer to the original census; they may also be used to identify neighbors. In addition to the name for each member of the household, the tabulated data give age, sex, race, occupation, birthplace, and value of real estate owned. The fifty-two German and twenty-five Swiss families indicate large colonies of immigrants to Morgan County.

ARKANSAS TOWNSHIP ATLAS, A History of the Minor Civil Divisions in Each Arkansas County compiled by Russell Pierce Baker. 1984. Soft back. 212 pp. Order from Arkansas Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908. $12.00.

From territorial times, the counties of Arkansas have been divided into civil and political subdivisions called townships. They have always been created by the local county courts, and their history, names and boundary changes are recorded in county court records. The earliest maps of these townships date from 1930. The seventy-seven county maps are arranged in alphabetical order; each one locates and names the townships, county seats and principal cities within its boundaries. A list of the townships accompanies each map, giving the origin, date of formation and parent township, and any change of boundary that might have occurred. Because the federal census has always been recorded in Arkansas by township, this atlas can often shorten a census search when the name of the township is known. Libraries, as well as individual Arkansas searchers, will benefit by adding this comprehensive atlas to their collection.

JAMES STARK OF STAFFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA AND HIS DESCENDANTS, Vol. 1, 2, 3 compiled by Mary Kathryn Harris and Mary Iva Jean Jorgensen. 1985. Spiral bound. 1,473 pp. Indexed. Order from Mary Harris, 3525 Scranton Dr., Fort Worth, TX 76118. $42.00 for the three volume set.

This massive compilation of Stark family data begins with Scottish origins and focuses on the many descendants of James Stark, born c1695 in Scotland and died 1754 in Virginia. He married Elizabeth Thornton about 1716. Five of his fifteen children--John, James, Jeremiah, William and Thomas--are traced in detail; little is known of Daniel, Benjamin or the eight daughters. Fifteen pages of maps give sketches pinpointing locations of the family at various times in its history which encompasses locales in fourteen states and Scotland. These descendants are found throughout nine counties in Virginia, some nineteen counties in Missouri, sixteen in Kentucky, thirteen counties in Texas and in Davidson, Decatur, DeKalb, Dickson, Robertson, and Sumner Counties in Tennessee. Volume 3 contains an extensive bibliography arranged by part and chapter for easy reference. There are fifty-two pages in the index, half of which are devoted to surnames other than Stark. Any researcher having Stark family connections will almost surely find useful information in these volumes.

HENRY CO., TENNESSEE NEWSPAPER GLEANINGS, 1887-1893 by Charles D. Robbins. 1985. Soft back. 109 pp. Indexed. Order from compiler, P.O. Box 1122, Paris, TN 38242. $10.00.

Spanning the dates June 3, 1887 to January 6, 1893, this volume gives selected articles from county newspapers which would be of most interest to genealogists. The compiler has listed abstracted events and noted approximately 900 individuals, some of whom are mentioned in eight or nine different items. In those days, due to the smallness of most communities, any marriage, death or new baby involved people known to most citizens. A moon-light picnic, movement of people from one community to another, and events of everyday life are found in the local newspaper. An addendum reports the Porter-White-Edmunds feud which extended from 1886 to 1892.

THE IVY FAMILY 1635-1984 IN VIRGINIA, GEORGIA AND MISSISSIPPI by Robert Adams Ivy. 1984. Soft back. 105 pp. Indexed. Order from Mr. Ivy, 1206 N. 7th St., Columbus, MS 39701. $20.00.

Researchers for Ivy and its allied lines are going to thoroughly enjoy reading this well-compiled and documented book. The author creates such enthusiasm with his choice of words that each related incident comes to life for the reader. Chapter titles include: American Pioneers;

The Ivy Line; The Earliest Lines, from 1635-1885 (descendants of Thomas Ivy who settled in Lower Norfolk County, Virginia); Contemporary Lines, from 1835-1984 (descendants of Thomas Ivy who died in 1836 in Chickasaw County, Mississippi). Good family photographs are a highlight. Among the many allied names appear Mason, Thelaball, Langley, Shackelford, Baskin, Reid, Gardner, Neal, Adams, Sturdivant, Gates, Dortch, Newsom, Sheppard, Spencer, Hillard, Calvert, Chandler, Higginbotham, Wilroy, Ellington, and White.

MAT(T)HIAS MILESTONES by Dorothy Weiser Seale. 1984. Hard back. 432 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 8203 Yukon Court, Arvada, CO 80005. $39.50.

Mrs. Seale's book is well researched and beautifully published with a style that is easy to follow and print that is easy to read. She has made the genealogies more than a series of birth and death dates. The book has many pictures of family members, documents, buildings and monuments. She follows the descendants of Daniel Mathias, Sr. from Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and Stark County, Ohio, and gives an appendix on the life of Michael Zehner (Sanor). Both were German immigrants to this country in the mid 1700's and were soldiers of the American Revolution. Allied families include: Albright, Beck, Brifogle, Christman, Cope, Crouch, Deihl, Dennis, Eldredge, Eshelman, Etchberger, Gilbert, Harris, Hart, Hickerson, McKean, Olinger, Roland, Seanor/Sanor, Sechrist, Sheraw, Shrader, Slusser, Kemp, Stambaugh, Sweeney, Trump, Walter, Weiser, and Yount.

LEST WE FORGET - A Story of the Erwins by E. D. Erwin. 1984. Soft back. 223 pp. Order from Mr. Erwin, Rt. 2, Erwin Rd., Adairsville, GA 30103. $19.50.

Years in the writing, this publication takes the reader far into the past. The ancient Thuir-Wynes (Erwins); Pre-History Irwynes in Scotland; Ervines in Ireland; Arthur Erwin of New England; the Erwin family of Burke County, North Carolina; Nathaniel Irwin who died c1793 in York County, South Carolina; John Erwin born about 1755 in South Carolina; and James Erwin who died about 1778 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, are only a few of the lines discussed. Magna Charta Ancestors and Kings and Queens of Scotland and England are briefly outlined in connection with the Erwins. This book is most descriptive of the Erwins in America from the early 1700's to the present. Creative writing has been employed by the author who uses incidents related by his father and many others.

DESCENDANTS OF ROBERT ROSE OF BRANFORD AND WETHERSFIELD, CONNECTICUT Who Came on The Ship "Francis" from Ipswich, England in 1634 by Christine Rose. 1983. 512 pp. Indexed. Order from Rose Family Association, 1474 Montelegre Dr., San Jose, CA 95120. $40.00.

Chronicling ten generations, this book begins with Robert who was born c1594 and died c1664 in Branford, Connecticut. Fifty-four pages of the index are devoted to surnames other than Rose. The author's claim that a number of books and magazines were consulted is backed up with a bibliography of half a dozen pages. She carefully differentiates opinion from fact and supports her assertion that much of her data result from personal research by meticulously citing primary sources. Over fifty illustrations are included, one a reproduction of a 1634 ship's passenger record listing the immigrant, his wife, and eight children. Robert's and Margery's children are John, Robert, Elizabeth, Mary, Samuel, Sarah, Daniel, Dorcas, Jonathan, and Hannah. Anecdotal material is presented sparingly and tastefully, making this a superb account of a particular colonial New England family and its descendants.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM BRITTON AND SARAH M. GATES BRITTON compiled by Bernice Hester. 1984. Soft back. 211 pp. Partial index. Order from the author, 1412 Jackson Rd., Florence, AL 35630. $22.00.

A very brief history is given on William Britton's father, James, his grandfather, James, and great-grandfather, Daniel, all born in Wales. Daniel received a land grant of 264 acres from North Carolina dated 22 October 1782. James Britton, Sr. fought in the American Revolution. The family moved westward after the war, and William, who was born in Greene County, Tennessee, in 1799, later moved to Alabama. Most of William's children were reared around Franklin County, Alabama. The genealogies flow easily for the reader with the use of an outline following them through seven generations, in some instances, to the present time. Many good family pictures are included. A partial index gives an address and telephone number for some known descendants.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA COUNTY COURT MINUTES, 1744 thru 1762 - Book 1 transcribed by Weynette Parks Haun. 1985. Soft back. 206 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Haun, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $22.50.

In her usual competent manner, the compiler offers valuable information in a much-needed area, county court minutes. Such early records are not readily available to researchers and, at best, are difficult to read. Ms. Haun reminds us that many problems are encountered--ravage of time, brittle paper, torn pages, faded ink and illegible handwriting. As the minutes are missing for several years, the Fee Docket 1745-1746 for Edgecombe and Northampton Counties and the Crown Docket 1755-1763 for Edgecombe County have been combined and included with the Court Minutes. At this early date Edgecombe County included all of Halifax and Nash Counties, and these minutes reflect the progress of the whole area as well as giving clues to location of an ancestor, the people he worked and lived with and even his profession. Dates and names in Deeds of Sales, Wills, Inventories, Road Workers, Guardianship Bonds and other miscellaneous records prove invaluable.

OLD ALBERMARLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA BOOK OF LAND WARRANTS AND SURVEYS, 1681-1706 transcribed by Weynette Parks Haun. 1984. Soft back. 131 pp. Indexed. Order from Ms. Haun, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $30.00.

The Book of Warrants and Surveys 1681-1706 has been called one of the most important seventeenth century records of North Carolina, and this transcription has become a standard reference tool for researchers. Ms. Haun states that a concerted effort was made to transcribe "verbatim" the information at hand. Four kinds of records are registered here: head rights, warrants, surveys, and grants of patent for land. An explanation of the original land grant system appears in the Foreword. The 365 patents are recorded very legibly in reduced type, and the 1,300 family names listed could prove a goldmine if your ancestor is one of them.

DEATHS, MURDERS AND OTHER TRIBULATIONS by Patricia Armstrong Newhouse. 1984. Soft back. 113 pp. Indexed. Order from Newhouse Publications, 808 North Eighth St., Honey Grove, TX. 75446. $15.95.

This book contains articles from Red River Valley, Texas area newspapers, primarily the Honey Grove Signal, Paris News, and Bonham Favorite. These papers cover the area of Fannin, Lamar, Grayson, Delta, and other counties in northeast Texas and southeast Oklahoma for the period 1885 through 1915. The date at the end of each article is when it appeared in print. Where some clippings were not dated, cemetery "death dates" are added. These articles present a look at the harsh side of life with accidents, suicides, lunacy hearings and criminal hearings. However, the book does contain much genealogical material, is interesting to read and gives us a better understanding of some of our ancestors' tribulations.

A HERITAGE OF FAITH by Julie Freeman. 1985. Soft back. 155 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Solon G. Freeman, Sr., 734 Center Dr., Memphis, TN 38112. $10.00.

A Heritage of Faith is comprised of two parts: Facts About Our Family and Faith of Our Family. Eight blank pages are reserved for part three, Future of Our Family. This section is to be completed by descendants. Part I lists a lineage from "Adam through Alice," she being Lady Alice Needham who married William Bryan in 1689 and immediately left England for Isle of Wight County, Virginia. Their sons are Needham, William and John. Families recorded in this chapter include Lanes, Comellas, Petersons, Smiths, Pursers, Giffords, Johnsons and Freemans. Part II depicts the church affiliations of the family and their dedicated religious involvements. Mrs. Freeman gives a short history of Bellevue Baptist Church in Memphis which her family has attended for many years.

Books donated to our library by authors and publishers are reviewed as quickly as possible in "Ansearchin'" News. Our hard working, all volunteer staff does an excellent job; however, time is required to read the books and prepare reviews so we cannot always publish reviews in the first issue after books are received. We appreciate and welcome your books. Thanks for your understanding and patience if there is a delay in printing your review.

PETITIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF TENNESSEE

*Transcribed from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm, Roll Number 3, Legislative Petitions 1805-1812
(See Summer issue for earlier Petitions)*

15-1-1806 A list of signatures with no explanation of petition, county, or month.

However comparison of these names with the ones on document 5-1-1806 (see p. 26) indicates that the petition could have come from citizens of Jackson County. Due to original folding of the paper, three names may have been lost in the folds. Those marked * show an attempt to obliterate them.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

A.H. DOUGLAS VS GEORGE SIMMONS - Contributed by Judy Henley Phillips
Route 3, Box 284, Tullahoma, TN 37388

This suit was filed in the Franklin Co TN Circuit Court. George SIMMONS said he "kept and performed his said covenant or agreement." Douglas was notified that depositions of George POWELL, J.E. FELTS, A.J. WHEELER, M.L. MEACHAM and W.B. GALBREATH will be taken at the office of Estes & Jackson in Memphis, TN on 7 Mar 1866 to be read as evidence by the defendant. These papers do not give the determination of the suit but do give an insight of business and life during the Civil War period, as well as some genealogical data on the participants. Each witness was questioned by lawyers for the plaintiff and the defendant. The following is a summary of the questions and answers.

MEACHAM - He said he was a resident of Memphis from Fall 1861 to Spring 1862 in the grocery & commission Merchant business of the firm Meacham & Galbreath. They sold the following flour sacks at wholesale price to Mr. Simmons: Oct 1861, 129 sacks at $4.00 each; Dec 1861, 227 sacks at $4.25 each & 31 sacks at $5.00; and in 1862 sold 100 sacks at $4.75 each, 53 sacks at $4.50 each. He also reported that the price of "Extra family flour" during Jan 1862 was $5.00 but that he did not know the difference between Confederate currency and gold.

E.M. AVERY - He stated he was fifty years old and in the banking business now and in Jan 1862. The general money medium Jan 1862 was Treasury notes of the Confederate States and the difference between that and gold was 25% in favor of gold. By Jan 1862 the difference was 30% and by May 1862 one dollar in gold was worth two of Confederate money, however, in Nov 1861 it was about the same as Tennessee bank money.

FELTS - James E. Felts said he was a resident of Shelby Co TN, fifty-five years old and in 1861-62 was Sheriff of Shelby Co. He stated that at that time he had executions in against the solvency of Douglas but was unable to find property to satisfy so he was reported insolvent.

GALBREATH - He related that he also lived in Memphis and was a merchant in the Grocer & Commission business on Front Street. To his knowledge they sold flour to Simmons at a price between four and five dollars which was the market price for extra family flour. He did not know the difference between Confederate money and gold.

WHEELER - As a Deputy Clerk of Common Law & Criminal Court of Shelby Co TN, who resides in Memphis and is thirty-four years of age, he frequently issued executions against Douglas, whom he has known for 15 years. Some were returned "no Property found" and about the first of 1861 most returned levied upon real estate.

John W. MORRISON - This deposition was taken 6 Apr 1866 in Franklin Co Circuit Court as witness for plaintiff by the office of Heiskell, White & Heiskell in Memphis, TN. He reported that his business on Hayard Row was buying and selling flour, groceries, grain as general commission merchant. He knew Douglas but saw Simmons only once. Simmons came to Memphis about Dec 1861 and bought railroad receipts for 655 sacks of flour, shipped according to contract between Simmons and Douglas. The house of Morrison was to pay $3.75 a sack or $7.00 a barrel for flour and make payments as Simmons presented Railroad receipts. Between Nov 1861 and Dec 1861 we received 645 sacks and we paid Simmons promptly. The quality was barely superfine flour. We sold a lot of the flour to one person for $4.87½ a sack. At that time extra family flour was worth eleven to twelve dollars a barrel and increased to about sixteen in Mar 1862. My best impression was that Simmons made about $5000 profit (Confederate Money). Our commission was 5% for commission and storage and we were to pay the balance to Douglas. We did not receive notice that Simmons would not ship more flour without security or that Douglas was considered insolvent. After Simmons was paid, I understand he went out in the town and came back and said that he understood Douglas was not responsible, so we told him he could send the flour to Meacham & Galbreath. We may have allowed Douglas some money and groceries on the flour. He was not sure of the difference between gold and Confederate currency but thought it was about two to one for gold. His added comment was that Confederate money was all we had and could buy more real estate here with that than you can now with greenbacks, dollar for dollar.

The Roane Family Bible, published by M. Carey, 121 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, PA in 1816, is owned by Miss Elma Roane, Memphis, TN.

The first of the Roane family to move to Tipton Co TN was Dr. Thomas Walter Roane. Thomas Walter Roane was born 17 May 1830 in Gloucester Co VA. He was the son of Robert Roane and Emily Nicholas DAVIES both of whom were born in Essex Co. VA. He graduated from the University of Virginia in 1853 and from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia Medical College 4 Apr 1854. He probably returned to Virginia and started practice there, but soon afterward moved to Tipton Co TN where he had a license to practice medicine dated 5 Nov 1859.

Shortly after Dr. Roane came to Tipton Co TN his father also moved bringing his wife, Emily; Lucy Elvira born 2 Mar 1836; and Eliza Christina (Jake) born 26 Oct 1845. Robert Roane died 31 Dec 1872 and Emily Roane died 11 Nov 1871.

Dr. Roane married Mary Helen SOMERVILLE about 1856. He died 1 Jan 1896 at Mt. Carmel, Tipton Co TN; Mary Helen died 28 Jun 1916 at Mt. Carmel. Fourteen children were born to them. After recording the birth of the last one they wrote "Amen".

Dr. Thomas Walter Roane served as Surgeon in the Confederate Army, 51st Tennessee Regiment, Wright's Brigade, Cheatham's Division, Hardin's Corps all through the war. A story is that as he rode away to join his regiment his sword became too heavy and he placed it in a hollow tree somewhere in Middle Tennessee. When the war was over he returned the same route and found the sword in the hollow tree, but the squirrels had devoured the handle. His great-grandson, Henry M. Beaty, Jr. has the sword.
