Dear TGS members.

It will be a challenge and a pleasure to serve as the editor of Ansearchin' News for the next two years. For over fifty years, the Tennessee Genealogical Society has published a wide range of material in this quarterly journal, from indexes of the earliest will and deed books of many counties to lists of War of 1812 pensioners, book reviews, and documents and petitions involved in the formation of new counties in Tennessee.

A new and updated index is available of the contents of the various issues of Ansearchin' News from the 1960’s to this winter, beginning alphabetically by county and continuing with general articles listed chronologically. This should be a great help to those of us (like your editor) who are fairly new members of TGS, and will guide you to back issues you might need. We will publish this index in several parts, beginning with the current issue. Copies will also be at the TGS library for reference.

Please contact us now to order back issues; there are quite a few boxes in storage now at the library, and we will be packing them up for our move to Germantown in the summer. Since the index is by volume (year) only, we will be happy to help you find the particular issue you need, or you may look in the bound volumes in our library when you visit us.

We appreciate your ideas and suggestions, and are always looking for original material for publication. Are you currently working on any abstracts? What about the history of your town? your church? your family? your county? As always, our goal is to publish material which will direct genealogy researchers working on families in this area to the primary sources and original records in county and state archives.

Sincerely,

Ann Kendall Ray, editor
A MOMENTOUS DECISION

The decision by your Board of Directors to recommend to the general membership that it relinquish ownership of an invaluable collection of genealogical research material acquired over a fifty-year period was not done without much research, thoughtful consideration, and sleepless nights by several members.

For us, operating a for-members-only facility without extensive electronic research capabilities is not cost effective, nor is it the best use of our very talented volunteers. For ten years we have enjoyed the amenities of our rural and historical location and the relationship with the Davies Plantation Association. But, we are fast outgrowing our beautiful little building and with changes in local property zoning we will soon lose much of our rural surroundings.

It's time to move on.

With this decision, the Board identified the need to keep the collection together and the Society a viable and growing entity.

Of the three Shelby county municipalities that the TGS Search Committee contacted, the Germantown city administration and their library board demonstrated the strongest commitment and financial ability to satisfy these needs. The City will assume ownership and management of the collection about July 1, 2006. At that time the collection and offices of TGS will move into the remodeled Franklin library building.

As TGS reinvents itself and its culture changes we will refocus on the goals stated in its Constitution.... "The objectives of this Society shall be as set out in the Chapter of Incorporation issued by the State of Tennessee on November 5, 1952, as follows: For the purpose of creating and maintaining an organization and a society for the study and investigation of genealogical history and genealogical records and for the further purpose of receiving and collecting genealogical and historical records and depositing and preserving records in libraries and archives."

We are very excited and pleased with the number of new members, with much needed and specific expertise, who join us in our commitment to create an even stronger research facility; an even more broadly distributed and read Ansearchin' News; opportunities for members to visit other archives; widely diverse training seminars; and back-to-basics research.

Please visit our reconstructed web-site, TNGS.ORG. If you would like to critique or comment leave a message. If you are not on the internet phone or use snail-mail.

Don't let your Society let you down. Share your knowledge, enthusiasm, and concerns.

Lauderdale County – An Introduction

The Tennessee State legislature voted for the organization of Lauderdale County late in 1835 and the County Court held its first meeting of record on the first Monday of May in 1836. The county was formed from the part of Tipton County that lay north of the Hatchie River, the part of Dyer County that lay south of the South Fork of the Forked Deer River, and a sliver of Haywood County. Later a civil district just south of the Forked Deer voted to return to Dyer County.

While any name that appears in County Court minutes can be important to the family researcher who is working to prove his ancestor was there, this extracted and paraphrased transcription of the first book of the minutes covering May 1836 to May 1844 concentrates on the items that might reveal relationships or death dates. Omitted are the "Be it remembered"'s and the sometimes tiresome accounts of Court business and the lists of who was to work which road. However, this submitter welcomes questions about any of the omitted material. Write her at bbdavis@lctn.com. (That's an "L" in Ictn.)

Lucinda Beaver, Gentlewoman

Introduction

The following article is the next installment in the continuing series of articles on each of the children of Stephen and Nancy (White) Beaver of Henderson County, Tennessee. In the case at hand, the subject is their youngest daughter Lucinda, her husband Thomas Fletcher, and their family. Additional articles on the remaining children are planned and underway. Each article presents all of the records concerning the subjects that have been found from every source and attempts to place the story of the subject family in their proper historical context. It is hoped that their story will be of interest to both family members and other researchers. The author invites comments, questions, corrections, and suggestions for further research from all. It also is hoped that others will step forward with new information.

Lucinda Beaver indeed was a fortunate woman. She was raised by simple God-fearing parents in modest, but comfortable, circumstances in rural Henderson County. She attended the local schools to good effect as she was a literate woman. While yet a teen, she accompanied her sister and brother-in-law in their move to Arkansas. There she had the good fortune to meet and many the promising Thomas Fletcher. No doubt Lucinda was proud of her husband, who became one of the more successful, respected, and prominent men in Arkansas. One presumes that Lucinda came to relish her position among the leading families of Little Rock. She also no doubt was proud that her sons enjoyed much success and rose to positions of consequence and responsibility in Arkansas society.

Starting Life in Tennessee

13. Lucinda Beaver was born February 10, 1823 in Lincoln County, Tennessee, the youngest child of Stephen and Nancy (White) Beaver.¹ She was just an infant when her parents brought her to Henderson County. It is possible that she was born soon after her parents arrived in Henderson County. Not much is known of her early years. It is presumed that she attended the local schools, as she was literate as an adult. Apparently, she accompanied her sister and brother-in-law to Arkansas in 1840. But which of her two sisters and brothers-in-law she accompanied is uncertain as she does not seem to be part of either's household in 1840.

It was there that she met her future husband Thomas Fletcher. They married on September 14, 1841, probably in Saline County. A justice of the peace performed the ceremony, but no official record of their marriage has been located. Her husband was born April 8, 1819 in Randolph County, Arkansas, the son of Henry Lewis and Mary (Lindsey) Fletcher. In 1825 the Fletcher's moved to Pulaski County. In 1835, their old homestead found itself in the newly created Saline County. Thomas received a good common school education. Afterwards, he began work as a teacher in the local public schools.

Soon after their marriage, the young couple built a log house on Little Maumelle Creek about fifteen miles west of Little Rock. It was for him that nearby Fletcher's Spring, Fletcher's Creek, and Fletcher's Hollow were named. All three are located near Ferndale. While the local area mostly was a farming community, other more colorful business ventures were advanced. About 1850, Thomas Fletcher had several prospect pits and sizeable mines dug into the hills along Fletcher's Creek and south of Little Maumelle Creek. Several interesting ore samples were handed down through his descendants, but there is no record that he ever recovered significant or profitable amounts of any minerals.

On August 14, 1846, Thomas Fletcher and his wife Lucinda sold a tract of land in Saline County to his brother Martin Fletcher for $52. The tract consisted of the SW¼ of the NW¼ of fractional Section 5, Township 1 South, Range 15 West and contained 41.22 acres of land. Both Thomas and Lucinda signed the deed.

On April 29, 1848, Henry L. Fletcher of Saline County conveyed a certain "negro boy Doc about 14 years of age and of black color" as a gift to his son Thomas Fletcher of Pulaski County. However, Henry kept a life interest in his slave, thus stipulating that his son would not get the boy until after his death.

In 1850, Thomas Fletcher was farming in Maumelle Township. At the time, Thomas was 31 years old. Lucinda, at 26, was keeping house. Also in the household were their four sons Henry, James, Richard, and John. Thomas owned five slaves: an 18-year-old mulatto female, 16-year-

In 1858, Thomas Fletcher was made sheriff of Pulaski County by the old Whig Party over the vigorous protests of the Democrats. He served two terms in that post until October 1862. In the faithful administration of his office, he earned the sobriquet of "Honest Tom." In 1860, their farm found itself located in the new Owen Township. Thomas, at 41, valued his real estate at $2,000 and his personal property at $16,250. His wife, Lucinda, at 37 was keeping house. All nine of their children were living with them. The previous decade had been good to Thomas and Lucinda. Their family had grown significantly. His agricultural pursuits and other business ventures made them prosperous enough to invest in many more slaves. By the time of the census, Thomas owned eighteen slaves who were kept in two slave houses. The eighteen were described as:

It is difficult to know for sure, but it appears that Thomas had kept all of his slaves from 1850 and purchased or inherited thirteen more. His small farm had grown into a considerable plantation consisting of 125 acres of improved land valued at $2,000. He owned $600 worth of farm implements and machinery, more than anyone else in Owen Township. His livestock, consisting of nine horses, three mules, seven cows, two oxen, fifteen cattle, ten sheep, and thirty-five swine, were valued at $650. His total production consisted of ten bushels of wheat, five hundred bushels of rye, one thousand bushels of corn, two hundred bushels of oats, forty bushels of potatoes, fifty bushels of sweet potatoes, eleven fifty pounds of butter, ten pounds of beeswax and honey, $30 worth of home manufactured goods, and $100 worth of slaughtered animals.

At the expiration of his second term as sheriff, the Whigs nominated and elected him to the state legislature in 1862. However, when the Federal Army captured Little Rock in 1863, Thomas Fletcher took his family and fled to Camden which remained safely under Confederate control throughout the War. He was a member of the Confederate state legislature in 1864. In 1865, after the close of the Civil War, Thomas brought his family back to Pulaski County. Fortunately for him, he found his name among the list of non-combatants. In 1866, he was elected sheriff of Pulaski County as part of the Murphy administration. The field was crowded as no less than six men vied for the position. The local newspaper reported the election returns: Griffith 195, Fletcher 463, Blanks 366, Parish 374, Adams 216, and Johnson 102.15 One wonders whether he would have won the election had the field of candidates been smaller. He held that office until July 1868, when he and all of the other white Democrats were reconstructed out of office.
In 1868, he was licensed to practice law and carry on a real estate business.16 By the following year, Thomas had moved his family into Little Rock so that he could practice his new profession.
He purchased a house and lot at the corner of Ninth and Cumberland streets. In 1870, the family resided in the City's Second Ward.17 At 51 years of age, the new lawyer valued his real estate at $30,000 and his personal estate at $10,000. His wife Lucinda, at 46, was keeping house. Three of their sons, Richard, John, and Caleb, were living with them. Also in their household was a surveyor, Caleb Langtree, who may have been in Thomas’ employ. In the Little Rock City Directory of 1871, Thomas Fletcher is listed as a lawyer with offices at 16 West Markham. By 1872, together with his son John, Thomas had entered into a law partnership known as Farr, Fletcher & Fletcher. Their offices were located on Markham nearly opposite the State House. By 1876, his son John left their partnership to pursue his law practice independently. In 1877, the new firm of Farr & Fletcher kept their offices in Room 17 upstairs at 106 West Markham.
In 1876 and again in 1878, Thomas Fletcher mounted formidable, yet unsuccessful, campaigns for the Democratic Party's nomination for governor. It was in his second race that Uncle Tom disposed of one of his opponents with a fatherly shake of his head and the words: "As to my friend, Smithee, he is young; he can afford to wait."
His young opponent innocently responded,
"True, I can afford it, but that is not the question. Can Arkansas afford it?" He continued to be a loyal Democrat and worked in Grover Cleveland's first campaign for president. During the entire period, he never turned his attention away from his practice of law and his considerable other business and agricultural interests. In 1880, Thomas and Lucinda still were living at 303 East Ninth Street in the Second Ward.18 At 60, Thomas was working as a lawyer. Lucinda, at 55 years of age, was keeping house. Their son Caleb and his wife and daughter were living with them. Also, their black cook Clara Green was living with them. The City Directory of 1883 lists Thomas Fletcher as a capitalist rather than as a lawyer.

In October 1885, President Grover Cleveland rewarded Thomas Fletcher for his political support with an appointment to the office of United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Arkansas. He held that post through 1888. Soon thereafter, much to the consternation of his family, Thomas Fletcher changed his political allegiance to the new Populist Party. He served three terms as the chairman of the State Central Committee as well as national committeeman from Arkansas.

By 1890, Thomas Fletcher was one of the largest land owners in Pulaski County, owning altogether about 2,500 acres. He owned about 1,000 acres in Owen Township that he thought contained valuable copper, lead, and silver deposits. He continued to work these deposits and expected to realize considerable profit from this endeavor. He owned a granite quarry near Little Rock that did prove to be a good investment. He also owned considerable residential and business property in Little Rock.

On September 5, 1891, “Uncle Tom” as he generally was called and his wife Lucinda celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The gala affair was hosted by his brother John Gould Fletcher in his home at 411 East Seventh Street. The celebration featured elaborate floral arrangements, a Bavarian Band, and an elegant supper which began at 11:00 PM. The host presented a gold pin to Lucinda and a gold headed cane to Thomas. In addition, the generous host presented a gold souvenir to each guest present. As only the second golden anniversary to occur in the city, it was a special occasion indeed.

Lucinda Fletcher died on October 19, 1892. Her death was noted in the local newspaper.

"Mrs. Lucinda Fletcher, wife of Col. Thomas Fletcher, died yesterday afternoon at their residence on Ninth and Cumberland streets, at the advanced age of 68 years. She had been suffering from rheumatism for seven long years, which lately became complicated with other diseases, and during the past six months had been in exceedingly poor health. The immediate cause of death was heart failure.

"Mrs. Fletcher's maiden name was Lucinda Beaver, she having been born February 12, 1824, in Henderson County, Tenn. She emigrated with her brother-in-law to Saline County, Ark., in 1840, where on September 5, 1842, she was married to Thomas Fletcher, who survives her and is 73 years of age, and still in vigorous health, mental and physical.

"On September 5, 1891, the venerable couple celebrated their golden wedding, an event stillfresh in the minds of the people of this city, and at which was a family gathering of a very remarkable character.

"The fruits of their marriage were nine children, but three of whom survive, Richard Fletcher, Hugh L. Fletcher, Jr., and John Fletcher, all honored citizens of this city. This happy and venerable couple had traveled the thorny pathway of life, hand in hand, fifty-one years, one month, and fourteen days, and lived to see their union surrounded at its closing days, not only with honored sons, but grand children and even great grand children.

"The funeral will take place today at 8 p.m. from the First Christian Church, at Tenth and Louisiana streets, Rev. Hedrick officiating."

20 Arkansas Gazette, October 20, 1892.
Dr. E. D. Ayers attended her and signed the city death register. No probate was made on her estate. She was buried in the family plot at Oakland Cemetery. Lucinda was described as a devout Christian lady, but she abandoned her Baptist heritage to become an active and long-time member of the First Christian Church. She was of considerable help to her husband, in his active public life, with her valuable advice.

The children of Thomas and Lucinda (Beaver) Fletcher were:

104. i. Henry Lewis, born circa 1844 in Arkansas.
106. iii. Richard, born circa 1848 in Arkansas.
107. iv. John, born March 10, 1849 in Pulaski County, Arkansas.
109. vi. Caleb Lindsey, born circa 1853 in Pulaski County, Arkansas.
110. vii. Stephen B., born 1855 in Pulaski County, Arkansas. He died in 1870 and was buried in the family plot at Oakland Cemetery.
111. viii. Mary, born circa 1857 in Pulaski County, Arkansas. She died in 1870 and was buried in the family plot at Oakland Cemetery.
112. ix. Martha, born 1859 in Pulaski County, Arkansas.

One is tempted to opine that the middle name of their son Stephen was Beaver after her father. One also is tempted to opine that Caleb Lindsey was named after his father's maternal grandfather. The 1890 City Directory listed Thomas Fletcher as a capitalist and planter with offices at 318% Main Street. The city directory of 1893-94 listed him as the Treasurer of the Farmers' Alliance and International Union, Central Alliance No. 48. He continued his law practice, farming, and other business pursuits until his death on February 21, 1900. His death was noted by the local newspaper.

"Col. Thomas Fletcher, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Little Rock, died at 2:30 yesterday afternoon at his residence, 303 East Ninth street, aged 83 years. The funeral will take place from the Christian Church, Tenth and Louisiana streets, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, the services being conducted by Rev. J. N. Jessop, pastor of that church. The interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

"Uncle Tom, as he was affectionately called by nearly all who knew him, was a familiar figure on the streets of the city, and had his office at 513 1-2 Main street, which building he owned. He was a man of most generous nature and every one was attracted by his strong personality. For the past two years he has been in bad health due to his extreme old age, though he had a very strong constitution and did not appear to be as old as he really was. About two weeks ago he was attacked by the grippe and gradually succumbed to it until yesterday morning it was seen that he could not live very long. His sons and brothers and several of his grandchildren went to his bedside and stayed with him until the end came about 2:30 in the afternoon. His remains will be interred by the side of his wife, who died about four years ago at an advanced age. The three sons surviving are all residents of this city and among the best known citizens. They are: Richard Fletcher, the real estate dealer; John, the lawyer; and H. Lewis, Jr., the latter residing with his father. There are two brothers, Col. John ti. Fletcher of the German National Bank and Jeff L. Fletcher the well known planter, who lives on Thirteenth and Izard streets.”

Conclusion

The foregoing article presents nearly all of the public and private records that have been found concerning Lucinda Beaver, her husband Thomas Fletcher, and their family. The author regrets never having met any of his cousins from this particular branch of the Beaver family tree. The reader should be cautioned, however, that two significant record sources have been neglected. Both the Pulaski County tax rolls and deed books were consulted but briefly and their contents were not included in the foregoing account of the family. Both record sources contain numerous references to the family, but the author believes that little new or interesting information may be gleaned from those records. Perhaps the present article will spur another researcher to look for a few nuggets of new and interesting information from those records.

We are indebted to the staff of many public and private institutions for their patience, cooperation, and assistance. Special mention is due the helpful staff at the Arkansas History Commission, Saline County Courthouse, Pulaski County Courthouse, and the very kind ladies at the Mid-Continent Public Library and Little Rock Public Library. Also, many thanks are due to our cousins Orpha Jewel Weaver and Billy B. Lassiter who generously shared their research with us. Hopefully, others will step forward with new information as well as suggestions for further research.

News from The Christian Endeavor Evangel, Memphis

The Christian Endeavor Evangel was a weekly bulletin published by the Christian Endeavor Society of the Linden Street Christian Church, which later became Lindenwood Christian Church. The first issues date from 1903, and also contain news of events and people at the two other Christian churches at that time in the Memphis area, Mississippi Avenue and Third Christian Church. Fifteen volumes of The Endeavor Evangel, from April 5, 1903 to December 22, 1917, were microfilmed and are now in the Tennessee State Archives, thanks to A. Owen Guy, Associate Pastor at Lindenwood, and through the agency of David McWhirter, Disciples of Christ Historical Society, Nashville.

Most of each issue was devoted to announcements of church services, speakers, and meetings of various church groups, interspersed with inspirational writings and the advertisements of local merchants. There was also a column, first known as Locals and later called Personal Pointers, which covered the comings and goings of church members. It is delightful to imagine life in Memphis in the early twentieth century as reflected in this commentary. Some items from the first year of the Evangel:

April 5, 1903

Miss Irma Taylor, of San Francisco, Cal., the charming and accomplished niece of Bro. W.H. Bates, is visiting at the latter's home, 303 Linden.

Dr. Lorin A. Green has returned after several days' visit to Port Arthur, Beaumont and other Texas points. The Doctor was well pleased with Texas.

Mrs. Jessie Pardee and son, Raymond, united with the church, by letter, last Sunday morning.
April 12, 1903

The Ladies Aid Society and Daughters of Linden will serve lunch at the Mississippi Avenue Church on Wednesday April, 15th for the West Tennessee Convention. They invite every member of the congregation to assist with money or provisions. The other two Churches will furnish the lunch Tuesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Rosa Zimmerman is on the sick list.

Miss Mamie Buck spent the past week visiting Miss Blanche McFadden at Oakland, Tennessee.

Mrs. R.L. Brown, after a long illness, has gone to Biloxi, where we all hope she will soon regain her strength, and come home to continue her earnest work in the church.

April 19, 1903

The Best Convention ever held in West Tennessee.

Mrs. C.A. Moore would only accept young men as delegates. Remember she has two daughters.

Don't mind the weather, it is always cold when you have an Easter dress.

Miss Myrtle Moore was very busy before the convention, making cakes. The young preachers at the Moore residence said the cakes were fine.

Bro. Chester Smith went to the jail meeting, and one good lady came up to him and asked when he got in; she was so sorry he had to be put in jail.

April 26, 1903

Mrs. C.A. Boswell, who recently united with the church, lives at 348 Lauderdale street.

Miss Ann Elizabeth Beasley, of Brownsville, Tenn. was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Guthrie, last week.

May 3, 1903

Dr. H.L. Farris is now circulation manager of the Evangel, having succeeded Mr. Harry L. Gatchell. Mr. C.C. Smith is his assistant.

Bro. W.E. Ellis, of Nashville, formerly pastor of this church, spent a few hours in the city last week. Many of his friends were disappointed in not getting to see him, but he has always a royal welcome in our midst.

Bro. Victor R. Smith preached at Raleigh last Sunday, and many of our members were there.

May 10, 1903

Rev. Francis E. Clark of Boston, Mass., President of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will speak Monday night, May 11 at the Court St. C.P. Church.

May 17, 1903

We are indebted to Mrs. L.E. Boswell for the flowers on the pulpit today. Mrs. J.M. Ray and Mrs. C.D. Wailes furnished them last Sunday.
Bro. J.E. Gorsuch of Bells, Tenn. has accepted the call from the Third Christian Church of this city and will be here as soon as he can leave his present charge.

A.L. Krewson, well known by many of us, has secured room 38 Peabody Hotel and will practise healing without medicine or surgery. He has a national reputation, having been operator at Wellmer Institute and proprietor of an Institute in Pittsburg, Pa. and is here by the earnest solicitation of several persons wishing to take his treatment. His cures are quick and permanent.

May 24, 1903

Miss Irma Taylor, who had been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bates, left last Friday for Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Battle M. Brown entertained Mr. W. Waugh Lauder during his engagement in Memphis.

Bro. Fred Storey has left the city for a few weeks, on a trip through the West.

Mr. Horace Smith always did like to be on the water; he is now thinking of taking a trip to the Great Lakes. The doctor says it is best for him not to stop in Chicago.

May 31, 1903

Our Girl Graduates

Two maids stand in the garden of life, as they trip past the fountain of knowledge, a spray of snowy whiteness falls over them, and they are arrayed in graduation garments. Each is waiting to receive that treasured proof of diligence, a graduation diploma. May the lives of these two young ladies, Misses Floy Wilson and Ethel Skeene, be as beautiful as their school girl days were gentle and fair.

June 6, 1903

Mr. W.C. Robson united with the Endeavor Society last Sunday evening. His address is No. 12 Porter Building.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Apperson left on the Stacker Lee for a ten days’ trip to St. Louis.

June 14, 1903

Master Toof Brown was very sick for a few days last week.

Mrs. B.M. Brown and son, Toof, leave Friday evening for the East. They will visit for several weeks in Boston.

The Music Committee has secured Mr. Heber Coleman for the Christian Endeavor meeting tonight. He will sing “Over the Stars There is Rest” by Abt. It is worth coming to Endeavor to hear him.

Miss Bessie Lancaster of Wynne, Ark. spent Friday and yesterday with Mrs. Wm. Kennedy on Linden street.
June 21, 1903

Brother A.C. Lee and wife and his sister, Mrs. Rice, united with the church last Sunday morning. Their address is No. 80 Market. Mrs. N.T. Toney also united with the church last Sunday morning. Her address is No. 183 Third street.

A new little girl visitor came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Wailes last week. We congratulate them.

June 28, 1903

Master Chesley Robertson, one of our Bible School boys, had the misfortune to stick a nail in his foot, which we hope will not result seriously.

July 5, 1903 – Volume II

Owing to the fact that we had to get the Evangel to press so early this week we are unable to give the exact number of Fourth of July accidents.

July 12, 1903

Mrs. B.M. Brown and son, Toof, have returned home after a pleasant visit in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds and daughter, Miss Mychelle, attended the wedding of Mr. Alexander Edmonds.

July 19, 1903

Judge Flippin and his good wife are away on a vacation. Have a good time; you deserve it.

Mrs. B. M. Draper and daughters, Misses Jessie, Margaret and Mary, left Monday for Monterey, where they will spend the heated term enjoying the mountain breezes.

Miss Zula Robertson has left the city, with her family, for the summer months.

Mr. Chas. Bartholomew and Miss May E. Swan will be married next Tuesday night in the church. We wish them a long and happy union.

July 26, 1903

We miss the presence of our beloved Sunday school superintendent, at the Mississippi Avenue church, Bro. J.A. Moss, very much. He is in New York on business, and will return to us very soon.

The contest for new members between the Reds and the Blues closed last Sunday at Mississippi Avenue church, with a total of 140 new members added to the Sunday school, making the enrollment of our school 225. Hurrah for the winners, the Blues, and hurrah for their captain, Miss Grace Toof.

In about 1810 or 1812 Josiah Wamble entered a lot of land upon which Montezuma is now built. He put up a store and very soon other settlers began to settle around him. For a number of years it was called "Wamble's Store". By 1820 the settlers were so many that a town was laid out and was given the name "Montezuma" after a Mexican Indian chief. The name means "Bright stream at the Foot of the Mountain".

Among the settlers were the Wades, Randolphs, Casons, Hollises, Burkheads, and later Skinners, Perkins, Rowseys, O'Neals, Claytons, Barretts, Ozments, Pattersons and others. Then came their first mistake. They refused to let the M & O Railroad come through their town. The old R.R. cut and dump can still be seen in the area where it was started. They switched around Montezuma and Henderson was begun.

The people of Montezuma felt a need for a place to worship. Therefore, about 1830, the Methodist Church South was organized. The first building was a log house near the old Montezuma Cemetery. The dedication of its members, and the need for a larger place to worship caused the log house to be supplanted by a frame building. The location of this building is believed to be near the present day Church. Just how long this building served as the place of worship is not recorded. Therefore, we have to assume it was used until about 1875 when it burned.

In 1874 or 1875 the Memphis Conference located the Jackson District High School at Montezuma. At this time most schools were operated by churches. The Conference moved the school away about 1885.

When the frame Church building burned, it was rebuilt by the hard working members. A good two story brick building was built. The bricks used in the construction were baked in a field near the construction by some of the members. The County helped to finance the building and a County school occupied the two rooms upstairs while the church occupied the downstairs.
In those days the Church was the center of action. Sunday School was first started in 1866 and has continued to the present time. Singing conventions were held regularly and Children's Day was observed annually. Quarterly Conferences also met here.

When Chester County was organized, Montezuma was in the 4th District of McNairy County on the road between Old Purdy and Jackson. Motezuma was the oldest settlement in Chester County. It was a close second for the County Seat. The Commissioners met first at Montezuma on June 13, 1879 to determine whether to form the new County. The two-thirds majority vote was needed from Madison, Henderson, McNairy and Hardeman Counties to form a new County. On June 3, 1882 the permanent organization of Chester County was completed at the Baptist Church in Henderson. When the vote was taken for the location of the County Seat, Henderson won by a large majority.

Historians may think it was a mistake to prevent the R.R. from coming through Montezuma but citizens of this Community think otherwise. It's true that some of the industries that thrived in the past have closed or moved on.

There was once two saloons, four General Merchandise stores, a drug store with two physicians, a barbershop, two blacksmith's shops, a cotton gin, telephone exchange, grade school and U.S. Post Office.

Montezuma now has one of the best Food Markets, Repair Shop and garage, two modern Beauty Shops and a modern ceramic shop.

In modern days, Montezuma means, "The Garden Spot of the World". This information was gathered from several authentic sources by -- Mabel O'Neal Tarpley, And D.W. Bulliner, Great, great, great grandchildren of Josiah Wamble.

The U.S. Post Office of Montezuma, Tennessee

Alexander H. McKinnon and his son, John Bethune McKinnon, both served as Post Masters of the Montezuma, Tennessee Post Office. While on a "genealogy expedition" in September of 2005, I was fortunate to locate Mr. Clayton Skinner of Montezuma whose father was the last Post Master to serve that area. Mr. Skinner continued to run the general store for many years after the Post Office was moved to Henderson. When he sold the store, he removed the old Post Office station and carefully restored it in his home. The photos to the right were taken in Mr. Skinner's home and is believed to be the actual Post Master's station used by the McKinnon's.
Many thanks to Mr. Skinner for preserving this part of history!

Her findings are published in The Backtracker, Volume 34, #3. Persons buried in this cemetery include Landon C. Edens, born TN 1812, died May 24, 1878; and his wife, Mary, born TN 1814, died 1853. The article contains additional information on A.D. and Elizabeth's ancestors, as well as their children. A.D. Pearce died January 6, 1872 in Johnson County and is buried at the Fraternal Cemetery in Vienna, Illinois.

DESCENDENTS OF JOHN BRIDGES – The genealogy report for John Bridges, Sr., the founder of the Bridges clan of Johnson County, Illinois was developed for those studying the history of Bridges Settlement and its connection to the Cherokee Trail of Tears in 1839. John Bridges was born ca. 1770-75 and died ca. 1830-40. His wife, Elizabeth (?) was born in North Carolina about 1777 and died after 1850; they were the parents of eight children. Their son, Alfred Bridges, was born in Tennessee in 1799.

Others mentioned in the article with a Tennessee connection include William Bizzell Pearce (see previous entry), Adeline Badget, born ca.1831, Mahalia Hacker, born ca. 1842, and Eli S. Chapman, born ca. 1841, all in Tennessee.

JOSEPH SMITH was born in 1807 in Adair County, KY and died in Bradley County, TN after June 9, 1880. He married Mary (maiden name unknown) in Tennessee in 1830. Mary was born after 1811 in Tennessee and died after June 9, 1880 in Bradley County. To them were born nine children: Catherine b. 1832, Mary B. b. 1835, Martha b. 1838, Rebecca b. 1840, John b. 1842, Rachael b. 1844, Joseph b. 1846, Christian b. 1851, and Paul b. 1854. In the 1850 census of Bradley County Joseph's occupation is given as "mill wright;" in a later census, his occupation is given as "farmer." In the 1880 census Joseph (age 74), Mary (age 69) Rachael (age 35) and Paul (age 27) are counted in the household of son Joseph (age 31) and his wife Elizabeth (age 22). The younger Joseph is listed as "miller."

It appears that the elder Joseph Smith and his new bride, Mary were residing in McMinn County, Tennessee in 1830, based on census records, and that they were still there in 1840. McMinn borders Bradley County, created in 1835. Bradley borders Hamilton County, where Joseph Smith's first cousin, James Pafford, settled about 1835.

This information is contained in an article "From Walden Ridge and Chickamauga to Wiregrass, Suwannee and Beyond" published in Huxford Genealogical Inc. Magazine, Volume XXXII, No. 2, by the Homerville, GA Genealogical Society. Also mentioned: Rachael Pafford, daughter of John Pafford of Surry County, NC, her husband Christian Smith and their migration from North Carolina.

Gilliam (in Nov 1841 joined church in Franklin County, living in Hopkins County, Texas, Aug 11 1860; Clarisa and James Wilder. Haywood County, Feb 24 1861.

FAMILY LAND HERITAGE PROGRAM, which was started in 1974 in Hopkins County, Texas, honors farms and ranches which have been in continuous agricultural production by the same family for 100 years or more. The following founders were from Tennessee: Calvin of Hawkins County, who moved to Texas in 1848, and Henry A. Gillis of Carroll County, who moved to Texas with his parents in 1851. Additional information on these two families can be found in Hopkins County Heritage, Volume 22, Number 2.
JACOB WELKER's estate was recorded in Montgomery County, Tennessee in 1844. The census records show that he had one son and two daughters. The son was most likely George W. Welker (born ca. 1823) who married Louisa Brown (b. Sept 1835), daughter of David and Louisa Brown, on 8 January 1857. The children of George and Louisa were: George (b. c. 1860), Jane (b. c. 1864) David (b. c. 1867), Nettie (b. July 1872), Frank (b. May 1871) and Jacob (b. July 1876).

The younger of the two daughters, Sarah J. Welker (b. c. 1827) married William R. Brown (b. c. 1825) son of Robert and Mary Brown in Montgomery County on 9 Feb 1852. Sarah appears to have died by 1860. William Brown is listed on the 1860 census with their children: Texana Brown (b. c. 1850, perhaps an illegitimate child of Sarah, since she appears in 1850 with her unmarried mother and grandmother as Texana Sabine; William Brown, b.c. 1852), Lunetta Brown (b.c.1854) Jilenia Brown (b.c. 1856) and Eury Brown (b.c. 1858).

Jacob's other daughter was probably Phoebe Ann Welker, (b.c. 1820-23), who married Alfred Bledsow on 25 December 1839 in Montgomery County. A.G. Bledsow and his wife, ages 20-30, appear in the 1830 Montgomery census with a daughter under the age of five. This could be Evalina Bledsow, who remained unmarried in Montgomery County through at least 1870. Presumably Phoebe Bledsow died soon after 1840.

The article "The Other Welkers of Brick Church Community" is in the Greensboro, North Carolina Genealogical Society quarterly journal, The Guilford Genealogist, Volume 32, No. 2.

FIRST FAMILIES OF BEXAR COUNTY, TEXAS FOR 2005 includes Martha Lou (Hugh David) Potts, Sarah Catherine Sanders, David Stephen Sanders, Julius Sanders. Martha's great-grandfather, David Sanders, was born 12 October 1817 in Davidson County, TN and died 16 August 1902 in Sevier County, AR. David's father, Julius Sanders, was born 1793-1848 at NC; died March 1861 at Uvalde County, Texas; he married Parthenia "Penny" Fields on 9 February 1815 at Wilson County, Tennessee. She died 1827-28 at Davidson County, TN. Additional information on this family may be found in Our Heritage, Volume 46, Numbers 3 and 4.

In south central Virginia, Mecklenburg County was formed from Lunenburg County in 1764 and today adjoins Granville, Vance and Warren Counties in North Carolina. This volume contains the only official record of nearly two thousand marriages from Mecklenburg County. It was compiled from loose papers in the County Clerk's office, and is particularly important since there was no marriage record prior to 1850. Each entry gives the names of the contracting parties, date of bonds, and names of sureties; occasionally the names of parents are also given. The index concludes with a list of brides’ names. This book would be useful to researchers interested in this part of Virginia at this period.

Eliza Bowen’s history of Wilkes County, Georgia was first printed in the Washington Gazette and Chronicle in a series of articles from 1886 to 1897. which were edited, consolidated and then published in 1950 by Louise F. Hays. These articles are considered the best introduction to the history of Wilkes County, Georgia, which originally included parts of Talliaferro and Warren counties. The articles are written in an easy to read style, starting with the earliest known history and giving accounts of treaties with Indians, the first settlements, and Wilkes County during the American Revolution. Also covered is the settlement and laying-out of Washington, the courthouse and schools. Eight articles are devoted to the establishment of the first Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches in the area. The twelve-page index includes over 2,000 entries of residents of the county as well as place names. Anyone researching Wilkes County would benefit from reading this book.

No matter if you are a beginning or professional genealogist, this book contains the information you need to trace your ancestors in Barbados, including information on how to locate sources on English planters, indentured servants and Africans brought over as slaves. You will find records of baptisms, marriages and burials for Anglicans and for other denominations, as well as birth and death records. Also included: where to find wills, deeds, census, military, and cemetery records; records of slaves, and plantation owners. DNA information and testing, Internet sources and various publications are mentioned. This book presents the most comprehensive sources of records of Barbados I have found, and anyone doing research on family in Barbados should have a copy.

GERMAN-AMERICAN

The third edition of this book has several thousand more entries than earlier editions. Prof. Jones has covered such topics as origin and significance of given names, the need and origin of surnames, and Christian names. The author explains how German names developed, their sources, variations of the names and some special characteristics of German-American names. Approximately 18,000 German names are listed alphabetically, and numbers take the reader back to the paragraph in the introduction which explains the source, meaning and special characteristics of that name. This is a great book for anyone who has German ancestors or anyone who is interested in names and their origins. The introduction alone contains a wealth of information.

This list of over 20,000 names of rank and file soldiers from South Carolina who served in the American Revolution was compiled from many sources, including both state and federal records. Included are South Carolinians who served as soldiers as well as those who performed other services. Many of the names came from pension records, land warrants, annuitants’ claims, audited accounts, and muster rolls, pay lists, guard reports and publications. The names are listed alphabetically and include dates of enlistments, service, battles and skirmished, commanding officers, military unit, rank and whether the individual was wounded, killed or taken prisoner. The information taken from pension files or annuity claims might contain date and place of birth and death, names of wives and children, and place of residence before and after the War. When seeking your ancestor in this book, remember to check all spellings of the name since during this period the name might have been written the way it sounded rather than the way it should have been spelled. This is probably the most complete list available of South Carolinians in the Revolutionary War.

ABSTRACTS OF HAYWOOD COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA DEEDS, BOOKS A-B-C (1808-1838), abstracted by Bill Eddleman, Pub 2005, ISBN #089308-807-2. Southern Historical Press, Inc. PO Box 1267, 375 West Broad Street, Greenville, SC 29602. Price: $35.00 plus $4.00 shipping and handling. Hardback 6” x 9”, 282 pages, with complete index, including slaves.

Haywood County was part of the Cherokee Nation during the Revolutionary War. When formed in 1808 it was part of Burke County; many of those deeds were burned during the Civil War. The county later included parts of Buncombe and the present-day counties of Macon, Jackson, Swain, Graham, Clay, and Cherokee. The introduction includes definitions and a numbering system as well as history of the area. A few of the earliest deeds are from 1792, the bulk after the official founding of the county. Haywood County was a gateway to TN, GA, SC so there is much valuable information; all names are indexed, including many marriages, heirs, widows, remarriage etc. There is also a slave index that could be helpful to any one tracing their African-American lineage. I found this book interesting reading even though I did not find any of my line listed.

Ansearchin’ News Policies

Contributions
Every member of TGS is welcome to submit unpublished material of genealogical value. Material from all Tennessee counties, pre-1900, is our priority. This includes diaries, letters, tombstone inscriptions, deeds, church records, military records, etc. If a photo is needed for an article, please send a photocopy. We are a nonprofit organization and are unable to pay for contributions, however, we do acknowledge the contributor and give by-lines.

Queries
Members are entitled to one free query per membership per year. Queries must be 50 words or less and will be edited for length and clarity and published in the order in which received. Please submit queries typed or printed and furnish your name, address and e-mail.

Surname Index File Cards
Members are urged to send vital statistics of ancestors from any locality to be included in our Master Surname File. Please type or print information on a 3x5 index card. Information should include subject's surname, given name, middle name, dates of birth, marriage, death, parents, spouse, children, origin, state and county. Please include your name and address on the back of the card.

Book Reviews
Books will be reviewed in Ansearchin’ News if the book is donated to The Tennessee Genealogical Society. After a book is reviewed, it will become part of our library. All books will be reviewed in the order received.

Tennessee Ancestry Certificates
TGS sponsors this program to recognize and honor the settlers who came to Tennessee before 1880. To place your ancestors in this roll of honor, please request an application from Mrs. Kathryn T. Dickenson, Director of Certificates, at TGS. Upon completion of the application, please return it along with supporting documents or other proof of your ancestor's residency, along with a $10 application fee. Attractive certificates suitable for framing are issued to each person whose application meets program qualifications. Certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor's name, date and place of settlement in Tennessee along with the applicant's name.

Photo Gallery
In the future, a section of Ansearchin’ News will be provided as a tool in assisting our members with pre-1900 unidentified photos relating to Tennessee. Please send clear front and back photocopies along with any available background information you have. Please advise us of the origin of the photo and any other information that might aid our search. Provide us with your name and address, and if you wish the photocopy returned, include a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Letters to The Editor
All letters to the editor should be addressed to Ann Kendall Ray. Please feel free to forward any comments or suggestions. In many instances throughout the quarterly, grammar and spelling are left verbatim in order to preserve the character and charm of the era.

Hours
The TGS library is open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 10-2. Visits are free to all members and $5 for nonmembers. We have a large selection of books, microfilm, disks and personal papers, and although we are focused on Tennessee, we also have a large selection of the above data relating to other states. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Volunteering and Donations
TGS is strictly a nonprofit organization. We exist to keep the history of Tennessee and our ancestors alive. Volunteers run every aspect of the society, and if you would like to join the 'cause,’ please contact us. There is no job too small -- remember, Tennessee is the Volunteer State! If you wish to make a donation, please contact us, and remember that all contributions are tax deductible.

Library Update

Two up-to-date indexes are now available for research at the library—our own Ansearchin’ News (from 1954 through 2005) and an index to Family Findings, published by the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society in Jackson, Tennessee. Dr. Pam Dennis just sent us their complete index, from April, 1969 through October, 2005. This quarterly is an especially good source of information on Madison and Gibson counties, as well as material from Haywood, McNairy, Benton, Carroll and Lake counties. There are indexes of numerous cemeteries in counties west of the Tennessee River, and material from family Bibles of the last century.

Come and see us soon! Browse back issues of Ansearchin News and Family Findings and locate your lost relatives!
