I received a question about the surname index that is in each issue of Ansearchin’ News. It seems there might be some confusion about what is being indexed, and what the numbers after each surname represent. Quite simply, the index printed in the quarterly indexes that issue by surname. Allowing you to find surnames of interest to you quickly and easily.

Another question I have received is “Is the digital version of Ansearchin’ News searchable?” Yes it is. Gives you an advantage over the printed copy. If you would like to try out getting the digital copy, but don’t want to give up getting the printed copy until you try it out, please call the office and let us know. We’ll be happy to set it up so you can get both for the next couple of issues.

We have a couple of interesting articles in this issue: Harrell’s Haunted House and The Mc Donalds and You Should Speak The Language. I hope you enjoy reading them as much as I did.

As always send questions and suggestions to tngeneditor@gmail.com. You may also submit your free query to this email address.

Thanks for the wonderful feedback, keep it coming.

President’s Message

“It’s déjà vu all over again.” I can’t remember who said that, Casey Stengel? Yogi Berra? But here I go all over again. “TNGS has the greatest pool of volunteers in the world.” I am constantly amazed at the knowledge and skills this group possesses and thankful for their willingness to share it. If you need proof of this statement go to our web site, www.tngs.org, and peruse the calendar, the sales department; click on Library and then “take a tour.” Select “The Tennessee Waltz’ and relax for a few minutes.

As further proof, the Committee to nominate Officers for 2010-11, already has a strong slate of candidates to present at the October general meeting. This management group will assure strong leadership, continuity, and growth into the next decade and beyond. Your current Board is reviewing the By-Laws and particularly the duties of the officers to assure we have people in place to take advantage of all opportunities to make membership in TNGS more valuable.

We have had a great summer at TNGS and the Regional History and Genealogy Center. (RHGC) A highlight was the Pioneer Show-And-Tell program conceived and executed by Jennifer Baker. The 25 exhibitors were very pleased with the enthusiastic response of the attendees. Several attendees and exhibitors have asked that we schedule a like-event soon, which we will.

A significant gift this summer was 15 books from the Library of deceased Criminal Court Judge Arthur Charles Faquin donated by his son and daughter-in-law, John and Jane Faquin. This donation included 5 volumes of questionnaires to Tennessee Civil War Veterans. Such thoughtful gifts and contributions to Adopt-A-Book quicken the growth of RHGC.

Thanks for your continued support.

Out of the corner of her eye, Rhonda could see the tarantula crawling out from under her washing machine. Her son had left its cage open and it had escaped two weeks earlier. As scary as the sight was, it was not near as terrifying to her as the strange unseen things that happened in the house at night.

Rhonda and her family lived in the house from 1983 through 1989. She had no idea she had moved into a house with a history of being haunted. The house at the time had a wide hallway at the entrance, four rooms downstairs and two rooms upstairs. She enjoyed living in the country and recalls you could hear cars coming down the gravel road long before you could see them. She did not notice anything unusual at first, but gradually strange noises could be heard in the night. She would sometimes wake up for no apparent reason except she felt a presence in the room as if someone was staring at her. Her two young sons begin to complain of hearing strange noises, like furniture being moved in the night. The noise got so bad they began to refuse to sleep upstairs.

I remember my niece, Rhonda, telling everyone years ago she was living in a haunted house. She said sometimes the house would shake for no apparent reason, and sometimes it would sound like chains being slammed against the walls. During the day she noted nothing unusual, but as soon as the sun went down the birds singing was replaced with sounds of the night and menacing shadows danced on the walls.

I visited the house once in the 1990s, but I did not go inside. It was a warm day and we sat out in the backyard facing the back of the house. It was not until researching genealogy records in Obion County that I discovered she was not the only one that had experienced ghostly feelings.

Harrell House, as it was called, was located in the Wolverine community of Obion County, Tennessee. The community was settled prior to the Civil War by families who traveled by wagon train from Chester County, South Carolina to the area in the late 1830s and early 1840s. Two of the families were George Allen Harrell and Nathaniel McDonald.

There is no evidence the two families knew each other in South Carolina, and they did not travel together, but they ended up being neighbors. These two Scots-Irish families would become inter-twined in the local lore that included haunted houses, a warlock, Civil War, and madness.

The Harrells and McDonalds had adjoining farms. No doubt the children would have known one another and there were six McDonald brothers.

Harrells

George Allen Harrell (sometimes referred to as G.A.) was born in South Carolina about 1812. His wife, Eliza Jones was born 19 February 1809 in South Carolina. They married about 1836 in South Carolina and had the following children, all born in Tennessee: William (born about 1836); Mary C. (born about 1838, and died February 11, 1878, in Alvord, Texas); Elizabeth Jane (born about 1839, and died 22 July 1917, Benton, Arkansas; Benjamin (born about 1841), Margaret Angeline (born 1843); John Lucien (born 14 November 1844 and died January 29, 1872); Prudence (born about 1848); Nancy O. (born about 1850). She married Robert Moss; Susan (born about 1855).

George lived in household #932, District 6 by 1850. His mother-in-law, Eliza Jones, age 57, born in South Carolina, and Allen Powell, born in South Carolina, age 19, a farmer were also living in the household.

In 1862, George served as the Obion County Trustee. At the time the courthouse was located in Troy. He also served in the Civil War in March-May 1864 in Company K, 22\textsuperscript{nd} Tennessee Cavalry.

George’s son, Benjamin was among the first to join the Obion Avalanche at Troy in 1862. He was at the time a strong Union man until Mr. Lincoln’s coercion policy was proclaimed and he had a change of heart. He served in the Battle of Shiloh and the evacuation of Corinth. The Army then traveled under General Bragg to Chattanooga, where George became sick and died. He was buried there with military honors.

John Lucien Harrell acquired a reputation as a warlock. It was said on one occasion he climbed out of a dormer window and walked around the house on thin air, and re-entered the window. Some of the local lore was he once levitated a table on which six McDonald brothers were sitting. His demonstrations apparently took a toll on his health and he complained to his mother that they were getting stronger and he was getting weaker. A clock which had its weights removed and stored in the attic chimed at the time of his death. Clocks continued to be part of the legend, chiming at the time of other family member’s death.

John married Arable Sanling on July 10, 1865 in Obion County. She was the daughter of Benjamin Sanling (born about 1812, North Carolina, died March 11, 1880 in Tennessee) and his wife, Isabelle. John and Arable’s daughter, Lisa B. Harrell was born about 1870. John died January 29, 1872, and Arable died August 8, 1872. They are buried in the Troy Cemetery. After their deaths, Lisa lived in the household of her aunt and uncle, Nancy and Robert Moss.

McDonalds

The McDonalds came from the clan in Scotland and settled in Chester County, South Carolina. Some of the McDonalds fought in the Revolutionary War. Nathaniel had three brothers, one settled in East Tennessee, one in middle Tennessee and one in Missouri. Nathaniel received a land grant in Tennessee.

Nathaniel McDonald was born May 1, 1792 in South Carolina and died December 7, 1843 in Tennessee. He had a total of eleven children by two wives. Five of his sons were killed in the Civil War.

His first wife, Annie Brown was born August 21, 1791 and died April 6, 1833 (probably in South Carolina). They were the parents of:

- David born April 12, 1818 and died January 1, 1878 (see below);
- Jane, born April 20, 1820, Eliza, born June 17, 1823, died April 25, 1860. She married Samuel A. Baker in Obion County.
- John McDonald, born December 28, 1825, and killed during the Civil War. On the 1850 US Federal Census, John is shown as living with his brother, David in District Six, Obion County. When the War broke out, John along with some of his brothers joined the Obion Avalanche. After training several months in Union City, the troops received word to prepare to board the train to Columbus, Kentucky where a Federal Army was landing. Lieutenant John McDonald, Company K, provided a good laugh for the troops when they spotted him in the distance approaching the train. He was a small man, but he carried a large haversack with a double-barrel shotgun strapped across it. In his right hand was a Minnie-rifle, belted around him a sword, a large knife and a hatchet. He was a sight to behold, and the laughter could be heard along with the military band playing ‘Dixie’ and ‘The Girl I Left Behind’.

Jabg born January 14, 1827, died December 20, 1831 in South Carolina; Rufus born December 14, 1830, died May 31, 1832 in South Carolina.

Nathaniel married his second wife, Margaret Walker before 1836. She was born about 1803 in South Carolina. They were the parents of the following:

Thomas Supter McDonald died during the Civil War.

Simeon Walker McDonald born September 14, 1836. ‘Sim’ was one of the first to join the Obion Avalanche at Troy. He served in the campaigns of Shiloh, Perryville, Murfreesboro, and Chickamauga, where he was killed in the last charge made on the enemy’s line. His body lies in some unmarked grave in that fateful field.

Warren G. McDonald, born September 18, 1838, died October 8, 1862, at Perryville. He served as Third Lieutenant in the Obion Avalanche.

William Sylvester ‘Vess’ McDonald was born July 5, 1840. He joined the Obion Avalanche at Troy in 1861. ‘Vess’ was said to be as good of soldier who ever lived or died for any cause. He served throughout the war and was present in the ranks at every battle including the Atlanta campaign under General Joe Jackson. It was here at the Battle of Peachtree Creek that Vess met his fate when he crawled out from a fallen tree to see what the enemy was doing. Vess was warned of the danger and that it would have no befit to the troops, but the warning was in vain. He was shot and killed before he reached the extreme part of the limb by an enemy sharpshooter. He was buried beneath the sandy soil of Atlanta.

Hugh McDonald was born November 3, 1842, died February 29, 1915 in Tennessee. He married Betty Bittick who was born May 1854 in Tennessee and died about 1930. They are buried in the Troy Cemetery, Obion County, Tennessee. They were the parents of four sons; (1) Reuben, born March 29, 1873, died January 31, 1925; (2) Thomas, born 1875, died 1940. He married Beulah Reagan, born about 1880. They had a son, Burle and two daughters, Margaret and Archie. (3) Charles, born 1877; (4) Ned, born 1879, died 1947. He married Bonnie Polk, born 1891, died 1973. They are both buried in the Troy Cemetery.

The local lore is that upon hearing about the deaths of so many sons killed in the Civil War; Margaret went insane from her grief.
Generation No. 2

David McDonald (Nathaniel) was born April 12, 1818 and died January 1, 1878. He married Jane Banks December 4, 1851 in Tipton County, Tennessee. She was born May 9, 1830 in Fairfield County, South Carolina, and died September 13, 1885 in Tennessee. They had the following children, all born in Tennessee: Daniel, born August 12, 1852, died December 1, 1905 in Helena, Arkansas. He married Emma Wilson, born October 4, 1858, died August 1, 1938; William, born March 17, 1854, died April 21, 1924, LaGrange, Arkansas; Polk, born August 6, 1956, died May 29, 1941 in Tennessee; Hugh ‘Cush’, born February 5, 1858, died December 19, 1920; John, born February 3, 1860, died October 23, 1921. He married Dora Barnes, born January 19, 1875, died August 21, 1929. John and Dora are buried in Helena, Arkansas; Warren, born April 15, 1862, died September 11, 1883 in Obion County; Banks, born December 15, 1863, died June 29, 1938 in La Grange, Arkansas; Samuel, born September 29, 1867, died, February 12, 1943; James, born August 15, 1869, died August 12, 1950 in Obion County; David, born September 15, 1875, died in 1963.

Hugh (Nathaniel) born November 3, 1842, died February 20, 1915. He married Betty Bittick (born May 1854 and died about 1930) They are buried in the Troy Cemetery, Obion County, Tennessee. Their children are Reuben, born March 29, 1873, died January 31, 1925; Thomas, born 1875, died 1940 in Obion County; Charles (born and died unknown); Ned, born 1879, died 1947 in Obion County.

Generation Three

Polk McDonald (David, Nathaniel) married (1) Roxie Inman. He married (2) Francis Adelle/Adell Bittack. He was born January 3, 1860, died May 25, 1911, and is buried in the Troy Cemetery. Their child, Octa was born about 1898. Polk and a neighbor operated a steam-powered wheat thrashing machine for the Wolverine community for years.

Hugh ‘Cush’ McDonald (David, Nathaniel) was born February 5, 1858, and died December 19, 1920. He is buried Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Obion County. He married Nellie Kitchell. Their daughter, Elizabeth McDonald was born December 11, 1895 in Obion County, and died January 17, 1975 in Obion County. She married Harry Crockett Anderson, April 2, 1913 in Obion County, son of Andrew Anderson (May 31, 1892 – May 16, 1915) and Margaret Harper (1849-1935). They had one son; William McDonald Anderson, born November 2, 1914. He married Dorothy Elizabeth Fox, October 13, 1941.

James McDonald (David, Nathaniel) was born August 15, 1869 in Tennessee. He married Susan Francis ‘Fannie’ Simmons on December 28, 1892. They are buried in the Campground Cemetery located two miles South of Troy.

Children of James and Susan: Polk (born October 8, 1893 and died in Vicksburg, Mississippi; Baxter born August 6, 1895; Banks born January 4, 1898; Warren, born about 1899). He married Louise Ferguson and they are the parents of Joy McDonald and Carolyn McDonald; Simmons, born December 23, 1902; Francis Louise born about 1906. She married Lonnie McCorkle; Dan Caruthers McDonald, born May 29, 1909, died October 8, 1983. He married Julia Redditt (born August 2, 1921, died May 27, 1983) and they are the parents of Polly Ann McDonald Horne and Daniel McDonald; James Wright McDonald, born July 13, 1912, died July 23, 1912.

Years Later

Elizabeth McDonald Mitchell, great, grand-daughter of Nathaniel acquired the farm land and house in 1948. The house was referred to as the haunted Harrell house. She had it restored and the attic stairs removed. The house had sat vacant for years except for an occasional renter. Elizabeth referred to the house as Lizzie’s last stand. She had heard of the strange things attributed to John Lucien’s ghost, but she was a strong spirited woman with a good sense of humor. She concluded that John did not like having the attic stairs removed since the spooky weird things begin to happen more frequently. During the night the house would shake and loud knocking noises could be heard. When things got too noisy she would tell John to quite down because she was not going to be driven from her home. It was said that John apparently accepted the situation and had some affection for Elizabeth.

Elizabeth’s grandson, Bob Anderson visited while he was in high school and recalled some strange happenings and weird sounds. Once, dirty footprints were found on her Martha Washington bedspread, and on another occasion a large kettle was found on the kitchen floor, which no one had seen before and no one knew where it came from.

After Elizabeth died in 1975, the house again sat vacant and John’s spirit remained in the house. Some said they could sometimes see John walking from the house to the McDonald graveyard. Others said they wished they could be at the house at night because they knew some strange things would be happening. The haunted house on Harrell Hill burned on Halloween night 2007. The only evidence left is the cement foundation and a tire swing Rhonda’s sons used whey they lived in the house.

My sister, Joyce Rhodes and I made a long walk over frozen corn stalks trying to find the McDonald graveyard. We had no luck that day, but later Joyce, and her son, Randall Rhodes found the graveyard and Randall made the picture. There may be others buried there, since it is enclosed with a cement fence, but the cold in the winter, and snakes in the summer make it difficult to search.

Tech Tips

By Kathryn Holderman

Difference between http & https.
First, many people are unaware of the main difference between http:// and https://. It's all about keeping you secure. HTTP stands for HyperText Transport Protocol, which is just a fancy way of saying it's a protocol (a language), for information to be passed back and forth between web servers and clients. The important thing is the letter S which makes the difference between HTTP and HTTPS. The S stands for "Secure".

If you visit a website or webpage, and look at the address in the web browser, it will likely begin with the following: http://. This means that the website is talking to your browser using the regular 'unsecure' language. In other words, it is possible for someone to "eavesdrop" on your computer's conversation with the website. If you fill out a form on the website, someone might see the information you send to that site.

This is why you never ever enter your credit card number in an http website! But if the web address begins with https:// that basically means your computer is talking to the website in a secure code that no one can eavesdrop on. You understand why this is so important, right?

If a website ever asks you to enter your credit card information, you should automatically look to see if the web address begins with https://. If it doesn't, there's no way you should enter sensitive information like a credit card number.
You Should Speak The Language.

By Jim Bobo

In international travel you need to know at least some of the language used in the area in which you are traveling. In researching your family history you need to know how a word or phrase was used not only in a specific geographical area but also during a specific time-frame.

An example: Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia, gives the definition of “stone” as legislated by the British, "as being a unit of either "weight or mass" equal to 14 [avoirdupois] pounds (6.35029318 kilograms).” But “stone” varied from commodity to commodity and in various geographical areas. Also from Wikipedia; “In the 1772 edition of Encyclopedia Britannica…we find, "Stone" also denotes a certain quantity or weight of some commodities. A stone of beef, in London, is the quantity of eight pounds; in Hertfordshire, twelve pounds; in Scotland sixteen pounds."

In Virginia the term “headright grant” changed in meaning after 1700. In the New World English Colonies the meaning of “land grant” evolved and by the last quarter of the eighteenth had a different connotation than that of an earlier age. In “the Colonies” word usage and terms differed from area to area.

The following glossary was compiled over many years by the writer with additions by Vince Hughes and Thurman Jackson. (TNGS members) If you would like information on other terms send your request to Editor at tngeneditor@gmail.com

Apprentice: One who is bound by legal agreement, usually a minor, to serve a master (employer) for a stated number of years to learn the trade of the master. In addition to the instruction, the master usually provides food, lodging and clothing and sometimes money, in return for the apprentice's labors.

Bond Servant: See Indentured Servant

Bounty Land: Free land offered for goods or services in lieu of money. Beginning in 1830 Bounty Land Warrants could be exchanged for money.

Chain Carrier – Often

abbreviated "CC" or "Ch Car" in Northern Neck surveys. The survey chain used in Virginia during the colonial period was a Gunter's Chain — a 66 foot chain made of 100 thin iron links measuring 7.92 inches each and weighing about 20 pounds total. A Chainman didn't require much training other than being able to pull the chain taut and steady while measuring. Other duties would include cutting brush/trees so the Surveyor operating the transit (a compass on a staff) could see from point to point, and carrying equipment. Chain Carriers were almost always listed for the Northern Neck surveys and were a good indication of who was young, strong and resided in the neighborhood. A Virginia law of 1725 required that the prospective land owner pay 2 Shillings and 7 Pence per day for each Chain Carrier. By English law, the length of a Rod was established as 16 1/2 feet in 1277.

1Chain = 66 feet = 22 yards = 100 links
1 Rod, Pole, or Linear Perch = 16.5 feet = 5 1/2 yards = 25 links
10 Chains = 660 feet = 220 yards = 1/8 mile = 1 furlong
1 Acre = an area measuring 1 Chain in width by 10 Chains (1 furlong) in length

Charter Colony: A colony held by an individual or trading company, under charter from the British Crown and operated as a stock company or joint venture. i.e. Virginia, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut. (See Proprietary Colony and Royal Colony)

Copyhold: The right to occupy a certain piece of real estate through written transcript or record.

Dower: The land and tenements to which a widow has claim, during her lifetime, for the support of herself and children. This was usually one-third of the property owned by her husband.

Fee Simple: (1) Total ownership of land without conditions or limitations whereby the owner can do with the land as he chooses. (2) A direct and complete inheritance of an estate without limitations or conditions.

Fee Tail: A form of property ownership in which the property may be inherited only by a specific line or class of heirs i.e. primogeniture.

Ferriage: (1) Transportation by Ferryboat. (2) Fare paid to ride a Ferryboat.

Fieri Facias: A writ commanding a sheriff to levy and sell as much of a debtor’s property as necessary to satisfy a creditor’s claim.

Freehold: legal ownership of a property giving the owner unconditional rights, including the right to sell, grant leases and contract mortgages.

Glebe (Glebe-Land): British, denoting the cultivable land possessed by an ecclesiastical benefice or Parish Church.

Head Money: 1. A Poll tax. 2. A bounty paid per person (per head) for captured prisoners.

Headright Certificate: The document certifying a person’s right to a grant (usually of land).

Headright Grant: A land grant system introduced by European Colonial Powers to induce immigration into their New World Colonies. The British, in their Royal Colonies, granted each head-of-family (sometimes specified as being from "Great Britain or Ireland") 50 acres for himself and each member of his household, (and until about 1700 included slaves) provided he settled on the land, improved it and paid a fee (a poll) to the British King. The Warrant secured the rights for a Survey. (See Treasury Right)

Horse-Block: A step or block of stone, wood, etc., for getting on or off of a horse or into and out of a vehicle.

Importation: The function of bringing merchandise or people from one country to another. (Impoverished immigrants often traded their head right for transportation to the American Colonies. The person paying the transportation costs was performing an act of importation.)

Impoverished: Reduced to a state of poverty.

Indenture: A written contract.

Indentured Servant (Bond Servant): A person who sold himself or was sold by his Government or creditors to a Master for a period of time. In Colonial America the period of servitude was usually four to seven years. This indenture was saleable, transferrable and it could be inherited. A person might agree to such temporary servitude in exchange for transportation to America. Sometimes they were apprentices. Often they were paupers, convicts, victims of Religious or Political persecution or just someone kidnapped for the purpose.

Intestate: Dying without a valid will.

Land Grant: In North America, by the last quarter of the eighteenth century, common practice described any public land being converted to private ownership for the first time, regardless of the method of acquisition, as a land grant.

Legal Age – Under English Common Law, full majority was reached at the age of 21. Anyone under 21 was legally an infant. Only persons who had reached majority could perform certain legal actions: buy or sell land without restriction, patent land, devise land in a will, sign a bond or note, bring suit in one’s own name, marry without consent, act as a guardian, serve on a jury and vote or hold public office. For some legal actions, the Law merely required that the person be judged capable of discretion which was generally accepted as 14 years of age. Children aged 14 and over could legitimately perform the following: witness deeds and contracts, testify in court, select a guardian, apprentice themselves without parental consent and bequeath personal property in a will.

Lease and Release: A subterfuge used in Colonial America to avoid payment of English Court Fees in the purchase of real estate. The lands were first leased and then over a period of time all rights to the land were transferred to the new owner (purchased) through a release.

Michaelmas: September 29.

Military Donation: Land set aside in certain areas and awarded to those who had served the Military in the prescribed manner and for the required period of time.

Military Land: Public land reserved and awarded as partial compensation for service in the U.S.A. military during the Revolution and War of 1812. The last military bounty land act was passed in 1855 and provided 160 acres for having fought in a battle and/or of having served for at least 14 days.

Orthography: The art of writing words with proper letters in their correct usage and spelling.

Patent: In the Colony of Virginia, a Patent conveyed land from the colonial Governor, in the name of the King of England, to an individual. The term applied to documents issued by the Land Office in Williamsburg prior to 1774. An exception was the Northern Neck land Grants issued by Lord Fairfax, the proprietor of the land between the Potomac and Rappahannock Rivers. A Patent or a Fairfax Grant was the last legal step in the process of acquiring land. After the Patent or Grant was issued a structure must be built on the land within three years and three acres of land cultivated for every 50 acres of land owned.

Pence: See Pound.

Perambulating: See Processioning.

Poll Tax: A flat-rate tax levied on a population resulting in a payment to a governing body prerequisite to the assessed person exercising a political right, often voting.

Pound Sterling: Monetary unit of the United Kingdom. Since 1980 it has been based on the decimal system of 100 Pence to the Pound. Prior to 1980 one Pound was equal to 20 Shillings or 240 Pence. One Shilling was equal to 12 Pence. The symbol for Pound Sterling is £.

Primogeniture: The system of inheritance or succession of the first born, specifically first born son.

Processioning: A method for formally fixing the boundaries of the various contiguous land-holders. A custom brought to the New World from England and in Virginia acted into law in 1661 whereby, "all the inhabitants of every neck and tract of land adjoining shall goe in procession and see that the mark-trees of every mann's land in these precincts be renewed," and that "this procession be repeated every four years." Boundaries were considered unalterably fixed after they had been marked three times.

Propositus: The first person from whom a line of descent is traced on a genealogical chart.

Proprietary Colony: North American colonies established on lands granted by the British Crown to groups or individuals. The grantee had exclusive right to title; to use or dispose of the land, and full rights of self-government. i.e. Carolina, Maryland, Pennsylvania. (See Charter Colony and Royal Colony.)

Quit-Rent: Fees paid to a Feudal Lord permitting the tenant to farm land without being obliged to serve the Lord in any other capacity.

Quit-Rent Fee: The fee, usually one shilling per 50 acres, paid to the King in the Royal Colonies, or the Proprietors in the Proprietary Colonies, in exchange for the right to live on and farm land in Colonial America.

Relinquish Dower: A woman could give up her right, voluntarily or for a legacy, to inherit a portion of their husband’s property (her Dower) before or after her husband died. She did this by signing a joint-conveyance after being examined in private (Separately) by a Court Official who explained all of the details to her.

Rent: Rents of Assize (quit rent) are certain established rents of free-holders and Copy-holders of Manors which cannot be varied.

Royal Colonies: A colony ruled and administered by officials appointed by and responsible to the reigning sovereign of the parent state. ie. New York, and Virginia after 1624.

Seizin: (1) Possession of either land or chattel. (2) A right to possession characteristic of Freehold.

Shilling: See Pound Sterling.

Surety: A person who takes legal responsibility for the fulfillment of another's debt or obligation. In English Common Law, a Surety is distinguished from a Guarantor by being immediately liable as opposed to becoming liable only upon default of the principal.

Testator: One who makes or has made a Will; one who dies leaving a Will.

Tithe: (1) The tenth part of goods or money set aside as a gift to God. (2) A levy or tax paid, in kind or money, to a church or civil governing authority.

Tithable: In Medieval England (1188), the tithe was a royal tax but assessed using an ecclesiastical boundary, the parish. Tithes were given legal force by the Statute of Westminster of 1285. The dissolution of the Catholic Monasteries (1536 – 1541) by King Henry VIII led to the transfer of many tithe rights from the Catholic Church to secular landowners and to the King of England. In Colonial Virginia, the annual Tithables Tax supported the county’s and colony’s budgets and also the Church of England’s parishes. It was a capitation tax assessed on everyone age 16 and above except free white women. Free men, slaves and indentured servants – male or female – were counted and the tax was based on the total number of Tithables in a household. It typically was assessed and paid in pounds of tobacco. Items upon which a fee may be levied. ie. Farm animals, Servants, Slaves, Land. (In Colonial Virginia all men over the age of 16, regardless of rank or station, except clergy and members of the Council. All women were exempt except slaves and servants over sixteen years of age who were capable of working in the fields.)

_Treasury Rights:_ After June 21, 1699, in lieu of importing one of "his Majesties Subjects into this Dominion" (Virginia) for a Headright of fifty acres, a person could pay the sum of five shillings to the Virginia Auditor for the "same liberty to take up and patent fifty acres of lands". (See Headright.) This right with slight alterations existed in other North American Colonies at various times.

_Warrant:_ The first step in the process of acquiring land was a Warrant and / or an Entry in the county Surveyor's book which secured the right to a survey of the land. The Entry included a description of the land and the number of acres. In the 17th century the primary method of gaining a Warrant was the "Headright" system: 50 acres of land for each person imported into the Colony. This was augmented after 21 Jun 1699 by the "Treasury Right" (later called Treasury Warrants) at the rate of 5 Shillings for 50 acres. The latter could be purchased from the Land Office in Williamsburg or locally from the surveyor. Warrants could be bought and sold.

Here are examples from the New England.

Drinking Tobacco: Drinking Tobacco was an early term for smoking.

From Records and files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, MA--- COURT HELD AT SALEM, 28: 9: 1656.

"William Everton presented for drinking tobacco near a barn without doors. He was found to be at sea."--------- In this case it appears that William Everton was smoking in public.

Disguised: Drunk

From Records and files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, MA--- COURT HELD AT SALEM, 28: 9: 1656.

"Edward Pitford of Marblehead fined for being disguised by strong liquors or wine. Wit: Henry Stacie and Tho. Bowen."

Son-In-Law: Step Son

Boston 1770- Will of William Maycock, Truckman named Joseph Jackson, Truckman as son- in- law in his will. Joseph's mother Abigail had remarried to William Maycock and by today's terms he was a step son.

The old use makes more sense.

Daughter-In-Law: Step Daughter

New England Palladium [Boston]- January 3, 1809- "Married in this town by the Rev. Mr. Gardner, Mr. Joshua Cushing, printer to Miss Ann Avery, daughter-in-law of Mr. John Jackson."

By today's terms Ann Avery was the step daughter of John Jackson.

Book Reviews

Genealogical Resources Of The Civil War, Online And Published Military Or Civilian Name Lists, 1861-1869, A Post-War Veteran Lists By William Dollarhide, 8 ½ X 11, , 204 pp., perfect bound, cc 2009, Item No. FR0113, Cost: $32.95 plus s&h, Order from: Family Roots Publishing Company (see below)

Again Mr. Dollarhide has made your genealogical research easier. This time by bringing all the sources in the search for your Civil War soldier or veteran and his family together in one volume.

The introduction points out the reasons why, and by whom the records for the 1861-1869 era were made and kept. The first portion deals with nationwide resources, both published and online. Some of the topics covered in this section are: regimental histories, unit rosters, pension lists. federal censuses, rolls of honor, burials, amnesty lists, State census, Statewide and territorial records, Internal Revenue assessments, Veteran burials and more.

The last portion contains State sources. Each State is listed alphabetically with online and published sources. This last portion contains the best centers for local and county records.

Whether you are just beginning your search for your Civil War ancestor and his family, or whether your have reached a ‘brick wall’, this book will be most helpful.

Map Guide To German Parish Registers – Thuringia By Kevan M. Hansen, 8 ½ X 11, 243 pp., soft cover, indexed by town, cc 2009, Item No. FR0047, Cost: $34.95 plus s&h, Hard cover $65.00 plus s&h. Order from: Family Roots Publishing Company.

This volume is not meant to be a ‘how to’ book, but rather to aid the researcher in the most difficult part of searching for your German ancestors. That is determining the parish, if you only know the town where your ancestor resided.

This volume is the 24th in the series by this author and each shows the following: the parish, based on where they lived, gives the family history library microfilm number for the parish records, identifies every city, town, or place with residents, parishes are identified by Lutheran or Catholic, shows neighboring parishes, just in case, aids in area searches across district or regional borders, provides visual identification of search areas, helps determine reasonable distances of travel from one area to another, identifies population centers in each parish, identifies archives, repositories and other resources, and aids in identification of location of minority religions.

Each area in the book begins with the map of the acres. Each town is then listed and keyed to the parish and is very easy to use. You can’t go wrong with this volume or any of the others in the series if you are trying to find your German ancestors.

Reuben Pollard b. 26 March 1762 in Culpepper County, VA d. 01 November, 1843 in Montgomery County, TN. His will proved 11 October, 1843. m. Margaret E. Elliott b. 27 August, 1775 in TN d. 09 October 1847 in Montgomery County, TN. Her will written 01 September 1847 and proved on 06 December 1847.

The parents of Reuben Pollard are unknown. He settled in Needmore, Montgomery County, TN by 1797. His homeplace was called “Sugar Tree Hill”, and still is standing, though unoccupied (07/26/1966) It is located on the East bank of Big West Fork Creek, just below Spring Creek. He owned close to one thousand acres of land at this location when he died. The Pollard Family Cemetery is situated about 100 yards from the old home. The tombstones (about 32) are very legible and are in good condition except for one Mrs. Louisa Editha P. Allen, his daughter. Evidently a tree had fallen on it, and broken where her husband’s first name would be. Therefore, it is not known just which Allen she married, or if she ever had any children. Byard T. Pollard, a son of Reuben and Margaret Pollard, heired the homeplace and the surrounding land.

Reuben, his wife Margaret and family helped to organize Spring Creek Baptist Church of which Rev. Reuben Ross was pastor for many years. Mrs Jack C. Haynes, Sr., née Bryan Pollard of Clarksville, TN today 26 July, 1966 says that our Pollard family was related to said Rev. R. Ross.

Margaret was probably the daughter of James and Margaret Elliott of Montgomery County TN, but this has not been proven (31 May, 1967). She was blind when her husband Reuben wrote his will on 03 November 1838.

Solomon Jones b. 1777 in Wake County, NC d. 2/2/1841 in Humphreys County TN m. 1st Christian Alston b. 1743 d. ?

Solomon Jones was an Indian fighter, land dealer, fist fighter and a giant in size. He settled near Only, TN in Hickman County in 1807. He brought many settlers with him including his half sisters and brother-in-laws, the Alstons. His half-sisters were named Pollard, as his mother married a Pollard after his father, James Jones, died in 1777. These half sisters were: 1. Nannie Pollard m. Daniel George; 2. Rebecca Pollard m. A. Smith; 3. Elizabeth Pollard b. 1779 m. Thomas Steel; and 4. Charity Pollard m. William Loftus.

The sister Elizabeth Steel lived in Orange County, NC. She and Solomon Jones owned land jointly there and it was sold in 1820 to William Holladay in Orange County. It must have been left to them by their mother, Charity Alston Jones Pollard. There were several small children who came to TN, one name Emily who was born May 2, 1813, married Isaac Wright as she is mentioned in the Hickman County History by Spence. She was said to have a family Bible. The Bible called Solomon Jones Bible, which has a few names and a few dates, was photocopied and placed in the State Library in Nashville, TN.

Solomon Jones’s will mentions three sons, three daughters, three or four grandchildren from his first marriage to Christian Alston. The major portion of his large land holdings went to his son, James George Jones, by his second marriage to Elizabeth Brown Murphree. She was a widow who had ten living children by Daniel Murphree, who died in 1828. It is not known how long she remained a widow, but Christian Alston Jones was not living in 1828, and it was probably 1832 or 33 when Elizabeth married Solomon. He had made his home with William A. Jones, his son, who lived near Only.

William A. Jones married February 24, 1833. Susan McNeely Jones went across the Duck River to Barren Hollow and built a large log house with rock chimneys at either end and a “dog trot” through the middle, as was common practice in those days.

When Solomon was fifty-nine years old, James George Jones was born, August 9, 1836. Four years later, February 2, 1841 Solomon died, leaving Elizabeth, near forty-nine years of age, to rear his son. She gave the son the best education she could obtain locally. He had school-masters to tutor him and he also attended the Centerville Academy. It must have been there he met Elizabeth Griner and fell in love at first sight. She was at Martha Fosters and wore a “yellow dress”. It was Christmas time and the slaves kept coming to the door and saying, “Master Markus (Fowlkes) said for you to draw me a dram”. James George Jones and Elizabeth corresponded after this first meeting and the next time they met, they were married. He was twenty-one and she was eighteen. He was considered quite a catch, as he had two suits of broad-cloth and had fallen heir to over 5,000 acres of land and several slaves. Their marriage took place at her father’s home, Robert H. Griner, Jr. in Hickman County, TN on March 30, 1858 performed by Elder J. C. Hobbs.

James Jones’s mother died on May 23, 1859 and was buried by her first husband, Daniel Murphree where a tombstone marked their graves at the McClannahan place in Brown’s Bend. Solomon Jones was buried at the William A. Jones family cemetery by the side of Christian. There was a tombstone giving their names but no dates.

James George Jones and Elizabeth Griner reared seven children in Barron Hollow, and he gave each child the equivalent of fifteen hundred dollars and 5,000 acres of timber land in Humphreys and Hickman Counties. This land was not to be sold until 1950 according to his will. His great grandson, Charles Frank, Jr. bought it in 1950. James and Elizabeth are buried in Humphreys County and twin monuments were erected to their memory.

Solomon Jones b. 1777 d. Feb. 2, 1841 m. (2) Elizabeth Brown Murphree b. Jan 29, 1792 d. May 23, 1859 They were married after 1828 as that is the year Elizabeth’s first husband, Daniel Murphree died. There is a story handed down that Solomon asked her to marry him as soon as a decent waiting period for mourning had passed. Evidently they were married about the time his son William A. Jones married in 1833. He left some household goods there, which he willed to William A. later. Solomon must have built the house in Barren Hollow across Duck River in Humphreys County where he owned several thousand acres of land.

Elizabeth had eleven children before Daniel died and the youngest of these was Elizabeth Murphree born in 1825. She was mentioned in Solomon Jones’ will, being eleven years old when James George Jones was born. She must have lived with them at that time as did some of her brothers.

Solomon wrote a will dated 3rd of August, 1836 in which a slave named George, about 29 years old, a negro woman named Prissy, about 28 years old, a negro boy named Almon, about 9 years old, one negro girl named Rachel about 7 years old, one negro boy named John about 2 years old (all children of Prissy) were named. Also mentioned was one negro man named Gabe, about 20 years old. This will was written six days before James George Jones was born.

The next part of Solomon’s will was written the 11th day of Sept. 1837 – after James G. Jones was a year old. He willed everything he owned to James G. Jones and his wife Elizabeth Jones during her lifetime or widowhood, then if James G. Jones did not live to be twenty-one, or died intestate, then the land was to go to Thomas Jones of Benton County; Dennis G. Jones and William A. Jones of Hickman County, the said land being in Humphreys County on the south side of Duck River. This 190 acres of land at Barren Hollow was bought from John Davis and James Parham.

The next will dated 22nd of March 1838 gave Mary Jones, daughter of William A Jones a negro girl, 1 year old named Jane. Then on 23 Sept., 1839 he gave Thomas Jones a negro man by the name of Will, 63 years old, a negro woman by the name of Jenny, about 22, one negro boy by name of Charles, about 2 years old. On this date, he also willed a negro man named Charles, about 34, a negro woman named Tabetha and 2 children, a girl named Anne, 3 ½ and Jove, about 18 months old to wife and James G. This will also gave his stock of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep, all the cotton, all crops on hand and all household furniture of every description, wagon and cart, etc. where he lived in Barren Hollow to his wife and James G. on the same terms as other indenture. The two mules were not included in this deed of gift, and one woman’s saddle. Mules to be sold to highest bidder and woman’s saddle at death of Elizabeth Jones to be given to her youngest daughter Elizabeth Murphree.

The next indenture gives grandson Solomon Jones, Junr, one negro boy, Olfy, about 7 year, said boy is yellow and son of woman Jude. To William A. Jones he gave all household & kitchen furniture farming tools & utensils of every description including blacksmith tools, the only set he had, including wagon & furniture on plantation where William A. Jones now resides and he formerly lived on the north side of Duck River in Hickman County.

On the 14th of December 1840 Solomon bequeathed three tracts of land lying in Humphreys County in or on both sides of Barren Hollow, one estimated about 361 acres, second tract containing 5,000 acres which land was granted by the State of Tennessee to John McNeeley and himself by grant No. 115507 which land I only own the undivided one-half. The third tract about 60 acres. This was to James G. Jones on the same terms as other bequests. Then to Dennis G. Jones, one negro woman named Jude, about 25 years old, Celony, about 1 year old, one negro woman named Pat & child Anna, about 15 months, also one negro girl named Isbell, about 9 years old. Dec. 4, 1840 he appointed Dennis G. and William A. Jones as his executors to dispose of the following: My stock of horses, 5 in number & my 2 mules & cattle & hogs which will be ready for pork in the fall of 1841. Also my distillery which property I wish to be sold in the spring of 1841 – to highest bidder be divided equally between four sons & wife. I also give my granddaughter, Christian T. Jones my interest in a negro man named York, a blacksmith by trade about 28 years of age. He willed Mary, wife of John Atkins, a musket or rifle or shotgun. He willed Pricilla, wife of John Studdard, one old grisly black sheep and all its increases forever and ever (being an old bell-wether) his half interest divided between D. G. & Wm. A. Jones, the other half being already William A. Jones. His daughters received these small items because they had reacted unfavorably to his marriage to the widow Murphree. James G. Jones always felt that Solomon’s children by his marriage to Christian Alston resented his falling heir to much more property than they received from his will. I don’t believe he knew too much about them as he was so much younger than they, and saw very little of them. Dennis G. Jones died when James G. Jones was fifteen, and William A. Jones died when he was nine years old. They had been his guardians and it is presumed that his mother took over when they died. She ran the plantation until James was twenty-one and came into possession of it. She lived about a year after his marriage to Elizabeth Mildred Griner in 1858.

Twenty one slaves were mentioned in the wills. They are: George 29; Prissy 28; Almon 9; Rachel 7; John 2; Gabe 20; Jane 1; Will 63; Jenny 22; Charles 2; Charles 34; Tabitha 2; Ann 3 ½; Jone 1 ½; Olfy 7; Jude 25; Celony 1; Pat 40; Anna 1 ½; Isbell 9; York 28.

Willis Jones was the son of Edmund and Rachel (Alston) Jones. When he was about fifteen years old his family moved from Orange Co., NC to Chatham Co., NC where he lived until he moved to Maury Co., TN in 1812. Several others of the NC Jones clan also moved to Middle TN about this time.

During the War of 1812 Willis Jones was a Corporal in Capt. Mebane’s Company, Col. Philip Pinkin’s 1st Regiment of West TN Militia from 20 June 1814 to 21 December 1814.

Elizabeth Gee was the daughter of George Gee and his wife Charity (her maiden name is unproven, however some think it might have been Taylor) George Gee was born April 1, 1767, Lunenburg Co., VA and died July 9, 1848, Chatham County, NC; and he was the son of Neavil Gee who died in 1804 in Lunenburg Co., VA. In Chatham Co., NC the Jones and Gee families were next door neighbors.

In October 1834 when Willis Jones died his children’s ages were: Lemuel 23, Eliza 21 (and married), Martha 19, Ruth 17, Charity 15, Wiley 13, Billy 11, Rachel 8, James 6, Elizabeth 3 and Sarah 2 months. Elizabeth, the mother of all these children died three weeks after her husband. The older children kept the family together and raised the little ones. Only Sarah died young.

Edmund Jones (Father of Willis Jones)

Edmund Jones b. 1749 Granville Co., NC m. Rachel Alston about 1770 d. 1834 Chatham County, NC Rachel Alston b. 27 Sept. 1747. She was the daughter of Solomon Alston, Sr., b. 1708 Chowan Co., NC and died 1784 Warren County, NC and his wife Ann “Nancy” Hinton b. 1729 and died 1786.

The part of Granville Co., NC in which Edmund (or Edmond) Jones was born has been divided several times, and when he enlisted in the Revolutionary War in 1781 the part in which he lived had been cut off into Orange County. During the War he served in the Army in Col. Malmedy’s Regiment and was in one skirmish with the Tories. His Revolutionary pension claim, number S7086 is on file in the National Archives in Washington, DC.

benefactors of the University of North Carolina, the oldest State University in the United States. In 1789, when the University was first organized, he donated 200 acres of his plantation at Chapel Hill towards its site.

The History of the University of North Carolina, Vol I, by Kemp P. Battle gives biographical sketches of the original donors and states about Edmund Jones “----a most valuable citizen in his county, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War----married Miss Rachel Alston and settled as a farmer near Chapel Hill, but soon after the location of the University removed to Chatham County and established himself on Ephraim’s Creek, on the present line of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, midway between Siler City and Ore Hill. He is buried about 12 feet from the road. He died in 1834 at the age of 85 years.”

The will of Edmund Jones was proved April 14, 1834 in Chatham Co., NC (Book C; page 13). In his will he gave “the whole of my real and personal estate to my sons, Lewis, Willis, Sugar, and Alston and to my daughters Nancy and Sally”. Rachel his wife, is not mentioned in his will, thus she is believed to have died before this time.

Willis and Alston Jones and their sister, Nancy, who married Thomas J. Brooks moved from Chatham Co. NC to Maury and Hickman Counties, TN.

Sugar Jones (Grandfather of Willis Jones) Sugar Jones was born about 1725 in Isle of Wight County, Va. and is said to have married Sarah Franklin, however proof of her surname is lacking. Sugar Jones died in Granville Co., North Carolina in 1761, after which time his widow, Sarah, married 2nd to Nathaniel Henderson.

In 1754 Sugar Jones was recommended for a commission in the North Carolina Militia and was a popular young Captain as can be seen by the fact that his was the largest Regiment at the General Muster of Granville County on Oct. 8, 1754. He played an important role in the early Indian Wars in his State and died a young man of about 36 years.

Many fascinating stories of the daring exploits of the dashing young Sugar Jones have been handed down and in 1963 Manly W. Wellman wove them into a “fiction based on fact” history story book for children. In this book, Settlement on Shocco, the principal character is “our” Sugar Jones. Mr. Wellman won an award as the author of the best prose fiction dealing with North Carolina history prior to the American Revolution.

Edward Jones (Great Grandfather of Willis Jones) Edward Jones was born about 1700 in Virginia and married Abigail Sugar about 1724. She was the daughter of John Sugar (Jean Sucre), a French Huguenot, of the Isle of Wight County, VA. After Edward Jones died in 1751 Abigail married 2nd Thomas Cook. About 1739 Edward and Abigail Jones and their children moved from Virginia to what was then Edgecomb County, NC and settled on Shocco Creek.

In 1746 when the new county of Granville was formed from Edgecomb County, the first meeting of the officials was held in the home of Edward and Abigail Jones. Later the first courthouse of Granville County, NC was built on the Jones plantation.

Edward Jones died in Edenton, NC and was there attending the General Assembly where he represented Granville County as a member of the House of Commons. His death was announced on the floor of the Provincial Congress of North Carolina. Edward Jones’s original will (now over 200 years old) is preserved and filed (No. 22) in the Courthouse of Granville County, NC.

‘Ancestors of Lottie Merle Shoaf’ includes information on David Baxter who came to TN 1816. According to 1870 Wilson Co., TN Census, the daughter (Rebecca) of David and Sarah stated she was born NC 1798. David was a preacher & moved a lot. David & Sarah Baxter did come from NC and could have met after arriving in TN.

The 1820 Census shows no Sarah or David listed in NC or TN. According to Hopewell Church in Milton, TN (the history published by the Rutherford Co., TN Historical Society) they both died in 1816.

_George Donnell_, Sr. came to TN 1804 and was in Wilson Co., TN 1810 Census.

In the ‘Search of the Elusive Parentage of William Ellis’ the story goes that John Ellis’ first wife was killed by Indians & he moved to VA where he married Jemima Can before moving to East TN. Pittsylvania Co., VA was the previous home to many of the early settlers of Washington Co., TN.

Neighbors of the Ellis family were the Beans, Crouch, Lane, and Russell families. There are several children of William Ellis without dates that may fill in the gap between 1768-1780, or the children may have come to TN later. Since William moved to Washington Co., TN in 1779, all children born after 1779 and before 1790 would be born in that county in what was then part of NC.

Chambers
Thomas Chambers came to Campbell (now Scott) Co., TN c1806. He had a land grant from TN for 1000 acres and about the same time a 5000 acre land grant from NC. I cannot find any record of these two grants. Can anyone tell me if TN has records of war grants?

We have an extensive Native American collection in our stacks. We have books on more than 20 tribes. Including Apache, Arapaho, Blackfoot, Cherokee, Cheyenne, Chippewa, Choctaw, Hopi, Iroquois, Kickapoo, Navaho, Nes Perces, Omaha, Osage, Patawatomi, Shawnee, Shosoni, Sioux and several others. There are also many books on battles, wars, history and genealogy. This is a great resource for anyone researching a Native American ancestor. This collection takes up 2 columns of bookshelves in our library.

Also to be found in our stacks are many volumes of Genealogical Magazines. Nearly all volumes of the New England Historical and Genealogical Record from 1850 to the present. The National Genealogical Society Quarterly from 1942 to the present. The Southern Genealogist Exchange from 1957 to the present. Each of these publications provides a wealth of information for the Family Researcher.

Contributions
Everyone is invited to submit unpublished material of genealogical value. Pre-1945 Tennessee material is our priority. This includes diaries, letters, tombstone inscriptions, deeds, church records, military records, etc. If a photo is needed for an article, please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.
We are a nonprofit organization and do not pay for contributions; however, we do acknowledge the contributor and give by-lines.
All correspondences with TNGS should include your name, address and telephone number or e-mail address.

Queries
Queries will appear in Ansearchin’ News and on the TNGS web site.
Members are entitled to one free query each year and may place additional queries for $3 each. (Nonmembers pay $5 for each.) Queries should be 50 words or less. (See “Queries” in any current issue for correct form.) Please submit queries typed or printed.

Surname Index File Cards
Members are urged to send vital statistics of ancestors to be included in our Master Surname File. Please type or print information on a 3x5 index card. Information should include subject’s surname, given name, middle name, dates of birth, marriage, death, parents, spouse, children, origin, state and county. Please include name, address and e-mail address on the back of the card.

Book Reviews
Books will be reviewed in Ansearchin’ News if the book is donated to The Tennessee Genealogical Society. After a book is reviewed, it will become part of the GRHGC library. All books will be reviewed in the order received.

Tennessee Ancestry Certificates
TNGS sponsors this program to recognize and honor the settlers who came to Tennessee before 1880. To place your ancestors in this roll of honor, please request an application from Mrs. Grace Upshaw, Director of Certificates, at www.tngs.org or the address at the end of this page. Upon completion of the application, please return it along with supporting documents or other proof of your ancestor’s residency, along with a $10 application fee. Attractive certificates suitable for framing are issued to each person whose application meets program qualifications. Certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor’s name, date and place of settlement in Tennessee along with the applicant’s name.

Note: TNGS has published two volumes of Tennessee Settlers and Their Descendants compiled from information contained in these applications, and will publish a third volume when adequate numbers of additional applications are received.

TNGS may publish pre-1945 unidentified photos in Ansearchin’ News. Please advise us of the origin of the photo and any other information that might aid our search. Please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.

Letters to The Editor
All letters to the editor should be addressed to Kathryn Holderman. Please feel free to forward any comments or suggestions. In many instances, throughout the magazine, grammar and spelling are left verbatim in order to preserve the character and charm of the era.

Volunteering and Donations
TNGS is strictly a nonprofit organization. It exists to keep the history of Tennessee and our ancestors alive. Volunteers run every aspect of the Society, and if you would like to join the ‘cause,’ please contact a Board member or other volunteer. There is no job too small — remember, Tennessee is the Volunteer State!
TNGS is a federally recognized nonprofit, tax exempt, educational organization, and as such contributions are tax deductible within the IRS guidelines. Your gift will be acknowledged by mail and will include the TNGS tax number.
