From the Editor

I hope you will find the wait for the magazine this quarter worth it. December is always a busy month in our family. Birthdays, anniversaries, and Christmas of course all fall in this month. This year was extra busy for our family as my Soldier son was home on leave from Iraq

We have a great article about the Methodist McAnallys as our feature this month. Also you will find never before for 16 days in the middle of the month.

published cemetery transcriptions from Roane County, TN. We are continuing our series on Stewart and Henry County court records. There is a neat article about the day it 'rained snakes' in Memphis.

Please don't hesitate to write with your questions, suggestions or such at tngeneditor@tngs.org or to the mailing address on the front cover. I also invite submissions for publication in our magazine. I prefer a digital submission for this at the email address listed here; however feel free to submit a hard copy. One of our fabulous volunteers will type it up for me.

Kathryn Grace Holderman.

President's Message

To be happy, one needs something for which to be enthusiastic. And certainly my enthusiastic involvement with the Tennessee Genealogical Society during the past decade meets this criterion.

During this period we have seen the Society evolve from the introverted personal research tool of the few to an extroverted educational organization that reaches out to all family-history researchers regardless of ethnicity or motive.

During 2008, we conducted 64 programs, either in-house or as part of our out reach program. These included full-day seminars, basic computer classes, advanced internet research workshops, and research training for various ethnic groups. We presented our story to genealogy groups, senior citizen groups and church groups in north Mississippi and west Tennessee. We also hosted ancestral and history societies and groups which included Daughters of the American Revolution, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Huguenots of Manakin Town, and Sons of the American Revolution.

We are still tallying 2009.

I thank all of the members for permitting me to serve as president of this remarkable organization.

Originally my interest in genealogy was an adjunct to my interest in Southern history; my need to "know" my ancestors and how they "fit" into the romanticized Southern history that I was taught in school and exposed to in the Gone with the Wind genre of books and movies.

My research indicates that they were farmers, shoe makers, American Revolutionists, Baptists, sawyers, Tories, section foremen and hands, slave owners, soldiers, preachers, Crackers, moonshiners, grist mill operators, Presbyterians, Confederates, cotton mill owners, mule skinners, plantation overseers, Unionists, itinerant sorghum makers, school teachers, rednecks, doctors, mill hands, bootleggers, auto mechanics, nurses, truck drivers, etc. Most were honorable, some were not. I think I would have liked the majority of them.

My grandparents were born and reared in a conquered nation, the Confederate States of America, that was occupied by the military forces of a foreign power, the USA Federal Government. The rule of the Scalawag, Carpetbagger and punitive legislation by that Government, resonates even today.

I am appreciative of the living standards and quality of life that I live due to their hard work, devotion to Country, and adherence to the law. Most met every day in a self-reliant survival mode and played by the rules of church and state acceptable at the time.

It is a travesty that, because they lived in the South, so many honorable people have been denigrated and, the Confederates, likened to Nazis. It is unconscionable that so many hypocritical politicians and "do-gooders" continue to dishonor and vilify my ancestors and my culture

Even so, "this too shall pass." It's still the greatest Country in the history of mankind and I thank God every day that I am a citizen of the USA.

The Methodist McAnallys

By Tina Sansone

The McAnally family's American journey began with the kidnapping of a young boy from the shores of Scotland and his subsequent abandonment on the coast of Pennsylvania. Survival traits exhibited by this youth as he grew to manhood have contributed to a great family and religious heritage. Many of his descendents, through worship, education, and music, inspire us today.

David Rice McAnally wrote about this family in his book, Family Reminiscences, published in 1837, and from which I will quote throughout this article. Through his writings we learn of family accomplishments, events such as birth, marriages and deaths, and gain insights into family loyalties and ties.

One branch, beginning with a preacher in Indian Creek, Tennessee, for four generations during the early 1800's, influenced the Methodist Church in Tennessee. Its influence is still felt today through their writings and their educational legacy.

Generation One - Charles David McAnally

The first McAnally immigrant to America, Charles David McAnally, was born in 1685 in Glasgow, Lanark, Scottland. Family Reminiscences written by Dr. David Rice McAnally, 1837 states:

"My great, great grandfather McAnally was kidnapped near the mouth of the (river) Forth in Scotland and brought to America. and set down to shift for himself on the American coast. His account of this matter was in substance as follows: He was playing with some neighbor boys on the banks of the above mentioned river, when they discovered a large earthen pot filled with money. The father of the boy sent him to his father's who lived some distance to tell him to come and assist in the division of the money. On his way, he was overtaken by a man on horseback who inquired of him where he was going and upon being informed, proposed that he should ride behind him. Accordingly he mounted, but instead of arriving at his father's he was put on a vessel just ready to sail for America. and was soon after landed near Philadelphia. Here he remained until he came of man's estate when he married a woman by the name of Houston and settled on the Susquehanna River near the mouth of Sweet Arrow Creek in Lancaster County, Penn. He was never able to assign any probable cause for his being kidnapped except that the individual near whose house the treasure was found might possess himself of it entire.

The only data we have now as to the arrival in America. is as follows: The family account says that John, my great grandfather, was born in the 28th year of and Indian War - 1758." his father's age, and died in 1796 aged 83. So his father came at 8 years old, he was here 20 years before his son's birth and 103 years before his death. 103 years taken from 1796 leaves 1693 which must have been the year of his arrival. On the Susquehanna where he first settled he raised his family consisting of three children: John, Charles, and Mary. After his death these children all of whom had previously married removed to Virginia, then Amherst County."

Generation Two – John McAnally Charles married Sarah Houston about 1722 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. One of their children, John McAnally, migrated to Tennessee. He was born about 1725 in the Lancaster County, PA area and died in 1796 in Hawkins County, TN. He is buried near McPheeters Bend, Hawkins Co. Tennessee. Dr. David Rice McAnally, 1837 states,

"John, my great grandfather, remained in Virginia until 1792 when he followed his son, David, my grandfather, who had previously removed to Hawkins County, Tenn. Here he and his wife, who was originally a Houston, both died, the former in May 1796. They both now lie in an old burying ground on the north side of Holston River near the road leading from Rodgersville to Kingsport in the neighborhood of what is called McPheeters Bend. He was listed as a member of the Virginia Colonial Militia in Ablemarle County during the French

Generation Three – David McAnally

John married Ruth Houston and one of their sons was named David McAnally born 1748 in Amherst, Virginia and died December 24, 1835, in Grainger, TN. David married Martha Patty Pannell (March 22, 1748-March 24, 1789) on March 1, 1768, in Amherst County, VA and a second marriage to Nancy Kyle on March 18, 1790, in Virginia.

Family Reminiscences written by Dr. David Rice McAnally, 1837, states: "My grandfather was born in Amherst County, Virginia on August 5th, 1748. In March 1768 he married Martha Pannell; daughter of Thomas & Keziah Pannell, who was of English decent on her father's side, her mother was a quatroon of the Shawnee tribe. She was born in 1748 and died in 1789 leaving nine children and an infant. In 1790 (March 18th) my grandfather married a second time, to Nancy Kyle, born March 15, 1765. In 1791 he removed from Virginia to Hawkins County, Tenn. In 1796 he removed from there to Grainger County near the mouth of the German Creek. In 1803 he removed from this to the waters of Indian Creek in the same county, where he died December 24, 1835 aged 86 years. He was, for forty years or upwards before his death, an acceptable member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and left behind him a lasting testimony of the truth and efficacy of the religion of Christ, of its supporting influence in death and of the hope of a blessed immortality with which it inspires the soul. In the struggles for American Liberty he bore an active part serving three campaigns in the capacity of Captain, Sergeant and Ensign."

From David Warren Young's Book: "Scottland to Arkansas - The McAnally Lineage", David copied the following from Frances McAnally Blackburn Hillard's DAR application:

"Enlisted under Captain John Higgenbotham, guard of British prisoners taken under Burgoyne at Ablemarle Barracks, Colonel Taylor in command. In 1780, volunteer orderly sergeant under Captain John Morrison, attached to General Mead's regiment in Petersburg. General Lawson's Brigade in the spring of 1781 under Captain Barnett, Leiutenant John Pope; he joined General Lafayette. Furlonged on account of illness, upon recovery joined the army against Cornwallis. Served nine months in all, five months as an ensign."

David has a will in Grainger County, Tennessee dated 18 Sep 1834. This is on file under Grainger County Will, Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville, Tennessee:

I, David McAnally, Sr., of Grainger County and State of Tennessee feeling the infirmity of old age and calling to mind the mortality of my nature being in perfect soundness of mind, but low in state of health, do make and constitute, appoint, ordain and publish this my last will and testament.

First, I recommit my soul to God who gave it and my body to be buried in a Christain like manner.

Second, I give and bequeath all my personal property of every kind to my wife Nancy for her proper use and benefit also the use and benefit of all my real estate to my said wife Nancy during her natural lifetime and at her death said real estate or lands to be equally divided in value between three of my children that is to say: my daughter Sarah Barnes is to have one third in value, my daughter Polly Carole is to have one third in value, and my son Thomas is to have one third in value, to be divided as they and their representatives may agree to be possessed by them and their assignee forever. In testimony where I have hereunto set my hand and affixed by seal the 18th day of September in the year of our Lord 1834.

Signed, Sealed, and Published in the presence of John Latham, Thomas P. McAnally, H. Williams. (Recorded 13 July 1836, E. Tate, Clerk)

Generation Four - Charles McAnally

David and Martha McAnally had a son Charles McAnally born November 11, 1775, in Amherst, Virginia. He died April 17, 1849 in Grainger, TN. Charles married his first wife Polly Shelton (January 15, 1774-May 21, 1807) on December 25, 1798 and his second wife Elizabeth Rice Moore (1788-October 25, 1842; parents Rice Moore and Elizabeth Madison) on January 9, 1809, in Tennessee. Dr. David Rice McAnally states,

"My Father, Charles McAnally, was the third son of David and Martha Pannell and was born in Amherst County, Virginia on the 11th of November 1775: accompanied his father to Tennessee in 1791. In 1798 he married a Miss Polly Shelton Dec 25. In March 1800 he removed to the waters of Indian Creek where he has remained ever since. In May 1807 his wife died leaving three small daughters. In 1809 he married Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Rev. Rice and Elizabeth Moore. By this marriage he had five children, four sons and one daughter.

He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in June 1803. In the latter part of 1809, he was licensed to exhort in the church. In 1811 he was licensed as a local preacher. In 1818 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop McKendree. In 1822 he was ordained Elder by Bishop George.

Besides his ministerial labors he has for a number of years served his fellow men in several capacities. For twelve years successfully he performed the duties of High Sheriff of Grainger County. For almost twice that number he acted as Justice of the Peace in the same county and hundreds can bear testimony to his attentions as a physician. He has lived to see most of his children grow up around him and has the satisfaction of remembering that, though poor, they are all of irreproachable moral character. He is now November 8, 1837 living where he formerly has for many years and in the enjoyment of peace and competence. Of my Mother's family I never learned much, her mother was a Madison, second cousin of James Madison, a family well known in Virginia."

Generation Five – David Rice McAnally

Charles and Elizabeth had a son David Rice McAnally born on February 17, 1810. He died on July 10, 1895 in St. Louis, MO. David was "educated by private teachers, and at the age of nineteen entered the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Abingdon, Virginia, as an itinerant preacher. He travelled for twelve years in the circuits and districts of Virginia, North Carolina, and Tennessee, and was for three years the editor of a secular paper in North Carolina. In 1843 he became president of the East Tennessee female institute in Knoxville. He conducted this school for eight years, during four of which he edited a religious journal. In 1851 he became editor of the Christian Advocate in St. Louis, Missouri and superintendent of the Methodist book concern there. In addition to sermons and addresses, he published educational tracts and was long associated with Horace Mann in efforts to improve the common-school system. He also wrote Life of Martha Laurens Ramsay (St. Louis, 1852), Life and Times of Reverend William Patton (1856), Life and Times of Reverend Dr. Samuel Patton (1857), Life and Labors of Bishop Marvine (1878), and History of Methodism in Missouri (1881). (Appleton's Encyclopedia)

David was a prominent Minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He followed in his father's footsteps who served in the Ministry for over 40 years. David also served as Principal of the East Tennessee Female Institute. In 1851 He moved to St. Louis, MO and founded Carondelet M.E. Church South in 1856. He also served as editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate from 1850 to 1860. His private papers are located in the Missouri Historical Society in St. Louis. Central Methodist University (formerly known as Central Methodist College) in Fayette, Missouri is an accredited four year institution of higher education. It offers masters, bachelors and associates degrees. The school is affiliated with the United Methodist Church. The college was chartered by the Missouri General Assembly on March 15, 1855. It came about due largely to the diligent work of Nathan Scarritt and David Rice McAnally.

David was loved by all his followers, but during the Civil War there were those who did not like his teachings. "During the whole period of our dreadful civil war, not a jar or discordant word was heard among them. His persecutions and imprisonment endeared him all the more to them. His Christian and ministerial character was never compromised by word or deed while suffering the indignity of arrest, the insulting language of petty tyrants in the persons of Provost Marshals, and during weeks of imprisonment. He came forth from the prison as pure, if not more pure, than he entered it. None, who were privileged to hear it, will ever forget his first sermon to his congregation, the Sabbath after his release, from the text, "I have faith in God." Of all his best and happiest efforts before and since, none ever approached this in genuine eloquence. The effect was electric and almost overpowering. He was there and then a living illustration of the mighty truths he, with so much feeling, uttered.

On Sunday, the 10th of May, 1863, an officer came to arrest him. In the forenoon he had preached an interesting sermon, and after dinner went to his study to prepare a sermon for the evening. While thus engaged, the officer presented himself and placed the Doctor under arrest. A piercing cry from his daughter was heard, when others hastened to the library, where the arrest was made. He calmly gathered his family together in the library, when he told the officer that he wished to have prayers before separating from them. The officer replied that he had no objection. The Doctor opened the Bible at the twenty-third Psalm, and read with much feeling and pathos, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want," etc. The reading of the Psalm finished, he offered a touching and appropriate prayer, and then affectionately addressed his orphan son and daughter. The officer, callous though he may have been, was not an unmoved spectator of the affecting scene. To his honor be it recorded, he shed tears freely. It was generally supposed that Provost Marshal Dick wished to celebrate the capture of Camp Jackson, and his little soul could devise no more appropriate mode than the arrest of a humble servant of Christ on the holy Sabbath-day, the 10th of May, 1863.

For the twelve months previous to his last arrest, Dr. McAnally had, by his parole of honor, been confined to the limits of the county. He had sacredly kept his parole in every particular. Confining his ministerial duties chiefly to his own congregation, administering to the wants of the needy, visiting the sick, burying the dead, and speaking words of consolation to the bereaved and distressed, no man's walk could have been more blameless. Yet, his persecutors were not satisfied. It could not have been charged that politics entered into his sermons or his prayers; but he was not a Radical in his politics nor in his religion, and this constituted his offence." After all that was said and done, David never really knew why he was being arrested, but stayed dedicated to his beliefs throughout his ordeal." (American Bastile, A History of The Illegal Arrests and Imprisonment of American Citizens During The Late Civil War by John A. Marshall) "Some time after 1870, Dr. David Rice McAnally married Julia Leslie Reeves, daughter of William Powder Reeves and Mary Catherine "Polly" DeVault. Julia's family was from Washington County, Tennessee. Julia died on the 29 Aug 1878. Her body was returned to Washington Co., Tennessee. It was said that, "Julia was a cultured and intellectual woman." Dr. McAnally and Julia did not have any children." (Ancestry.com)

David Rice McAnally married Maria

Tennessee and she was buried in the Old

Jonesborough Cemetery, Jonesborough,

David Rice McAnally married Maria Ann Patton Thompson on December 27, 1836 in Abingdon, Washington, VA; she was born April 19, 1808 and died April 25, 1861. The following was reported: Genealogical Abstracts From Reported Deaths, The Nashville Christian Advocate, 1861; 1872-1873, Page 12 May 16, 1861—"MARY A. P. McAnnally w/o Rev. D. R. McAnnally, died April 25, 1861; also left three children."

Generation Six – David Russell McAnally

Their children were named Joe,

Mariah, David Russell (November 21, 1874 Knoxville, TN-February 26, 1909), Charles Thompson (April 7, 1841-1914), Henry R. and William W. McAnally.

Prof. David Russell McAnally, son of Rev. David Rice McAnally, for many years editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, was born at Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 24, 1847, and came to Missouri four years later. He was educated almost wholly under the private instruction of his father. In 1876-77 he was appointed professor of English in the State University, and remained such until 1884-85, when he returned to special newspaper work, and was connected with the Globe-Democrat until his death, which occurred in St. Louis, February 16, 1909. He was the author of How Men make Love and Get Married, Irish Wonders; Popular Tales as Told By the People, Philosophy of English Poetry, The Unemployed, and many articles published by the periodical press. (Missouri Historical Review. Vol 3 October, 1908)

Genealogical abstracts from reported deaths, the Nashville Christian Advocate 1908-1910 (Page 22) February 26, 1909. Professor David R. McAanally son of Rev D. McAnally died St. Louis, MO, Feb. 16, 1909 aged 61 years; his maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Russell, was a sister of Patrick Henry. "A very lovable man has gone away."

Conclusion

descendants left a mark on the Methodist religion. From the mid 1700's, the Civil War to present day, the McAnally Family have left their mark.

For more information on the McAnally Family, email Kay McAnally Fleming at bigspotteddog@comcast.net. She is the 6th Great Granddaughter of Charles David McAnally; the 2nd cousin four times removed of David Rice McAnally, Sr. and resides in Tennessee. She is a member of the Chief Piomingo Chapter, DAR. She is very devoted to her family and is proud of her ancestor's devotion to family and God.

Didja Know it rained live snakes on Memphis?

The Memphis Public Ledger, Memphis, Tennessee, 16 January 1877, reported a Shower Of Snakes. "During the heavy rainstorm yesterday a decided sensation was produced in South Memphis by a heavy fall of small live snakes, thousands of which were to be seen on the ground this morning, wriggling and squirming around in all directions. A gentleman living on Goslee Street, south of Vance... "brought a dozen or so in a quart bottle of water to this office." They are from 12 to 18 inches in length, of a light brown and grayish color with small black head." The Ledger hypothesized the area inundated was very small and "it is not improbable that the water discharged from the clouds yesterday, and its contents, was taken up from a lake, gulf or the ocean by a waterspout thousands of miles away."

Scientific American Magazine picked up the story and reported the snakes ranged in length from 12 to 18 inches. And, "They probably were carried aloft by a hurricane and wafted through the atmosphere for a long distance..." But even the magazine asked where so many snakes would exist "in such abundance" (they fell by the thousands) or how the storm picked up only snakes and not other creatures in the swamp.

From the Report of the Chief Signal Officer, War Dept. 1877: Concerning the reported shower of snakes at Memphis on 15 January 1877, the following is taken from the observer's report. The morning opened with light rain. The wind was from the southwest. At 10:20 a.m., and lasting for about 15 minutes, rain began to pour down in torrents. Immediately after this deluge "the reptiles were discovered crawling on the sidewalk, in the road, gutters and yards," in the two blocks of Vance Street between Lauderdale and Goslee Streets. "Careful inquiry" indicated that no one had seen them fall. They were not found in the cisterns, or on roofs, or "any elevation above ground." Vance was a comparatively new street and had no pavement. The gutters "were merely trenches." There was no report of the reptiles being found elsewhere. "...they were a very dark brown, almost black, and were very thick in some places, being tangled together like a mess of thread or yarn."

Hey, "we report, you decide."

Additional particulars of the burning of the Chester steamer. The lost are Gus A. Zellner, William Brown and John Kirnan who drowned according to a witness who stated to Colonel Jesse Forrest at his stables that Mr. Kirnan jumped overboard after an explosion. G. A. Zellner, a passenger who had been to St. Louis on business connected to the estate of his brother, was asleep in his berth when the boat took fire and floated away and was not seen thereafter. Will Brown, the colored barber of the boat, leaped overboard, and kept one of the chambermaids afloat for some time and both floated away from the burning wreck. Seven persons, including two colored firemen had gotten into the yawl and refused to let any others get in. The chambermaid was taken in, but poor Brown, and probably one or two others were driven off and were struck with oars at the hands of those in the yawl. Brown sank and was seen no more.

Miss Katie Lewis and Miss Sadie Falk, of Courtland, AL, visiting friends in the city, return home tomorrow.

Arrest of a cow thief - This morning Detectives McCune and Pryde arrested Henry Wilson, a notorious cow thief. He had in his possession two steers, yoked together, that are undoubtedly stolen. They were offered for sale this morning to Messrs. Frey and Stanbrough of Chelsea, but were refused because the negro could not give a clear title to the beeves. When taken into custody, he produced a bill of sale purported to have been written by a man named Henry Douglas. On being questioned, the thief said he had purchased the steers from Willis Kerns last Saturday. Kerns lives on Col. Douglas' farm on Big Creek. Killed by Lightning - Saturday morning about 10 o'clock, during a severe thunderstorm two men named Buck Hodges and James Phillips, while at work in an open field near John P. Hill's farm, five miles northeast of Memphis, were struck by lightning; Hodges was instantly killed; Phillips was knocked senseless and remained so for half an hour, when he was found by Mr. Pierce Hodges, a brother of the dead man. Phillips was several hours recovering, and it is a miracle that he was saved, as he was within two feet of Hodges who was killed. The deceased was 34 years of age.

Mr. Barney Coleman, the deputy clerk of the Circuit court, received a telegram this forenoon from Mr. W. B. Cullen at Los Angeles, CA, which brought sad tidings of the death of his brother, Robert H. Coleman, which occurred yesterday. Mr. Coleman has been in California since August 1876, thinking it would benefit his health. He had been in poor health since the war, being severely wounded near Atlanta, GA and taken as a prisoner to Camp Douglas, IL. He never fully recovered from the effects of his wound, the ball having entered his right lung. Robert H. Coleman is the Confederate soldier who shot and killed Gen. McPherson during the fight at Atlanta. This act of this soldier was always deeply regretted when on his return to Shelby county he learned in what high estimation the people of this city and county had held the dead Federal General.

Cd The Soul Of Schleswig-Holstein, An Iowan's insight into his ancestral homeland

By Scott C. Christiansen, 238 pp., plus index. Order by sending a check to Scott Christiansen, 1461 Grand Avenue, Iowa Citty, IA. 52246-1913 Price: $7.50 including s&h. The hard bound copy of the book from which the CD is made is currently available at lu lu.com and soon will be available at Amazon and Barnes & Noble at a cost of $89.95.

Who as a genealogist has not dreamed of traveling to the home of his ancestors, to try to determine how they lived, what they thought, and why they moved and how they determined where to go. Mr. Christiansen, because of his fascination with his great great grandfather, Jurgan Peter Ankerson, and because his great great grandfather was a member of the early German immigrants called the 'Forty-eighters'. These immigrants were made up of a small number who fought in a local war and were not forgiven, which was the reason for their moving. Given the opportunity, Mr Christiansen, along with his friends, Jogi Reppmann and his wife made the trip back to the area of Germany from which their ancestors came

The book from which the CD is made is written in diary form. Each paragraph is filled with information about the places they visited, the people they met, maps of the location, the homes and historic places they visited. Each page is filled with photographs of all of the above. One of the more interesting places they visited was the Gallerie der 7 Millioner or Gallery of 7 Million, where he found his great great grandfather. The Gallery contains over 2000 biographies, letters, photos, mementoes, histories, pictures, documents and audio texts that explain the political, economic and social environment which resulted in the immigration of

This CD is a great find, especially to anyone with German ancestors. If you can't make the trip yourself, this book and CD are the next best thing to being there.

Triumph Of Will, Printer's boy to publisher: The remarkable story of German Immigrant Henry Finnern. By Stuart Gorman and Joachim Reppman, 122 pp., 5 X 8, soft cover, cc 2009, Order from Jogi Reppmann, 103 Orchard St. N., Northfield, MN 55057. Price $10.00 plus $2.50 s&h.

This book is the life story of Henry Finnern who immigrated from Germany to Middle American at the age of thirteen. With little formal education, and starting as a print boy, he succeeded in being the owner of two newspapers, in Dennison and Waterloo, Iowa It tells of the harassment and mistreatment of Henry Finnern at the time of WW1, and his almost being lynched by a mob during this time. He had difficulty convincing the mob that he loved this country and was very patriotic. It was at this time, however, that he changed his paper from a German language to English. Mr. Finnern went on to become the Postmaster at Dennison and also a State representative. The

This small book is well written and easy to read, and contains historical and family pictures throughout. This book should appeal to anyone who loves history and genealogy, especially those with German ancestors.

Finnern family genealogy is on page 101.

History For Genealogists, Using Chronological Time Lines to Find and Understand Your Ancestors By Judy Jacobson, 286 pp, indexed, paper cover, cc 2009. No. 9956. Order from: Clearfield Company, Cost: $29.95 plus s&h (Other ordering information at end of reviews)

A most welcome addition for genealogist to have all the historical time lines set out handily in one book. Some of the topics covered which may have affected our ancestors are: all military battles in America. and the world, racism, injustices and political unrest, escape and banishment, diseases, economics, natural and unnatural disasters worldwide, and many other topics. Other questions answered are, how did they go, road, rail, water, air, who went where, America's historic migration patterns, Trail of tears, myths, confusions, secrets, lies, finding missing persons, orphan trains, no record at all, as well as state by state time lines.

Most people doing genealogy do not want to just know their ancestor's names, but would like to know much more, such as why they moved, how they decided where to go, how they traveled, and what route did they take. It is most likely you can find many of your answers in this book. This is one book the serious genealogist must have.

Tech Tips

By Kathryn Holderman

There has been a lot of hype this fall about Windows 7. I'm sure many of our readers out there are wondering about it. I recently acquired a new laptop that has Windows 7 Home Premium.. I am one of those people who does not like change when it comes to my operating system. I have to say this has been the easiest transition I've had from one version of Windows to another.

My old laptop had Windows Vista Home Premium. The biggest problem I encountered with my Vista box was the inability to connect to or see other PCs in my home network that were running Windows XP or earlier. This was extremely frustrating for me, as it also meant I could not print to our printer attached to one of those other PCs. After over a year of struggling with this, my husband installed Windows Vista Ultimate, and this ended that problem.

Windows 7 has fixed this issue along with many others. I have had no crashes with the operating system. I've installed several pieces of old software and it all seems to run just fine. If you have been considering upgrading to a new PC, but have been afraid because of all the problems you've heard about with Vista, fear no more. Buy that new PC, you will be happy you did.

This writer does forewarn you that it will be different than you are used to, however Windows 7 is very user friendly.

From the Stacks

It is a well known fact that City Directories are a great reference tool for family researchers.

We have many 27 of these among in our stacks. A trip to our library to look at these would be very beneficial for anyone looking for relatives in Memphis.

We have volumes on the following years for Memphis 1967, 1971-72, 1973, 1974, 1975, 1976, 1978, 1980, 1930, 1948, 1954, 1958, 1961, 1964, 1966, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1973, 1984, 1993, 1994, and 2000. We also have directories for the suburban Memphis area for 1964, 1966 and 1967.

We have over 500 rolls of Microfilm for Patron use in our stacks. Including census records for various years and various states. Some church records. Film covering every county in the state of Tennessee in some form or fashion.

We have a 10 drawer map cabinet filled with maps. There are maps of Memphis and Shelby county. Maps of Tennessee, and the surrounding states. Maps of the United States, and other countries. Most of these are historical maps that are very useful for family researchers.

Tennessee Ancestry Certificate Program

The Tennessee Genealogical Society sponsors this program to recognize and honor the early settlers who helped shape the great state of Tennessee. Persons wishing to place their ancestors in this roll of honor are invited to submit an application with supporting documents or other evidence that proves their prime ancestor lived in Tennessee or the area that became Tennessee before 1880. Family charts or computer printouts are not considered sufficient proof.

Attractive hand-lettered certificates suitable for framing are issued each person whose application meets program qualifications. The certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor's name, when and where he or she settled in Tennessee, and the applicant's name. The application form for the certificate can be printed at our web site www.tngs.org or via snail mail from

TNGS P. O. Box 381824, Germantown, TN 38183-1824

Ansearchin' News Policies

Contributions

Everyone is invited to submit unpublished material of genealogical value. Pre-1945 Tennessee material is our priority. This includes diaries, letters, tombstone inscriptions, deeds, church records, military records, etc. If a photo is needed for an article, please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.

We are a nonprofit organization and do not pay for contributions; however, we do acknowledge the contributor and give by-lines.

All correspondences with TNGS should include your name, address and telephone number or email address.

Oueries

Queries will appear in Ansearchin' News and on the TNGS web site.

Members are entitled to one free query each year and may place additional queries for $3 each. (Nonmembers pay $5 for each.) Queries should be 50 words or less. (See "Queries" in any current issue for correct form.) Please submit queries typed or printed.

Surname Index File Cards

Members are urged to send vital statistics of ancestors to be included in our Master Surname File. Please type or print information on a 3x5 index card Information should include subject's surname, given name, middle name, dates of birth, marriage, death, parents, spouse, children, origin, state and county. Please include name, address and e-mail address on the back of the card.

Book Reviews

Books will be reviewed in Ansearchin' News if the book is donated to The Tennessee Genealogical Society. After a book is reviewed, it will become part of the GRHGC library. All books will be reviewed in the order received. Tennessee Ancestry Certificates

TNGS sponsors this program to recognize and honor the settlers who came to Tennessee before 1880. To place your ancestors in this roll of honor, please request an application from Mrs. Grace Upshaw, Director of Certificates, at www.tngs.org or the address at the end of this page. Upon completion of the application, please return it along with supporting documents or other proof of your ancestor's residency, along with a $10 application fee. Attractive certificates suitable for framing are issued to each person whose application meets program qualifications. Certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor's name, date and place of settlement in Tennessee along with the applicant's name.

Note: TNGS has published two volumes of Tennessee Settlers and Their Descendants compiled from information contained in these applications, and will publish a third volume when adequate numbers of additional applications are received.

Photo Gallery

TNGS may publish pre-1945 unidentified photos in Ansearchin' News. Please advise us of the origin of the photo and any other information that might aid our search. Please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.

Letters to The Editor

All letters to the editor should be addressed to Kathryn Holderman. Please feel free to forward any comments or suggestions. In many instances, throughout the magazine, grammar and spelling are left verbatim in order to preserve the character and charm of the era.

Volunteering and Donations

TNGS is strictly a nonprofit organization. It exists to keep the history of Tennessee and our ancestors alive. Volunteers run every aspect of the Society, and if you would like to join the 'cause,' please contact a Board member or other volunteer. There is no job too small — remember, Tennessee is the Volunteer State! TNGS is a federally recognized nonprofit, tax exempt, educational organization, and as such contributions are tax deductible within the IRS guidelines. Your gift will be acknowledged by mail and will include the TNGS tax number.
