MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES

The new officers of the Memphis Genealogical Society started the year with several projects in mind. Two of these are well on the way to completion. The first was the adoption of a card file system. Several hundred names have been transferred from five generation charts to file cards. You will find a sample card and instructions elsewhere in this bulletin. Please co-operate with us by sending your cards to Mrs. Scott Julian, 868 N. Auburndale, Memphis. When we have received your cards we will have ready access to several thousand surnames from which to exchange data with our members.

Our second project is to copy the burial records for a fifty year period of the oldest existing cemetery in Memphis. Elmwood Cemetery record books reveal the first interment to have taken place in 1853. A few headstones were moved to Elmwood from Winchester Cemetery and some from old Morris Cemetery. The date of the last interment recorded in the second book is 1904.

Your past President, Mrs. L. D. Bejach, and your President accepted an invitation to watch the microfilming of the Shelby County, Tenn. court records that is being done at the courthouse here in Memphis. The stupendous task of filming seven thousand record books, dating from 1821, is under the supervision of Mr. Guy Bates. Miss Gladys Parry, Director, was very thorough and gracious in explaining the details of this operation to us. These valuable records will be available to the public and may be seen in the new record room at the courthouse.

After our visit we went to the office at Elmwood Cemetery to investigate the possibility of our copying their records. We then conceived the idea of having the books microfilmed at the courthouse. After consulting with Mr. Bates, Miss Parry and Mr. Ralph Day, President of Elmwood Association, a plan was presented to the Board of the Elmwood Cemetery Association. If this plan is agreed to, we will soon have another project completed. The microfilmed records will be placed in Cossitt-Goodwyn Library for your use. We sincerely appreciate the spirit of mutual help we encountered all along the way in working out this plan.

A very special vote of thanks is given to our Study Group hostesses. In Feb. the group met in the home of Mrs. Bunyan Webb, 99 Cherokee Dr., and in March we met in the home of Mrs. Thomas L. Robinson, 2115 Hallwood Dr. The study groups offer research exchange and, of equal importance, the opportunity to read rare books and manuscripts. Don't miss this opportunity to exchange information with your fellow members.

In conclusion it seems appropriate to quote from Miss Nellie F. Ayres' book, AYRES KIN AND KIN TO KIN, fresh off the press. In the foreward Miss Nellie says, "If you copy from one book that is plagiarism, from two or more it is research." From half a century of extensive research a very beautiful and useful book has emerged. Congratulations to this Society's newest author.

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK:

Your editor joins your president in hoping each of you will participate in helping to fill our SURNAME INDEX (see page 44 for instructions). Don't let spring fever get you before you have had time to fill out and send in your surname file cards!

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS:

The April 1962 issue of the AMERICAN GENEALOGIST will carry a full listing of all genealogical periodicals published in the United States. The information used in the descriptive listing was compiled by Donald J. Jacobus, editor of the AMERICAN GENEALOGIST and by Mrs. Edna W. Townsend, editor of ANCESTRAL NOTES FROM CHEDWATO. If you do not subscribe to the AMERICAN GENEALOGIST ($6.00 per year), write to Mr. Jacobus, Box 3032 Westville Sta., New Haven, Conn. for cost of the April issue or a reprint of the above listing.

We welcome the Faulkner County Historical Society of Conway, Arkansas to our exchange list. Their publication is known as FAULKNER FACTS AND FIDDLINGS. Dues are $5.00 a year. Write to Mr. Guy W. Murphy of Conway for membership information.

All persons interested in Arkansas records should lend a helping hand to the newly organized Arkansas Genealogical Society, Box 237, Fayetteville, Arkansas, sponsored by the Washington County Historical Society, which has devoted much of its time and effort for the past eleven years to family history. The Washington County Society is no longer able to carry on the genealogical activities and therefore is supporting the new genealogical society. The new publication (Vol. I, No. 1, March 1962) is called THE ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN. Dues are $2.00 a year.

The San Bernardino Valley Genealogical Society invites you to become a member of their group. They plan to issue four copies of their bulletin called the QUARTERLY with one issue extra large to contain all the pedigree surnames of their members plus the name and address of all members. Membership is $1.00 per year which entitles you to minor research by their staff. The QUARTERLY is $2.00 per year including the YEAR BOOK. Write: Mrs. Betty Stockwell, 1053 W. 27th St., San Bernardino, California.

CHEDWATO SERVICE has for over nine years published ANCESTRAL NOTES and in January 1962 they added the SUPPLEMENT of 72 additional pages each year. Now the editors, Charles D. and Edna W. Townsend, are announcing another publication called MISSING LINKS. It will contain 20 pages each issue and will be mailed twelve times a year. The new publication will be devoted entirely to family history. The first issue will be out in August 1962. Each magazine will be completely different. ANCESTRAL NOTES and SUPPLEMENT is $3.00 a year for 6 issues; MISSING LINKS is $3.00 a year for 12 issues. Write: CHEDWATO SERVICE, P. O. Box 746, Burlington, Vermont.

The East Tennessee Historical Society, % Lawson McGhee Library, Knoxville 2, Tennessee, has extra copies of their EAST TENNESSEE HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL DIRECTORY available for $1.00 per copy. You might also like to know that the Society's Publication No. 33 (1961) contains the Greene County, Tennessee Taxpayers for 1805.

TOOLS FOR RESEARCH:

Congratulations to the Kentucky Records Research Committee, D.A.R. for the splendid job done on the KENTUCKY BIBLE RECORDS, VOLUME I. The first volume contains 71 Bibles recently and carefully copied by members of the Kentucky Chapters, D.A.R. and is fully indexed. Volume II is scheduled for delivery early this summer. Produced by direct image process on fine quality paper, paper bound, over 100 pages, $5.00 each, postpaid (orders for Volume I & II, $9.00). Order from: Miss Virginia Wilson, Committee Treasurer, 114 Woodland Avenue, Lexington, Kentucky.

Available for the first time in print is the completely indexed NELSON COUNTY, KENTUCKY MARRIAGE BONDS 1785-1832. Volume I contains all of the bonds of grooms whose surnames begin with the letters A through J for the first 48 years of the county, including the 8 years in which it was part of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Volume I contains 216 pages and is bound in Leatheright. Price $15.00. Volume II will be completed later this year and will be available at the same price. Order from: Mrs. Mary H. Stancliff, 5903 Reamer, Houston 26, Texas.

The Willo Publishing Co., P. O. Box 284, Tuscaloosa, Alabama will be happy to send information concerning new books of interest to genealogist needing southern records. One brochure gives details and price to the 1820 Census of Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and South Carolina in print, while another describes six new books of EARLY SOUTH CAROLINA RECORDS (this set is devoted to the old Ninety-Six District).

Edwinna Dodson Bierman (Mrs.), 8339 Doris Street, San Gabriel, California has compiled a SURNAME INDEX which lists over 625 persons and more than 4900 surnames on which they are doing research. This first edition may be ordered for 65¢. Mrs. Bierman is planning a second issue for late fall. There is no charge for a listing in the DIRECTORY, just send your name and address and a list of all of the surnames on which you are doing research. Also send Mrs. Bierman a stamped, self-addressed envelope so you can be notified when the 1963 INDEX is ready for distribution.

The Southern Genealogist's Exchange (Vol. III, Series II, Spring Issue 1962) has the 1830 CENSUS OF GREENE COUNTY, TENNESSEE transcribed by Pollyanna Creekmore of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Lester D. Burns, Box 65, Yellville, Arkansas writes to tell us her help on research in Marion County, Arkansas is free for your stamp. County records were destroyed prior to 1887. If your ancestor is buried in the county, she will look for the grave.

ORPHAN'S COURT RECORDS (ABSTRACTS OF WILLIS & ESTATES) 1812-1859, Marion County, Mississippi may be ordered from E. Russ Williams, Jr., P. O. Box 1074, Bogalusa, Louisiana for $7.50 per copy. The book contains 112 pages and is fully indexed.

FAMILY HISTORIES:

JOHN NELSON, SR. AND HIS DESCENDANTS by Mrs. Olive N. Gibson, General Delivery, Redlands, California is a 351 page genealogy dating from 1740 to 1959. Price $5.75 postpaid.

April, 1962

-43-

DESCENDANTS OF GILMORE CALLISON AND WIFE, ELIZABETH MCCLURE may be ordered from the compiler, Mrs. Ethel Briggs, P. O. Box 453, Yucaipa, California for $10.00 per copy. The book contains a section of related families of the Callison wives.

Mr. Noble H. Pace, 1121 Seventh Street North, Columbus, Mississippi is compiling material for the first publication of the PACE SOCIETY OF AMERICA. The publication is expected to be released April 1, 1962. The first edition, ROMANCING WITH THE PACES, begins with Richard and Isabelle Pace, who settled in Jamestown, Virginia prior to 1616. Write Mr. Pace for further information.

We appreciate the copy of THE BARRICKMAN FAMILIES OF FRANKLIN, RIPLEY, AND MARION COUNTIES, INDIANA compiled and sent by June Barrickman Barekman, 3302 W. Diversey, Chicago 47, Illinois. It is not a complete work but contains the notes from seven years of research on the family by Mrs. Vivian Barrickman Shoemaker of Sheridan, Indiana, who died in 1959. It is the history of Peter Barrickman and wife, Elizabeth Antes, who came from Maryland into Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania and settled finally in Knox County, Indiana.

Write to Genealogies, Box 1943, Hutchinson, Kansas for any of the following books: LINENBERGER GENEALOGY by Amy Toepfer and Agnes C. Dreiling, 1767-1955, 432 pages, cloth bound, $15.00; HALL GENEALOGY by Helen L. Hall, 294 pages, over 200 pictures, leather bound, 1794 - 1960, $15.00; THESE ARE OUR RELIGIOUS, A GENEALOGY by Helen L. Hall, 316 pages, 200 pictures, histories of religious all genealogically related to each other. 1767-1959, leather bound, $15.00.

We have received a holographic draft of the manuscript on the HODGES FAMILIES OF SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE prepared and sent by John D. Gillespie, 1605 Highland Ave., Knoxville 16, Tennessee. Mr. Gillespie writes he is a genealogist, ethno-historian, and anthropologist by training and at present is revising the Eastern Cherokee Tribal Rolls from 1819-1869. He is also getting translations of Indian names.

The RICE Association is presently engaged in bringing up to date the information on descendants of Deacon Edmund Rice (1638). Correspondence is invited from persons of Rice descent. A $2.00 yearly dues enables the group to finance their news letter. Write Mr. Frederick R. Rice, 16 Eastern Avenue, Arlington 74, Massachusetts.

The mail often brings such nice surprises and the arrival of several large envelopes recently proved to be a surprise in six parts! The contents contained Vol. I, Part I and Vol. I, Part II THE WELLS VOLUME, Vol. II THE RISH VOLUME, VOL. III THE GABLE VOLUME, Vol. IV THE COLQUITT VOLUME, and MINUTES MIDWAY BAPTIST CHURCH (Calhoun County, Mississippi 1848-1898) all compiled by Judge Zelma Wells Price, P. O. Box 78, Greenville, Mississippi. Judge Wells started assembling her data in 1930 and each volume shows the many hours of research necessary to record so much related material. The volumes were privately mimeographed by Judge Wells for distribution to her family and some libraries. We are delighted to have this wonderful gift to place in the genealogical section of our local library. Judge Wells is at work on additional volumes - one will be the Bolling family. She welcomes letters from others working on her lines.

MASTER SURNAME INDEX

For many years we have asked for five-generation charts. The response to this request has kept our local group busy getting the information transferred from the charts to a MASTER CARD INDEX in order that the material could serve a useful purpose.

The charts were fine but we wish to save time and effort. Won't you please cooperate with us by sending a 3" x 5" card on each surname in your family. The cards will be indexed and added to our MASTER FILE and it will become the duty of the Director of Research to keep the Index and check the files for others working on your line. You may send as many cards as you wish - the more names, the more chance to help.

PLEASE FOLLOW THIS OUTLINE IN FILLING OUT YOUR CARDS:

Surname _____	First Name _____	M or F _____
B. _____	Where _____
D. _____	Where _____
M. _____	Where _____
Name of spouse _____
Your name _____
St. Add. _____
City, State _____

Make up cards for each member on your family tree. The B. stands for born, the D. for died, the M. for married. Make cards for the children in each generation in the same manner. So many times someone is working on another branch of your family and might have something of interest for you.

Our Director of Research is Mrs. Scott Julian, 868 North Auburndale, Memphis, Tennessee. Please mail all cards to her.

Requests for information from the file will be sent upon receipt of a self-addressed stamped envelope. Mail all requests to Mrs. Julian at the above address.

We would prefer the cards to be typed but will take them regardless of how they are filled out as long as the above form is followed. THE SURNAME MUST APPEAR IN THE UPPER LEFT HAND CORNER.

JOHN M. HART CEMETERY, OLD JACK'S CREEK ROAD, CHESTER COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Query No. "1961 - 79 HART - Could anyone tell me the location of the John M. Hart Cemetery in Henderson Co., Tenn.?" brought the following information from Mr. Russell E. Mooney of Chicago, Illinois:

"My uncle and I were able to get off one day to search out the John M. Hart Cemetery. It is on the Old Jack's Creek Road, about five miles east of Henderson - only about a half mile off the new highway 100.

"Many of the headstones have fallen and others are so dirty the lettering is difficult to make out. I believe the following list is fairly accurate."

RECEIVED JUST BEFORE THE DEADLINE: A notice about the HAVINS-HAVENS, and all other spellings, Reunion on Sunday, June 24, 1962. For details about this family gathering write the Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Patricia Kelly, 1500 Fredericksburg Road, San Antonio, Texas.

The last mail brought a copy of the ARKANSAS FEDERAL CENSUS FOR ST. FRANCIS COUNTY 1850 by Kathryn Rose Bonner, 21750 Berg Road, Southfield, Michigan. Mrs. Bonner indicated she is working on Phillips County, Arkansas for a May 1 release and Arkansas County, Arkansas to be out in June. Her work is mimeographed, indexed, and backed in a cover similar to the one used for our publication. Write Mrs. Bonner for price and request for certain counties.

*Tenn. and Penn. look a lot alike in the writing of those who took the Census and I am inclined to believe that the 71 and 78 year old females were b. in Penn. instead of Tenn. which wasn't formed until 1795 or 55 years ago. - T.P.H.
