MEMPHIS NEWS AND NOTES:

Each new year brings new plans to be formulated, so that we may be able to continue the good work of our predecessors.

January 11, 1963 the Executive Board met at 2:30 at the home of your President. The selection of books and microfilm was discussed. Projects for the year were planned. The results of this meeting will be announced later.

In November Mrs. L. D. Bejach, Mrs. Bunyan Webb and I went to Tuscaloosa, Alabama on an "ancestor hunt." While there we had the pleasure of visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Wood Thomas of the Willo Publishing Company and Mrs. B. W. Gandrud, collector and compiler of genealogical court records. Both Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Gandrud were most gracious in allowing us to see their records. We were fortunate, also, in being allowed to work in the rare books room of the library at the University of Alabama.

Our members feel that a special treat is in the making for Mrs. Thomas will come to Memphis and speak to us on February 16th. She will explain the details of collecting court records and her methods of publication. Mrs. Thomas is planning to hold a Genealogical Institute in Tuscaloosa later in the year. Several of the Memphis members are making plans to attend.

Mrs. Scott Julian, Research Director, wishes to thank Mrs. Charlotte Elam, Mrs. Robert Cox and others for their help in copying hundreds of names on-to her file cards for indexing. These cards are in Mrs. Julian's keeping. Requests for information may be sent to her at 868 N. Auburndale, Memphis, Tennessee. All requests must be accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Thanks to our study group hostesses. In November Mrs. R. H. Tolar, Jr., 371 Leonora Dr., invited us to her home. No meeting was held in December. The night business meeting and study class will be held on January 21 at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. Bunyan Webb, 99 Cherokee Drive.

TIDBITS:

Did you know: Mrs. L. D. Bejach, former President of this Society, has been elected National President General of the Children of the American Colonist? Mr. L. B. Gardiner is the new Tennessee Deputy Governor of the Jamestown Society and National Treasurer of the Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin. Mrs. L. B. Gardiner, former Editor of ANSEARCHIN' NEWS, is President of the Memphis Chapter of American Pen Women. Mrs. I. G. Duncan, recently home from a trip to North Carolina, reports that her search among the records revealed five new ancestors!

Have you left a blank space on your charts? If so, renew your efforts. As we search for names, marriage records, verifications, etc., look also for the deeds of our ancestors. Make note of their achievements, for their struggle was not easy. Without the actions taken by our forefathers, how could America be what it is today? Do your part copying and compiling this material for your descendants.

Jewel Standefer (Mrs. E. M.)
President

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK:

It is hard to realize that ANSEARCHIN' NEWS is ten years old! Much of the credit for the steady growth of our publication is due to the encouragement received from the many past and present subscribers. Knowing one's work is benefiting others serves as the best of incentives.

ANSEARCHIN' NEWS was born before many similar publications were on the market. The business of getting established had to be pioneered, and we would like to say thanks again to Lillian Johnson Gardiner (Mrs. Laurence B.), Editor 1954-1959, and the officers who served during those years, for persevering during the formative stage of our bulletin.

Your present Editor has been blessed with a wonderful group of volunteer workers, the advice and technical assistance of the experienced and the loyal backing of the Society. Now that we have a tried and workable system, our sincere wish is to continue to bring to you some of the answers to your Tennessee genealogical problems. Your Editor and staff also wish for each of you a Happy and Prosperous 1963. May December 31st find many of the blanks on your charts completed.

NEWS FROM OUR FELLOW PUBLISHERS:

We extend a warm welcome to two new publications. We wish them well in their undertakings.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL REGISTER is a new quarterly magazine offered by the Willo Publishing Co., P. O. Box 284, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The first issue will appear in March 1963, and will be a sister publication to THE ALABAMA GENEALOGICAL REGISTER. The Editor will be Mrs. Bell Motes Goggans (Mrs. L. L.). Mrs. Elizabeth Wood Thomas (Mrs. Oliver, Jr.), Editor of THE ALABAMA REGISTER, will serve as the Associate Editor. The magazine will contain fifty pages in each issue on such information as: cemetery records, wills, land records, Bible records, census, mortuary schedules, old maps, etc. Annual subscription is $7.50 from Willo Publishing Co.

The publication of the New Mexico Genealogical Society, the NEW MEXICO GENEALOGIST, is off to a flying start. Volume 1, No. 1 was issued in October 1962 and contained some 16 pages including a query section, book reviews, membership list and New Mexico records. Dues are $2.00 annually from the Society, P. O. Box 8734, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

TOOLS FOR RESEARCH:

THE FRENCH BROAD-HOLSTON COUNTRY: A History of Knox County, Tennessee is being offered for sale by the East Tennessee Historical Society. The book contains 573 pages of the thrilling and colorful story of Knox County. It is illustrated with maps and photographs, and is the only available history of Knoxville and the county. In addition to the history are the biographies of more than a hundred pioneers and civic leaders and their families. Price is $6.00 postpaid from the East Tennessee Historical Society, Lawson McGhee Library, 217 Market Street, Knoxville 2, Tennessee.

Write the East Tennessee Historical Society (address given above) for a descriptive list of Annual Publications of the Society, Nos. 1-34, 1929-62.

A price list is included. The Annual Publication is available to members and subscribers in addition to the quarterly news letter, ECHOES, which carries much valuable information for genealogist and historians.

The 1850 CENSUS OF HUMPHREYS COUNTY, TENNESSEE contains over 5,000 names, lists those who are on the census and served in Revolutionary War, War of 1812, State Militia of 1810, later became public officials, later had CSA service, a few death dates, some marriages and other data from compiler's files. Price is $7.50 from Mrs. R. Y. McClain, 610 Terrace Place, Columbia, Tennessee.

PIONEER DAYS, written by the late Mary Donaldson Sinclair, and published by her son, is about the early history of Steubenville and Jefferson County, Ohio, with emphasis on some 80 families. Price is $4.95 from Miss Thekla G. Stephan, 5303 14th St., N. W., Washington 11, D. C.

OHIO RESOURCES FOR GENEALOGIST WITH SOME REFERENCES FOR GENEALOGICAL SEARCHING IN OHIO by Ruth Long Douthit, Reference Librarian for Ohio State Library, is available for $1.25 a copy from: Detroit Public Library, % Burton Historical Collection, Detroit 2, Michigan.

ABSTRACTS OF OLD 96 AND ABBEVILLE DISTRICT WILLS AND BONDS, compiled and published by Miss Willie Pauline Young, 105 Byrnes St., Liberty, South Carolina (1950), is being reprinted and will be ready about July 1963. The 683 page book contains 4,227 different old court records. Price is $20.00 per copy. Write the publisher for more details on this and other items soon to be released on South Carolina.

A new members, Mrs. Hazel R. Ivison, 137 Briarwood Drive, W., Berkeley Heights, New Jersey, has made three trips to England and has gathered material she will share with others. She has records of all marriages of Stanhope Parish Church in Durham County (1613-1812), Bridekirk Church, Cumberland County (1584-1812), Workington (1670-1837) and Moresby Parish (1676-1837) Registers, Cumberland County, England.

THE 1832 LAND LOTTERY OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA may be ordered from Miss Frances Wynd, 2009 Gail Ave., Albany, Georgia. This book covers the last Land Lottery held in the State of Georgia. It is alphabetically arranged for easy reference. Widows, orphans, Revolutionary Soldiers, etc. are designated and many biographical notes are included. Price is $15.00 per copy.

UNION COUNTY, ARKANSAS MARRIAGES - 1829 to 1870 will be a welcome addition for southwestern genealogists. Union County is of particular interest because it was the parent county of ten counties in whole or in part: Ashley, Bradley, Calhoun, Cleveland, Columbia, Dallas, Drew, Nevada, Lincoln and Union. The more than 2,250 marriages are in alphabetical order as to groom with index to brides. Price is $7.50 from Annie Laurie Spencer, P. O. Box 429, El Dorado, Arkansas.

JOSEPH NICHOLS AND THE NICHOLITES, by Kenneth Lane Carroll, is the story of "one of the most interesting religious groups in Colonial America, the Society of Nicholites, which came into being about 1760 along the Delaware-Maryland border." The book traces their spread into Caroline and Dorchester Counties in Delaware. About the time of the Revolutionary War a number of them migrated south and established two separate communities in Guilford County, North Carolina. Many family names with valuable birth, marriage and probate records are included. Order from: The Eastern Publishing Co., Inc., P. O. Box 600, Easton, Maryland. Price: $3.75.

KENTUCKY BIBLE RECORDS, VOLUME II, is another job well done by the Kentucky Society, DAR. The easy to read, well prepared, fully indexed work on the Bibles has been done under the direction of the Kentucky Records Research Committee, DAR, with Emma Jane Walker (Mrs. W. B.) and Miss Virginia Wilson, Co-Chairmen. Price is $5.00 postpaid from Miss Virginia Wilson, 114 Woodland, Lexington, Kentucky. Due out in 1963: KENTUCKY CEMETERY RECORDS, VOLUME II (no price to date) and KENTUCKY BIBLE RECORDS, VOLUME III (50% larger, price $7.50 postpaid).

The following Alabama Genealogical Society publications will be ready for mailing soon:

No. 17 - NEW HOPEWELL BAPTIST CHURCH, Calhoun County, Alabama. Organized in 1832. 15 pages. Contains Charter members and members received to 1840.

No. 20 - ALABAMA FAMILIES. Families mentioned in MEMORIAL RECORD OF ALABAMA, published 1839. This index is for Volume II only. AGS Publication No. 19 contains index for Vol. I of MEMORIAL RECORD.

No. 21 - OAKWOOD CEMETERY, Montgomery, Alabama. Tombstone inscriptions, Part I. Compiled by Miss Frances Hails, Montgomery, Alabama.

No. 22 - OAKWOOD CEMETERY, Montgomery, Alabama. Tombstone inscriptions, Part II. Compiled by Miss Frances Hails, Montgomery, Alabama.

Publications are free to members of the Alabama Genealogical Society, Inc. Membership is by invitation. Persons living outside the State of Alabama may become associate members by paying dues of $5.00. Write Mrs. Frank Ross Stewart, Troy, Alabama, President of AGS.

Write Mr. Willard Heiss, 4020 East 34th St., Indianapolis 18, Indiana, for a catalog on INDIANA QUAKER RECORDS. The December 1962 catalog listed SKETCHES AND INCIDENTS by Henry Hoover (1788-1868) with Appendix, Family record of children and grandchildren of Andrew and Elizabeth Hoover, by Willard Heiss, price $2.50; ANNALS OF PIONEER SETTLERS on the Whitewater and its tributaries, in the vicinity of Richmond, Indiana, from 1804 to 1830 by Macamy Wasson, price $3.00; A LIST OF ALL THE FRIENDS MEETINGS THAT EXIST OR EVER HAVE EXISTED IN INDIANA 1807-1955 (revised edition) by Willard Heiss, price $2.00 and several other works having to do with the history of the Quakers in Indiana. The catalog gives a full description of each.

All four issues of the LOCAL HISTORY AND GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY publication, Vol. VIII, 1962, are devoted to an INDEX TO ANCESTORS OF MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY. Copies may be ordered from: Thomas S. Walker, President, 6455 Stichter Street, Dallas 30, Texas. Dues are $5.00 annually.

FAMILY HISTORIES:

We gratefully acknowledge receipt of du MONT de SOUMANGE AND ALLIED FAMILIES by John Sanderson du Mont, Greenfield, Massachusetts. The collateral lines of Jones, Meriwether and Taliferro will be of special interest to many of our local members.

We also wish to thank Miss Betty Braley, 910 Gordon St., Greenwood, Miss., for a typewritten copy of some very fine genealogical data contained in CHURCH LIFE, published by the Young Men's Union of the Reformed Dutch Church of Deerpark, Port Jarvis, New York. These papers are known as OLD DEERPARK DAYS. The notes were prepared by W. H. Nearpass and start with June 1890 and end with April 1899. They will be bound and placed in the Research and Reference Dept., Genealogical Section, Cossitt-Goodwyn Library.

THE FROSTS AND RELATED FAMILIES OF BEDFORD COUNTY, TENNESSEE is the story of the Frost, Fairchild, Boone, Wright and Howard families of North Carolina, the Shook and Reagor families of Western Virginia, the Beaden and Parker families from South Carolina, the Silvertooth and Davis families from Kentucky, the Holt family from an undetermined area, the Barringer, Covey, Byron and Hix families from Eastern Virginia and many others. The book was compiled by Wright W. Frost, 730 Cherokee Boulevard, Knoxville 19, Tennessee. There are over 3,600 names in the nearly 350 pages. Price: $10.00 a single copy, order from the compiler.

PEEBLES ANTE 1600-1962 is the history of the descendants of Captain David Peebles, Royalist officer to Virginia in 1649. There are 220 pages in the book, including a complete index. Price is $15.00 postpaid from Anne B. Peebles, Box 517, Benjamin Franklin Station, Washington 4, D. C.

THE BOOK OF JARED, the history of John Jared, wagon maker and Revolutionary War Veteran of Virginia, may be ordered from Mrs. Eleanor M. Hall, 157 North State, Salt Lake City, Utah. The book contains over 800 pages, is bound in durable fabricord, and the more than 6,200 descendants are completely indexed. Write Mrs. Hall for price.

A GENEALOGY OF THE SEELEY FAMILY, including a chronological account of Robert Seeley of New Haven Colony, and his activities in Massachusetts and Connecticut, has been compiled by Mrs. Harvey Tyson White. The migration of his descendants has been done by Miss Ada L. Chamberlain. Price is $15.00 from Mary Henrietta Chase, 2924 University Boulevard, Dallas 5, Texas.

THE ROHRBOUGH FAMILY, by Fred Ware Rohrbough, covers the period from 1735 to 1962. The book is well illustrated with photographs and reproduced documents of rare nature. The 211 pages are bound with library buckram finish and the work is completely indexed. Price is $10.00 from the author, P. O. Box 251, Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

An announcement of the GRAY FAMILY ASSOCIATION has been received from one of our members, Mrs. W. A. Dean, Box 166, Magnolia, Texas. The dues of $1.00 a year include a subscription to OUR GRAY LINE BULLETIN, issued quarterly. Write Mrs. Dean for further information.

ANCESTORS ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM:

Your Editor receives and reads all exchange bulletins, acquisitions, etc. for the Memphis Genealogical Society. So many of the over forty publications mention Tennessee families. As an added service, your Editor will endeavor to note any such information. Back issues are usually available and addresses will be given for your convenience in ordering. In ordering any specific back issue always give a full description of the issue needed. It is hoped that you will find a "missing link" among the following notes:

COLEMANS, FAMOUS SOUTHERN FAMILY, by Daniel Coleman, brings the family down to Stephen (Monroe) Coleman, born 1806, left Pittslyvania County, Virginia and settled in Shelby County, Tennessee. Found in THE SOUTHERN GENEALOGIST'S EXCHANGE QUARTERLY (2525 Oak St., Jacksonville 4, Florida), Vol. III, Fall Issue 1962, Magazine Issue No. 23. (Annual rate $5.00, single copy $1.50.)

The Pension Application for Thomas Brooks, S 1795, can be found in ECHOES, Vol. 8, No. 2, October 1962. (East Tennessee Historical Society, Lawson McGhee Library, Knoxville, Tennessee. Dues $5.00)

THE HOOSIER GENEALOGIST (Indiana Historical Society, 140 N. Senate Ave., Indianapolis 4, Indiana - $5.00 a year), No. 5, September-October 1962 issue contains the ELLIS FAMILY records transcribed by Martha Ellis Hopkins. It shows Mordecai N. Ellis, born 11-14-1799, Jefferson County, Tennessee who married 4-17-1828 Sarah Ann Brocus, born 9-12-1813, about 18 miles from Knoxville, Tennessee. There were also more names and dates.

A BULLETIN OF LOCAL HISTORY AND GENEALOGY (West Texas Genealogical Soc., Abilene, Texas), Vol. 4, No. 4, October 1962, has an article on THE WEST FAMILY IN PETERS COLONY (Robert Gentry West, born 9-12-1809, Washington County, Tennessee) by Martha Alice (Floyd) Williamson and Willie M. Floyd. This issue also contains the 1860 CENSUS OF COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS copied by Beatrice Dikes Smith. Many of the people in the 1850 census of this county were born in Tennessee. (Back issues available at 50¢ per copy from Mr. H. W. McDade, 1317 Sayles Blvd., Abilene, Texas.)

Tennesseans with a Texas branch to their tree should have a subscription to STIRPES (Texas State Genealogical Society Quarterly, 2528 University Drive, South, Fort Worth 9, Texas). It usually has some data on one or more Tennessee families. Vol. 2, No. 3, September 1962 issue has an article prepared from the card file of Citizens of the Republic of Texas. Noted in the article is the name of Robert Bell, born near Knoxville, Tennessee 27 May 1797, married in Rhea Co., Tennessee, 20 February 1820, to Belinda (Melinda) Scott. Also mentioned in the same article: Major William W. Howeth, born at Brainard's Missionary Station, later called "Missionary Ridge," near Knoxville, Tennessee, 23 April 1818, married lastly in Texas, 15 May 1842, Harriet E. Bell, daughter of Robert Bell of Sumner County, Tennessee; Thomas Howeth m. about 1816 in Tenn, "Nancy" James; Isaac B. Webb, born 6-4-1802, Sullivan County, Tennessee. (Non-members may subscribe for $6.00 per year, or purchase single issues for $1.50 each.)

OUR HERITAGE (published by San Antonio Genealogical and Historical Society, P. O. Box 6383, San Antonio 9, Texas), Vol. 4, Issue No. 1, October 1962, tells of a plan to publish in each issue a brief genealogy of one or more members. This issue contains the line of Mary Louise (Parramore) Sparkman back to Jessy Beene, born 1785, Tennessee, and wife, Mary Given.

See ANCESTRAL NOTES from CHEDWATO (P. O. Box 746, Burlington, Vermont), Vol. 9, No. 5, 1962 issue for abstract of War of 1812 Pension Record of Jacob Broyles, also Pension Record and additional information of Jesse Cook of Wilson County, Tennessee in issue No. 6. The Revolutionary Pension file of Samuel Houze, living in Rutherford County, Tennessee 1802-3 to 1810 was found in Vol. 9, No. 5.

Our members working on the Sappington family will be interested in the SAPPINGTON CEMETERY records, by Mrs. Martha Kuzmic, published in the October 1962 issue of THE KANSAS CITY GENEALOGIST (1214 West 27th St., Independence, Missouri - $2.00 annual dues). In the same issue is an article on Todds Chapel M. E. South Church (Ray County, Missouri) by Myrtle Rushworth. The first settlers in this area came in 1815. The first family was John Vanderpool and with him from Tennessee came his wife, Ellen, and his children: Wyant, Meador, Kinman, Mary, Delilah, Holland and John. It mentions the families of John, Richard, Samuel, Zachariah, William and Jesse Cleavenger, Issac Allen, John Hutchins, James Wells, and Wm. R. Blythe arriving in 1818 by covered wagon from Middle and Eastern Tenn. Lewis Richards, Stephen and Joseph Field also came from Tennessee.

OHIO RECORDS & PIONEER FAMILIES, Vol. III, No. 4 (published by Esther Weygandt Powell, 36 N. Highland Ave., Akron 3, Ohio - $5.00 a year, $1.50 single issue), lists the family of Daniel Porter, born 1824 in Cabell Co., West Virginia, son of Thomas and Ann (Topas) Porter, who came (Gallia Co., Ohio) in 1837. Daniel married in 1853 Nancy Wilson, born 1833 in McMinn County, Tennessee, daughter of Elijah and Elizabeth (Van Zandt) Wilson. . .

See THE ALABAMA GENEALOGICAL REGISTER, Vol. 14, Number 3, September 1962 (published by Willo Publishing Co., P. O. Box 284, Tuscaloosa, Alabama - $5.00 per year, single copy $2.00), for some interesting notes in a letter written by Daniel McNair Martin and now owned by Mrs. Grace H. Puryear. Tennessee Martins mentioned are: James Cook Martin, born Lee County, Va., April 28, 1805. Lived in Shelbyville, Middle Tennessee; Elizabeth Beaty Martin, born in Winchester, Tennessee December 23, 1815 ... was the Widow Davis, Widow Hudson and Widow Baker . . lived in sight of Knoxville; John Daugherty Martin was born October 16th, 1818 in Winchester, Tennessee; and Nathan Green Martin, born in Winchester, Tennessee July 20th, 1821.

NOTES FROM CHURCH RECORDS OF THE SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SHILOH, TENNESSEE, by Mrs. Ione Nolan, can be found on page 10, December 1962 issue of THE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN (published by the Fort Worth, Texas Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 864, Fort Worth 1, Texas).

JOHNSON HUNTING

Paper given by Lillian Johnson Gardiner (Mrs. Laurence Bridges) at the October 1962 meeting of the Memphis Genealogical Society.

Some family names spell "trouble" to researchers - add one of the most commonly used surnames, a few "burned counties" and you have TROUBLE in capital letters.

The fact that I was born just plain "JOHNSON," without even a "t" to distinguish me from the common run of Johnsons, didn't worry me at all until I became interested in genealogy. My father and all the older members of his family were gone and the younger members knew less than I about our family background, when I finally realized I would never be happy until I could fill in that upper quarter of my genealogical chart.

My husband and I listed what little I did know about this family:

1. My father was Tyree LeRoy Johnson, son of Andrew Jackson Johnson and his wife, Lula Bright Tyree (in the 1850's the censuses are full of little boys named Andrew Jackson after the president, so this was no help).
2. Andrew Jackson Johnson was the son of James M. (Madison or Matthew?) Johnson and his wife, Malinda Green. They had moved after The War Between The States from Shelbyville, Bedford County, Tennessee to Eaton, Gibson County, Tennessee. Family tradition said they owned slaves and a fleet of river boats which were confiscated by the Federal Government and they came to West Tennessee to try to recoup the family fortune. Though they had some of the fastest boats on the river tied up at their dock on the Forked Deer, the trains soon whistled the death-knell of water traffic for that era.
3. An old family friend told me that my grandmother was teaching school in Eaton and living in his home. There she met grandfather, who had dropped by for a visit with his old Bedford County friends. He also told me that my great-grandfather was James M. Johnson, but that he did not know who his parents were. He was a Major in the 44th Confederate Cavalry, a field grade officer, who resigned a seat in the Tennessee Legislature as Senator from Bedford and Rutherford Counties to fight in The War. His name was on a large monument in Trenton, Tennessee cemetery with others who had served in the C.S.A., and a beautiful memorial was recorded in the Gibson County Court Minutes. When I looked up this record it showed that he was a member of the County Court at his death and had previously been sheriff of Bedford County, Senator, Justice of the Peace, etc. It seemed more important than ever to give a man with such a fine background some parents.
4. A cousin of my father's thought her great-grandfather Johnson's name might be William, she recalled some talk of "grandpa Billie." She couldn't recall if James M.'s middle name was Matthew or Madison, though his nickname was "Matt." She showed me his tombstone in the little Methodist Church cemetery at Eaton, stating he was born in 1817 in Bedford County. This was one of the first of many disillusionments. He wasn't buried in Trenton, only honored on the stone there.

This is all I knew about the JOHNSON history in 1950.

My next steps were: checking censuses, visiting courthouses, prodding the family, trips to Shelbyville, Tenn., trips to Georgia, trips to Virginia.

This was before the days of microfilms in almost every library - so Laurence and I made a trip to Washington, and spent several days at the National Archives reading Census records of Bedford and Gibson Counties. I found James M. and his wife, Malinda and their children in the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Bedford, and the 1870 and 1880 of Gibson County. In the 1880 census he stated that his parents were born in Georgia. For years I had by-passed Georgia and South Carolina thinking I had no one there, thank goodness! Now here I was stranded with just some JOHNSON in Georgia.

We visited the courthouse in Bedford County only to find that it had had three fires and an appalling loss of records. No early wills, marriages, or Circuit Court records were left. A few Chancery books and some deed books were saved. Many deeds from the few deed books that were burned were brought in and re-recorded, so these were my best hope. After thumbing feverishly through these books, I realized that some plan would have to be worked out to cover them thoroughly. They were full of family names I was interested in such as Johnson, Green, Phillips, Garrett, etc. There were even three James M. Johnsons, apparently unrelated, in the early records. Which was mine? I got home with a hodge-podge of notes and nothing very helpful - plenty of William Johnsons, of course.

Laurence and Betty Goff Cartwright wanted to go to Georgia. My only equipment to hunt Johnsons was the fact that someone had told the census taker that James M's parents were born in Georgia, and that Cousin thought she recalled her great-grandfather was named "Billie." I copied every William Johnson in the many counties we visited in Georgia and all other promising looking names. In my fat book entitled "Georgia Johnsons" is a world of information, but imagine my dismay to learn later that "Billie" was her other great-grandfather, William Green, and the man I wanted was James Johnson. Out of that whole volume of "Georgia Johnsons" only one paragraph of about two lines referred to him.

By this time I didn't much care if all those old Johnsons "went to a hanging and didn't come home."

Every January, when Laurence went to the meeting of the Tennessee Jersey Cattle Club in Nashville, I would head for Shelbyville and wrestle with the deeds. I made complete indexes on all my names and then checked them off as I read, evaluated and abstracted them hoping to find a deed of gift or one giving vital family information. There was always the chance that a deed would mention the county they came from in Georgia, which I need desperately to know.

After several January visits to Shelbyville, the Hotel greeted us with open arms. We ate three hearty meals, for it was right across from the court house where we were waiting at the door at 8 a.m. and helped put out the lights at 5:30 p.m. We talked to old-timers who might know something of the family and visited, when convenient, with folks who sometimes proved to be long-lost cousins. It was fun and we made some nice friends, but no one seemed to recall that the JOHNSONS, for whom I was searching, ever existed.

On my third trip I was elated, for I felt sure I had found him. In the deeds was an old Nathaniel Johnson deeding land to his son, James M., for love and affection, etc ---. It had to be my man, so I had certified expensive copies made of his records and bubbled all the way home. That night Laurence was telling Ruth (Mrs. I.G.) Duncan of my good fortune when she said, "Oh, I've that old Nathaniel's Revolutionary record. Let me look." Sure enough, she did. It said he was born in North Carolina (not Georgia as mine should have been), he was much older than my man should have been and there were other discrepancies - so almost tearfully I buried him again.

My next trip to Shelbyville seemed a long way off but I studied my indexes trying to pick up clues from names of people with whom they dealt often, and added these names to my list to be checked, such as Stewart, Kimbrough, Holt, Bates, etc.

Each visit we looked forward to seeing the nice relatives and friends again. Often people unskilled in pursuit of family information feel they know so little it can't possibly be helpful. But if you know enough to discuss their branch of the family intelligently, and can lead them on to reminisce, they sometimes recall real gems.

"Try, try again" should certainly be our motto. Two most attractive ladies, sisters-in law, whom another cousin had suggested I call on one afternoon, were very cordial but assured me they had never heard of any Johnson kin to their Phillips. I visited a little while and left discouraged. When I met Laurence at the Hotel that evening he questioned me about my visit and said, "Did you tell them thus-and-so? Did you ask them this?" "No, they said they didn't know anything, so I didn't stay long." "Well, they are both related to you, and they've lived here all their lives. I'll bet they could recall something, let's go back to see them." Reluctantly I called to see if they would let us both come that evening; graciously, but puzzled they agreed. In the course of the conversation they brought out an old family album to show us their parents, etc. "Who is that handsome gentlemen?" I said. "Oh, that's Cousin Matt Johnson." I was so excited I almost screamed; "But that's who I've been asking about. That is great-grandpa!" "Oh, of course, I don't know why I forgot about them. I have a picture of his wife, Cousin Malinda, too." She gave me the picture and I left walking on air (thanks to my husbands persistence). This was worth all the trouble up to now. I worked with renewed vigor.

In an old GOODSPEED'S HISTORY OF TENNESSEE for Bedford County I had found that Malinda Green's mother was a Sarah Phillips who married "William" Green. I knew from their pension applications for his service in the War of 1812, that her father was Matthew Phillips. I knew too from this source both Sarah and William were born in N. C. about 1790, came to Tennessee about 1805 with their parents, and were married in Bedford County in 1811.

Several years later after much searching of records - mostly deeds - I found one day a reference to a Circuit Court suit over land that seemed to concern my James M. Johnson and the final decree in Chancery Court was mentioned. Circuit Court had no records before 1860, and Chancery said they had a few - "you might look," they doubted I'd find anything. When I started helping the deputy clerk check I noted many volumes missing but I couldn't give up - this was my only chance. Finally in desperation I climbed to the top of a high book case where a few books were carelessly thrown, and I squealed for joy when my volume came into view.

Sure enough this old lawsuit has been the key! The heirs of Daniel Johnson were suing my James M. over the division of an estate. My James M. in his answer set out enough about the family that I could put them together for the first time and have some idea for whom I was looking. He stated that Daniel Johnson was his uncle, who asked him to go into business partnership with him, that he was entitled to one-half of the business and one-ninth of one-fourth share of the estate - meaning he was one of nine children and they were receiving their father's share of his brother's estate. An Elizabeth Stewart was named in the suit, as were all the brothers and sisters of James M. Johnson.

This enabled me to find in the 1850 census that their father was deceased but their mother, Susannah, was still living (and said she was born in Virginia in 1796, not in Georgia), and her youngest child, Elinor, was still living with her. Now who was Susannah? That's a long story and one I now know the answer to. Living next door to her, in the census, and dealing in all the records was a Bates family from Georgia, earlier Virginia. My husband said, "Susannah is going to be a Bates." He has a bird-dog nose for such matters. So although I didn't see any chance of proving it, I clung to the idea and hoped. Sure enough her father proved to be David Bates, a member of the Legislature, both in Virginia and Georgia.

One day Laurence was reading the "Stewart Family Quarterly," one of the good tools of the trade. He said, "Well, I've located your Johnsons in Georgia." "Huh!" "Yes, here is an Elizabeth Stewart of Clark Co., Ga. selling land she inherited from her father, James Johnson, in Oglethorpe Co., Ga.....etc." This called for another trip to Georgia, to Oglethorpe and its parent county, Wilkes. She proved to be the same Elizabeth Johnson Stewart mentioned in the suit above.

The proverbial "pot of gold" wouldn't have looked one bit sweeter than James Johnson's will in 1797 naming his wife, Rebecca, and three children, including dear uncle Daniel, Elizabeth and JAMES. So James had to be the father of my James M., since he was uncle Daniel's only brother. I've blessed uncle Daniel many times for few other early Johnson families used the name Daniel, and this proved quite helpful in eliminating whole droves of early Johnsons at a glance.

I was so pleased to get the Johnsons out of Tennessee I was almost willing to stop there, but the next spring in Richmond, while checking, I found James, son of John, with a brother and uncle Daniel, marrying in 1785 in Powhatan Co., Va., a Rebecca Bagby. In checking back I find Bagbys living close to James and Rebecca in Georgia. The year after their marriage they sold land inherited from his father and left Virginia. Where to? More than probably to Georgia, because he was just the right age for Revolutionary War Service and could have received land for his services. Now to prove it.

That's the fascinating part of genealogical research. One never can really write finis - there is always another lead to follow.

To sum up briefly my recommendations for chasing a most popular family name through burned counties and scorched states:

1st - Have a real case of genealogical fever - one you'll never get over.

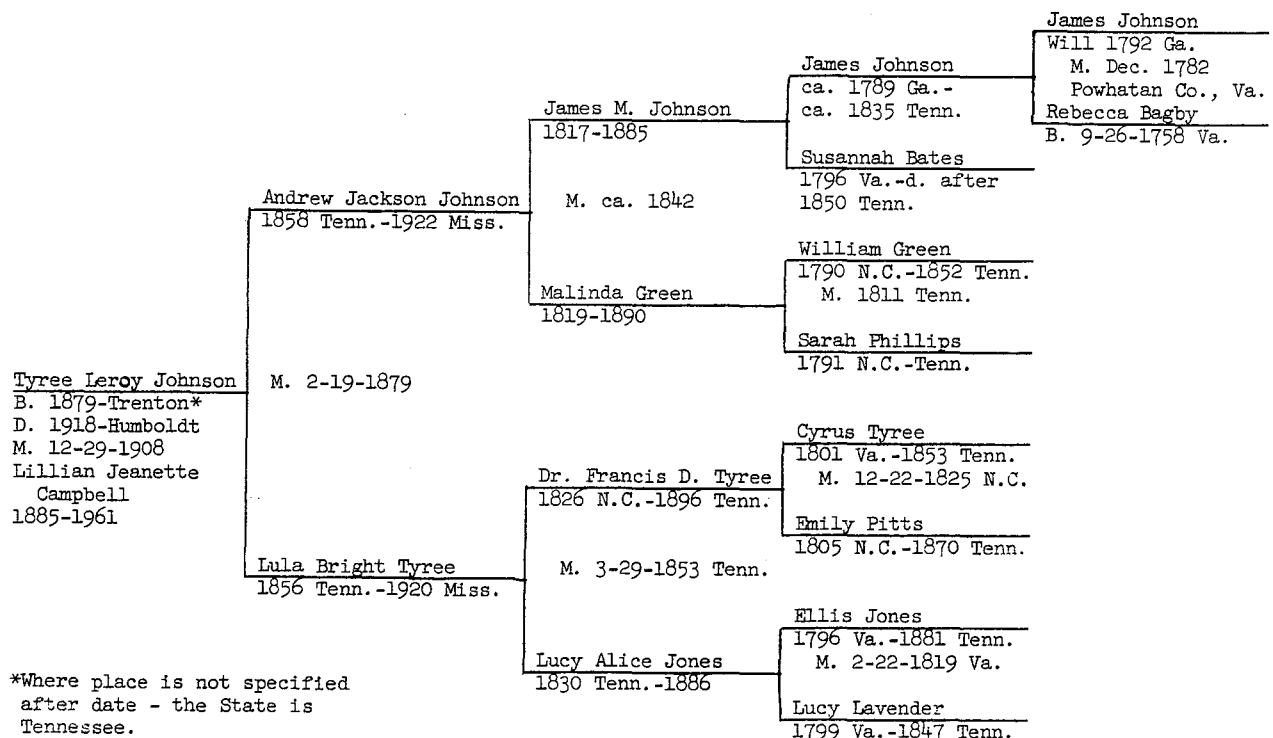

2nd - Be endowed by nature with a strong back (those books are heavy) and good eyes. It helps to be immune to heat and cold.

3rd - Practice getting by with little or no sleep (unless Mr. Kennedy lengthens the days), for if you work from 8 to 5:30 in the courthouse; visit prospective kin 'til 10 pm.; read your notes taken that day to see if they fit in with known facts; plan your work for the next day - then there isn't much time left for sleep. Especially if you are court-house jumping - trying to cover several on one trip.

4th - I highly recommend that you like "folks" - visit as many as possible. Tell them more than they ever dreamed anyone knew about their family - especially if there are any "black sheep" in the closet; ask leading questions and you'll probably get a little information to add to your ever growing files.

Last but not least - Have a first-rate genealogist for a husband, one with a sixth sense about families and connections, who likes to put information together - and will keep you on the "straight and narrow" as to dates and places.

PETITION FOR MILL DAM, CAMPBELL COUNTY, TENNESSEE - 1855

Copied from a photostat of the original Petition on file in the State Archives by Elizabeth R. Tolar (Mrs. Reginald H., Jr.).

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee in Session in 1855 and 1856.

We your memorialists would represent to your honorable body that we or most of us are intimately acquainted with the water and mill situations at William Ridenours in Campbell County in your State and that its convenience and accomadation is of great importance in furnishing breadstuf particularly in dry season and that its benefits cannot be fully realised with the present ammount of water thare being a narrow boat Shoot between the outer bank and a small island which draws the water from the mill. We your memorialists pray you to grant the liberty to William Ridenour and his heirs to build a dam across the above named boat shoot Some six inches above the lowest water mark which will furnish every accomodation that the community could ask. the boat shoot above named is about Sixty feet wide the said Ridenour binds himself to make a slope down over said dam some fifty feet wide across the stream and some twenty feet up and down and above and below the dam as it is believed it would then be as good and as safe for boating purposes as it is now in the sholes above and below we believe also that the dam asked for will not interfere with the boating operations or any tide that boats generally run. Thare has been an order made by the county court of Campbell County granting the above liberty but believing it an insufficient barrier against difficulties we ask at your hands the above named favour the above is our privilege to ask and our right to expect

Mrs. McLane prepared the following paper as a footnote to the Bible record:

A DEATON FAMILY OF NORTH CAROLINA, TENNESSEE, AND ARKANSAS

JOSEPH DEATON and ELISABETH JORDAN are shown as the names of the earliest known generation in a framed family record owned by their descendants, living in Richwoods Community, Arkadelphia, Arkansas. The title on the form, printed by Krebo Lithograph Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, reads - "Delay's National Historical Family Record," with a note on the margin of the form reading - "Entered According to Act of Congress in the year of 1882 by D. W. Delay in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington, D.C." The record was apparently completed by Goodin Deaton or his second wife, Amanda (Malcolm) Williams Deaton.

Census records show Joseph Deaton to have been born between 1755 and 1774. He is shown in the 1790, 1800, and 1810 Federal Census of Montgomery Co., North Carolina.

Basil and Barbara (Stewart) Deaton had five sons (three names unknown). One was Locke L. Deaton, who was born 16 January 1830 in North Carolina and who died on 7 November 1900, age 70, in Clark Co., Arkansas.

An older son, GOODIN DEATON, was born 3 June 1814 in Montgomery Co., North Carolina - died 11 November 1902 in Richwoods, Clark Co., Arkansas. He married on 27 February 1834 in Hardeman Co., Tennessee LUCINDA JACKSON (b. 1815 in Ga., d. 9 March 1866, Clark Co., Ark.) The marriage was performed by Reverend William Hale.

The above and following information was compiled from data contained in "The Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Southern Arkansas - 1890," published by the Goodspeed Publishing Company; from the Family Bible of Goodin Deaton; from various census records; and from the previously mentioned historical record.

Goodin Deaton's family Bible states he left North Carolina 17 October 1830 when he was 16 years of age. He was taken to Tennessee by his parents and was educated in that state, where he married Lucinda Jackson. The Bible states they moved to Hardeman Co., Tennessee in December 1835; however, the family records show their marriage took place in that county in 1834. The 1840 census of Hardeman Co., Tennessee lists Goodin Deaton, age 20 to 30, as well as two other Deaton men - George W. and Philip - both in the same age bracket as Goodin, who might have been his brothers.

Goodin and Lucinda (Jackson) Deaton had ten children born in Hardeman Co., Tennessee, and the Bible states they started to Arkansas on 17 October 1849. Five other children were born in Clark Co., Arkansas.

When Goodin's first wife, Lucinda, died in 1866, he was married a second time on 5 May 1867 by Rev. W. D. Leard to Amanda Elizabeth (Malcolm) Williams, daughter of Green F. Malcolm (parents were James Malcolm and Margaret Patterson) and Susan Street (parents were George Street and Mary Cowin). Amanda was the widow of W. H. Williams, by whom she had two children, Sam and Rosalie Williams. She was born 29 October 1837 in Walton Co., Georgia and died 25 February 1929 at Richwoods. Goodin Deaton and Amanda were the parents of five children, two of whom are still living.

Goodin Deaton was appointed County Supervisor in 1876, according to a certificate signed by Governor Elisha Baxter, which is inserted in the family Bible. In 1882 he was elected to the State Legislature, serving one term. He also filled the position of Justice of the Peace, and County Judge, holding the last named position for two terms. He was a member of the Baptist Church and socially he was a Mason. He died at the age of 88 on 11 November 1902 and is buried at Richwoods, Arkansas in the cemetery for which he donated land from his original land holdings. The cemetery is now located at what is called Sloan's Crossing, on the Crawford Farm.

Believe it or not:

ANSEARCHIN' NEWS was on schedule up to the stencil cutting operation. Severe winter weather marooned your Editor on her ice bound hill before the final draft could be delivered to the typist who lives many miles away. Lost time is hard to gain.

The work on the April issue is being done early. Won't you please let us have your queries not later than March 10th? We are sorry we could not print all queries received for the January issue. Those not printed will be first in line for April. (Editor)

PETITION OF THE INHABITANTS OF THE COUNTY OF RUTHERFORD ASKING THAT A LAW BE PASSED AUTHORIZING THEM TO HAVE A LOTTERY FOR THE PURPOSE OF RAISING ENOUGH MONEY TO BUILD A BRIDGE OVER THE EAST AND WEST FORK OF STONES RIVER - AUGUST 22, 1806.

Copied from a photostat of the original Petition on file in the State Archives, Nashville, Tennessee, by Elizabeth R. Tolar (Mrs. Reginald H., Jr.)

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee -

The petition of the citizens of Rutherford county humbly sheweth; that your petitioners hereby approach your honorable with respectful reverence and supplicate your benifecent liberality, which we are assured you amply possess, to authorize a lottery for the purpose of raising money to erect two bridges over the West and East branches of Stones River near or about the town of Jefferson. - We would not entertain the least doubt of your acquiescence, could your honorable body witness the many and great inconveniences made by the frequent floods of these rivers in the winter and spring months, which render them impassable without great risk and personal danger. The road by Jefferson is very much journeyed, not only by the citizens of the county, but by many others in various and distant parts of this district who have occassion to pass this rout to and from various places and by many foreigners who explore West Tennessee, some selecting this as the nearest rout from Knoxville to Nashville and others who come or return this way to vaiegate and diversify their view of the country. - Although there inconveniences to passengers might be greatly alleviated by the use of boats, yet great objections occur to the adoption of this mode. The call for boats would be comparatively infrequent, therefore the compensation will be insufficient-- The unusual rapidity of the current in time of floods, when only, boats will be needed, will make it essential that two able hands attend each boat which will swell the costs so greatly, that they could not be made, kept in good repair, and properly attended without a greater sacrifice of personal interest than any individual would submit to.--We assure your honorable body with a pressing solicitation for this favor, were we farther emerged from the infancy of settlement and had we not been very lately burthened with the costs of the public buildings of this county from which we are not yet relieved.- And we therefore pray your honorable body to authorize a lottery for the above mentioned purpose, which will undoubtedly render a substantial benifit to the public- and your petitioners, as in duty bound will ever pray be -
