THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members,

In looking over the history of the Tennessee Genealogical Society, our organization seems unbelievably to have grown from a small local group of enthusiastic, inspired and faithful members to a nationwide membership in such a few years! Many working hours were devoted to make the "dream" a reality. It demanded good will, profound faith, and the ever constant desire to see our society grow and progress. Our deepest appreciation is extended to past officers and members for their devotion and excellent work. May we always strive to look forward, to grow steadily - in quality as well as quantity - and to do our best to reach the goals set by our predecessors.

Many thanks to Mrs. Laurence B. Gardiner, past President, for her gracious hospitality and for sharing her lovely home and extensive library with us at our February Study Meeting. The elected officers for the years 1968-69 were installed at that meeting, since the January meeting had to be postponed because of snow and ice.

Myrtice Hyde (Mrs. Byron G.) was appointed "Chief Official Scouter." She sent the following articles about TGS members, for which your President was indeed grateful. Viz

The Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Jan. 26, 1968: Betty Goff Cook Cartwright (Mrs. James B.) states that "life has to go on, duties must be performed, so don't get too many hobbies. But they do make you live longer and more enthusiastically." Her hobbies include genealogy, collecting coins, shells and stamps, and work with the International Group of which she is co-chairman of the Short-term Visitors Committee. She recommended hobbies for cutting across lines of age, professions and social strata.

The Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Feb. 3, 1968: Phoebe Dent (Mrs. Lucian M.) received many compliments on her first one-man sculpture show at the Raleigh Library. She had nine pieces on exhibit. There were several portrait heads and two pieces of garden sculpture, one of St. Francis and the other of a barn owl. The month's exhibit closed on March 1, 1968. Congratulations and best wishes, Phoebe!

The Press-Scimitar, Memphis, Feb. 5, 1968: Betty Moore (Mrs. Henry N.) was photographed as she carefully made a selection from many different styles of clothing in a fashionable shop out East. (Betty has recently returned from vacationing in Florida, after which she left immediately for a visit in San Francisco.)

The Delta Review Magazine, Feb. 1968: The legendary home of Mr. and Mrs. Berry B. Brooks (Virginia, to us) was featured by Ruth Jacquemine. She had signed in as the 22,610th guest at Epping Forest Manor, situated on the wooded rolling hills of Raleigh, Tennessee. A visit to this home is more than a catalogue of colors, moods and impressions. It is something of a plunge into the poetic and cultural history of Man.

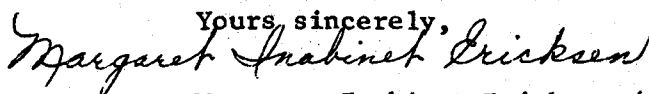

The Delta Review Magazine, Feb. 1968: Ruth H. Duncan (Mrs. I.G.) commends the publishers of The Delta Review for having made "living history" in her letter to them. (Ruth resides in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, at this time.)

Nineteen copies of Miss Anna Leigh McCorkle's most interesting book, Tales of Old Whitehaven, have been placed in Memphis libraries. Avail yourself of this chance to read her excellent book if you have not already done so. We are very proud of Miss McCorkle, and it is a pleasure to have her in our fold.

Evening meetings from 7 until 10 p.m. have been arranged to be held at the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity House, 577 University Blvd., on April 15, July 15 and October 21, 1968. Daytime Study Meeting places (10 a.m. to 4 p.m.) will be announced by card.

Looking forward to seeing you at our meetings and best wishes for an enjoyable and genealogically profitable year!

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Inabinet Ericksen (Mrs. William A.)
President

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

MEMORIAL

Mr. Claude Carter of Kosciusko, Mississippi.
Mrs. A.S.J. Clarke of Little Rock, Arkansas.
Mrs. G.W. Hutcherson of Lubbock, Texas.
Mr. Willis E. Thompson of San Antonio, Texas.

We were advised of Mr. Carter's death by his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis Cannon, P.O. Box 4113, Birmingham, Alabama 35206, who will continue Mr. Carter's research.

We were advised of Mrs. Clarke's death by Mrs. Ernest W. Martineau, 4611 Hillcrest Ave., Little Rock, Arkansas 72205, who has worked with Mrs. Clarke and who will continue the research.

The Post Office advised of the deaths of Mrs. Hutcherson and Mr. Thompson. We regret that we do not know whether their research is being continued or where their records have been placed.

Mr. J.D. Freeman, 1013 Brazos, Austin, Texas 78701, sent a newspaper article that appeared in an Austin paper on August 14, 1967. It shows a superhighway routed around a small cemetery enclosed in a wrought iron fence. The highway planners were unable to locate relatives, and have placed a tall chain-link fence around the entire area. Mrs. Fred C. Barkley, Travis County historian, is reported as saying the area was originally Spanish land, part of the Del Valle grant, some of it being deeded to a family named Caldwell. There are at least six graves. The inscription on one is illegible. The others are:

BOOK REVIEWS BY JONATHAN KENNON SMITH

EARLY MARRIAGES OF WAYNE COUNTY, INDIANA (By Irene Mary Strieby. Published by The Indiana Historical Society, 140 North Senate Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. 54 pages, 1965.)

More and more people are learning the joys of researching the lineages of ancestors who belonged to the Society of Friends. The knowledge that the Quakers have aided their country materially while abhorring "toting a gun" has served to diminish the prejudice against this thrifty and industrious folk.

Irene Strieby has done a clean and plainly good job of transcribing the old Wayne County, Indiana, marriages, 1811-1822. Many of these will be Quaker couples, along with numerous others. Wayne County was opened for settlement in the first decade of the nineteenth century.

The book cover is attractive and sturdy, the print is small but thoroughly readable. An index covering all entries is given after the main text of the booklet.

ABSTRACTS OF THE RECORDS OF THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS IN INDIANA, PART ONE (Edited by Willard Heiss. Published by The Indiana Historical Society, 140 North Senate Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. 303 pages, 1962.)

Part Two of this particular compilation was reviewed in this magazine in 1966. Part One is found to be just as acceptable and worthwhile as its later counterpart.

The format of the book is that pioneered by the late W.W. Hinshaw in his vast QUAKER ENCYCLOPEDIA. Marriage, birth, death and church data are given for thousands on thousands of Indiana Quakers, many of whom had emigrated there from the southern states.

Heiss' long introduction is extremely enlightening. He explains something of the Hicksite and Conservative Quakers, the organization of the churches, why the Quakers discouraged monuments above the graves of their deceased members, etc. An invaluable record

WESTBROOK AND ALLIED FAMILIES (By W. Blair Jones, Box 485, Pell City, Alabama 35125. Published 1967. Price $7.50.)

This mimeographed genealogy was over twenty years in the making, its author informs us. The Westbrooks were among the early colonists in Virginia. The first proven was one John Westbrook of Isle of Wight County, who died about 1733. His descendants, the Westbrooks, Jones, Lamberths, Sandefers, radiated into North Carolina and then into the states of the Deep South.

The substance of the genealogy is pure delight for Westbrook buffs who demand "proof" for ancestral accounts. The book is replete with record abstracts of all sorts. Westbrooks and Lamberths, here is your genealogical God-send!

A GENEALOGY OF CHARLES CARLSON AND CAROLINE MARIE HAAS, UTAH IMMIGRANTS (By Dr. K.C. Bullock, 1035 North 900 East, Provo, Utah 84601. Privately published at Provo, Utah, 1967.)

Young Charles Carlson came to the American shores a Mormon convert in 1878 and determined to make his way in his adopted country. He settled in Utah and married Caroline Haas. This couple became the ancestors of numerous people living throughout the West.

The Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 107 South Main Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111, has released more of their fine research papers. They are: PRE-1858 ENGLISH PROBATE JURISDICTIONS - BEDFORDSHIRE, MAJOR GENEALOGICAL RECORD SOURCES IN NORWAY; MAJOR GENEALOGICAL RECORD SOURCES IN SWITZERLAND; NEW ZEALAND (Series E, No. 1); and SWEDEN (Series D, No. 3). No prices were quoted, but their earlier papers were 50 cents each.

Shelby County, Tennessee, has made good use of data processing computers. Any of the 600,000 real estate transactions recorded in the county register's office between 1821 and 1933 can now be seen almost immediately. All that is needed is the name of one of the parties involved in the transaction. The computer's alphabetical indexing makes it possible for any record to be located and set up in a viewer for reading within minutes.

The format of this genealogy is well worth considering: it is really an attractive family annal. The lives of the Carlson immigrant couple are first reviewed, then those of their children, grandchildren, etc., all in good order. Each family unit receives separate treatment, and yet these are tied to the whole by a logical arrangement of the data.

The book is illustrated beyond what is usual in genealogies. It is interesting to match the faces and written biographical sketches. Clear LDS charts are supplied for the ancestry of the immigrant Carltons, many of the charts extending into the seventeenth century. The book is also indexed by family surnames.

Congratulations, Dr. Bullock, on compiling a most worthwhile genealogy!

TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS AND MANUSCRIPTS, TENNESSEE (By Jeannette T. Acklen, 1933. Reprinted 1967, by Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. Price: $12.50)

The old-timers in genealogy are generally familiar with this superb reference work. It is replete with tombstone inscriptions, principally from graveyards in East and Middle Tennessee, many of which must now have perished. Particularly interesting is the roster of the decedents from the Old City Cemetery, Nashville.

A helpful index follows the text for the tombstone and Bible record abstracts.

BIBLE RECORDS AND MARRIAGE BONDS, TENNESSEE (By Jeannette T. Acklen, 1933. Reprinted 1967, by Genealogical Publishing Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. Price $12.50)

This strictly genealogical volume serves as a companion to Miss Acklen's TOMBSTONES AND MANUSCRIPTS. Both show careful research. There are many thousands of names given in the family Bible abstracts, many of them quite old. Most of the Bibles included were located in Middle and East Tennessee.

Editor's Special Note: Our Book Review Editor, Jonathan K. Smith, has recently had printed and copyrighted his BARONIAL AND ROYAL ANCESTRY OF COLONEL GEORGE READ, 1608-1671. It includes 46 baronial lineages and thirteen royal lineages of the distinguished Virginian. Emphasis is on annotated lineages, the result of several years' critical research, several coats-of-arms, and a list of references available on these lineages. Printed for distribution among the country's largest genealogical libraries, only a few copies are available for sale, at $3.50. It lends itself to intimate details that a person would want to know in visiting the old baronial seats in England.

John Carney made bond to prosecute his bill with Reuben Churchman and Richard Hawerth his securities, 3 Nov. 1823.

To the Honorable Jacob Peck, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Errors and Appeals, sitting as Chancellor at Knoxville, for the second Judicial Circuit in the State of Tennessee. Your Orator, John Carney a citizen of Jefferson County, in said State and Circuit...12 Oct. 1820 your Orator purchased of a person calling himself Augustus Smith, at that time a citizen of said County of Jefferson...two tracts of land...owned and occupied by said Smith, the one tract lying at the mouth of Mossy Creek...on which was a grist mill, saw mill & 50 acres...the other in same County adjoining the lands of James Reese...165 acres...conveyed by Edward Humston to said Smith...he paid said Smith in cash $400. and executed two notes...$1000. payable 12 Oct. 1821...$600. payable 12 Oct. 1822. Smith gave bond to make title...your Orator has occupied the land ever since and made large and valuable improvements...has paid note of $1000....Smith has not delivered up the note...shortly after your Orator bargained with him said Smith moved from the County of Jefferson in company with Edward Humston whose daughter he had married and settled in the State of Indiana or Illinois. Your Orator shews that during last winter, when he was at Dittos Landing in Alabama the said Augustus Smith came to that place to see your Orator and others on business. A certain David M. Wallis a citizen, as your Orator believes of Virginia, came also to Dittos Landing with a claim against a certain Aaron Chapman...insisted that Augustus Smith and Aaron Chapman were the same identical individual...Chapman alias Smith had been resident of some of the New England States...had left the Country and a wife and family; had come to Tennessee assumed the name of Augustus Smith and married again...said Wallis having sued and taken into custody the said Smith alias Chapman...Chapman delivered up to said Wallis the note for $600....Chapman gave notice to your Orator not to pay the amt due...your Orator believes that said Smith alias Chapman is about to remove, or perhaps has removed into the State of Missouri or it may be in the Province of Texas, to avoid his creditors or the punishment of his crimes. David M. Wallis demands payment of the said note...prays that the said Augustus Smith alias Aaron Chapman convey to your Orator the legal title to the tracts of land...

Will B. Reese Sol

Answer of Augustus Smith filed Dec. 24, 1823.

...admits all the details above are true...was ready and willing to comply until one D. M. Wallis caused the sheriff of Madison County Alabama to arrest this respondent...said Wallis by force and violence took the Pocket Book of respondent which held the note of $600. This occurrence took place in the month of November or December last twelve months ago...did not owe said Wallis one cent and was an entire stranger to him...that he left a wife in New England and assumed the name Augustus Smith is untrue...complainant refused to pay the $600. without the production of his note...sworn to 23 Dec. 1823.

Augustus Smith

Answer of David M. Wallis filed May 18, 1824.

...admits having possession of the note...this defendent states that he formerly resided in the Town of Ellington in the State of Connecticut and became acquainted with a certain Aaron Chapman the other defendent...who has assumed the name of Augustus Smith, that some time in the year 1812 he entered into partnership with Aaron Chapman in a grist-mill, cotton manufactory & wool carding machine, which partnership continued for upward of four years, when said Aaron Chapman absconded, leaving his creditors unsatisfied, among other debts he owed a certain Calvin McCray about $2000. for which this defendent was security....Several years elapsed before this debt could hear to what part of the Country said Chapman had run to, when perhaps about the year 1820, a certain Caleb Lewis...having removed to Alabama, met with said Chapman at a place called Dittos Landing...year 1822 this debt went to Alabama in pursuit of said Chapman and found him in Huntsville, Madison County, in Alabama. (Long discourse about meeting with Chapman and of the promises made to repay Wallis for debts he had had to pay for Chapman and finally that Chapman gave him the slip and got away.)... positively asserts that the man called in Compt's bill by the name of Augustus Smith is Aaron Chapman. This defendent has been acquainted with this individual for many years and there is no mistake as to his identity. This defendent knew him before he was married. He intermarried with a Miss Susan Crosby, the daughter of Capt. (blank) Crosby. He had by his wife three children two daughters and one son. The names of his children are Julia, Eliza and George whom he left with their mother when he ran away from Connecticut....said Chapman when alone with this debt admitted that he was the same man and urged this debt not to tell on him and assigned among other reasons that he had married a woman in Tennessee. The father of said Aaron Chapman is named James Chapman, who was a merchant and resided in the Town of Ellington, in Connecticut. James Chapman is a man of extraordinary large size. *He had four children two sons and two daughters; Aaron who now calls himself Augustus Smith is the eldest son. This debt denies all fraud...prays to be dismissed....sworn to before Hu Brown Clerk & Master, 18 May 1824.

Final decree - 6 June 1826. John Carney was to pay unto the court all remaining due to Augustus Smith for which he was to get a title to his land. The costs of the case were to be taken out of the money and of the balance Wallis was to receive the amount of the $600. note he held or so much as there was left after costs.

*Among the loose papers of the Roane County Records there is a deposition taken in Tolland County, Connecticut in which one Asa Willey deposed that he was well acquainted with Aaron Chapman from the year 1811 up to 1816 when he absconded from the state; that he married a respectable young woman named Susan or Susannah Crosby by whom he had three children their names he thinks to be Millissa, Julia and George; the name of the father of Aaron Chapman is James Chapman a very large man somewhat more than six feet in height, he is a trader and has been for several years in said town of Ellington, he has four children viz the said Aaron, Mary, Sally and James.

FAYETTE COUNTY, TENNESSEE - 1827 PETITION

(Copied by Mrs. Robert Louis Cox, 626 McConnell Street, Memphis, Tennessee 38112)

Jacket of Petition: Fayette Co. 1827 Wolf River Navigable

To the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Tennessee in Session at Nashville

The undersigned petitioners of Fayette County State Tennessee respectfully represent that the improvement of the navigation of Wolf River is an object of great interest to them, that they are desirous of effecting by the most speedy means the removal of the temporary obstruction in that stream, that by an Act of Assembly passed in the year 1825 authorising the County Courts of Fayette and Shelby Counties to levy a Tax on land not exceeding Twenty five cents per hundred acres for that purpose - that said tax has accordingly been levied for the years 1826 & 7 - that it is believed the proceeds of the same will eventually be amply sufficient to make the River navigable, but the great inconvenience and expence of carrying off our crops and recieving our return by land too and from the Mississippi River renders it important to accomplish it earlier than the funds arising from the Tax above mentioned can be collected - They therefore solicit a loan of Two thousand Dollars, payable with interest at such future periods as the above tax fund may be collected - for the payment of which loan good and sufficint securitys will be given by us - And believing that such loan will be granted, and confident that the plan suggested by such loans, will enable us to proceed shortly to the opening of said stream we earnestly ask for the same

FIVE GENERATION CHARTS

The Tennessee Genealogical Society can supply five generation charts for the family lines you are researching. If you would like charts, they may be ordered, two for five cents, with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MASTER SURNAME INDEX

The Master Surname Index of The Tennessee Genealogical Society contains several thousand cards representing individuals found in the family trees of many of our members.

Won't you please help all of the members by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card for EACH member of your family tree?

These cards will be indexed and added to our file to assist everyone working on a similar family. Send as many cards as you wish. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

Please follow this outline in preparing your cards:

Surname	First Name	Middle Name	M or F
b. _____	Where _____
d. _____	Where _____
m. _____	Where _____
Name of Spouse: _____
Son/daughter of: _____
Your name _____
Address _____
City, State, ZIP _____

Cards should be typed or printed. Be sure that your name and address do not cover the circled area at the lower center of the card. That space will be drilled to accommodate the rods of the file drawers.

Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th Century is a different person from someone (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th Century.

Please mail all cards and requests for information WITH A STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, Post Office Box 12124, Memphis, Tennessee 38112.

PRIZES OFFERED BY THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF GENEALOGISTS

No doubt there are many persons who have compiled good genealogies, properly supported by reference to original source materials, but such work is often known only to the family and a few co-workers.

To encourage the publication of such material on American families, The American Society of Genealogists has established a Revolving Fund for Publication of Prize-winning Genealogies.

Every other year, beginning in 1968, there will be held a contest; the prize will be the publication by the Society from this Fund of the winning genealogy. To be eligible for consideration, the genealogy must (1) cover at least four generations born before 1850; (2) be thoroughly documented by references to acceptable and preferably primary source material; (3) be prepared and typed to conform with a prescribed style; and (4) will not exceed 200 printed pages (roughly 70,000 words).

The genealogy determined by the judges as the best of those submitted in conformity to these rules will be published by the Society and sold by it (except for a limited number given at once to the author for personal use and as complimentary copies) until the cost of publication and sale has been returned to the Revolving Fund. The remaining copies will then be turned over to the author.

Entries must be submitted before October 1, 1968; announcement of the winning entry will be made in January 1969; and action toward publication initiated immediately thereafter. Entries that do not comply with the rules of the contest will not be considered. Right is reserved to make no award if no entry is deemed of sufficient quality. Further details and a sheet showing the form in which typescript is to be prepared may be procured by writing to the Chairman of the Committee, Dr. Jean Stephenson, Apt. 1100, 1228 Eye St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.
