THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members,

This is the last time I will be writing this letter, so I want to say how much I have enjoyed working with all of you. After eight years on the board, what I will miss most is the warm contact I have had with so many of you.

Now I'm going to try to catch up on my own sadly neglected genealogy and correspondence. It's been so long since I found a new ancestor!

Much appreciation for all the records you have sent in. Keep up the good work. We would especially like to have some Tennessee cemetery records. Please indicate whether or not they are complete.

I have been trying to determine how much some of the shortages we seem to be facing are going to cause problems for us genealogists. Certainly we will not be able to make as many field trips in our cars, but on the other hand, if we can't go shopping as often, we can spend more time organizing our material. We already know we're going to have to pay more postage. It seems we can look for a shortage of paper. In spite of Amy Vanderbilt, I'd like to recommend that we start right now to answer correspondents on the bottom of their letter when the answer is short and the letter not something we want to keep in our files. If your paper is heavy enough, use both sides.

A brand new year is starting. It's like opening a new notebook with all those inspiring blank pages before you. Make the most of it.

Happy Hunting,

Betty L. Moore

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

The time has come for another change in editorship, and to give good wishes to the new editor, Mrs. Daniel E. West -- better known to us as "Betsy." She will enjoy her job, I know, as I have enjoyed it, even though difficult to fit into an already crowded schedule.

There is no way I can begin to thank the staff, the contributors to AN, and friends who have given me so much help -- and so I will simply say, "HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL! And to our faithful readers, "BEST WISHES FOR JOY AND SUCCESS IN ANCESTOR SEARCHING IN 1974!"

TIDBITS FROM READERS

Lucie C. Price (Mrs. P. B.), Austin, Texas, sends the following two items.

From the list (in the back of the Lawrence County, Tenn., Marriage Book) of people buried in the Carthage Cemetery:

James Berry Moores (lawyer) 3 Nov. 1807
Mrs. J. B. Luster, only child 23 May 1869
Elizabeth B. Moores, consort of J. B. Moores
14 Oct. 1812 - 11 Nov. 1861

The above information on James Berry Moores, listed as a member of the Tennessee General Assembly from Smith County, Tennessee (Vol. 20, No. 2, page 89, "ANSEARCHIN" NEWS), is coupled with additional facts. Mrs. Price has a letter, written Jan. 6, 1846, from Carthage by James B. Moores to his brother, William H. Moores, who was in Texas, and a letter written by Elizabeth W. Lane while at Clinton College, Tenn. Her father, David Lane, married Martha Ross Moores, possibly a sister of James B. and Wm. H. Moores. These letters have been published in FAMILY FINDINGS, page 30, Vol. II, No. I, January, 1970.

Mrs. Price gives additional information on Samuel Erwin, who married Sarah Crisp, 1819, Loose Marriage Bonds, Lawrence Co., Tenn. (Vol. 20, No. 1, page 38 "ANSEARCHIN" NEWS): Samuel Erwin was in Texas by 1840, possibly by 1837; he died in Fannin Co., Texas.

Mary P. Spencer (Mrs. E. E.), Water Valley, Miss., sends correction and additional information on the WALLIS family of Memphis, Alabama. ELIJAH CROCKETT WALLIS and JAMES WILLIAMSON WALLIS should be listed from Memphis, Ala., not from Memphis, Tenn. (see page 61, Vol. 20, No. 3, "ANSEARCHIN" NEWS). Following information is from clippings and descendants of JOHN McKNITT ALEXANDER (1733-1817) of N.C., a signer of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

Memphis, Ala., which no longer exists, was founded by a young major, JAMES WILLIAMSON WALLIS, who purchased much land nearby. It was a lively river port on the Tombigbee River, 1½ miles east of the Miss. line. The town's founder, his parents, and other members of the WALLIS family are buried in the cemetery.

Mrs. Virginia Tew of York, Ala., copied the following from the cemetery:

BOOK REVIEWS

Reviewed by Herman L. Bogan

THE MIDDLETON FAMILY (INCLUDING MYDDELTON AND MUDDLETON) by Beth Bland Enfle (1972). Hard covers, over 330 pages, indexed. Order from the author, 728 Oglethorpe Ave., St. Simons Island, Ga. 31522. $15.45.

The book includes records from Wales, England, Barbados and the Southern United States. Thomas Middleton, who settled in South Carolina in 1732, was the first proven ancestor of the author. Where he came from is unproven. The author has had access to two sources of Middleton information in England: Notes on the Middleton Family of Denbighshire and London by William Duncombe Pink (1891) and Pedigree of Middleton or Muddleton of Chirk Castle Denbigh, Stanstead Montfitchet, Essex, Etc. by Gery-Milner-Gibson-Cullum, F.S.A. (1897). It is generally accepted that the Middletons are of Scottish origin. The author deals primarily with the Middleton family of Denbigh, the ancestral home of most of the Middleton lines which immigrated to the colonies.

THE MORRISETTES OF NORTH CAROLINA AND OTHER SOUTHERN STATES by Mrs. Edna Morrisette Shannonhouse (1972). Hard covers, over 186 pages, indexed. Order from the compiler, 402 North Road St., Elizabeth City, North Carolina 27909. $10.00.

From stories handed down from generation to generation and told to the writer, the author has compiled the various lines of the North Carolina Morrisettes. Federal local and state documents furnish other sources of information. The work is divided into five parts, one part giving the origins and early history of the Morrisettes and the other four sections dealing with each of the following: descendants of Pater Morrisette, Cason Morrisette, William Morrisette, and Joseph Morrisette.

FINCH FAMILIES OF DIXIE, 300 YEARS IN THE SOUTH by Ruby Finch Thompson (1972). Hard covers, over 350 pages, indexed. Order from Finch Families of Dixie, Box 7192, North Station, Arlington, Virginia 22207. $12.50.

The first of this family were Vikings who settled in France and appeared in England along with William the Conqueror. The author lists many of the Finch name who came to the Virginia colony. In the 1790 U. S. census, there were listed 131 Finch households with 623 members. Eleven of these were in Virginia, eleven in North Carolina, and four in South Carolina. Thomas and Richard Finch families are well documented. Many others are named. Lists of births and marriages, some early court records, deeds, and 1800 to 1840 census records are included in the book.

CATHY COUSINS compiled by Mrs. William C. Kraft. Soft covers, over 122 pages, indexed. Order from the compiler, 218 West 21st., Covington, Ky. 41014. $6.50.

The author traces the Cathy family from Colonsay, Scotland and the Clan MacFie, where the Sept Cathie originated along with Duffie, Fee, McCaffie, McCathie, McCooish, MacCuish, MacDuffie, MacCathie, MacFee, MacGuffie, MacHaffie, MacNicol, MacPhie, MacVee, and MacVie. The Catheys went to Northern Ireland and then to the New World, first to Pennsylvania around Philadelphia and then to the Shenandoah Valley and to North Carolina, where they appeared early. From North Carolina, this family spread south and west. Mrs. Kraft has gathered a tremendous amount of information in this little genealogy.

LAND RECORDS OF DINWIDDIE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1752-1820 compiled and indexed by Thomas P. Hughes, Jr. and Jewel B. Standefer (1973). Soft covers, over 206 pages, indexed. Order from Thomas P. Hughes, Jr., 4140 Chanwil Ave., Memphis, Tenn. 38117. $12.00.

Dinwiddie County, Virginia, was formed in 1752 from Prince George County. Its early courthouse records were lost during the Civil War, but copies of grants, patents and land tax records were kept by the State of Virginia and are preserved in the Virginia State Library. The book is a compilation of these records. The Regal Gov. Land Grants were as late as 12-7-1774, while the first Commonwealth Land Patent was in 4-10-1780. A list of Commissioners of Revenue for the county for the period 1782-1820 is given. The 1782 land tax for the county is elaborate, and shows the number of acres owned by each tithable.

TRAVIS COUNTY, TEXAS, MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1840-1882 compiled by Lucie Clift Price (1973). Hard covers, over 234 pages, indexed. Order from the compiler, 2527 Harris Blvd., Austin, Texas 78703. $12.50.

Texas was a republic in 1840 when Travis County was formed from Bastrop County, Jan. 25th. It was then a much larger county than at any time since. Part or all of the following counties have since been taken from Travis County: Blanco (1858), Brown (1856), Burnet (1852), Callahan (1858), Coleman (1858), Comal (1846), Eastland (1858), Gillespie (1848), Hays (1848), Lampasas (1856), Mills (1858), Runnels (1858), and Taylor (1858). The fact that Tennesseans were very much involved in the first settlements makes this publication of great genealogical interest to Tennesseans, as well as to Texans seeking their origins. The marriage records, with list of officiants and brides' index, are alphabetically arranged.

GONE TO ALABAMA, A HISTORIE OF THE DOBBS AND GILBREATH FAMILIES compiled by Edward J. Ladd (1972). Hard covers, over 671 pages, indexed. Order from the author, Box 29, Fort Payne, Alabama. $20.00.

This is part two and Volume one of the Dobbs family and descendants. Volume one is a compilation of the descendants of Lodowick Adams Dobbs. The author believes that the Dobbs line came to the British Isles with the Norman Conquest. Members of the family were largely of the lower nobility, the landed gentry and the yeomanry. A Sir Richard Dobbs was Lord Mayor of London in 1051. John Dobbs, thought to have been a grandson of Sir Richard, established the family in Ireland, where a great grandson was High Sheriff of County Antrim in 1694. Arthur, his son, was a member of Parliament for Carrick-Fergus. He was appointed Engineer and Surveyor General of Ireland and then Colonial Governor of North Carolina in 1754, where he served about 10 years. Fortune Dobbs was acknowledged as a kinsman of Gov. Arthur Dobbs, and was the father of Lodowick Adams Dobbs, ancestor of all the descendants named in the family history.

FEDERAL LAND SERIES, Volume 2 (1799-1835) by Clifford Neal Smith (1973). Hard covers, over 416 pages, indexed. Order from Order Dept., American Library Association, 50 East Huron St., Chicago, Ill. 60611. $20.00.

Because it is assignable, a bounty land patent for military service is not necessarily proof of the military service of the person holding the patent. The author, by an ingenious use of three different governmental registers, has frequently been able to establish the identity of the original veteran or bounty land warrentee and proof of his Revolutionary War service. Identities of the major land speculators and the extent of their holdings may be ascertained from the book. Volume II, as was Volume I, is a basic tool essential for research relating to the bounty land system of the U. S. Government.

MY HUSBAND'S FOLKS, THE MANLYS AND GALLOWAYS AND ALLIED FAMILIES by Elizabeth Cate Manly (1972). Soft covers, over 74 pages, indexed. Order from Mrs. Frank T. Manly, 1130 Highland Ave., Cleveland, Tenn. 37311. $4.00.

The book devotes one part to the Manly family and one part to the Galloway family.

A knight named Manly came with William the Conqueror to England in 1066 A. D. Professional genealogists affirm that all of the Manlys of England, Ireland and America are descended in a direct line from this knight. Two brothers came to Maryland with Lord Baltimore. One died; the other became the ancestor of the Manlys in the South. Daniel Manly of South Carolina and his descendants in Tenn. and other states are the main subjects of the book. The Galloways are from Scotland by way of Northern Ireland. From Marshall Galloway, a Revolutionary soldier serving in Maryland and an emigrant to Tenn., the author has a proven line of descendants. Marshall Galloway was a resident in Sullivan County, Tennessee. He died Dec. 17, 1827.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN EARLY OF VIRGINIA (1729-1774) by Margaret Woods Hampton (1973). Hard covers, over 405 pages, indexed. Order from Margaret W. Hampton, 72 Pine Brook Drive, Larchmont, N. Y. 10538. $20.00

This work concerns the forebears of John Early (1729-1774) of St. Thomas Parish, Orange County, Virginia, and of descendants of John Early and wife Theodocia White. He was the eldest son of Jereriah Early and Elizabeth Buford. Sketches are given of many branches of the Early and allied families, with a short history of their Irish ancestry. The author had at her disposal a wealth of genealogical and historical sources (which she lists), upon which this genealogy is based. The author has done a masterly piece of work in sorting out and making clear the many relationships cited.

THE JULIANS AND ALLIED FAMILIES by Elizabeth Cate Manly (1972). Soft covers, over 130 pages, indexed. Order from Mrs. Frank T. Manly, 1130 Highland Ave., Cleveland, Tenn. 37311. $5.00.

Rene St. Julian, a Huguenot immigrant, born about 1660 in Vetre, Brittany, came to South Carolina, where he recorded a deed 4-21-1712 in old Berk ley County. The family subsequently moved to Maryland, 1735-1740, and then to the Opequon Settlement (Quaker) in the Shenandoah Valley. The Julians, after Braddock's defeat in 1755 in the French and Indian War, moved to Orange County, North Carolina. This history is concerned mostly with the descendants of George and Rebecca McKenney Julian, who moved from North Carolina about 1815 to Tennessee. Their progeny are found in the south and west.

GAINES INDEXED EDITION, A COMPILATION OF GAINES FAMILY DATA WITH SPECIAL EMPHASIS ON THE LINEAGE OF WILLIAM AND ISABELLA (PENDLETON) GAINES by Calvin E. Suthers (1969, reprinted 1972). Hard covers, over 430 pages, indexed. Order from the author, 2709 N. W. 52nd Court, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. 33309. $14.50.

The reprint contains revised, additional and corrected data, and an added index of names and places. The author gives a very comprehensive history of the Gaines family in Wales, followed by almost as elaborate a history of the same family in Virginia. The genealogy is of Richard Gaines (1686-1755), Culpeper County, Va., and his descendants, who subsequently spread to all parts of the nation.

SEEDLINGS OF WILLIAM FOSTER, New and Revised Edition by Flavius M. Foster (1971). Soft covers, over 346 pages, not indexed. Order from the author, Route 4, Box 776, Poulsbo, Washington 98370. $12.50.

The author's branch of the Foster family came from Northumberland County, England, and first settled in Jamestown, Virginia. In 1652 a Thomas Foster, and then in 1654 a John Foster were recorded as being in this county. One William Foster was brought to Jamestown colony in 1663. This man became the forebear of the author's family. This excellent genealogy follows the Foster descendants from Virginia through Ind., Ill., Mo., Kan. and on West.

WOODS-WALLACE COUSIN CLUES compiled by Ruth Petracek (1973). Soft covers, over 220 pages, indexed. Order from Mrs. Edmond Petracek, 15802 Myrtle Ave., Tustin, California 92680. $12.50.

This fine book is another of those genealogies whose story parallels that of many Scotch-Irish families that began to arrive at Newcastle or Philadelphia about 1720, and settled in Chester or Lancaster Counties, Pennsylvania, and from there moved south along each side of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia and into North Carolina and Tennessee. Later, descendants fanned out across the south and west into Kentucky, Missouri and the West Coast. The book is well done, and the genealogy interestingly told.

MY OWN EDMONSTONS AND A FEW OTHERS by Charles Ninian Edmonston (1971). Soft covers, over 372 pages, not indexed. Order from the author, 527 34th Ave., San Francisco, California 94121. $11.00.

The Edmonstons were from Scotland. One version has it that they were Presbyterians by way of Ulster, Ireland, to Maryland. Two other versions state they were Catholics concerned with the troubles of the kings of England and Scotland, and appeared in Maryland about 1670. The author traces the family from Maryland to Pennsylvania, and on through Illinois, Missouri, Montana, and California. This is an interesting family, and it is regretful that such a fine work is not indexed.

THE COWANS FROM COUNTY DOWN by John K. Fleming (1971). Hard back, over 440 pages, indexed. Order from the Rev. John Kerr Fleming, P. O. Box 2067, Presbyterian Home, Inc., High Point, N. C. 27261. $10.50.

The author traces the origins of the Cowan family from Scotland to Ulster in Northern Ireland, and from there to their first settling in Pennsylvania. One branch went to North Carolina, and other branches spread to all parts of the United States. In addition to the genealogy of the Cowan and collateral families, the author gives sketches of prominent ministers and lay persons of the family. Historical sketches of some of the old Presbyterian churches add flavor to the book.

JOHN FLEMING, CAROLINA TO CALIFORNIA, SOME DESCENDANTS AND IN-LAWS, 1734-1972. Researched, compiled and edited by Lee Fleming Reese (1972). Hard back, over 560 pages, three separate indexes. Order from Mrs. Lee Fleming Reese, M. A., 6042 Fenimore Way, San Diego, California 92120. $30.00

This new genealogy is divided into three parts. Part I (James Fleming, son of immigrant John Fleming) traces Flemings, descendants and in-laws, from S.C., Ga., Ala., Texas, to California. Part II (Callarman, Lightfoot) traces families, descendants and in-laws from Va. and Md. to Ky., Ill., Texas and North Dakota. Part III consists of family records, courthouse records and archive records from Va. and N.C. The author takes the name, where possible, back to the immigrant, starting from where the compiler became related to that name.

GONE TO ALABAMA, A HISTORY OF THE DOBBS AND GILBREATH FAMILIES (Part One and Part Two, Vol. Two), compiled by Edward J. Ladd (1973). Hard back, over 286 pages, indexed. Order from E. J. Ladd, Box 79, Fort Payne, Ala. $20.00

Part One of Vol. II (An Outline History of the Southeastern States) is a unique feature of this genealogy. The author makes a positive statement, "In order to trace one's ancestors, it is necessary to know the history of the country", and he proceeds to give a very useful outline and maps of the southeastern states (Ala., Fla., Ga., Ky., Miss., N.C., S.C., Tenn. and Va.) followed by histories of some Ala. counties. Part Two is a continuation of the genealogy of Vol. I.

THE COOPER FAMILY OF MARYLAND by F. William Cooper (1972). Hard cover, over 103 pages, indexed. Order from the author, 700 Jerusalem Road, Cohasset, Mass. 02025. $10.00.

This record of the Cooper family, from early Maryland history to the cornfields of Iowa, is also an account of the author's genealogical searches. A delightful book and a nicely done genealogy!

PATILLO, PATTILLO, PATULLO AND PETTILLO FAMILIES compiled by Melba C. Crosse. Hard cover, over 384 pages, indexed. Order from Mrs. Murry L. Crosse, 631 Bryn Mawr Dr., N. E., Albuquerque, New Mexico 87106. $19.50.

This genealogy had as its predecessors, THE PATILLO FAMILY AND THEIR DESCENDANTS by Mrs. James Logan Jones and PATTILLO FAMILY RECORDS by Alfred Cato Pattillo and Henry Strong Pattillo. This current publication has made use of family outlines in the two books, with corrections and additions. M. J. Miller of Beaumont, Texas, also has a history of the Pattillo family, copies of which are found among southern family members. The Pattillo family is of Scotch origin, but the French spelling is due to service under French arms by members of the family during the wars between Scotland and England. This is an extensive and well done genealogy of a family whose members are located mainly in the Southern states.

McMinnville, Tennessee, June 20, 1838.

Dear Thomas;

I have intended for some time to write you, but business etc., heretofore prevented. I suppose I must begin with the most important thing first (namely) this unfortunate, and much abused estate - some of the lands in this part of the state, such as the titles were perfected, to have been divided tho I do not know how many acres, as commissioners have the papers which they will retain until Chancery Court.....when another bill will be presented (I suppose). I have been told the portion of land that fell to your papa. This lies mostly in Cannon City on the waters of Stone river. Thompson has done, nor is doing nothing towards distributing the property, though his two years expired about the first of May. He has advertised twenty-five of the negroes for sale the 12th of July, to pay himself and the rogues who have helped him to steal - such as Ridley, March Banks etc. Mason French was about selling the negroes for gold and silver to satisfy the unjust debt that Thompson wished - but James thought it his duty to try and stop such a sacrifice as that, and after great labour and difficulty had the execution enjoined until Chancery Court.....Uncle William Hopkins and Capt. Horsley (who ought to have come post haste and one of them taken the administrate as their right) have been urged for the past 18 months to come and see to their estate but so far, all in vain.....I have said enough about this miserably managed business. I have lately heard that a relative of ours, Miss Mary L. Horsley is to be married in Sept. Suppose you so arrange as to come here, and we will go, where you will be met with open arms and heart, by an affectionate Aunt and family. I have had a most pressing invitation from both...will be a glorious time and place.....to see some of the "gems" of old Virginia.....Present me respectfully and affectionately to your mama, papa and Mr. H. (Hubbard) and Cousin Mary and dear little Samuel....and all the boys, cousin James and wife etc.

I am respectfully your relative and friend

S/William H. Rodes

My dear Brother

Owing to my absence from town, I did not get yours of the 13th inst, until a few days since. Two weeks ago, I was sent for to see our dear and venerable father who was very ill. My wife and myself went out and remained with him until he died, which was on the 24th day of May. He had been visiting in the neighborhood on Wed. and soon after his return in the evening, he was taken with a violent pain in his side from which he was never freed until his death. He died the next Wednesday, being sick but six days. Dr. Love and Dr. Brewer were both called in but neither seemed able to afford him any relief. Banks Burrow and Sam Hubbard got there a day or two before he died. Our sisters, Mary and Elizabeth came a few hours before he died, who, with myself were all of the children that were with him. Rebeca was unable to go and James had just returned from Texas sick and did not see him. The Physician thought his disease to be Pleuracy. He died as he lived, a perfect and an upright man. He talked a great deal of angles and of heaven. He said that death had no terror to him.....I send you by William Bruce the Banner, containing a short obituary notice of our departed veteran father. I will write you again more fully some additional particulars of his death. If I do not come over, which I am very anxious to do, but I am so deeply afflicted with rheumatism that its impossible for me to ride on horseback and to pay the extravagant charges for buggy hire that is charged here. It will be better to buy a buggy which I intend to do.....I am aware of the importance of investigating the unsettled condition of Uncle Hopkins estate. A great deal of real estate has been sold by Rodes, Thos. Hopkins and the French's, which they had no right to sell and which they have never reported, a great many valuable tracts of land have been lost by negligence on the part of the Rodes and others. All this information, I have from Mr. Isbell, who was appointed by the Chancery Court at McMinville to sell the undivided lands of the estate about a year and a half ago. Write...to me. I shall expect to hear from you by William Bruce. Mr. Bright is still teaching. I shall go to housekeeping in a few weeks and if I can take both the children (Elizabeth & Clasisa) I will do so.....Give my love to the children and especially to Maria. Encourage Zach all you can. You are the oldest....Pleas sends her love to you.

Your brother

Obituary from the "Weekly Trenton Banner" - Trenton, Tennessee
May 30, 1854

DIED - In Gibson Co. on the 24th day of May, 1854, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock P.M. Mr. Samuel Richardson.

The demise of such a man as Mr. Richardson, deserves more than a formal or passing notice. In speaking of the character of this venerable man we may not use the pompous show of words with which the deeds of a warrior or a Statesman are chronicled - yet, all that can be said in eulogism of the good man, the benevolent.....can be truly said of him.

Mr. Richardson was born in Goochland county, Virginia, August 23rd, 1777 and was consequently 76 years and 9 months old at the time of his demise. At the age of 24 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth P. Hopkins of Virginia. About the year 1808 he removed to Tennessee and settled in Rutherford county, where he remained until 1827 when he removed to this county.

He professed religion soon after he came to Rutherford county and attached himself to the Methodist Episcopal Church.....He was the father of 12 children - 8 sons and 4 daughters, of whom are living 4 sons and 3 daughters.

In the year 1846 he lost his aged consort.....After the loss of his wife....he devoted himself exclusively to religion and God.....

Politeness of Mr. Wm. Richardson

New Orleans Feb. 1st/54

Dear Pa

I have written several times to you, but not one time have I heard from you. Knowing well your dislike for letter-writing, and the pressing business you have had for some time, I do not think it strange. But will certainly expect an answer to this by return of mail. I have met with a great many old acquaintance from Ky. also many old school-mates, among them Russ Butler, Merriweather, Daniel, and George on their way to Texas. Russ is going out to dispose of his farm and stock. He offers a very good bargain. I reckon the reason of it his wife will not go there to live.

I spent two or three weeks at Uncle James, having had a very pleasant time. He and Aunt Mary came as far as Natchez with me. I was out at Mrsses. Elliotts and Marshall's. They could give me no information of a good location, I mean Uncle or Mr. Elliott, Mr. Marshall not being at home. Uncle James thinks the neighborhood of his plantation not desirable at all.

While here waiting for a rise in Red River I met with Dick Curry. He says he is acquainted with every one in the neighborhood of Harrisonburgh where he lives and practices law, insured me a good practice, and use all assistance and influence, besides his house for a home without cost, until I get well established in practice. That part of the country is rather new and the people rather common. I am rather undecided as to this place or Natchitoches.

The chest of drawers and medicene and a new set of dental Instruments I wish you would send to the Care of George Connelly, New Orleans, who will send them to me wherever I am. The list of articles I wish sent you will find in my last letter.

When coming down from Port Gibson on the boat I caught a very bad cold and being billious was confined to my bed for several days, am now most well but troubled with a very painful corn, and an inverted nail on my big toe.

It being so warm here I had to get some lighter clothing, and my trip to Port Gibson being rather expensive, besides all necessary expenses being so great, I am nearly out of money and wish you would send 2 or 300 $ by the next mail being under the necessity, for want of funds, of remaining here until I get a remission from you. If it is not in your power to do so immediately, I will be compelled to return to Kentucky.

Until I hear from you I will continue to spend my time profitably attending the lectures and Hospital and remain

Your Affectionate Son

S/J. A. Parker

P.S. Having a bad pen and standing up besides makes my penmanship rather bad.

You will please answer this immediately as I wish to get into business by spring which is the beginning of the sickly season.

Mr. Thomas H. Richardson

My dear Cousin: - I have received your letter dated May 20th mailed June 5th..It was some time on the way and will now try to answer it.....I was truly sorry to hear of the death of your son-in-law Dr. J. A. Parker, and trust that time may heal his widow's bleeding heart.....As regards our Uncle's long unsettled affairs, I hardly know what to say.....Jolly Island and a tract of land in your State near Louisville are the most important. Spurlock thinks we stand a very good chance to gain the "Jolly Island.".....My wife joins me in love to you and yours.....

I remain your friend and relative

Notes from the contributor:

I.

The contributor has written statements dictated by T. J. Neely about his family, in which he states that his great-grandfather, JAMES NEELY, came from Ireland, and settled in Botetourt County, Va.

II.

The emigrant's four sons were: (1) JOHN, who moved to North or South Carolina; (2) JAMES, who settled in Tennessee, and then became Indian agent in Alabama, where he died; (3) ROBERT, who settled in Maury County, Tenn., where he died near Mt. Pleasant; and (4) WILLIAM (grandfather of T. J. Neely), who was married to Mary Friend (of Welsh descent from Md.), moved to Davidson County, Tenn., in 1796, and then to Williamson County, Tenn., where he died and was buried near Franklin.

III.

JAMES NEELY, son of WILLIAM NEELLY and his wife MARY FRIEND, died in Henderson County, Tenn. He married Eleanor Phillips in Davidson County.

IV.

The children of JAMES NEELY and ELEANOR PHILLIPS NEELY were: (1) BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, (2) ROBERT, (3) THOMAS JEFFERSON, b. Williamson County, 1803, (4) WM., (5) the REV. PHILIP PHILLIPS NEELY, (6) MARY, (7) NANCY, and (8) SUSAN, who died in childhood. The five sons have descendants in the counties adjacent to Henderson.

T. J. Neely stated: "I was baptised by Reverend George Newton (Old Presbyterian) and professed religion in the 5th of August, 1820; commenced preaching 1822; was a traveling preacher for sixteen years. First appointment Nashville circuit and the same year, owing to alteration, appointed to Lebanon; (2) Sandy circuit; (3) located and went to school; (4) to Wayne circuit; (5) Forked Deer, embracing seven Counties, 31 appointments in 28 days; (6) Wolf River circuit, and in the fall married Miss Sarah Richard Putney, 1827. By her had one son. Then located 1839, Hatchie circuit; 1840, Trenton circuit; 1841, 42, the LaGrange Mission; 1844, 45 Hollysprings circuit; (located for twenty years); 1866 LaGrange Mission; 1867 Saulsbury circuit."

The Scotch-Irish Neely family were "dancing" Presbyterians, and when T. J. became a Methodist, his father refused to see him, although they were later reconciled.

The T. J. Neely plantation, to which he gave his time during the twenty years of "location" and rearing a large family, is near Whiteville, Hardeman County, Tennessee. The house burned long ago, and the family graveyard is inaccessible.
