THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Members and Subscribers:

WHAT THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX IS The MASTER SURNAME INDEX is one of The Tennessee Genealogical Society's efforts to aid you in your family research. The Index contains more than 25,000 cards, representing individuals found in the family trees of our members and subscribers. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

HOW TO USE INDEX Members and subscribers may request information from this file by writing to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, Post Office Box 12124, Memphis, Tennessee 38112. Requests are LIMITED TO FOUR SURNAMES PER REQUEST. A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE MUST accompany each request. ONLY MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIBERS MAY USE THIS SERVICE.

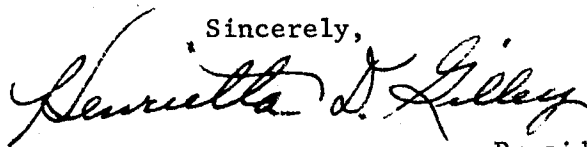

WHAT YOU RECEIVE Information sent you from this file includes data from the card and names and addresses of those working on the same line. WE DO NOT DO FAMILY RESEARCH. The only information we can send you is the data on the cards in the Master Surname Index.

SEND IN YOUR CARDS You can help make this file more effective by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card for EACH member of your family tree to be added to this Master Index. Cards should be typed or printed.

WHAT TO PUT ON CARDS Please follow the outline of a sample card below in preparing your cards. Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th century is a different person from someone (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th century.

We hope that you will find this Index helpful, and also that you will share your family information by sending in cards on your family.

Sincerely,

President

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

'Tis the season for vacations, and genealogists are no exception to the rule. So while you're back home visiting Tenn.-connected relatives, remember "Ansearchin" appreciates your copying and submitting family cemetery and Bible records. We do have a policy of publishing only pre-Civil War dates, except in cases where the persons concerned are descendants of the earlier dated persons. All family records submitted, no matter how late the date, are filed in our library for future reference; however, search there is the responsibility of the individual.

And speaking of files, the Breckinridge Co. (Ky.) Public Library has a RESEARCHER'S INDEX of persons willing to share information on historical or genealogical topics. Counties included are Breckinridge, Grayson, Hancock, Hardin, Meade, Nelson and Ohio in Ky., and Crawford, Harrison and Perry in Indiana. Anyone can be listed by sending name, address, and list of interests (please specify county) to Researcher's Index, c/o D. L. Bolin, Breckinridge Co. Public Library, Hardinsburg, KY 40143. If reply is requested, please send SASE. Family records for research files are most welcome.

PITTSYLVANIA COUNTY VIRGINIA ABSTRACTS OF WILLS 1786-1800

Compiled and indexed by Thomas P. Hughes, Jr. and Jewel B. Standefer. 1973. Soft covers. Over 141 pages. Order from Thomas P. Hughes, Jr., 4140 Chanwil Ave., Memphis, Tennessee 38117. $11.00.

The abstracts found in this publication were carefully copied by Kathleen Booth Williams from the original Will and Deed Books of Pittsylvania County, Va. The compilers have retained the colorful vernacular of the times and all the misspellings. The earliest record of a will was ca. 1768. The names of Testators and those of all persons mentioned, relationships, places of residence, locations of land and former places of residence are faithfully reproduced.

THE HOUSE OF CRAVENS by Ruth H. McConathy. 1972. Hard covers. Over 372 pages. Indexed. Order from Hallmark Services, P.O. Box 566, Charlottesville, Va. 22902. $15.00

The volume is an historical and genealogical work on both the English and American lines of the Cravens family, dating from the 12th century to the present. Allied family histories have been followed as far as possible, such as Cabell, Davis, Earle, Field, Fry, Goodrich, Hallmark, Harrison, Hopkins, Lightfoot, Rives, Settle, Slaughter, Thornton, Townsend, Walker, Wright and many others. Material on these families has been gathered from libraries, county records & cemeteries in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia, Kentucky, and the Carolinas. This is a very elaborate and thorough genealogical record.

OLD STONE FORT by Alexander Kocsis, edited by Betty Anderson Bridgewater 1973. Soft covers. Over 55 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. John R. Bridgewater, Pres. Coffee County Historical Society, P.O. Box 524, Manchester, Tenn. 37355. $5.50.

"Old Stone Fort" is an historical and archeological find of extreme rarity and good luck. That such a scholarly exposition was preserved and returned to cir-ulation is fortunate. The Coffee County Historical Society is to be commended. The genealogical information concerning the Kocsis, Calcote, Overton and Anderson families and the biographical section should interest many people as well as Alexander Kocsis' story, theory and description of the 'Old Stone Fort' and its builders, the 'Turtle Nation'.

THE HUNTER FAMILY OF BEDFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA by Judge Walter M. Hunter 1973. Hard backs. Over 258 pages. Indexed. Six illustrations. Order from Hunter Book Fund, 546 Old Academy Road, Fairfield, Conn. 06430 $15.00.

Judge Hunter died in 1969, but his book was prepared for publication by Dorothy Ford Wulfeck, Genealogy Editor for the Va. Gazette. The book was one of those intended to furnish material on early families of the South. It begins with a record of Alexander Hunter, Regulator leader of N.C. His son, Samuel, a distinguished soldier of the War of 1812 and an early figure in Texas History, was given special emphasis. Also noted are Pleasant Hunter, who established the family in Central La., the 1955 family reunion which was held at Eden Plantation in La., and allied families of Ketcher, Daniel, Ford, Prince, and Barry (Berry).

THE MCCLENDON'S, THE MACLENNON, MACKCLENDEN, MCCLENDON AND MCLENDON, a family history of the McClendon family as compiled by T. A. McClendon 1973. Hard covers. Over 418 pages. Indexed. Order from T. A. McClendon, 3301 Pacific Ave., Stockton, California 95204. $11.00.

Genealogists have reported that records have been found showing that John Macklennon of Scotland was the father of Dennis Sr., the emigrant who came to N.C. early in January 1696. Dennis' wife, Elizabeth, came with him. She was the mother of Brient, Dennis, Francis, Thomas, and probably of Isaac and Jacob, believed to be older brothers. From North Carolina the McClendons moved with the tide of immigration through the southern and western states and finally throughout the nation. The author has recorded 13 generations of family history, a notable accomplishment.

THE DESCENDANTS OF JOSIAH AND KEZIAH NICHOLS WOOLRIDGE AND THEIR ANCESTORS by Wright W. Frost 1973. Hard backs. Over 221 pages. Indexed. Order from Wright W. Frost, Publisher, 730 Cherokee Blvd., Knoxville, Tenn. 37919. $15.00.

The author has listed about 80 surnames of families who have 5 or more members. He names 200 other surnames with fewer persons as members of the family. The large number of names makes this little book a genealogical treasure for people whose ancestors are from Va., N.C., S.C., Ga., Ala., Ky., Tenn. and some other states. Carefully documented accounts of these families are found in the book. The index contains over 1800 names.

SCOTTISH BURGH AND COUNTY HERALDRY by R. M. Urquhart 1973. Hard covers. Over 224 pages. Indexed. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, Mich. 48226. $28.50.

The book contains an analytical table of contents, footnotes, drawings, appendix, bibliography, reference notes and a map of Scotland. The author has based his study on official files, correspondence with town and county clerks, local histories, newspapers and private enquiries. A record of some Scottish tradition is found in the first two parts, in which sixteen essays treat the history and development of the Burgh system and the counties with attention given to their heraldic achievements. Part three contains a detailed study of the coats of arms of 177 of the 201 Burghs and all 33 of the county councils. The 24 seals used by the 24 non-armigerous Burghs are also discussed. The author has produced a very descriptive and useful publication.

DESCENDANTS OF SPENCER MOODY AND SUSANNA HENDRICKS AND ALLIED FAMILIES, Tenn., Ill., Mo., Kans. Compiled by Pauline and J. W. Massey 1973. Soft backs. Over 118 pages. Surname index. Order from Mrs. J. W. Massey, 1001 Apache, Wichita, Kansas 67207 $5.00.

Thirty years of research by Pauline and J. W. Massey have gone into this family genealogy. Spencer Moody married Susannah Hendricks in Tennessee in 1827. They moved to Illinois in 1837 where they made their home until 1866 when they moved to Kansas. Twelve children were born to them, ten of whom survived. There are 95 grandchildren in the family, and 62 great grandchildren. The ancestors of Spencer and Susannah are not known but some study and speculation has been made

CLINTON COUNTY OHIO NEWSPAPERS DEATH AND OBITUARY ABSTRACTS, 1838-1867 by Larry D. Mart 1973. Soft covers. Over 68 pages. Indexed. Order from Larry D. Mart, 621 Fairfield Drive, Lima, Ohio 45808 $5.00.

A project originally intended as a search for early Mart and related family death dates was expanded by Larry Mart into a regional genealogical effort. Someone should thank Mr. Mart for his book. Newspapers he searched were The Democrat and Herald, The Herald of Freedom, and The Clinton, which were published on Friday of every week at Wilmington, Ohio. The original newspapers are in the Courthouse in Wilmington. They contain four pages, with the first two generally covering national news. Pages three and four generally reported local news and advertisements. There is no set page for the death and obituary notices.

THE NUTT FAMILY THROUGH THE YEARS, 1635-1973. By Merle C. Nutt. Hard covers. Over 271 pages. Indexed. Order from Dr. Merle C. Nutt, 2115 West Edgemont Ave., Phoenix, Arizona 85008 $10.00.

The Nutt family is of English extraction from the counties of York, Kent, Sussex, Gloucester and London and vicinity. The name originated from the baptismal name of Cnut, originally Canute, and has many variations in spelling. James Nutt (ca 1631) came to America from England and settled at Dover, New Hampshire ca 1635. Miles Nutt settled in James City County, Va. in 1636. Many others of the name arrived thereafter. This family has produced members who contributed much to the formation of the nation, and the author has well marked their efforts.

THE BLEDSOE FAMILY by John T. Bledsoe 1973. Hard covers. Over 262 pages. Indexed. Order from John T. Bledsoe, 7101 Hillwood Road, Little Rock, Arkansas $18.91.

The name Bledsoe originated in England, Bedfordshire and Northumberland. The first Bledsoes came to America in 1639 and established themselves in Virginia. George Bledsoe lived in Northumberland County, Va. in 1674. His will is recorded in the Culpeper Co., Va. Will Book A - 1749-1770. The Bledsoes emigrated to North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, then onward to the Southwest and westward. This vigorous family's name is found among those who developed the new land. Many, many genealogical references are contained in this work.

MAJOR FRANCIS WRIGHT AND ANN WASHINGTON WITH ALLIED FAMILIES by Anne Read Ritchie. Soft covers. Over 336 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Anne Read Ritchie, 13360 S. E. Oatfield Road, Milwaukie, Oregon 97222 $12.50.

This biography is one of the most fascinating family stories the reviewer has ever had the pleasure of reading. He recognizes the tremendous amount of research necessary to compile this record, and its extensive probe into the genealogy of the Royalty of England and of Europe is amazing. The author has traced the branches of her family through well-known American ancestry back to England and to several Royal families which intermarried with the Royal families of Europe. This is a family history which contains much colonial and English genealogy.

THE CIVIL WAR DIARY OF WILLIAM SPENCER HUDSON transcribed and edited by Weldon I. Hudson, President of Fort Worth Genealogical Society. F. Worth, Texas. Soft covers. Over 139 pages. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Floyd Stamps, 3145 Wellington Dr., Florissant, Mo. $4.30 ppd.

William Spencer Hudson was a school teacher, farmer, politician, Mason and Methodist. He served as a 1st Lt. 31st Regt. Miss. Inf. His military record in the National Archives shows that he was given a medical discharge because of "chronic diarrhea". He was born Dec. 16, 1822 in Ala. and died Nov. 20, 1884 in Panola Co., Miss. His parents were Isaac and Peachy Norvall Hudson. His 7 brothers and sisters were all born in Ala. He married 1st Ruth Julia McDaniel Dec. 10, 1844; to them were born 4 children. He married 2nd Nancy Elizabeth (Church) Shaw, a widow with 3 children; to them were born 4 sons. The Diary gives some idea of life in the military and of civilian activities in wartime Mississippi.

NEBRASKA PIONEER, WILLIAM BUTLER, Ancestors and Descendants by Melda Haynes Shippey 1973. Hard backs. Over 166 pages. Indexed (general and place name). Order from Polyanthos, Inc., Cottonport, La. 71327 $15.00.

William Butler was born in Burlington, Vermont March 11, 1832. He was seventh descent from John Butler of Connecticut (1669-1680). He and his wife, Jane Starr Butler, left St. Lawrence County, New York in 1855 to settle and farm in Summit Township, Marion County, Iowa, where was listed in the U.S. Census for 1860. The Colorado gold rush occurred about this time and William got the 'fever'. He went to Colorado and staked a claim, then returned to Iowa and set out to the gold fields with his family. For some reason he stopped on the way and filed claim for land in Nebraska, where he reared a family of 11 children. The author has a chapter in her book for each of these children and their descendants. About 45 allied families are listed, including over 2000 persons and 740 place names. The author has included a selected Bibliography, an appendix with Butler and Starr pedigrees, wills, estate inventories, and other important records relating to this pioneer family and the many related families.

THE FILE BOX
By Jerry Blair (Mrs. W. R.)

A reader sends in some early Catholic records of baptisms at Memphis in 1839: Children of Basil and Catherine (Spaeh) Rapp; Michael and Mary (Murphy) Leonard; Patrick R. and Henrietta Bordley; and William and Pauline (Phipps) Prince. The sponsors were Francis Scheller, Balina Prince, Catherine Calfield, P. McKeon, and Sophia Phobus. Father Clancy married Eugene Magevney and Mary Smyth on May 31, 1840, in perhaps the first Catholic ceremony in Memphis. It took place in the Magevney home, which still stands on Adams Avenue, near St. Peter's Church.

Father McAleer's first recorded baptism was that of Mary, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Magevney, who afterwards became a Dominican Sister. The date was February 24, 1841. Other baptisms in the same year were of the children of Edward and Drusilla (Cherry) Read; John and Margaret (Clancy) Conagham; Thomas and Catherine (McCabe) Hogan; James and Mary (Gorman) Green; William and Margaret (Brady) McKeon; James and Mary (Warfel) McNamee; John and Margaret (Poland) Burke; and James and Annora (Hooligan) Nugent. The sponsors were Joseph A. White, Catherine Shaller, William and Mary (Dunn) English, James Kennedy and wife, Mary Larkin, William Bradshaw, Mary Conaghan, Patrick McKeon, Patrick Farrell, Michael Gaffney and wife, James and Mary (Quinn) O'Brien, Robert Burke, Mrs. Michael Kiely, and a Mr. Jones.

In 1842, parents of children baptized were: Frederic and Margaret (Bonninger) Udwig; Michael and Bridget (Handlon) Power; William and Mary (Quinlan) Irwin; Michael B. and Margaret (Murphy) Martin; Francis and Bridget (Foley) Coffey; John and Bridget (O'Connor) Burke; M. and Mary Agnes (Snyder) Miller; and Rudolph and Elizabeth (Armstrong) Davis. Godparents were Patrick Golden, Mrs. Davern, Thomas Costigan, Bridget Powers, Denis Kerby, Mary McCarthy, Thomas McKeon, John McMahon, Mary Haley, Bridget Archer, John Carroll, Joseph C. and Mary Ursula Snyder, Michael McNamara, Ann Reagan, and Peter Connolly and wife.

On October 29, 1841, Father McAleer received a deed from John Claybrook: " . . . deem it a pleasing duty to record . . . the magnanimous fact that the Church lot was in part donated to our Bishop for the Catholic congregation worshipping at Memphis, by the acting agent (Mr. Claybrook) of the heirs of Judge Overton's estate, the nominal price required by the agent being five hundred dollars, which our Protestant brethren very generously paid." (Records of St. Peter's) Henry and William Irwin had the contract for the woodwork; the firm of Hickman and Austin received that for the masonry. D. Morison was the architect. Simultaneously with the church, which faced on Third Street, Father McAleer built a rectory which stood at the rear of the church and fronted on Adams Avenue. Hardly had the church been completed than it was realized that it was much too small. In the CATHOLIC TELEGRAPH of Cincinnati, December 18, 1852, we read: "The Catholics of Memphis, Tennessee, are about to erect one of the most splendid edifices west of the Alleghanies . . . It is to have two towers, each one hundred feet high, surmounted by a chime of bells." (From records donated to the Tennessee Archives by Catherine Magevney Hamilton.)

Among the most noted additions to the Catholic community in Memphis was a nephew of Bishop Miles - Dr. George Murphy, a successful physician. The Catholic Advocate of January 24, 1846, notes his marriage: "Dr. George Murphy of Memphis, Tennessee, to Miss Mary Ann McManus of Bardstown, Kentucky, in the latter place on January 15."

MEMOIRS OF WILLIAM FLOYD, OF BEDFORD CO., TENN.
Contributed by Polly Bouton

Notes and reminiscences from Uncle William Floyd given to Charlie E. Gowen in the Summer of 1904 when he (Uncle William) was in his 84th year.<sup>1</sup>

David Crocket---We will begin with this old pioneer, whose name will add historic interest to the following "Sketches". We are reminded that Crocket once lived on the east prong of Mulberry about one-and-one-half miles from County Line in Moore County, Tennessee.

There is some dispute as to the exact location of the Crocket cabin. Some claim that it was on the Amos Gore farm, where Jim Bird now lives-- but what gives rise to this is that "Billie" Crocket --- David's brother-- once lived there, while David lived further down the branch near the present home of Jim Brown.

My grandfather, James B. Gowen, pointed out the exact location of the cabin to Uncle William, and to his best recollection, it stood near the Brown place and on the same side of the road. This is the most authentic account that can be had.

Gowen and Crocket were companions and neighbors, and with their dogs and rifles had visited frequently.

Crocket was a guest at the home where Bill Mullins now lives, has slacked a hunters thirst at the "cave spring" while "Old Betsy" his trusty rifle was quietly resting against the old "Beech tree".

Gowen sees him on one occasion, after he had married his second wife, and joked him about his "New wife" who had about $800.00 in cash. David said, this will be mighty good "Sass" (Sauce) to carry along with us.

It is said that Crocket cleared a field or parcel of land on the farm now owned by Geo. Gowen in the 24th Dist. of Bedford County, Tennessee. It is here, wrestling with the "sassfras" that adorn the Summit of "Hungary Hill", that the brawn and bravery was developed that afterwards made him famous as a soldier as well as a hunter and back woods statesman. So here in the jungles of the forest, living with his first wife, the faithful one who crossed the mountain of East Tennessee with him, that this old pioneer no doubt spent his happiest days. He says himself that "his reputation" as a hunter was made on Mulberry. He tells Gowen where he once killed a panther. He was drinking from the fine spring on the south side of Man's Ford on Elk River; the panther sprang on him; he killed him with his "Bowie Knife".

Crocket was killed March 6th 1836 at the Alamo, Texas.

James B. Gowen was born in Bedford County, Virginia Nov. 22nd, 1785 near the present town of Lynchburg, Virginia and settled in Bedford County, Tennessee, near the town of Lynchburg. He often related this coincidence. His father was killed with an ax by a crazy man. His mother's maiden name was Burns, hence James Burns Gowen, she was of Scotch descent and was related to Robert Burns the Scottish poet. His father married second time, but wife's name not known; three children by the second wife, two boys and one girl; Jeremiah, Sanford L., and Jida. We may have relatives from this source somewhere also of Irish descent.

Grandfather would joke his children about their Irish when they got their "dander up". Only two of his first children, James B. and William, who were left orphans, James B. at the age of three and William younger; both bound out to an uncle --- Burns.

Grandfather was set free at 16 years of age, split rails to pay for a pony, when payed for it died. Suffered many hardships and privations. Dr. William Gowen, his brother, settled near Woodbury in Cannon County; married Elizabeth Moore, a splendid woman, raised large family, among which were Dr. Ike and Jim Gowen of Nashville, Tennessee.

Grandfather first settled in Williamson County on Harpeth River where he married

Ann Price Feb. 23rd 1808. Prior to his marriage, he kept "batch" with his would-to-be- brother-in-law, Geo. Price. Came to Bedford County the following year, killed a deer near the present site of the court house at Shelbyville, Tennessee. Settled at the old place in 1809. The chimney mound now in yard marking the site of one of the first log huts erected at the head waters of Mulberry. The house, in which his youngest daughter now lives, was raised July 4th 1815.

Oldest child "Bettie" born in Williamson County. Children as follows: Elizabeth married Daniel Brown; Harriet married Emijah Anthony; Mathew married Edens first;<sup>2</sup> second time widow Mullins; Sallie married William Floyd; Thomas married a Thomas. Last wife of grandfather Gowen was Lucy Emry, large family of last children as follows: Annie married William McKelvy; Tillie married James Morrow; Tempy married James K. Floyd; Fannie married Tom Clark; Laura married Bill Mullins; James married Millie Mitchel; Joe married Fannie Hutson; Isom and Bennie both died single.

Mathew Price and wife, my great grandparents, came from South Carolina and settled in Williamson County on the Harpeth River; note that here is where grandfather met his first wife, Ann Price. Later said Price settled at the "Big Spring" about one-half mile north of County Line, Tennessee. He and his wife were noted for their kindness and hospitality. Wife's maiden name Elizabeth Eskridge; she was very smart and industrious; both buried in "Old Price grave yard"; he died suddenly, had been tying fodder before breakfast in a little field below "Cooper Shop", came in, fell across bed, and died instantly. Prices as a rule very smooth, conservative, easy-going folks.

John Price, one son, was Old Baptist preacher; "Big gun" John like his mother, full of vim and energy, once owned the Green farm below County Line; married a Coffee, moved to "Western District" West Tennessee; got sick, started to nearest Dr. at Memphis, and died on the road. George Price, another son, married Fitney Hodge, lived and died where Parson Ervin now lives, was an awful sufferer with gravel in bladder and died from operation. Sallie married a widower Tom Roundtree, whose first wife was a Gilbreath. Preacher Tom Shaw was Tom Roundtree's grandson, his mother being a daughter of Roundtree by his first wife, Gilbreath.

First Shaw known was Thomas Shaw, father of this preacher Shaw.

Aunt Sallie Roundtree<sup>3</sup> had three children, Pollie, Ann and William, always called "Buck". Pollie married Jim Berry; Ann married first Milford Dean, second Ben Berry. Jim and Ben were brothers and were among the first Berrys. Buck married a Mayfield. Ann had three children by Berry, one girl married John Bennett of Nashville. John Price's boys, George and Mathew, were killed at Corinth, Mississippi.

Jim Driver was the first Driver to come to Tennessee; he was the father of Noel Driver and grandfather of Thomas Driver; came from North Carolina and first settled near Beech Grove, afterwards lived in "Screamsville" where Tom now lives. His wife peddled on brooms, soap and other articles, she was an Avon and was of Cherokee descent.

John Hodge was first Hodge; was father-in-law of Geo. Price; also grandfather of Millie Gowen.

John Watson and wife came from Union Dist. South Carolina, his first wife's name not known; there were two children, boy named Dave, girl married a Dodds, second wife a Whitmore, children by last wife as follows: Joe, Sallie, Sidney, Bettie, Jim, Watt, Fin, Miles Bobe and Mathew. Joe married a Jones; Sallie married Elijah Floyd; Sidney married Kin Pearson;<sup>4</sup> Bettie first married a Tilly, second a Prichard; Jim married a Brown; Watt married a Jones, sister to Joe's wife; Bobe not known; Fin married a Stewart; Math married a Smith (Aunt Becky).<sup>5</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Jones mentioned above were daughters of Charles & Rebecca Norman Jones, who moved to Bedford County from Union Dist. S. C. Tacie Jones married (Joe) Wiley Watson and Margaret (Peggy) Jones married Walter (Wat) Watson

John Watson first settled at Jim Farrar's place and his boys Joe and Watt had a blacksmith shop opposite the site of the present one. Lived again on hill above Eliphus Hix's; the log wall in which grandmother Floyd was married is now in Jeff Stephen's yard.

He was a cripple and wore a thick soled shoe; his grandson Kin Pearson now has the shoe. Sallie was our grandmother; Bettie was connected with the "Dean episode"; Miles Bobe went to Mississippi to oversee negroes and a negro killed him; Fin married in Trigue County, Kentucky, and died in prison, Rock Island, Illinois. Watt died in house in Jim Floyd's field; Jim died, left wife and two children, Kin and Marion; his father-in-law, Heseekiah Brown, took children to Arkansas.<sup>6</sup>

My grandmother Sallie Floyd<sup>7</sup> was eight years old when she came to this state, walked most of the way from South Carolina, camped with Indians and learned much of their dialect which she has repeated to me when I was a child; she was a remarkably strong woman mentally and physically, was a great reader and took interest in current events even in her old age, she died at the advanced age of 92 years.

Bobe was born in a house at Rossville near Chattanooga where they were camping en route to Tennessee. The Watsons were perhaps of Irish descent.

Dave Floyd and wife, my great grandparents, came from Union Dist. South Carolina, settled at what is now known as the Boyer's place about one mile south of Flat Creek, Bedford County, Tenn. Wife was a Norman,<sup>8</sup> a sister to Edward Gore's wife, hence the Gore relation. Raised a large family, died on the same day, and were buried in one grave at Flat Creek. Children are as follows: Jonathan, George, David, Enoch, Elijah, Hosea, Holcum, Peggy.<sup>9</sup> Jonathan married a Finney. Five children, names as follows: David, James, Spencer B., Pollie and Priscilla. Spencer B. Floyd was Col. of Yankee regiment stationed at Memphis, was a smart man; Uncle William has letter written by him to grandfather Floyd. Jonathan went to Illinois 70 years ago. This is the stock of Floyds in the north.

George Floyd married a Cox,<sup>10</sup> sister to Thomas Cox; moved to Tippah County, Mississippi 70 years ago. His children are as follows: John, Thomas and David. His son Tom came back to see kinfolks when grown young man, was fine looking and very jolly.

Dave married a Reagor, daughter of Anthony Reagor, sister to Abram and John Reagor, who lived above Jess Coleman's at Jim K. place. Raised a large family of children. Sam, Anthony, Allen, Jim K., Becky, Kate, Mary, Peggy and Jane. Note how all names are handed down. Becky married Jim Farrar; Uncle William was best man at Jim Farrar's wedding, stood up with the bride's cousin, Mayrel Reagor's daughter, the one that married a Dwiggin and went crazy. Uncle David objected to his girl's marriage to Jim Farrar. Jess Coleman married two of the girls, he first married Mary, then Jane.

Enoch married a Shook. Enoch was a M. preacher, also a very fine cabinet maker and mechanic. Went to Jackson, Mississippi 70 years ago; name of some of his children, Calvin, Alvy, William, Milton, (for his great grandmother, maiden name) Louiza, etc.

Elijah married Sallie Watson<sup>12</sup> and raised a large family near Flat Creek, Tenn.

Hosea married a Couser, sister to John Couser (Aunt Betsy's husband). Old Jim Couser, the first known Couser, was their father. Hosea was killed by a Yankee who shot at random near Fayetteville, Tennessee, was a good, gentle, harmless man; name of some of his children, John, Elijah, Jim, David, etc. Jim killed at Perryville, Kentucky; David married, had several girls, one married a Sanders, one a Cole.

Peggy married Jim Beavers, she is buried on Cane Creek; note how the Beaver kinship came in by our great aunt's marriage. Priscilla married John Davis.

Jane married Norman Finny, brother, no doubt, to Uncle Jonathan's wife. Uncle Jonathan, George and David in battle of New Orleans. One of them wounded on Dec. 14th which was decisive battle.

Billie Pearson was first of that family to come to Tennessee. Born in South Carolina in 1763, died at W. P. Bobo's place and was buried under "rock box" grave in Bobo's lot. He first settled at Jim Farrar's place. His wife's name was a Jacks; he was a soldier in the Revolutionary war, was accused of being a Tory; when he died, search was made for the "red coat" but it was not found.

Bobo: Elija<sup>13</sup> and Elisha Bobo, twin brothers were the founders of this heterogeneous race in this "diggins". They came from South Carolina, the origin of the name was in this way; a boy was found in an old stable in the rack which was made of bows, hence Bo-bo. Aunt Ellen Bobo's maiden name was Raines, daughter of Baley Raines.

Jess Coleman and brother first known Colemans, six or seven brothers, all their names begin with "J", Jesse, Joshua, etc.

Two old Beardens, Billie and Eli; Billie was Finis' father, Eli was Willis and Winris' father. I have it now from John Bearden (Billie and Eli's father) came to this country and is buried at Flat Creek. He was a Revolutionary Soldier and many years ago the government sent some parties to locate his grave in order to erect a monument, but his grave could not be found.

First Enochs: Isaac Enochs, Uncle Davy's father, had a brother named John.

First Edens: Samuel and Alex, Samuel's wife a Franks, Uncle Jack's parents. Alec's wife a Walker.

First Bedford was Billie Bedford, very dark complexioned; Ben Bedford's father; married a Dance.

First Ray: Hesikiah Ray; sons Jason, Solomon and Jabel by first wife; second wife a Jones, her children, Manuel and Marion. Jason's wife, Aunt Linnie Smith, had a brother who was a Mormon preacher. Soloman, wife a Clary, father of John C. Ray.

First Reagor: Anthony Reagor, wife a Shooks. It is said that all Reagors were killed in the Indian massacre except one little boy, this Anthony Reagor who came to Tennessee from North Carolina and was of German descent.

Sallie Skidmore, Sallie Rambo and Peggie Hewlins were the old "witches" whom the Reagors and others so much feared. They verily believed in the power of the "Hoo Doo" and bewitch, but to make the picture of the "witch" and shoot it with a silver bullet they believed would break the spell. This Abram Reagor once did to "set right" the deformed twins Isaac and Jacob. Uncle Tommie Dean performed the same "feat" when a thief had stolen his horse. So the old Salem "Witchcraft" creeps down the centuries.

First Stegal was Obediah, wife a Hodge.

First Holt: Jake Holt, wife a Byrom, Esq. Jim Holt's mother; second wife a Raney.

Uncle Jim Stone, one of first Stones; wife a Woosley, Uncle John Woosley's sister. Aunt Peggy was noted for good "Hoss sense". He had a brother Stone who settled in Cannon County.

First Hix: Billie Hix, who cut his throat with a shoe knife at John Frost's place; first wife not known, second wife a Collins, Buck Hix's mother. "Womble", Billie Hix's father was a brother to Old Billie.

Dr. Newton married Betsy Hix, his brother "Nick" Newton married Sallie Hix.

First Hurstz: Billie and Jim. Billie's wife a Beard; was Uncle Jack's father. Jim was Berryman's father; Berryman married Kate Cambell.

First Baxter was James Baxter (Marlow's father); wife a Guthery.

First Farrar: John and Jordon; John married a Harris, was Jim Farrar's father; his wife was first cousin to Isham G. Harris. Jordon married a Hawkins, father of Joe Farrar, came from North Carolina.

First Frost was Ebenezer Frost (was Elder John Frost's father) came from North Carolina, married the widow Clary, whose maiden name was Wright, hence the Wright in the Frost family. She was married four times, had two girls by the Clary husband; one of these girls married Billie Little, father of Elder T. C. Little, hence Bro. John Frost was Bro. T. C. Little's half uncle. Ebenezer Frost left in 1837 in a four horse wagon when the Indians were being driven back and never returned.

Billie Gipson and brother George were the only Gipsons known here.

Old Granny Wiseman, who lived to be over 100 years old and whose remains rest at the Gowen grave yard, was a Merrial; husband died in North Carolina. Two children by her husband, Isaac and Nancy. Isaac Wiseman once lived here but moved to Illinois. Nancy married Noel Driver, . . . . .

First Ervin was Heseekiah, wife a Simmins hence the "S" in Parson J. S. Ervin's name, who was a grand-son.

First Ward was Noah Ward, wife's name not known, but she was a fiddler, had a son named Noah who married Ann Brown.

First Gore, Edward Gore, wife a Norman, a sister to our great grandfather Floyd's wife, this is where the Gore relation comes in. His sons were Thomas, Amos and John; John went to Talladega, Alabama, Amos and Thomas raised large families here.

Thomas married a Shofner, Amos married a Couser,<sup>14</sup> this is where that stock of Gore's get the "Mark" of heavy eye brows, which render them so unlike Uncle Tom's family; get this distinguishing feature from Couser side.

First Broadway was Uncle Lemual, wife a Boon, sister to Billie Boon.

First Boon, Billie Boon, wife a Howard, hence the Howard in Boon Family; she was a sister to Old Joe Parker's wife, this is where the Parker and Boon relation come in. Said Boon was lineal descendant of Daniel Boon.

First McKelveys; Noah, Sam, Joe and William.

Emjah and Hosea Anthony came from North Carolina, . . . . ., their mother lived to be very old with Emjah.

Plyants not known any further back than Jackson.

Miscellany

Meg's grandmother "Akins" once lived here on this place, entered this land. Sam Anders her son-in-law lived here with her and perhaps dug the well.

Bro. Shaw married Sam Ander's step daughter, his wife's daughter by first husband, Landers. This is why Bro. Shaw and Mrs. Holt are related.

Aunt Bettie Brown was exact age of Andrew Johnson born Dec. 29, 1808.

Bedford County court use to convene in an old log house on hill above Rufus Hix place. The court house was situated near Uncle William Stone's. I would like to add to what Charlie E. Gowen and Great Grandfather Floyd have given concerning the court house. It was built by the widow Ann Barton Payne on the head waters of East Mulberry Creek one half-mile north east of the little village of County Line, about three miles north of Lynchburg. The widow Payne was a kinsman by marriage of Dolly Madison, wife of the president. She had a son-in-law Marmaduke Williams who was a lawyer in Fayetteville. Andrew Jackson owned land near by on East Mulberry Creek and attended court in the house of the widow Payne.

Here Thomas H. Benton afterwards great senator from Missouri and Felix Grundy practiced law. Benton wrote a book "Thirty Years in Congress" which was then a standard on Political History.

First man buried at Flat Creek was named Reynolds; lived near Jim Floyd's; hauled him out through Canes on an ox slide.

Uncle William Floyd voted his first ticket in 1844 for Henry Clay, a Whig. He has heard the following "big guns" speak; Andrew Johnson 1855 at big barbecue at Flat Creek, James K. Polk 1860 at Shelbyville, John Bell a Whig, Bayly Payton, Isham G. Harris, Neil S. Brown a Whig, Aaron ____ Brown a Democrat, Bill Polk, "Lean Jimmie" Jones, Gus Henry the eagle orator and Meredith P. Gentry who lived in Bedford County on Sugar Creek. It is said of him that his limbs "might get drunk but his head was clear" whisky got him as it did William T. Haskell, both silver tongued orators. Haskell perhaps did more for temperance in those days by his powerful speeches than any one and his friends tried hard to save him from the demon drink. He made temperance speeches all over the state.

James Gowen has a saddle on which his father swam Tennessee River while serving under Andrew Jackson.

Joe Gowen has a wash pot which was purchased by his father in Nashville when there was only one store there.

Tillie Morrow has a chest which was presented to him by a cabinet maker in Williamson County for recovering his stolen horse from the Indians.

Grandfather killed an Indian while serving under Jackson; while it was done in self defense he always regretted it. He was behind tree; Indian hit tree and filled his eyes with bark; then is when he shot him. He was a great hunter and fisherman and kept up said sport even in old age.

He killed a bear near Lynchburg and another on Joe Gowen's place near the spring. He was one year older than David Crocket, (Crocket born on Nollichucky River East Tennessee) Aug. 17, 1785 died May 14, 1880 age 94 years 5 months and 25 days. (This was Gowen's age)

He swapped Old Nat Berry for Ishmael and got $300 boot. Did this to get Ishmael and Rachel, his wife, together. Ismael taught Jim Gowen to work, very sleepy old darkey, go to sleep sitting at table or any where out in the field and dream the "Haunts" were "arter" him; "Hants arter me Jimmie cut em loose," at which request Jimmie would scrape around with his knife, which set the old darky right. Ishmael buried at County Line, Rachel buried at Flat Creek. She lived to be very old; five children, John, Jane, Ben, Dan and Dick.

Grandfather Floyd was one eyed but hardly noticeable. Grandmother Floyd's father, John Watson, was cripple by a fall near Ray's mill; she many years afterwards was crippled by a fall at the same place.

John Watson and wife buried at Pearson grave yard on Motlow place. Wat Watson's wife was a daughter of the Jones who lived at Jesse Coleman place. Joe Watson's wife I think of the same family; often heard grandmother speak of the Jones.

Shelbyville's first merchant was James Deery and his goods were brought from Philadelphia and Baltimore on pack horses and mules.

Originally Bedford County had 25 civil districts but when Marshall County was formed, 6 districts were cut off to that County and it has but 19 civil districts.

John Adkinson, Barclay Martin, Howell Dandy, John Lane, Daniel McKissick, William Wood, Benjamin Bradford were commissioners who located the town of Shelbyville and laid off the town lots. Shelbyville still has a Lane, Martin, Adkinson and Dandy Street.

First Court house in Shelbyville was put up in 1810. It was a small frame structure and stood on the north west corner of the public Square. It was burned and in a few years a brick court house was built in the center of the public square. This was destroyed by the great tornado of 1830, then another brick house was built on the same site; this was burned in March 1863 while occupied by Confederate troops; next was built our present magnificent court house, the best in the state, cost $125,000. (Supplied by Klyne Jack Keller: This magnificent building was burned by a drunken mob Dec. 19, 1934 in an effort to take a negro prisoner from officers, was rebuilt the following year 1935, at a cost of $170,000.)

George W. Floyd (son of George Floyd and wife Elizabeth Reagor) soldier in the Spanish American War died in Majayjay, Philippine Islands and was later brought back and buried at Flat Creek in the New grave yard.

This write up by Charlie E. Gowen was loaned to Klyne Jack Keller by Floyd Driver of Lynchburg, Tennessee. It was given to him by Cage Floyd, a son of Uncle William Floyd or great grandfather Floyd.

The next few sheets gives something of the Gowen, Price, Floyd, Watson, and Pearson families who lived in the vicinity between Flat Creek and County Line in Bedford and Moore Counties, and the Newsom family who lived on Duck River about three miles east of Normandy, Tennessee.

Also the Ayers, Holt and Couch families who lived in the vicinity of Normandy, Haley and Dowdys Creek communities.

(Ed. note - Notes are given by various contributors. "Sheets" referred to above were not attached to the manuscript.)

PETITIONS OF CITIZENS OF SULLIVAN, HAWKINS, GREEN & WASHINGTON
COUNTIES, TENNESSEE - 1835
Transcribed by Betsy West (Mrs. Daniel)

To the Honorable The Senate & House of Representatives of the State of Tennessee in General Assembly met.

The memorial of the Citizens of the counties of Sullivan, Hawkins, Green and Washington in that part of these counties labouring under the disadvantages hereinafter expressed. Your memorialists state that they reside from fifteen to thirty miles from the places of holding courts in these counties there in attending to their duties as citizens of these counties they have for many years been exposed to great inconvenience & expense in attending courts as jurors, witnesses, and attending muster and the various other publick duties to which citizens are exposed and it must be evident to your honorable body that is the fact by a ban recurrence to the map of the state which will fully show their real local situation. Your memorialists state that the section of the county in which they live is very populous containing many thousand inhabitants and about (or mostly?) of the other citizens of these before-mentioned counties and your memorialists consider themselves fully able to bear any expense that the creation of a new county might expose them to should there be any. Your memorialists further state that the amended constitution under which your honorable body are convened provides for the creation of establishment of a county within the bounds in which they live, and which provisions of the constitution virtually repeal the Act of Assembly of 1796 on the subject of the divison of counties but should your honorable body consider it necessary to have information on that subject they can confidently state that a survey has been made of which it is ascertained that the requisite number of square miles are left to those counties before mentioned & that there is the necessary boundary for a new county without infringing on the rights or convenience of the citizens of the before mentioned counties. Confiding in whatever you may see fit to do in the premises your petetioners will be satisfied and your petetioners will ever pray etc.

New Counties and County lines.

Mitchell Clk.

Netherland

Petition of sundry citizens of Sullivan, Hawkins, Green and Washington, praying the establishment of a new county.

ADDITIONAL PETITION ABSTRACTED BY THE EDITOR

A second petition to the Senate & House of Representatives was signed by 330 additional citizens. They stated that they "reside in the extreme limits of the Counties of Hawkins, Greene, Washington & Sullivan." The new county would be named Powell in honor of the Circuit Court Judge and lie south of the Holston River and "beginning at Shipley's Ferry or near there Ten miles from Blountville," would run along the river to within twelve miles of Rogersville, then south to a point on Beech Creek, then to within twelve miles of Greeneville, then east to within twelve miles of Jonesboro, and northeast to the beginning. The petitioners proposed that "the buisness of the Court which may be holden in said County, may be held at Geo. Gammon (?) & Co's. Store until the Seat of Justice may be perminately Settled as aforesaid." The store was 20 miles from Blountville, 23 miles from Greeneville, 15 from Jonesboro, and 27 from Rogersville.

The following names were all listed and numbered in the same handwriting, and there is no certification attached. It is dated Oct. 29, 1835.
