OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

You've almost turned our heads with your unprececedented number of subscriptions for this time of year and your many kind comments and good suggestions. You can be sure that we will do all we can to deserve your continued support. While it is you, our subscribers, who make our magazine possible, we cannot say enough in appreciation for the numbers of people who do the work in the Tennessee Genealogical Society and who help on "Ansearchin" News. All are volunteers, but it would be hard to find a more dedicated group under any circumstances. They wear many hats--those of family, church, school, business and community--and while we feel it doesn't affect the quality of our product, it is true that those other responsibilities will at times throw our timing off and you may receive "Ansearchin" late. We beg your indulgence.

Your "votes" for counties for marriages have been helpful, but the jury is still out. A number of counties are tied for first, and we're checking to see which, if any, have been published elsewhere.

OBITUARY - John Wesley Finch and wife

[This article, submitted by Arthur M. Reagan, 5301 Essex Ct., Alexandria, VA 22311, is a good example of how news spread in the pre-wire services days. - Editor]

THE ARKANSAS BANNER, Little Rock, Arkansas, September 30, 1846: --Article from RALEIGH (N.C.) STANDARD (date of issue not shown, but presumably a September issue):

"We copy the following from the RICHMOND COMPILER of the 2d instant:

'Melancholy Casualty. Mr. John Wesley Finch and his wife met with a melancholy death on the 21st instant, near Abingdon, Virginia. They were travelling, and had encamped for the night about six miles west of Abingdon, and were quietly reposing in their carryall, together with a nephew, when the horse being tethered to the wheel, took fright, turned the wagon bottom upwards, and the two old people were suffocated before they could be relieved. The young man who was with them states that they were returning from a visit to North Carolina to their residence near Dresden, Weakly County, Tennessee.'

"The gentleman here mentioned, Mr. John W. Finch, was in this City [Raleigh] on the 7th of August, when we saw him and transacted some business with him. We parted with him on the evening of the 7th, and on the 10th he told us that he expected to start from Granville with his wife for Weakly county, Tennessee. He was somewhat advanced in years, but was an active, robust man; and it seems strange to us that he should have met his death in the manner represented. Mr. Finch was an honest and intelligent man, and sustained an excellent character."

A PERSONAL NAME INDEX TO ORTON'S "RECORDS OF CALIFORNIA MEN IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION 1861 to 1867"

GENEALOGICAL HISTORICAL GUIDE TO LATIN AMERICA by Lyman De Platt. 1978. Hard back. 273 pp. Indexed. Order from the Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $22.00

The author points out that genealogical and historical research can be successfully carried out in many areas of South America in which there are vast repositories of valuable information of the past. His first ten chapters deal with sources that apply to the whole region because of the similarities in national origin, religion and customs; the last twenty chapters deal with individual countries, their records and archives. This is a valuable tool for anyone who has a line extending into South or Central America. It gives tables for computing the dates of colonial times into those of the modern calendar, and it deciphers abbreviations used as far back as the fifteenth century. -HLB

A SURVEY OF AMERICAN GENEALOGICAL PERIODICALS AND PERIODICAL INDEXES by Kip Sperry. 1978. Hard back. 200 pp. Indexed. Order from the Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. $22.00

Kip Sperry is a technical writer and United States research specialist at the Genealogical Society, Salt Lake City, Utah. Other families who intermarried with these families are also listed, for a total of almost 1900 surnames. A comprehensive bibliography and index make this book of great genealogical value. -HLB

MINUTES OF THE COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SESSIONS OF IREDELL COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA 1789-1800 transcribed and compiled by Shirley Coulter, Edie Purdy, and Lois Schneider. 1978. Soft back. 181 pp. Indexed. Order from Abstract Publishers, P. O. Box 308, Statesville, NC 28677. $17.50

The first court of Pleas and Quarter Session for Iredell County was held in late March 1789 after the division of Rowan County in 1788. This court was the first form of early government and its function was to run the government much like present-day commissioners. Moreover, it handled all suits and acted in such capacities as levying and collecting taxes, probating wills, approving executors, appointing administrators of estates and guardians of minors. It also appointed jurors, road overseers, constables and other minor officials, registered deeds, documents, indentures and sales and exchange of slaves, and licensed public facilities such as ferries. Contained in the minutes are the proceedings of the orphans court which provided for an annual review of the estate and conditions of apprenticeships of orphans. The court ordered first census to be taken by the militia companies in 1790. Genealogists, historians and researchers of every kind find such records of immense value in their work. -HLB

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM UPPER SOUTH CAROLINA NEWSPAPERS 1843-1865 abstracted by Brent Holcomb, C.R.S. 1977. Hard back. 153 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $17.50

The abstracts are from all of the newspapers which could be located from the districts of Spartanburg, Laurens, Newberry and Lexington, SC, issued before 1866. Marriage records are important because with few exceptions there are no official marriage records before 1911 in SC. Nearly every district of SC and the adjoining states of NC and GA are represented. Also, persons who had gone to Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and California were found listed in the papers. -HLB

THE LURE AND LORE OF LIMESTONE COUNTY by Chris Edwards and Faye Axford with AN INTRODUCTION TO COUNTY ARCHITECTURE by Robert S. Gamble. 1978. Hard back. 268 pp. Indexed. Order from Limestone Historical Society, P. O. Box 82, Athens, AL 35611. $19.50

"This is a book devoted primarily to the lore and legend surrounding old buildings and the people connected with them...", and it contains a wealth of information on the people who first came to northwest Alabama. The stories told about these people are more than mere statistics; they are full of interesting detail and colorful description. Frequent tales of the War Between the States and the intertwining of family lines in the community add a dimension not usually found in genealogical books. The introduction by Mr. Gamble will be of interest to all who are concerned with recognizing, restoring and dating old houses. Some of these were built as early as 1820. -BFW

INDIAN WARS AND PIONEERS OF TEXAS by John Henry Brown. 1880. Reprinted 1978. Hard back. 808 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., Easley, SC 29640. $50.00

This is a tremendous volume of over 800 pages that starts with early Anglo-Saxon penetrations of Texas while the Territory was still under Spanish control. There seems to have been very little peaceful relations with the Indians from the first settlements to well after the Civil War, and this work includes tales of many encounters with these natives and the resulting loss of lives and property. Several hundred biographies and the names of many early settlers are found in the volume. -HLB

BIOGRAPHICAL SOUVENIR OF THE STATE OF TEXAS by the F. A. Battey & Co. 1889. Republished 1978. Hard back. 966 pp. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $42.50

The book endeavors to preserve the genealogy, history and biography of Texans before 1890 with about six hundred biographies of the early settlers who made Texas a great state. The early immigrants to Texas were from many states, but a greater number came from the South. This is a veritable mine of information for those whose ancestors have been included. -HLB

A MEMORIAL AND GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF SOUTHWEST TEXAS, ILLUSTRATED published by the Goodspeed Brothers Publishers 1894. Republished with new material 1978. Hard back. 627 pp. Indexed. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $40.00

The volume consists of two sections, one containing a concise history of the state from early Spanish settlement through Mexican ownership, independence and statehood in the United States, and the second section consisting of several hundred pages of biographies of nearly seven hundred and fifty men who made Texas. The book is full of thrilling personal and historical reminiscences of the days when Texas was gaining her independence; and the detailed family records will be found to have great present and future genealogical and historical value. -HLB

THREE CENTURIES OF BALLINGERS IN AMERICA compiled by Emma Barrett Reeves. 1977. Hard back. 595 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. J. F. Reeves, 1620 Redbud, Nacagdoches, TX 75961. $25.00

This is the story of the descendants of Henry Ballinger, a Quaker who was born in England and came to America in 1658, but it is not exclusively Henry's line, as the compiler has included an excursus on the families of Andrews, Barrett, Beal, Beeson, Coffin, Dicks, Grubb, Jacks, Jeffries, Lippincott, Martin, Mills, Pearce, Sharpe, Taylor, Thornborough, Tuggle, White and Wright. Some of these sketches are brief, ranging from names and dates of one couple's children (Taylour) to four pages on the Wright family. Ballinger pictures and sources are included, as well as unidentified Ballingers and an interesting chapter on a notorious Ballinger. The sixty-two pages of index are a boon!

MARRIAGE BONDS OF HAYWOOD AND JACKSON COUNTIES, NORTH CAROLINA compiled by James E. and Vivian Woolley. 1978. Hard back. 185 pp. Indexed by Brides and Grooms. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $20.00

Haywood County was formed in 1808 from Buncombe County; Waynesville is the county seat. In turn the formation of counties were: Buncombe, Burke, Rutherford, Rowan, Tyron, Lincoln, Anson, Bladen, New Hanover, Craven and Bath. One would suppose that records of some Haywood and Jackson Counties could be traced back through all of these counties. By an act of the General Assembly in 1778 the clerk of the county was authorized to grant licenses. Bond for five hundred dollars was required; license was to be granted by the clerk in the county of residence of the bride. The Haywood County bonds and the Jackson County register book were used in preparing the publication. -HLB

MARRIAGES FROM EARLY TENNESSEE NEWSPAPERS, 1794-1851 edited by the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. Copyright 1978. Hard back. Approximately 700 pp. Contents arranged alphabetically by Bride and Groom. Order from Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $35.00

These marriage notices cover the entire state of Tennessee and, until their release for this publication, had been available only at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville in their card files. A total of approximately 12,000 or more notices contain such information as: bride's father, residence of bride and groom (county and state), their ages, marriage date, where performed and sometimes the groom's occupation. Beginning with the earliest ones in 1794 from the Knoxville Gazette, the abstracts are from 19 Tennessee newspapers and mention at least 21 other states as former home of either bride or groom or where marriage was performed. -ERN

OBITUARIES FROM EARLY TENNESSEE NEWSPAPERS, 1794-1851 edited by the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr. 1978. Hard back. 400 pp. Alphabetized. Order from Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $30.00

Obituaries abstracted from the same early Tennessee newspapers as "Marriages" (above) also have been available only in the card files at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville. The approximately 7000 death notices contain date and place of death, sometimes the cause of death, survivors, age at time of death, etc. These obituaries will often carry a person back well into the early 1700's to 1730's with such information as "died 1815, aged 88", or "died 1832, aged 95." There is also a cross index only to names mentioned within the individual item. -ERN

BERTIE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, COUNTY COURT MINUTES, 1763 thru 1771, Book III by Weynette Parks Haun. 1978. Soft back. 140 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704. $16.50 (plus 67¢ tax for NC residents)

Bertie County, NC, was formed in 1722 from Chowan County; Windsor is the county seat. This third book of the county court minutes, always a good source for research, covers 1763-1771. The records were transcribed from microfilm available from the North Carolina State Archives. -HLB

Craven Precinct/County, North Carolina - Precinct/County Court Minutes, 1712-1715, Book I privately published by the author, Weynette Parks Haun. Soft cover. Mimeographed. 99 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 243 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704. $15.00

Genealogists and historians alike are indebted to Ms. Haun for this transcription of one of the earliest extant records of North Carolina. Anyone who has attempted to read the early handwriting of such records can appreciate the effort she has expended. She has compared film copies with the original manuscript, which had to be read under ultra-violet light to decipher the faded ink. She has read film of Craven County Wills to fill in gaps of illegible court transactions. She has decoded the old style of abbreviation and transcribed the whole literally, which makes available to the average reader records that would otherwise be bewildering. Court Minutes are often disregarded by searchers because they are not indexed, but this is a gold mine for searchers in early Craven County. -BFW

THEY FOLLOWED THE SUN or Some Ancestors and Descendants of Zachary Taylor Cox and Elizabeth Jane Hitt by Bush and Cox. 388 pp. Soft back. Indexed. Order from Mrs. J. R. Bush, 125 Pinewood, Hot Springs, AR 71901. $20.00

Many Cox (Cocke) records are given before the main part of the book begins with one Moses Cox of Rowan County, NC in the year 1778. The story and records progress to Barren County, KY, and then to counties in upper West Tennessee. Part II takes up the ancestors of Elizabeth Jane Hitt beginning with the immigrant Peter Hitt b. 1683 in Germany. There are many photographs, reproductions of Bible and military records, and some excellent recollections of individuals. -EWG

EARLY TEXAS BIRTH RECORDS 1833-1878 compiled by Alice Duggan Gracy, Jane Sumner, Emma Gene Seale Gentry. 1971. Reprinted 1978. Hard back. 138 pp. Parent index by counties. Order from the Southern Historical Press, c/o the Rev. Silas Emmett Lucas, Jr., P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $22.50

The Texas Constitutional Convention of 1869 called for the registration of births, deaths and marriages in every organized county, and it was set up by legislation in 1873. Although repealed in 1876, 43 counties continued to keep the records. Often when registering a new child, parents would list all their previous children; hence, there are a number of quite early dates among the records. -HLB

WILDERNESS CALLING by Nicholas Perkins Hardeman. 1977. Hard back. 303 pp. Indexed. Order from University of Tennessee Press, Communications Building, Knoxville, TN 37916. $14.95

The author is a professor of history at California State University. He tells the story of his ancestors, Thomas and Mary Hardeman, and their direct descendants over a span of 150 years. One follows their travels from Tidewater Virginia to the West Coast; accounts are given of their different professions and activities. A genealogy table in the back covers the family for the years 1750-1900. Also included is an in-depth chapter exploring reasons for the westward movement by frontier families. This book is particularly well documented. -EWG

FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY CEMETERIES, Vol. 2 published by the Fulton Genealogical Society, Box 31, Fulton, KY 42041. 1978. Soft back. 112 pp. Indexed. $9.25

Five cemeteries are included in this publication: Palestine, Pleasant Hill, Brownsville, Poplar Grove, and Wesley. Location of each is given, and all are in the vicinity of the towns of Fulton and Hickman. One is in Hickman County and one in Graves County. Although most burial dates are from the late nineteenth century to the present date, there are some pre-Civil War deaths in each one, with, of course, many pre-Civil War birth dates. -EWG

CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS OF ROCKWALL COUNTY, TEXAS by Tedford and Sharp. 1979. Soft back. 263 pp. Indexed. Published by Search N Print. Order from Sharp-Tedford, P. O. Box 777, Farmersville, TX 75031. $14.75 (Texas residents please add 5% state tax)

Twenty-four cemeteries are listed; some are family, and some are in counties adjoining Rockwall. The latter are included because known Rockwall County citizens are buried there. Burial dates range from a few in the early 1850's to modern times. This is a valuable addition to data on a section which was settled soon after Texas became a state. -EWG

FRANKLIN COUNTY, TENNESSEE, PENSION APPLICANTS
 From Court Minutes May 1832 - April 1837
Abstracted by R. F. Simpson, Jr.

[There were several Congressional Acts dealing with Revolutionary War pensions; one in 1818 set up pensions for veterans of the continental establishment and the naval service who had served at least 9 months, but it was soon limited by an act in 1820 which provided that only those veterans who were needy with that amount of service should qualify. The act of 7 June 1832, however, provided that a veteran of any type of service of at least 6 months duration, regardless of need, was entitled to a pension. -Editor]

SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE, COUNTY COURT MINUTES
Book 1 - 1820-1824

Contributed by Betsy F. West and Jean A. West

[The following abstract is taken from a type-script which was made and given to The Tennessee Genealogical Society Library by Mrs. William K. Bolton, Millington, TN. Mrs. Bolton's work is a copy of Transcription of the County Archives of Tennessee, prepared by the Tennessee Historical Records Survey, Division of Professional and Service Projects, Works Projects Administration, January 1941. The preface of the volume states, "This volume is intended to be a verbatim transcription. There are numerous apparent errors, but the book was transcribed as it appears."

This abstract is intended for genealogists, and in order to save space, certain facts irrelevant to genealogy (such as adjournments within a day) may be omitted. Also the presence or absence of justices may not be repeated when the names were given at the beginning of the court session.

THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX

WHAT IS THE MASTER SURNAME INDEX? The MASTER SURNAME INDEX is one of The Tennessee Genealogical Society's efforts to aid you in your family research. The Index contains thousands of cards representing individuals found in the family trees of our members and subscribers. Our file is not restricted to any particular locality, but covers families who lived in various European countries and in every state of the United States.

HOW TO USE THE INDEX Members and subscribers may request information from this file by writing to The Tennessee Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 12124, Memphis, TN 38112. They will receive information from four (4) surname cards per each written request accompanied by a SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE. Please limit requests to one each three (3) weeks as this has proved to be a popular service and an effort is being made to expedite your replies.

WHAT YOU RECEIVE Information sent you from this file includes data from the card(s) and names and addresses of those working on the same surname. WE DO NOT DO FAMILY RESEARCH. ONLY MEMBERS AND SUBSCRIBERS MAY USE THIS SERVICE.

SEND YOUR CARDS You can help make this file more effective by sending us a 3 x 5 inch file card (no other size will fit our files!) for EACH member of your family tree to be added to this Master Index. Cards should be typed or printed very plainly.

WHAT TO PUT ON YOUR CARDS Please follow the outline of a sample card below in preparing your cards. Each card should contain at least one date and one place, even if they are estimated or guessed. This will enable us to determine that a person who lived in one area in the 17th century is a different person from one (with the same name) who lived in another area in the 19th century. Please keep your address current with the Surname Index secretary; the index is revised every five years and if you have not written in that time, your surname cards are removed from the index.
