OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

There is a wide variety of news on the desk this time, but perhaps the most urgent is the announcement of an excellent opportunity for genealogists. It is the workshop with MARY BONDURANT WARREN as speaker 28 March 1981, Greenwood, MS. Mrs. Bondurant publishes FAMILY PUZZLER and is an expert on families of the southeast. The fee is only $10.00, and reservations may be made through the Greenwood-Leflore Public Library, Genealogy Dept., 405 W. Washington, Greenwood, MS 38930.

THE SOUTHERN ROUTE TO MISSISSIPPI

If you have access to the book, HISTORY OF THE 13th REGIMENT TENNESSEE VOLUNTEER CAVALRY, by Scott & Angel, you will surely want a copy of the index which is recently published by Frances D. Rowan, 463 Grove St., Bishop, CA 93514. The book was originally printed in 1903 and contains several thousand names of East Tennessee residents. The index covers not only names of people, but also names of places, battles, regiments etc. You may order from Mrs. Rowan for $4.50. We thank her for a gift copy.

Another of our subscribers has sent us a partial listing of inscriptions taken in 1978 from Phillips family cemetery at Rosedale, Anderson County, TN. Many of the dates are relatively recent for genealogists; but the area is a very isolated one, and the records it contains need to be preserved. The earliest dates are those of James Phillips (1826-1881) and his wife Emily Carroll Phillips (died 21 May 1888, aged ca 57 yrs). There are Bunch and Byrge/Burge markers also, as well as other more recently connected names. Although she did not say so in her letter, I'm sure our contributor would reply to any interested person with the inclusion of a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Her name is Barbara Blankenship, 2383 Akers Mill Road, V-7, Atlanta, GA 30339. We will add her information to our library, and appreciate her consideration.

Another gift to our library came in the form of microfiche copies of family group sheets on the Wilson-Rutherfordman-Woodburn-McElhattan families. Information on these forms covers the years from 1690-1850, for the most part, and the areas in which these Scotch-Irish and German families lived after coming to Augusta County, VA and Blount County, TN. Although we do not have a reader for microfiche in our library, we appreciate the availability of this information to our members in Memphis who can check it out for reading elsewhere. If you are interested in these families, you may write Newton A. Wilson, 25 79 Madrid Way So., St. Petersburg, FL 33712.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Herman L. Bogan, Evelyn D. Sigler, Eleanor W. Griffin, Edith LeDuke

HISTORICAL SOUTHERN FAMILIES, Volume XXIII, edited by Mrs. John Bennett Boddie. 1980. Hard back. 212 pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. M. Boddie Pulling, 305 Moreton Bay Lane, Goleta, CA 93017 $15.00

This is the latest volume in a series long recognized for its value to genealogists. It is compiled from documented evidence not previously published; source references are given. Families included are: FORD (VA & KY), BRUNER (KY), ETHEREDGE (nw AL), EGGLESTON (VA), OVERTON (GA), RUFFIN (VA, NC, TN, MO, OK), CLEMENTS (NC), GRUBB (PA, DE), WRIGHT (AL), MILLER (SC) and related families ATKINSON and HUNTER (NC) and FARMER (VA), Thomas ROSE #3 (Surry County, VA). JOHNSTON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA LAND ENTRIES 1778 thru 1805, compiled by Weynette Parks Haun. 1980. Soft back. 119 pp. Indexed. Order from compiler, 243 Argonne Dr., Durham, NC 27704 $15.00

Johnston County, located in east central North Carolina, is the home of such places as Great Bughffelo Swamp, Gilbert's Neck, Goard Vine, Great Dismal, Great Contentney and other places equally as intriguing. The book was transcribed from microfilm records of the North Carolina Dept. of Archives and History. The index contains 21 pages of surnames and such places; if your ancestor was here in this time period and owned land, this could be a gold mine. EWG

OLD ALBEMARLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA - PERQUIMANS PRECINCT - BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS and FLESH MARKS 1659-1820, compiled by Weynette Parks Haun. 1980. Soft back. 108pp. Indexed. Order from Weynette Parks Haun, 243 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704 $12.50

Every effort has been made to present a verbatim transcription of these old records. As usual, many problems were encountered; pages torn and missing, ink badly faded, and each recorder's version of the English language created difficulties. The reviewer was relieved to learn that "flesh marks" actually meant brands for livestock. This book covers a period of nine years when information on births and marriages are difficult to find. This is a welcome addition to printed sources for this time period in North Carolina. EWG

MINUTE BOOK, COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SESSIONS, LAWRENCE COUNTY, TENNESSEE, 1818-1822. Reprinted by P-Vine Press. 1980. Soft back. 190pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Polly C. Warren, Route 7 Box 264, Columbia, TN 38401 $9.00

Mrs. Warren, closely associated with Lawrence County as a genealogical researcher and with close family connections, reprints a book which she feels will be a valuable aid to the researcher in that area. She mentions that many old books and papers were burned when the 1905 Courthouse was built. An alert County official retrieved this one from a bonfire! This minute book is referred to in Lawrence County as the "David Crockett Docket." Many names are listed here in connection with juries, justices, court cases, road repairs and other court duties. Included in the minutes is an 1819 list of voters. Many of the residents of Lawrence County, including David Crockett, moved to West Tennessee. EWG

LAWRENCE COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1840 CENSUS, 1860 CENSUS, PRIVATE ACTS, MISCELLANEOUS NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS. Reprinted by P-Vine Press. 1980. Soft back. 179pp. Indexed. Order from Mrs. Polly C. Warren, Route 7, Box 264, Columbia, TN 38401 $10.00

Second in a series of books to be reprinted by P-Vine Press, this one is offered by Mrs. Warren to make your search for your ancestors easier in this southern Middle Tennessee county. Take care to check all four indexes as there is one for each section. Of especial interest are the newspaper abstracts which make such interesting reading. EWG

LAUDERDALE COUNTY, ALABAMA CIVIL WAR RECORDS, 1860 CENSUS, compiled by Polly C. Warren. 1978. Soft back. 234 pp. Indexed. Order from P-Vine Press, Rt. 7, Box 264, Columbia, TN 38401 $10.00

This is the first of a planned series of books on Lauderdale County, AL. Work on the 1870 and 1880 census records is already underway, and they will be published in the future. This volume includes a census taken of Confederate soldiers in 1907, biographical sketches, known burials of Confederate soldiers in Lauderdale Co. and a miscellany consisting of notes taken from newspapers concerning the county, its residents and businesses. Book Reviews (continued)

RED RIVER SETTLERS, by Edythe Rucker Whitley. 1980. Hard back. 189 pp. Indexed. Order from Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc., 111 Water Street, Baltimore, MD 21202 $15.00

This book deals with the northern half of Montgomery, Robertson and Sumner Counties in Tennessee, the area known as Red River. It consists of a collection of county, state, church and family records. It also contains genealogies of Red River families, some ninety-five. Besides the genealogies, this work contains valuable lists of militia officers, pensioners and overseers of roads, as well as a lengthy chapter on Methodists in Middle Tennessee. There is a map of Tennessee in 1806 that will be of help to researchers in all of Tennessee at this time period. EWG

PERSONAL NAME INDEX TO THE 1856 CITY DIRECTORIES OF CALIFORNIA, Volume 10 in the Gale Genealogy and Local History Series, edited by Nathan C. Parker. Published by Gale Research Co. 1980. 250pp. Indexed. Hard back. Order from the publisher, Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226 $28.00

This index was prepared to help bridge the gap between the censuses of 1850, 1852 and 1860 and to help locate Californians during one year of the gold rush era. California's population had increased over 300% in this decade, but many of these miners had returned to their homes in the east before 1860. This index can be useful for a researcher who knows that an individual was in California, but who does not know the town of residence. Names were taken from directories of San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton, Nevada City, Marysville and Tuolumne County. These represent all of the known 1856 California directories. Ethnic identification is included in the index. EDS

YALOBUSHA COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI CEMETERY RECORDS, VOL.II, EASTERN YALOBUSHA COUNTY, published by the Yalobusha County Historical Society. 1980. Soft back. 175pp. Indexed. Order from the Society, Route 1, Box 15, Coffeeville, MS 38922 $6.00

Although the mimeographing could be of better quality, this work definitely reflects a dedicated effort to preserve unpublished records which are so badly needed for this area. Over forty cemeteries are recorded; many had been forgotten and overgrown when researchers, with the aid of old Corps of Engineers maps, searched long hours to find some of them. If it were not for the generosity of time and labor on the part of these people, some of our ancestral records could be lost.

PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS INDEX, Preliminary Volume, compiled by P. William Filby. 1980. Semi-soft back. 324pp. Indexed. Sent as a bonus with all orders for the forthcoming three volume set to be published early in 1981. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226. Price for the 3 volume set is $220.00

This volume, the forerunner of the larger three-volume publication, gives a sampling of the mass of information which is to follow. It brings together in one alphabetical list the names of passengers who came to North America or the West Indies during the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries. PILI includes names from many hundreds of lists, going far beyond the 262 lists used in Lancour's. It will give information regarding the immigrant's place and date of arrival in the New World, names of accompanying dependants and relatives, their ages (when available) and the source of the record. The preliminary volume contains 75,000 such entries.

GEORGIA CITIZENS AND SOLDIERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, by Robert S. Davis, Jr. 1979. Hard back. 227pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, Box 738, Easley, SC 29640 $25.00

Georgia was the last and probably the most reluctant of the thirteen colonies to join the American Revolution. She was the only state completely conquered by the British and restored to colony status. She suffered tremendous losses during this period. One researcher has estimated that in what is now Burke and adjoining counties, the most heavily populated at that time, only some forty% of the families living there before the war remained afterwards. This book uses genealogically significant documents such as pension and land records, military accounts, Loyalist records, petitions, etc., to describe the Revolution in Georgia. EWG

THE FAMILY SEARCH OF CLARENCE RICE OWENS, collected by Clarence Rice Owens and compiled from his notes by Katherine Bruce Jones. 1975. Hard back. 349pp. Indexed. Order from California Genealogical Society, 2099 Pacific Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94109 $12.50

This is a family history and the story of one man's search for his family which should be a profitable guide for other searchers. The publication is divided into five parts. Part I concerns James Owens (Owen, Owings) of NC. Part II gives the history of Hiram Chambers of Madison Co., IN. Part III discusses Oliver Phelps Rice of NY and his genealogy, as well as Charles Rice, the Colton family of MA and Catherine Rosecrans, who lived among the Indians. Part IV is concerned with the histories of the Pattersons: Adam, Jonathan and William Berry of MA, NY and WI, and includes short sketches on the Failing, Chapin, Crawford, Closson and White families. Part V gives information on the Farnam, Sly, Wiltse and Choat families. At $12.50, this is a bargain. HLB

ADAIR HISTORY AND GENEALOGY, by James Barnett Adair, M.D. 1924. Hard back. 330pp. Indexed according to various Adair lines. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640 $25.00

This book begins with the European background and biographies of British Adairs and continues with the immigrant and seven lines in America. The author makes no claim of giving all Adairs in a complete chart, due partially to lack of response from some of them, but he says, "We did include most of the principle families and made them as complete as available data would permit." Many of the men and women in this unusual family helped develop our country, and those with Adair connections will find much helpful information here. Others will enjoy the fascinating stories of early America.

SAMUEL FRAZIER OF TENNESSEE AND HIS FAMILY, by Virginia Knight Nelson. 1978. Soft back. 203pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 3520 Bluff Point Drive, Knoxville, TN 37920 $10.00

Samuel Frazier was a Patriot of 1776. He was one of the framers of the Tennessee Constitution of 1796 and the first state senator from Greene County, 1796-1801. His wife was Rebecca Julian. Her grandfather, Rene de Julien, was a Huguenot who came to America soon after 1700. Approximately 1000 people claim descent from this couple, among them James Barish Frazier, who in 1903 became the Governor of Tennessee and later U.S. Senator from the same state. The book has 44 photographs and 18 other illustrations. There are ten pages on the Julian family in the book. HLB

MY HERN FAMILY, by Betty Hern Harrell. 1980 Hard back. 267pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 1615 Bonnie Circle, Easton, PA 18042 $20.00

William Hearne, ancestor of the author, and two of his brothers settled in Somerset County, MD by 1688. He was born in England in 1627 and joined Cromwell's forces in 1642, where he rose to the rank of Captain. Upon the death of Cromwell, William went to the West Indies and established a trade from England to the West Indies and America. He married twice and died in 1691, leaving Mary, his widow and two small sons, William and Thomas. A full account of these sons is given. The author's line is from Thomas, with connections to the Townsend, Rowland, Peterson, Mackey, Cleveland and Williams families. Their migrations are typical of many other pioneer American families.

A ROTHWELL BOOK, Comprising The Descendants of Claiborne Rothwell of Albemarle County, Virginia, arranged and compiled by Myra Smith Fischer. 1964. Hard back. 434pp. Indexed. Order from The Tennessee Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 12124, Memphis, TN 38112 $20.00

An old letter retrieved from the attic was the inspiration that sent the author on a genealogical search for her Revolutionary War ancestor. Elizabeth Ann Rothwell Smith had written a paper headed "The Rothwell Family" which listed the names of three generations of her family back to her grandfather, John F. Rothwell, who was born in Albemarle County, VA in 1780. Research led to the will of Claiborne Rothwell which named his four sons, whom Elizabeth Ann had named as her grandfather and his three brothers. Mrs. Fischer has traced the Rothwells in America through nine generations. HLB

CEMETERIES OF NORTH PANOLA COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, published by The Panola Hist. & Gen. Society, 1980 Soft back. 52pp. Indexed. Order from PanGens, 129 Panola Ave., Batesville, MS 38606 $8.00

This is the second cemetery record published by the Society, the first one in 1977 being a record of Batesville Cemetery. There are sixteen church and community cemeteries and several private burying grounds listed here. A map is included to show each location, as well as written directions with highway numbers and distances. A brief history of each site, taken from land records and church histories, precedes each listing. Some early dates will be found here, and all genealogical information on the stones has been copied. For example, "Elijah Hunt, M.D. 5/4/1791, Elbert County, GA 1/7/1839 on his plantation in Panola Co. His wife Eliza pays tribute..." ELeD

INDEX TO GEORGIA POOR SCHOOL AND ACADEMY RECORDS, 1826-1850, edited by MARILYN L. ADAMS. 1980. Soft back. 68pp. Order from the R.J. Taylor, Jr. Foundation, P.O. Box 38176, Atlanta, GA $6.00

This book is an index to the pre-1851 material contained in a group of poor (public) school and academy records which were submitted to the State of GA by local officials as a basis for allocating school funds. The index by no means includes all extant school records for GA; it includes only those which appear on two reels of microfilm in the GA Dept. of Archives & History. However, it does include name, county and year of enrollment for students in twenty-nine GA counties. In a few cases, a family's move to another county may be reflected in records covering up to 5 years.

THE BROYLES FAMILY TIES, VOL. IX, compiled by John Kenneth Broyles, Sr. Soft back. 180pp. Order from the author, Rt. 3, Box 178, Clinton, TN 37716 $10.00

This book includes a history of the name of Broyles, additions to previous volumes, obituaries from East Tennessee, census records from TN, MO, VA, WV and marriage records of WV 1799-1965 for the Broyles name. The genealogy begins with the immigrant, John Broyle (Breil), b ca 1680-85 in Germany, who died in 1734 in Madison Co., VA. This is a most complete and comprehensive publication on this family lineage and a must for those researching this line. ELeD

THE HOUSE OF JOHN JOHNSON (1731-1802) SALEM COUNTY, NEW JERSEY AND HIS DESCENDANTS, by Mary Coates Martin Kupillas. 1979. Hard back. 98pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 220 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10016 $13.50 (NY residents add $1.00 tax)

After several years of research, Mrs. Kupillas has put together nine generations of Johnsons with a continuous historical record covering more than 200 years of the events of their time. Some of the related families are: Mahew, Coates, Swing, DuBois, Richman, McClung, Dailey, Greeman, Clarke Lambson, Hall, Elwell, VanMeter, Schade, VanDervoort, Walker, Martin and Blakeman. Residence of persons mainly involves New Jersey, but other states are DE, CT, NY and PA. EWG

JOHN WOOLDRIDGE, BLACKSMITH, by Laurence B. Gardiner and William C. Wooldridge. 1980. Soft back. 55pp. Indexed. Order from Laurence B. Gardiner, 1863 Cowden, Memphis, TN 38102 $6.00

This little book is a very fine example of the art of putting together the story of a man's life from court records, deeds, newspapers, and bits and pieces of information gathered wherever possible. I felt as if Scotland Yard had been at work here! Starting with John Wooldridge in Henrico County, Virginia in 1699, the family of six children is described, dealing with each child in turn. In 1729, John moved his family to his lands near the Huguenot settlement at Manakin and four of his children married Huguenots. These lines are Flournoy, Trabue and Salle. The footnotes and subsequent information make as interesting reading as the main body of the book. EWG

THE DEEDS OF AMHERST COUNTY, VIRGINIA 1761-1807 and ALBEMARLE COUNTY, VIRGINIA 1748-1763, by the Rev. Bailey Fulton Davis. Reprinted 1979. Hard back. 485pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640 $37.50

These records from Albemarle and Amherst were abstracted over a number of years by Rev. Davis, a retired Baptist minister. They were published separately and are now out of print; therefore, because of wide-spread interest in early Virginia records, they are now re-published in one volume with a new, full-name index added. Also included are what the author terms "interesting items from Albemarle County Order Book 1744". They are such things as a list of persons for whom Joshua Fry, Gentleman surveyed lands, slave items, i.e. name, age and owner, children who were bound out, estates and heirs. The earliest extant deed book begins in 1748, and the abstract as given here is amplified in many cases by the author's personal observations. By far the largest section of this book is devoted to the Deed Books of Amherst County. They begin with Book A on 1 June 1761 and continue through Book K which ends 20 July 1807. Other books compiled and published by Rev. Davis will be reprinted in the future, so watch for these! EWG

HOW HELPFUL ARE EARLY QUAKER RECORDS?

The Alexander Campbell Story

By Lillian Johnson Gardiner

"The average genealogist seldom thinks of hunting for Quaker ancestors in our Tennessee mountains," I thought, as I noticed a reference to the early Lost Creek Friends Meeting (Quakers) formed in 1797 in Jefferson County, Tennessee. My great-great-grandfather, Alexander Campbell had been a hard nut to crack on the family tree and it was only from Quaker records that I learned anything factual about him. When a knowledgeable woman in Knoxville asked me if I had looked into the Quaker records, I asked myself, "Why?" My old Scotsman was not a Quaker! Then one day with time to kill, my husband, Laurence, looked at the Cane Creek monthly meeting records of Orange County, NC. There was Grandpa! He was a recorder of the meeting and had put much family history down for posterity. All I knew of him was that he had married Nancy (McCarty) Reed on 3 Jan. 1813, probably in Sevier or Blount Co. She was the widow of Joseph Reed and lived with her four young children on the neighboring farm to old widower, Alexander Campbell. Two sons were born to this marriage, Eli in 1814 and Levi (my great-grandfather) in 1816.

The Cane Creek records showed:

Alexander Camble (Campbell), s. Chas. & Elender, b. 10-15-1759, Culpeper Co., Va.
Margaret Camble, dt. Wm. & Margaret Williams, b. 4-1-1750(?), Fairfax Co., Va.

Isn't this great! We learn his parents' names - her parents - their places of birth. From the children's dates and places of births and deaths, we can follow the family migration. By 1784 the Campbells are worshipping at Cane Creek, for daughter Elender was born and died in Orange County, NC that year. Cane Creek was established in 1751 in Orange Co. In 1771 Chatham was cut from Orange, and the dividing line was run a short distance to the south of this meeting house. Later this meeting was cut off into Alamance Co., NC, and it is now about 15 miles south of Graham, the county seat.

September 1772, Margaret is reported "married out of unity". The reporter is a bit late as she had a child born in Feb. 1772.

In January of 1783 Alexander was "received on request". These dates probably tell a much bigger story than the bare facts imply. Alexander, being a Scotsman and a fighter, refused to join the Quaker church when they were first married as he wanted to take part in the Revolutionary War. After the war - and as my husband explains it - and after Margaret had dogged him for 12 years, he joined the church with her, and she was reinstated.

In 1796 the family moved from North Carolina to Tennessee. This was the year Tennessee became a state. Their letter was sent to New Hope Monthly Meeting in Greene County, TN established in 1795. This meeting was first called Nolichucky from the stream on which the settlement was located. In the early years many friends from Cane Creek were among its members, including Alexander and Margaret Campbell and their large family.

In 1797 Lost Creek was officially established near the present town of New Market, Jefferson County, TN under the care of New Garden Monthly Meeting of North Carolina. For those who have misplaced ancestors from this area it is important to note that about 1803 to 1810 more than 25 certificates for families were issued by this church to Miami Monthly Meeting in Ohio and to ten other Ohio meetings.

Beginning in 1810 to about 1830 the tide was flowing to Indiana - one third of which went to the northwest corner of Wayne County. So many Tennesseans moved there that it was called "The Tennessee Settlement", near the present town of Economy, Indiana.

I found in the Lost Creek records the final chapter of Grandpa's Quaker Episode.

Queer that the death of Margaret Williams Campbell was never recorded, at least I didn't find it; but it was prior to 1813, for on Jan. 30, 1813 Alexander, Sr. was dismissed for marrying contrary to discipline. On Jan. 3, 1813 he had married Nancy McCarty Reed. You will notice that most of his children married out of the church, too, and the ones I knew of were all staunch Presbyterians as became a good Scotsman. But I do thank the good Quaker bretheren for keeping such good records. They helped me locate Charles and

We found so much about Alexander Campbell and his first wife and family in Hinshaw's Quaker Records, and it is only fitting that his second wife and family have their day too. Following is a Bible Record given to me years ago by an excellent genealogist, the late Prentice Price of Rogersville, TN and Richmond, VA.

"Names and ages of the children of Nancy Bowen, who was married to Joseph Reed Feb. 2, 1804; Alexander Campbell Jan 3, 1813; and to Bazzeel Bowen the 21 May. 1820.
 John S. Reed b. 30 April 1805

Nancy Bowen, the mother of the above named children, was born on the 3rd day of Dec 1789 in Augusta County, VA - born Nancy McCarter. Died age 86. A good Christian."

Other facts taken from Mr. Price's records and expanded by my own are:

John S. Reed married Frances Reed (dau of John S. Reed Sr. of Greene Co.) Oct 1826.

Their children were: William Ross, Frances Jane, Joseph, Grissy Anne, John S., Nancy, and James K. Polk, who died 13 March 1843.

Eli Campbell married Elizabeth Borgus of Alabama.

WOLFE-ANTRICAN FAMILY - Information from Mrs. Howard K. Hansen, 6664 West Belmont, Fresno, CA 93705 (letter dated 1975 - Ed.)

JACOB WOLFE, found in the 1830 and 1840 census of Hawkins County, TN, was a son of Charles Wolfe and his wife, Susannah ?; he was named in Charles Wolfe's will in 1819 in Grainger County, TN.

Jacob married Mary (believed to be McGINNIS) and they had the following children:

1. Elizabeth WOLFE, born 1811, married Thomas EPPERSON. Went to Greene County, MO with McCOY and McGinnis families.
2. Nathan WOLFE, b 1817, married Elizabeth ALLEN
3. Rosa WOLFE, born 1816, married Hezekiah MILLS
4. Susan WOLFE, born ca 1820-25m married Nicholas ANTRICAN
5. Emeline WOLFE, born _____, married Hopper ANTRICAN
6. Andrew WOLFE, born ca 1825, married Mahala LIVESAY
7. Riley WOLFE, born 1834, married Jane McGINNIS
8. Martha WOLFE (believed to be of same family), married Andrew TRAIL

The pension papers of Francis ANTRIKIN (ANTRICAN), Revolutionary Soldier, say that he lived in Green County, TN for 16 years after the war, then went to Hawkins County. He died ca 1845 in Grainger County, TN and had a daughter, Sarah, married 1817, Joel McCOY, son of Archibald McCOY and Phoebe (HILL), who came from Virginia to Hawkins County ca 1806. Their sons Joel, James and John were all born in Virginia. John McCOY married Barbara WOLFE, a daughter of Charles and Susannah WOLFE.

THE CARDERS in SOUTH CAROLINA - 1790-1850 - Information from Mr. James L. Carder, 3411 Chancellor, Memphis, TN 38118

Mr. CARDER has written a study of this family because he believes that his great-grandfather, GEORGE WASHINGTON CARDER, must be the son of one of these men. By taking the Federal census records of Abbeville and Pendleton Districts, Anderson and York Counties, and other sources, he has fabricated a very plausible family structure which is probably pretty accurate. He is able to account for names in Estate papers which coincide with census records. He has used Land Records from South Carolina and Tennessee Archives and biographical histories to find some pieces to the puzzle. Now he invites other members of this family to help him come up with documentary proof of it. His study ends with these lines. "Some main points that can be drawn from this study are:

1. CARDERS settled in South Carolina as early as 1790 with some of them being JAMES CARDER settling in 96th District (Abbeville County) and THOMAS CARDER, SR., GEORGE CARDER and NIMROD CARTER settling in Pendleton District (Anderson County).
2. The Pendleton District (Anderson County) CARDERS were a closely related people who probably migrated to South Carolina from Virginia (possibly Culpeper County).
3. Thomas CARDER, Sr. probably left Virginia sometime prior to 1784 as his son Thomas, Jr., was born in Tennessee ca 1784 and they may be closely related to a Godfrey CARDER who received a North Carolina Land Grant in Washington County, Tennessee in 1782.

ANCESTORS ARE WHERE YOU FIND THEM

From THE WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER, published at Paris, Henry County, Tennessee October 28, 1870

Adam GARDNER of Henderson County is 106 years of age. He was born in N.C. in 1765; married and moved to Henderson County where he has been for 70 uears. They have raised 8 children, all married and gone. He and his wife are the sole occupants of their home. The old couple are as jolly as crickets, and the old man with the little assistance of the wife in planting, has this year raised enough corn to do them for 2 years. He has saved 1000 bales of fodder unassisted, and is now directing his energies to saving a tobacco crop. His hearing is a little dull, but his promise of life seems good for years yet.

"SOUTHERN STATESMAN" Newspaper - Jackson, TN March 5, 1831

Look Here. The heirs of AARON HARGROVE who emigrated some years ago from Hyde County in the state (No. Carolina) or from some county adjoining or adjacent to it, to the state of Tennessee will hear of something greatly to their advantage by applying to Isaac Powell, Esq. on Waccomaw Lake in Columbia Co., N. C.

It is hoped that the Editor of newspapers in Tennessee to whom the Recorder is addressed will give the above a few insertions gratuitously as such benevolent act may serve a worthy and perhaps a suffering family who perhaps are ignorant of their claim to property in North Carolina.

ANNOUNCING
FIRST REGIONAL CONFERENCE BY THE NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
NATIONAL ATLANTA GEORGIA
GENEALOGICAL 7-9 MAY 1981 GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY SOCIETY

You are cordially invited to attend the first Conference in the States to be sponsored by the National Genealogical Society (NGS), locally hosted by the Georgia Genealogical Society (GGS). The Conference will be held at the Century Center Hotel in Atlanta, 7-9 May 1981.

You may register by letter, without a form. Advance registration fees are $50 (full) and $30 (Saturday only). Full registration covers attendance at any open special meetings of various national organizations held on Thursday, May 7, the light buffet reception with cash bar on Thursday evening, two days of lectures, panels, and workshops on Friday and Saturday, mid-morning coffee on Thursday and Friday, a sandwich bar lunch on Friday, and the noon banquet luncheon on Saturday. Saturday-only registration covers the day's lectures, morning coffee, and the noon banquet luncheon. Late registration fees will be $60 and $35.

We are excited at the educational and social prospects of this first NGS Conference in the States. There will be nearly 40 educational sessions to choose from, involving over 60 lecturers, on Friday and Saturday, including lectures by a team of three noted genealogists from the Society of Genealogists, London, plus a major keynote address at the Saturday banquet luncheon, and an exhibit area that will equate to a large genealogical bookstore in which to browse and to meet friends and leaders in the genealogical field. The lecturers will be drawn from all over the South and the nation.

You may wish to arrive early and attend the open meetings that will be held during the day on Thursday, May 7, by the National Genealogical Society, the Association for Genealogical Education, the Association of Professional Genealogists, and the International Society for British Genealogy and Family History. There will also be an open organizational meeting on Thursday of the Orangeburgh German-Swiss Genealogical Society. In addition to the above, the Board for Certification of Genealogists is holding a judges meeting, the Federation of Genealogical Societies a board meeting, the Genealogical Coordination Committee a committee meeting, and the Genealogy Tour to Britain, a reunion of 1974 through 1980 tour members and a 1981 pre-tour orientation meeting.

Room rates at the Century Center Hotel will be $36 single and $42 double. We strongly encourage early Conference registration and Hotel reservations. The Metropolitan Opera will be in Atlanta that week for the South's "opera week" and hotels are usually fully booked.

Conference registrations should be sent to: ATLANTA CONFERENCE, c/o Mrs. Marie Sheram, 105 Finchley Court NW., Atlanta, GA 30328.

Hotel reservations can be made by letter or phone to: CENTURY CENTER HOTEL, 2000 Century Boulevard NE., Atlanta, GA 30345; phone (toll free) 1-800-323-1776.

When you send your registration, you are invited to send the names and addresses of friends and relatives you would like for us to invite to attend the Atlanta Conference.

All of us at NGS and GGS look forward to your enthusiastic participation in the Atlanta Conference!

BILL R. LINDER, General Chairman

See you in Atlanta!
