OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

We hope "Ansearchin'" News has been helpful in your genealogical research throughout this past year. Efforts are made to publish information about all Tennessee counties, but unfortunately, for various reasons, some county records are not available. We encourage our readers to submit previously unpublished, documented material such as family Bibles, diaries, church minutes and old letters. We do reserve the right to edit to conserve space.

Our friends in LaFayette, Tennessee inform us that the Macon County Historical Society has been reorganized. Their interests are expanded to include cemeteries, Bible records, veteran rosters, old photographs and genealogical research. Macon is a county where many records have been lost, and the efforts and family data of many persons will be needed to restore its valuable history. The Macon County Historical Society address is Key Park, LaFayette, TN 37083.

CHISHOLM/CHISUM researchers take note. A major book on the Virginia branch and their allied lines, including those who spread throughout the South and into Texas during the 1800s, is being compiled by Marilyn Ward Lynch of 512 N. 2nd. St., Sayre, OK 73662. She will welcome your information and share with you.

The North Carolina Genealogical Society will host the 1987 ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN THE STATES for the National Genealogical Society. Plan to be in Raleigh, North Carolina May 13-16, 1987 and celebrate America's 400th Anniversary "Where It All Began." For details write to: NGS Conference in NC, 4527 17th Street North, Arlington, VA 22207; please enclose a 22¢ stamp, not a SASE, and material will be mailed when available.

Check your "Ansearchin'" News mailing label. Many of our readers write us they do not remember when their subscription expires. With our efforts to keep the price of our magazine as low as possible, we do not routinely send individual subscription reminders. With the current issue, your expiration date will be shown in the upper right corner of the mailing label, opposite your 1986 number. A renewal form was mailed with the Fall issue of "Ansearchin'" News.

The Tennessee State Library and Archives is continuing to provide longer public service hours: Sunday, 12:30 to 9:00 p.m.; and Monday through Saturday, 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. It is located at 403 Seventh Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37219; telephone (615) 741-2451. If you are traveling a long distance, especially around holidays, you may want to call and confirm the hours.

The Tennessee Genealogical Society Library has received a generous gift of over 150 books of genealogical interst. This extensive collection was the library of Augusta Hooper Brough and was donated in her memory by her daughter, Allen Kent MacLean, of New Orleans, Louisiana. The books are greatly appreciated and are a fitting tribute to one who has already given so much to this society.

Lloyd D. Bockstruck will speak on Kentucky and Tennessee at the Spring Genealogical Seminar sponsored by the Greenwood-LeFlore Public Library from 9:00 am to 3:45 pm on Saturday, March 14, 1987. The meeting will be in the Greenwood-LeFlore Civic Center, Greenwood, Mississippi. For more details write Miss Van Dyke Neill, Public Library, 405 W. Washington, Greenwood, MS 38930.

14 Mar 1809 (6 pages)

23-1-1809 [Ed. Note: This petition, as recorded on the Tennessee State Archives microfilm copy of 1975, seems to be the same as one published in "Ansearchin'" News Volume 13, No. 4, 1966 and another published in Volume 23, No. 1, 1977, both dated 22 Sep 1813. No date appears in the body of the petition; the only date given is the one assigned by the archives for microfilming purposes, 1809. However in all three cases the columns of names are not identical, even though many of them fall in the same order. The names are repeated here as found on the film, but careful comparison should be made by the researcher, because some variations in interpretations appear.]

Petition of citizens "south of the Frenchbroad and Holston, between the rivers Tennessee and Big Pigeon" to forego payment of state taxes, and annual installments due on land purchases from the state. Due to "unjust aggressions of a vindictive and aspireing Enemy upon our lawful commerce" [Creek War], citizens were unable to raise money. (6 pages)

THOMAS CALBREATH AND RACHEL VENTERS - Submitted by Mr. Glenn E. Smith, P.O. Box 1332 Muskogee, OK 74402

Thomas CALBREATH was born in 1788 and came as a boy with his parents to Smith Co TN from North Carolina. He is thought to be the son of William Calbreath/GALBRAITH. This Calbreath family lived in the northern portion of Smith County that later became Macon and Trousdale Counties.

Thomas married Rachel VENTERS/VINTRES 30 Aug 1811 in Smith County. The marriage bond was signed by Thomas DIAS and Thomas Calbreath. One early History of Smith County mentions Thomas Dias married Kizzy Venters, which may suggest Rachel and Kizzy were the daughters of David Venters, Sr. who built a mill on Goose Creek about 1800. This Venters family was from Jones Co NC and the early records of Sumner Co TN show David Vinturs purchased 150 acres on Goose Creek from Thomas DONOHO in 1798.

In November 1814 Thomas Calbreath joined Capt. Elijah HAYNIE's company of West Tennessee Militia and served in Col. Jas. RAULSTON's regiment under the command of Gen. William CARROLL. He was with the Second Division which was sent by boat to New Orleans to participate in the defense of that city. The major battles of December 1814 and January 1815 were the final battles fought with the British in the War of 1812. He was promoted to Corporal and honorably discharged in Nashville 13 May 1815 receiving $54.59 in pay for his six-months service.

Thomas Calbreath moved his family to Illinois about 1828 and settled in White County. In 1832 he volunteered for service in the Black Hawk War and was a Sergeant in the Third Regiment, 2nd Brigade of Illinois Mounted Volunteers. His oldest son, Thomas, Jr. also served as a private in the same company. Thomas, Sr. died in White Co IL 2 Aug 1833.

In 1850 the U.S. Government modified the requirements for veterans benefits so, almost seventeen years after the death of Thomas his widow, Rachel, filed an Application for Bounty Land based on her deceased husband's service in the War of 1812 and was awarded eighty acres in White Co IL. Most of the above records were found in this file.

A partial list of the children believed to be those of Thomas and Rachel Calbreath are: Thomas, Jr., Mary, George, William, Margaret and Rachel.

MATTHEWS BIBLE RECORD - Contributed by Mrs. Louise Matthews Jackson, 309 Zavalla St., Jasper, TX 75951

Mrs. Jackson is grateful to the librarian at Conroe for rescuing this record. An unknown lady was about to destroy the Bible since she could not sell it and several other books. The librarian who copied the Bible may be Mary PEEPLES.

Andrew 'Jackson' MATTHEWS and his brother, George Tubb Matthews, together with their wives who were Peebles sisters, left Dickson Co TN in 1857 and went to the new state of Texas landing at Magnolia.

The fly leaf of this Bible has in beautiful script, "Andrew 'Jackson' Matthews Book - Bought of T & S Gibbs, Huntsville, Walker County, Texas 1860. Price $2.50."

The FARIS/FARRIS family travelled from Goochland Co, Henrico Co and Louisa Co VA to Franklin Co, Hardeman Co and Fayette Co TN.

On 1 Nov 1825 Richard Farris, Sr. of Franklin Co TN made an indenture with his sons, Hezekiah and James, since he was indebted to them for two hundred dollars. By the agreement, the sons were to support the said Richard and his wife during the period of their natural lives and after clearing a tract of land on Elk River containing 150 acres, he would convey the title to them in fee simple. This land was formerly claimed by Elijah D. ROBBINS and had a lien on it claimed by Harvey/Henry HILL.

MORRISON FAMILY FROM NEW JERSEY TO KENTUCKY AND TENNESSEE - Contributed by William C. Morrison, Jr., 1805 Dorchester Place, Oklahoma City, OK 73120

Records in two family Bibles, one from the father and the other from the son, are in substantial agreement. The Bible of Daniel Lampson MORRISON (1776-1860) was owned by Alfred GRISSOM of Owensboro, KY in the latter part of the last century, but Mr. Morrison has a copy. He has the Bible of Daniel's father, Isaac (1745-1798), which states that Isaac is the son of John who was the son of Thomas Morrison.

Very little is known of Thomas. His son, John, died in Baskingridge, Somerset Co NJ in 1753. Isaac was probably born in Somerset Co NJ in 1745 and was the son of John and his wife, Margrete. The Bible of Daniel, eldest son of Isaac, states that on 10 Aug 1772 his father married Phebe LAMPSON, daughter of Daniel Lampson and his wife, Eunice. Apparently this was a second marriage for Phebe as she is referred to several times as Phebe WARD. She died 25 May 1802.

In 1775 Isaac joined the Revolutionary Army, appearing first on a Company Muster Roll and later as a lieutenant with the First Regiment of New Jersey Troops. He was wounded at Germantown 4 Oct 1777 and had a severely mangled right hand. On 23 Sep 1783 Isaac received a grant of 1000 acres of land in Jefferson Co VA (now KY); the following year he was granted an additional 900 acres in Jefferson Co and 1000 acres in Nelson Co KY. On 23 Feb 1785 Jacob MYERS issued instruction to Henry RHOADS, Isaac COX and Isaac Morrison to lay off a town at the long falls on Green River in the State of Virginia and to grant lots to settlers. The town was Vienna in Ohio Co (KY). When Kentucky was admitted as a state 1 Jun 1792, Isaac received several large land grants. His will was proved 26 Mar 1799 in Hardin Co KY.

Daniel Lampson Morrison, eldest son of Isaac and Phebe, was born 25 Aug 1776 in Essex Co NJ and died 19 Aug 1860, probably in Daviess Co KY. On 7 Jan 1805 in Ohio Co KY he married Sarah (Sally) PIGMAN, daughter of Ignatius Pigman and his wife, Susannah LAMAR. They had seven daughters and three sons.

Isaac Morrison, son of Daniel Lampson and Sarah Pigman, was born 15 Dec 1822 and died 7 Nov 1904 in Covington, Tipton Co TN. On 8 Jan 1849 he married Adeline Bishop MITCHELL, daughter of Robert Jones Mitchell and his wife, Martha Mathew BISHOP. Their children were:

Abram Mitchell - born 11 Nov 1849 Tipton Co TN; died 8 Sep 1919 Oklahoma City, OK; married first 10 May 1871 Lucie Ella COATES, daughter of Thompson Crews Coates and his wife, Amanda Lucretia Melvina SUGGETT in Bolivar, Hardeman Co TN; married second Alice SMITH

Ida - born 19 Dec 1852; died 8 Nov 1907

Ella - born 4 Sep 1855; died 15 Aug 1856

Daniel Lamson - born 4 Jul 1857; died 4 Jul 1898; married Georgie RUCKER 25 Dec 1882

Robert Jones - born 10 Apr 1861

Martha Virginia - born 25 Apr 1863; died 1962

Sue - born 12 Nov 1868; died 30 Jun 1872

Most of the information in these Bibles concerns people in New Jersey and Kentucky; then this article features persons in Tennessee. The full record will be in the Tennessee Genealogical Society Vertical File or contact William C. Morrison if you wish additional information.

OBITUARIES FROM THE SOUTHERN STANDARD, ARKADELPHIA, ARKANSAS

Contributed by Allen B. Syler, 712 South 22nd, Arkadelphia, AR 71923

MRS. NANCY TATE, wife of Mr. Joseph Tate, living near our city, but recently from Elkin, Tenn. died very suddenly last Tuesday morning of a congestive chill. She was only sick about two hours. The bereaved family have our sympathies.

Sept. 17, 1881

MR. JOHN T. GREENE, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens died at his residence in this city, Friday night, the 22nd inst. Mr. Greene came to this place from Tennessee, in December 1838, and when he died was in his 62nd year. He was for many years a consistent member of the Baptist church, and his funeral sermon was preached to a large congregation, by Elder W.A. FORBES, after which his remains were followed to Rose Hill Cemetery, where they were interred. Mr. Greene leaves a wife, seven children, two brothers, and a sister, with many relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Peace to his ashes.

MRS. FRANCIS F. AYERS, died at her son's home near Arkadelphia, Dec 29th 1891, aged 79 years. She was born in Middle Tennessee in 1818, moving to Arkansas when quite young, raised a large family nearly all of which remain to remember the exemplary life of Mother. A host of friends tender their smypathy to the bereaved. She had been a cripple for many years and had undergone much suffering but the heavenly messenger came and said it was enough and carried her to the reward that remains for those who love the Lord.

FRANCIS ASBURY'S TRAVELS IN TENNESSEE

By Betsy Foster West (Continued from Fall issue)

For Bishop Francis Asbury, the year 1792 began with a tour from Virginia south to Georgia. By March 21st, he had returned to southwest Virginia and wrote in his journal, "We started for Holston." This time he entered Tennessee from Moccasin Gap, Virginia and traveled south and then east to Charles Baker's near Blountsville on the Holston. The Tennessee Gazeteer of 1834 notes that a Methodist Church exsisted there in 1829.

29 Mar 1792 - "We took half a day to have the smith's work done in fitting our horses for the journey through the wilderness. Rode twenty four miles to Mr. Young's on the main Holston, and the next day, eighteen miles to Hawkins court house and thence to Crabb's. We have confused accounts of Indians."

Mr. Young is unidentified, however Hawkins Court House is present-day Rogersville, and Crabb's may have been the home of Joseph Crabbe who lived "at the lower end of Grassy Valley", and in whose home Asbury visited in May 1790. However, the notes given on this "Crabb's" indicate that he lived "below Bean's Station." This probably means down Clinch Mountain from Bean's Station, because the Kentucky-Wilderness Road ran northwest from Bean's Station along present U.S. Highway 25E to Cumberland Gap. An earlier road to the Gap, called the Old Wilderness Trail, ran westward across southern Virginia from Jonesville. It was across this branch of the Wilderness Road that Asbury's party had traveled in May 1790 (see AN, Vol. 33, No. 3, p. 105).

- 31 Mar 1792 "I heard a company had arrived from Kentucky at Crabb's. This man's son and a Mr. Henderson have been killed by the Indians since I was here last"
- B. Tanner's 1795 map of Tennassee Government shows that the Indian Boundary line lay from 5 to 10 miles west of the "Public Road" through Cumberland Gap on the Tennessee side. In Kentucky, the distance between the two narrowed to about 2 miles at the Cumberland River.
- 2 Apr 1792 "We entered the wilderness and reached Robinson's station. Two of the company were on foot, carrying their packs; and women there are with their children. These encumbrances make us move slowly and heavily."

Robinson's Station was north of Cumberland Gap in Kentucky. The party traveled the Wilderness Road as Asbury had in 1790, except that on this trip it began to rain, and they were forced to swim the Laurel River twice. Asbury says he was "steeped in the water up to my waist" and what added "to the disagreeableness, is the extreme filthiness of the houses". He became ill, and finally stopped at the home of Willis Green, "who showed me all possible attention and kindness". Asbury used this time of recovery and rest to write letters and an address on behalf of Bethel Academy which had been started near Lexington, Kentucky in 1790 but was not completed. After holding a Kentucky conference, Asbury, exhausted from lack of rest and poor health, started the return trip to the East. Accommodations in frontier stations afforded little rest, however, because an Indian alarm was spreading and settlers and travelers alike were crowding into the forts.

30 Apr 1792 - "...Everything is in motion...the continual arrival of people until midnight, the barking of dogs, and other annoyances prevented (rest). Next night we reached the Crab Orchard, where thirty or forty people were compelled to crowd into one mean house. We could get no more rest here than we did in the wilderness. We came the old way by Scaggs Creek and Rock Castle, supposing it to be safer as it was a road less frequented and therefore less liable to be waylaid by the savages...The next morning we set off early, and passed beyond Richland Creek.

Here we were in danger, if anywhere. I could have slept, but was afraid. Seeing the drowsiness of the company, I walked the encampment and watched the sentries the whole night. Early next morning we made our way to Robinson's Station. We had the best company I ever met with - thirty-six good travellers & a few warriors; but we had a pack-horse, some old men, and two tired horses; these were not the best part."

5 May 1792 - "Through infinite mercy we came to Crabb's. Rest, poor house of clay, from such exertions!. Return, O my soul to thy rest!

7 May 1792 - I came to Young's: a comfortable, quiet house, within six miles of Ratcliffe's, whose wife and children were murdered by the Indians. Here I slept comfortably.

8 May 1792 - We came to brother Baker's, where we rested two days and had our horses shod."

Bishop Asbury had retraced his steps into Tennessee and turned northward into Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland. For the remainder of the summer he traveled across New York, and New England, working his way south in September to Pennsylvania & Delaware; then as fall came on he turned southward along the coast. January of 1793 found him in South Carolina and Georgia; and March in North Carolina. He reports:

26 Mar 1793 - "We wrought up the meanders of John's River to the Globe and met a few people at Mr. Moor's, a Baptist, a very kind head of a respectable family."

John's River is in the northern area of Burke Co. NC between Morganton and Lenoir. The Globe, in Caldwell Co. NC had a chapel where Asbury had preached in 1788 and 1790.

27 Mar 1793 - "We began our journey over the great ridge of mountains; we had not gone far before we saw and felt the snow; the sharpness of the air gave me a deep cold, not unlike influenza. We came to the head of Watauga River. Stopped at Mr. S___'s, and had some enlargement on, 'The promise is to you & to your children', etc. My soul felt for these neglected people. It may be, by my coming this way, Providence will so order it that I shall send them a preacher. We hastened on to Cove's Creek, invited ourselves to stay at C___'s, where we made our own tea, obtained some butter and milk, and some most excellent Irish potatoes; we were presented with a little flax for our beds, on which we spread our coats and blankets, and three of us slept before a large fire -

28 Mar 1793 - We made an early start and came to the Beaver Dam; three years ago we slept here in a cabin without a cover. (See entry of 5 Apr 1790.) We made a breakfast at Mr. W___'s; and then attempted the iron or stone mountain, which is steep like the roof of a house. I found it difficult and trying to my lungs to walk up it. Descending the mountain, we had to jump down the steep stairs, from two to three and four feet. At the foot of this mountain, our guide left us to a man on foot; he soon declined, and we made the best of our way to Julius Dugger's ford on Roan's Creek. We came down the river where there are plenty of large, round, rolling stones, and the stream was rapid. My horse began to grow dull; an intermittent fever and a deep cold disordered me much. I was under obligation to Henry Hill, my new aid, who was ready to do anything for me in his power. Perhaps Providence moved him to offer to travel with me, and his father to recommend him. Twenty years ago a rude open loft did not affect me - now it seldom fails to injure me."

Once more Asbury labored across the Blue Ridge Mountains. Some of the landmarks from previous trips are recognizable, but it is difficult to determine whether he used the same route. We must remember that he could not have sat down every night by a comfortable fire and recorded the day's events, but probably wrote several days' records at a sitting. Also, the paths across the mountains may have changed from year to year. Every guide must have tried to find an easier way across the obstacles. And too, Asbury didn't seem to choose the most direct route to a destination; he traveled where there were people who needed him. Any of these reasons may have caused the variation in the account.

Matthew Rhea's 1832 map shows a road entering Tennessee from the area west of Boone, NC. It crosses Roane Cr. on the north side of the Watuaga River and meets another road leading southwest towards Jonesborough. At this juncture is located a point called Vanhoose's. This may have been the route Asbury & Hill traveled.

29 Mar 1793 - "We took our journey deliberately. We passed Doe River at the fork and came through the Gap; a most gloomy scene - not unlike the Shades of Death in the Alleghany mountain. Mr. L____, a kind Presbyterian, fed our horses gratis. I must give the Presbyterians the preference for respect to ministers."

Asbury & Hill had crossed the Watauga River east of Elizabethton, following the road southward. The "Shades of Death" refers to a section along the state highway from Elizabethton to Bristol. "Mr. L $_$ ", was probably a member of the New Bethel Presbyterian Church, one of the oldest in that region.

29 Mar 1793 cont'd - "We prayed and came on to a kind people, but to our sorrow we find it low times for religion on Holston and Watauga Rivers. In Green circuit there is some increase. My way opens and I think I shall go on to Kentucky."

The "kind people" referred to were probably the family of William Cobb. His home, still standing, was the first seat of a government of the Southwest Territory under Gov. William Blount in 1790.

- 2 Apr 1793 "Our conference began at Nelson's, near Jonesboro in the new territory. We have only four or five families of Methodists here. We had sweet peace in our conference.
- 3 Apr 1793 I gave an exhortation after brothers Henry Hill and Barnabus M'Henry had preached, and there was a melting among the people."

This was the first Methodist Conference held in Tennessee. Barnabus McHenry was the elder over several circuits in Virginia. He was appointed at this conference to the Salt River Circuit.

- 4 Apr 1793 "I had a happy time at my old friend Cash's. I am pained for his children, who are yet unconverted.
- 5 Apr 1793 Rode to Nolachucky and attended a meeting at Squire Ernest's, where I had about two hundred hearers. We have formed a society in this place of thirty-one members, most of them new. There are appearances of danger on the road to Kentucky, but the Lord is with us. We have formed a company of nine men (five of whom are preachers) who are well armed and mounted."

"Old friend Cash" lived in Washington Co. and Squire Ernest lived in Greene Co. This was either Henry or Felix Ernest, both of whom were ardent Methodists and have descendants who were members of Ebenezer Church. Ramsey's Annals of Tennessee and Williams' Early Travels in East Tennessee have been given as references in this area.

6 Apr 1793 - "Rode to Greenville and crossed the grand island ford of Nolachucky; the lowlands are very rich, the uplands barren. Stopped and fed at Green court house; here was brought a corpse to the grave in a covered carriage drawn by four horses. Solemn sight! Be instructed, O my soul! A whiskey toper gave me a cheer of success as one of John Wesley's congregation! I came on alone through heavy rains, over bad hills and poor ridges to brother Benjamin Van Pelt's on Lick Creek. He is brother to Peter; my old, first friend on Staten Island. I was weary, damp and hungry, but had a comfortable habitation and kind, loving people who heard, refreshed and fed me. We had a large congregation at brother Van Pelt's chapel..."

Asbury had ordained Benjamin Van Pelt a deacon while in a conference in Virginia on 30 May 1790. Van Pelt's Chapel, located near present day Mosheim in

Greene Co, was one of the earliest Methodist meetinghouses in Tennessee.

6 Apr 1793 (cont'd) - "If reports be true, there is danger in journeying through the wilderness; but I do not fear - we go armed. If God suffer Satan to drive the Indians on us; if it be his will, he will teach our hands to war, and our fingers to fight and conquer."

8 Apr 1793 - "Our guard appeared, fixed and armed for the wilderness. We came down to $E_{\underline{}}$'s and were well entertained. Thence we proceeded on to the main branch of Holston, which, being swelled, we crossed in a flat; thence to $R_{\underline{}}$'s, where I found the reports relative to the Indians were true - they had killed the post and one or two more and taken some prisoners. I had not much thought or fear about them."

Although neither Asbury nor the 1958 editors identified E____ & R___, the Rhea map of 1832 shows a road which could have been the route of the party and the general location of E__ & R___. Leaving Greeneville and running northwest near Mosheim along present day U.S. Highway 11E, it runs through Bull's Gap to Russellville, crosses the Holston River and goes to Bean Station. This was a connection to the Wilderness Road, which was familiar territory to Asbury.

9 Apr 1793 - "We came off: there were only eight in our company and eight in the other; two women and three children. We had two poor sinners that set themselves to work wickedness: they would not let us go foremost: so we took it patiently and followed up to the Cumberland station. I went to Robinson's station, where the soldiers behaved civilly. We gave them two exhortations and had prayer with them. They honored me with the swinging hammock (a bear skin), which was as great a favour to me as the governor's bed; here I slept well."

Asbury's party had crossed the mountains into Kentucky, and then traveled the Wilderness Road to its fork north of present day London. Taking the western fork, the party went to Danville where Asbury "set myself down in Mr. Rice's church; thence to Francis Clark's..." The Rev. Clark was a local preacher from Virginia who settled near Danville and organized the first Methodist society in Kentucky in 1783.

A Quarterly Meeting was held at Humphries Chapel in Casey County, KY, then Asbury and his aid went to the home of Col. John Hardin near Sandusky Station, a few miles from Springfield. "He has been gone some time, as a commissioner, to treat with the Indians; if he is dead, here is a widow and six children left. I cannot give him up for lost..." Col. Hardin, a Methodist and the father-in-law of the Rev. Barnabus McHenry, was killed in 1792 by the Indians.

The preachers made their circuitous way toward Lexington, stopping along the way to hold services and meetings. Asbury says "I cannot stand quarterly meetings every day; none need desire to be an American bishop upon our plan, for the ease, honour our interest that attends the office: from my present views and feelings, I am led to wish the conference would elect another bishop which might afford me some help."

From Monday, April 29th, through Friday, May 3rd, the Kentucky Conference met in Lexington, then Asbury and his aid rode south to Crab Orchard and the Wilderness Road "...where we found company enough, some of whom were very wild: we had a company of our own, and refused to go with them. Some of them gave us a very abusive language; and one man went upon a hill above us and fired a pistol towards our company. We resolved to travel in our order, and bound ourselves by honour and conscience to support and defend each other, and to see every man through the wilderness... We were about fourteen or fifteen men in the company, and had twelve guns and pistols. We rode on...and by riding forty-five miles on Wednesday, and about the same distance on Thursday, we came safe to Robinson's station about eight o'clock."

On Friday, May 10th, the party "rode leisurely from the edge of the wilderness, crossed Holston and about one o'clock came to brother E____'s, it being about sixteen miles.

11 May 1793 - "We came to brother Van Pelt's, with whom we rested on the Sabbath. I have travelled between five and six hundred miles in the last four weeks, and have rested from riding fifteen days at conferences, and other places. I have been much distressed with this night work - no regular meals, nor sleep..."

13 May 1793 - "Was a day of great trial; we rode about forty-six miles, stopped at ___, where, through carelessness, I nearly had been burnt up."

14 May 1793 - "At eleven o'clock we came to Baker's... Sisters W____ and H___, making some clothing and repairing my burnt regiment next day, we could not move until eight o'clock. We then set out without a guide, missed our road, and came in about two o'clock; we found the people patiently waiting, to whom I preached..."

The five days from May 10th through May 14th 1793 were the last ones Asbury was to spend in Tennessee until the spring of 1795. He had come from Cumberland Gap, crossed present day Claiborne, Grainger and Hamblen Counties and entered Greene County at Van Pelt's near Mosheim. The Rhea map of 1832 shows a road running northeast between the base of Bays Mountain and Lick Creek. This road passes Chimney Top Mountain and enters Sullivan County at the point where Greene meets Washington County. It appears to be approximately the path of present day I-81. Somewhere along this road between present day Bull's Gap and Blountville, the Asbury party stopped overnight at the place where Asbury "nearly had been burnt up." By eleven o'clock the next day they had reached Charles Baker's home near Blountville. Their next destination was Abingdon, Virginia, then on to West Virginia.

For the remainder of the summer, Asbury toured the eastern shores to New York and Connecticut. Christmas Day and the end of the year found him in South Carolina.

BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARIES And Related Works, Second Edition edited by Robert B. Slocum. Volume 1, Universal Biography, National or Area Biography. Volume 2, Biography by Vocation, Author Index, Title Index, Subject Index. 1986. 8½xll. Hard cover. 1,319 pp. in two volumes. $140/set. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226.

This work is an international bibliography of biographies and related works. Examination of the two volumes confirms the publisher's note that "More than 16,000 biographical sources are detailed..." in this second edition. The publisher further explains that "Each biographical source appears as a separate entry with basic bibliographical information and a brief description." Three main catagories make up the entries: (1) Universal Biography, works relating to different places and topics; (2) National or Area Biography, works that concentrate on political and cultural divisions; (3) Biography by Vocation, works concentrating on particular vocations, professions or trades. Three separate indexes permit access to individual entries by author, by title, and by subject. These two volumes, along with the earlier edition (1967) and its two supplements (1972 and 1978), are powerful locating devices for genealogists interested in finding published material on their predecessors. PASSENGER AND IMMIGRATION LISTS INDEX, First Edition, 1986 Supplement edited by P. William Filby with Dorothy M. Lower. 8½x11. Hard cover. 706 pp. $132.00. Order from Gale Research Co., Book Tower, Detroit, MI 48226.

This reference book, an index to published passenger and naturalization lists, is the fifth annual supplement to the first work of the same title published in 1981. Entries are listed alphabetically by surname and are of two types, main entries and cross-references. All are compiled from published sources-numbering approximately seventy-five. Sources include both articles appearing in periodicals and books and complete books. Detailed instructions guide the researcher in reading an entry or citation, most of which are composed of full name; place of arrival; age or n.a. if age not given in the original publication; year of arrival or n.d.if no date is indicated; place of arrival; code referring to the source book and its page number. When the source publication contained information on passengers accompanying the immigrant, those individuals along with their ages and relationship to the main entry are listed. The second type of listing offered is a computer generated cross reference for every accompanying passenger whose name is found on a passenger list. Wives whose maiden names are found in source documents are listed under both married and maiden name. The publishers tell us that the base index in this series plus its five supplements contain over 1,275 million names of immigrants to North America from 1538 to 1900. Accordingly, these indexes are an indispensable research aid, particularly to North American genealogists. JCH

HISTORY OF MACON COUNTY, TENNESSEE by Harold G. Blankenship. 1986. 6x9. Hard cover. 250 pp. $12.50. Order from Harold Blankenship, Rt. 4, Box 53, Lafayette, TN 37083.

Macon County was formed in 1842 from Sumner and Smith Counties. Three of its courthouses burned before 1901 destroying most of the county records. Since Mr. Blankenship's research offers information not likely to be found elsewhere, his book is a valuable source for those having Macon County roots. Other than short sketches in Goodspeed, this is the only Macon County history ever published according to its author. Contained herein are tax rolls, military rosters, and lists of physicians, attorneys and political figures. Early settlers and family groups are identified with the various regions where they settled. This very readable chronological history's comprehensive table of contents overcomes in part difficulties related to the omission of an index. BCT

This cheerful little book is a day-brightner for those hapless times when it seems your family tree had produced more than its quota of nuts. The author's avowed aim is to make genealogists laugh with this compilation of "humerous selections about family trees, family roots, and family skeletons." Here is certain relief from the tedium of an unproductive day. JCH

Author Walker's extracts are delightfully flavored with items depicting life styles of the period, and the articles chosen make maximum use of names of Gibson County residents with more than five thousand names being indexed. For researchers' convenience an every-name index is provided. Franklin County is bordered by Lincoln, Marion, Coffee, and Grundy Counties in Tennessee and shares its southern boundary with Jackson County, Alabama. JCH

HICKMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE QUARTERLY AND MONTHLY MINUTES 1867-1878 compiled by Olgia Dotson. 1984. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 174 pp. Indexed. $14.00. Order from the compiler, Rt. 1, Box 64, Nunnelly, TN 37137.

Because there was a courthouse fire in 1866, these are some of the earliest extant records for Hickman County. Formed in 1807 and located in central Tennessee, it is bordered by Maury, Williamson, Dickson, Humphreys, Perry and Lewis Counties. The minutes here abstracted and compiled with an every-surname index offer the genealogist a fairly complete record of official acts of area residents from 1867 through 1878. Included are names of county officials along with day to day business conducted. Entries are varied and range from the bonding of constables and sheriffs to the detailing of the fee paid "...for making a coffin for D. Higgins, indigent pauper." An index of twenty pages consists of an estimated nine hundred names, a convenient reference for middle Tennessee researchers of the post Civil War era. JCH

GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE LANDOWNERS 1877 WITH MAP by Emily B. Walker. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 78 pp. Indexed. $6.50. (TN residents add $0.66 tax.) Order from the author, P.O. Box 219, South Fulton, TN 38257.

Author Emily B. Walker has used a map of Gibson County, Tennessee (copy included) along with surveys and official records to extract, compile, and index a list of 1877 Gibson County landowners and business proprietors. Landmarks such as schools, churches, cemeteries, and businesses are listed. These are arranged by districts, with details of holdings within principal cities. The publication includes a summary of population count by district according to the 1870 federal census of Tennessee. The surname index includes about 8,800 names. RP

ROBERTSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE ABSTRACTS OF CHANCERY COURT, LOOSE PAPERS, 1844-1872 by Jean M. Durrett and Yolanda G. Reid. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 166 pp. Indexed. $17.50. Order from Jean M. Durrett, 403 No. Pawnee, Springfield, TN 37172.

According to the authors' preface, "The brief abstracts contained in this volume were obtained from the Chancery Court loose papers which are the clerk and masters records detailing each proceeding." The subject papers, stored at the Robertson County Courthouse in Springfield, Tennessee, were all read. Some 887 of these were abstracted and are presented here. The format is uniform, concise, and easy to follow. This volume contains a wealth of genealogical material: family relationships, marriages, divorces, and references to individuals living in various locales other than Robertson County. JCH

DEKALB COUNTY, TENNESSEE COUNTY HISTORY SERIES, Volume 21 by Thomas G. Webb. Edited by Robert B. Jones. 1986. 6 x 9. Hard cover. 144 pp. Indexed. $12.50. Order from Memphis State University Press, Memphis, TN 38152.

"Toadfrogs and red worms to be boiled together with red pepper...." This interesting formula for rheumatism ointment appeared in the recipe book of Dr. Tilman Bethel, an early DeKalb County doctor. The quote is an example of the anecdotal material from Mr. Thomas Webb's account of life through the years in DeKalb County, Tennessee. Established in 1837 and located in the central part of the state, DeKalb County was formed from parts of Warren, White, Cannon, and Jackson Counties. For most of the forty years after the first settlement in 1797, it formed a part of Smith, Warren, and White Counties. The book covers a broad spectrum of pioneer life: courts, wars, politics, churches, newspapers, economic and professional activities, and education. Excellent appendices list county officials, churches, schools, post offices, and a map of old civil districts. BCT

POLK COUNTY, ARKANSAS MARRIAGES 1892-1900 by Shirley "Gypsie" Cannon. 1986. 8½ x 11. Spiral bound. 57 pp. Bride index. $12.00. Order from the author, 609 Hickory, Mena, AR 71953.

Information received from the author indicates that, due to courthouse fires, the records transcribed in this book are the earliest extant records for Polk County. She also advises that included here are some recently discovered, misplaced marriage records. Author Cannon has addressed with great care the problems of transcribing difficult-to-read records and categorizing books with identical labels but different content. She lists marriages alpha-by-groom and includes a bride index for researcher convenience. JCH

OUR SOUTHERN ANCESTORS by Thelma Faye Cain Prince. 1985. 6 x 9. Hard cover . 484 pp. Indexed. $32.00 (NJ residents add $1.80 tax.) Order from the author, 44 Clemson Rd., Parlin, NJ 08859.

Mrs. Prince has compiled a collection of genealogies and biographical narratives of her ancestors and their descendants. Some families included are: Bullock of Louisiana; Cooper, Hughes, Martin, Moore, Snead, Sorrells, Tucker, Williams and Young, of Georgia; Still of South Carolina; Cain of South Carolina and Georgia; Cash, Wright, and Whitehead of Virginia; Sanders/Saunders of North Carolina; and Prince of New Jersey. The author uses an innovative ancestor numbering system which tabulates a progenitor and his descendants and, by means of symbolic codes, also allows her to reference the genealogy to the biographical narratives and records. This system allows her, in a style more narrative than statistical, to correlate various sections of the book without resorting to needless repetition. More than 8,500 names comprise the index. About seventy items make up the reference list with other data sources appropriately cited throughout the book. RP

MY THREE SONS, Volume III, BEENE-MCINTYRE And Allied Lines by Bettye Sitton Reed. 8½ x 11. Spiral bound. 326 pp. Indexed. $17.50. Order from the author, 6133 Mary Elizabeth Cv., Memphis, TN 38134.

This family book traces the ancestry of the author's three sons through their maternal grand-mother. Some of the earliest progenitors were: William Bean of St. Stephen's Parish, Northumberland County, Virginia in 1675; John McIntire of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania in 1750; and Richard Womack III of Henrico County, Virginia in 1710. Mrs. Reed presents her material in a conversational manner that is both refreshing and natural. She includes many photocopies, abstracts, and transcriptions of a variety of records such as death and marriage certificates, DAR applications, censuses, newspapers, deeds, petitions, wills, bonds, and maps. The book's final 115 pages are devoted entirely to a record miscellany from various counties: Benton, Jackson, DeKalb, and Franklin in Alabama; Alcorn, Itawamba, Prentiss, and Tishomingo in Mississippi; Franklin in Georgia; Mecklenburg and Granville in North Carolina; and Franklin, Davidson, Henderson, Marion, McNairy, and Williamson in Tennessee. MARRIAGES BOOKS J-K-L, 1891-1901, Washington County, Arkansas by Lois Miller. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 159 pp. Entries presented in indexed form. $18.00. Order from The Washington County Historical Society, 118 East Dickson St., Fayetteville, AR 72701.

Marriage records are among the most sought-after genealogical material, and a well-done published collection of them is a boon to researchers. This, the author's third publication of Washington County marriages, is no exception. Each of the more than four thousand marriages is recorded twice. The first section is arranged alpha-by-surname of the groom along with volume, page, and marriage date. The second section contains identical information arranged alpha-by-surname of the bride. These entries may not replace for thorough researchers the need to get a copy of the marriage record as they do not include names of bondsmen and officiants, information which can prove very valuable. While the book's title promises only an eleven-year span of marriages, the publishers have also included accounts of more than fifty earlier marriages from 1827 to 1837. These accounts, from an assortment of Arkansas counties and from one county in Missouri, were gleaned from the Arkansas Gazette. BBD

A HISTORY OF THE VAN NATTA FAMILY by Gwendolyn Ann Van Natta. 1985. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 63 pp. Indexed. $15.00. Order from the author, Rt. 1, Box 302, Gore, OK 74435.

The subtitle of this limited-edition book might well be "Leonard Franklin Van Natta, Where are You?" for, as her acknowledgments disclose, Mrs. Van Natta's book results from a search begun over a decade ago for a man who abandoned his young family in 1931. Her work begins with Samuel Van Natta, born about 1808 in Ohio, who lived in the Illinois counties of Jasper, Cumberland, and Coles from 1840 through 1880. She continues with the family of his son, Isaac N., who moved to Oklahoma Territory before 1902. Mrs. Van Natta's publication includes photocopies of twenty-five year old letters about the missing Leonard, a grandson of Isaac, and makes liberal use of snapshots of happy family groups, many of which were made at the annual family reunions at Lake Altus, Oklahoma. Her regard for her extended family by marriage is obvious, and their story is told with such simplicity, candor, and taste that even the casual reader soon starts caring about them...and wondering, "Where are you, Leonard Van Natta?" DUNNAGANS IN DIXIE by Martha Garren Gujda. 1985. 8½ x 11. Over 145 pp. Indexed. $25.00. Order from the author, 7040 Owens St., Tujunga, CA 91042.

This book begins with short sketches on several eighteenth century North Carolina Dunnagans, acknowledges various spellings, and continues with early residents in Tennessee who bore the name. Most of the book, however, follows John Dunnagan, Sr., a resident of Granville and Surry Counties in North Carolina, born before 1730, and his descendants who moved to Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, and points west. The index arranged alphabetically by surname, with christian names listed thereunder in order of occurrence, contains references to almost seven hundred persons. Illustrations include a coat of arms, maps, deeds, censuses, marriage records, and a chart for determining relationships so well done that the Dunnagans need never again be confused about cousins several times removed. She presents her family's story in both narrative form and on family group sheets. Refreshingly, she states when she is basing a relationship on an assumption and gives her reasons for arriving at it. The sketch on her mother, Margaret Gertrude Dunnagan, chronicling the hardships she faced and overcame while rearing her children during the depression, is so lovingly done that one can readily see that it was the mother's "fine heritage of true pioneer stock" that inspired this book. GIBSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE BONDS AND WILLS January, 1824 - September, 1846 by Emily B. Walker. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 99 pp. Indexed. $10.00 (TN residents add $0.78 tax.) Order from the author, P.O. Box 219, South Fulton, TN 38257.

Author Emily B. Walker has compiled and indexed Bond and Will Books A, B, and C for Gibson County, Tennessee. Her compilation comprises bonds posted for holders of public office; bonds for persons assigned care of orphans, apprentices, and indigents; and bonds for persons assigned civic tasks and estate settlements. It also includes names of persons appearing as beneficiaries, executors, witnesses, and names of trustees to wills and estate settlements. Entry dates and page numbers are noted for each item. Author Walker makes maximum use of names of which some 7,300 appear in this index. RP KINFOLKS OF WAYNE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA 1793-1833 by Joseph W. Watson. 1986. 6 x 9. Hard cover. 274 pp. Indexed. $25.00. Order from the author, 406 Piedmont Ave., Rocky Mount, NC 27801.

This book is a compilation of deed abstracts from Books 5-E through 14 and a part of Book 15. The deeds date from late 1793 to early 1833. The "intent of the compiler is to set forth all relationships implied..." therefrom. Wayne County, bordered by Duplin, Sampson, Wilson, Greene, and Lenoir Counties and formed in 1799 from Dobbs County, is located in east central North Carolina. Waynesborough, incorporated in 1787, was the county seat until 1850. These deed books, containing many deeds of gift from parents to their children, are a rich genealogical source. The fact that many such gifts were personal property and consequently not included in the deed book index enhances the genealogical worth of Mr. Watson's work. He includes a particularly good index comprised of first names as well as surnames. BCT

1880 MOORE COUNTY, TENNESSEE CENSUS by Judy Henley Phillips. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover.

110 pp. + viii. Indexed. $16.00. Order from the author, Rt. 3, Box 284, Tullahoma, TN 37388.

Moore County, bordered by Franklin, Lincoln, Bedford and Coffee Counties, was formed in 1871 from portions of Bedford and Franklin Counties, apparently not without controversy. An interesting note by the compiler tells of discovering an 1873 court record pertaining to a border dispute between the new county and Franklin County. With her usual meticulosity, author Phillips has abstracted these records from the United States Census of 1880 and provided an every-name index of Moore County residents. Entries include the number of the household and each member thereof with his/her age, sex, race, marital status, relationship to head of household, occupation, and place of birth—his own as well as his parents. CLIBORN-CLAIBORNE RECORDS by Lolita Hannah Bissell. 1986. 6% x 9. Hard cover. 370 pp. Indexed. $40.00. Order from the author, 4221 Farrar Ave., Nashville, TN 37215.

These family records, compiled from various published sources as well as from primary documents, are presented in three sections categorized according to geographic origin: East Tennessee, Colonial Virginia, and early English records. The author traces her lineage to John Cliborn, Revolutionary War Soldier, born 1760 in Chesterfield County, Virginia and died after 1840 in Sumner County, Tennessee. He married his first cousin, Mary Clyborn, born 1767 in Chesterfield County, Virginia and died ca 1837 in Knox County, Tennessee. She was the daughter of Jonas and Edith Folkes Clyborn. Information received from the author (and verified by this reviewer) informs us that "The last section of this book called 'East Tennessee Kin' gives first generation families of the following who are established patriots of the American Revolution: Patrick Denny, Ely (Ali) Smith, Arthur Jordan, Reuben Moss, Gulielmas Smith, James Henry, John Fouche Garner, David Hall, and all descendants of John Cliborn 1760-1840, through the 1850 census for Campbell and Knox Counties, Tennessee." This volume contains a wealth of well organized, well documented information on both the subject and allied families. JCH

FENTRESS COUNTY, TENNESSEE UNITED STATES CENSUS 1880 by Wanda Sewell Hatfield. 1986. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 80 pp. Surname Index. $17.00 (TN residents add $0.98 tax.) Order from the compiler, Star Route Box 46, Pall Mall, TN 38577.

Offered here is a straight-forward transcription of the census from the microfilm with pertinent information indicated. Included in the abstracted entries are the enumerator, enumeration district, civil district, household number, and original page number. The only significant omission is place of birth of the parents of an individual—omitted to conserve space and reduce clutter in the manuscript according to the compiler. This transcript, apparently read and recorded with dilligence and care, is a valuable aide for researchers of the area. JCH

These abstracts, dating from just after the turn of the century and three hundred in number, are the result of one individual's diligence in record-keeping. Jonas Newton Carver (1864-1949) carefully "...recorded details of each funeral he conducted in a large ledger..." which his descendants preserved and made available for publication. Abstracted from muster and pay rolls in the Texas State Archives, these records, we are advised by the compiler, are an incomplete listing, many having been lost, destroyed, or residing in private collections. Information shown in individual records includes date of enlistment and discharge, age, color of eyes and hair, etc. As indicated the volumes present records alphabetically. Additionally, each contains a surname-only index of commanding officers. These Texas Ranger Companies were made up of men from many states and territories. They included the young men looking for adventure and the more mature seeking an eventual homesite. Whether you have only tradition, or whether you have concrete knowledge of the fact that your "lost one" was a Texas Ranger, do not overlook these expertly compiled listings by Mrs. Ingmire. LTT

TEXAS RANGER SERVICE RECORDS 1830-1846 by Francis T. Ingmire. 1982. 8½ x 11. Soft cover. 171 pp. Indexed. $12.50. Order from the author, 211 Downshire, San Antonio, TX 78216.

These records bear earlier dates than do the muster and pay roll volumes (I-VI, reviewed above) abstracted and compiled by Mrs. Ingmire. Included here are the date of enlistment and discharge, grade, and company commander. Records are presented in alphabetical order, with a surname-only index of officers. LTT

The Tennessee Ancestry Certificate program was begun as a TENNESSEE HOMECOMING '86 project; however, due to wide-spread interest expressed by our readers, the Board of Directors of The Tennessee Genealogical Society voted to continue it indefinitely.

Pictured below is a reduced copy of the certificate. The 8 x 11 inch original is printed on ivory parchment with background illustrations in a gray half-tone. Printing is black, highlighted by a gilt border, and a shiny gold seal decorates the Settler (1796-1850) certificate, with a ribbon added for the Pioneer (Prior to statehood) certificate.

There will be a $6.00 fee to offset the expense and administration of this program. Applications and all materials submitted become the property of The Tennessee Genealogical Society.
