The Tennessee Genealogical Magazine, "Ansearchin'" News, is the official publication of The Tennessee Genealogical Society. All subscriptions begin with the first issue of the year. Non-delivery of a magazine should be reported to the Society within two months of the usual delivery date. There is a $3.00 charge for redeeming and re-mailing any magazine returned for an incorrect address unless we are timely notified of an address change. Subscribers may submit annually without charge one query of fifty words or less; queries received by November 1 will be considered for publication during that calendar year. Contributions of all types of genealogical material will be accepted. We solicit previously unpublished Tennessee connected data, preferably with pre-Civil War dates, all subject to editing for style and to save space. Every effort is made to print accurate material correctly; however, neither The Tennessee Genealogical Society, "Ansearchin'" News nor the Editor can assume responsibility for contributor errors. Corrections of proven errors will be published. Contributions are available in the society library for subscriber use. Books donated to our library by authors or publishers are reviewed in the earliest possible issue of the magazine.

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

The end of another year has come... another time for reviewing what's past and re-structuring and planning what's to come.

Within the family of the Tennessee Genealogical Society we have suffered losses of loyal members, some of whom we have not personally known, but who have nurtured and supported the society and have passed on to its archive their lifetime's research. We are saddened by the loss this past fall of three charter members, Miss Jennie Allensworth, Mr. Laurence B. Gardiner, and Mrs. Lois D. Bejach, and in December we received notice of the death of Mr. Russell E. Mooney, all of whom have left legacies to this society.

Another look toward the past... the long-distant past... is being taken by the Old Darlington District chapter of the South Carolina Genealogical Society. They are asking for help in identifying the unknown Union soldiers who are buried in the Florence, South Carolina National Cemetery, which is located on the site of the former military prison camp known as the Florence Stockade during the Civil War. Persons who have ancestors (or know of other Union soldiers) who died at Florence Stockade are requested to send

Please send this information to:

Cemetery Committee, Old Darlington District Chapter, S.C.G.S.,
P.O. Box 175, Hartsville, SC 29551.

In return, the chapter is willing to check their list of identified Union soldiers for one you may be researching. Please send a long SASE with your request to the above address.

As for re-structuring and planning what's to come...The Tennessee Genealogical Society is offering new services to our subscribers. For details on how to use this service, see pages 161 & 168 of this issue.

You might re-structure your research if you have a Galbraith, Culbreath, Kilbreath line, or any spelling variation thereof, by joining Clan Galbraith Association of North America. This group publishes quarterly, including queries and research articles. For information write to:

Tressie Nealy, Librarian, 509 SE 70th, Oklahoma City, OK 73149-2601

Looking toward the future... The 61st annual reunion of the descendants of William TUBB (1729-1804) of South Carolina will meet on Saturday, September 2, 1995 in Alexandria, TN. Contact: Livy Simpson, P.O. Box 41422, Nashville, TN 37204 or call (615) 297-4151.

We expect the last issue of every year to require more time, effort, and dedication from our volunteer staff because of the additional pages and the index. This year has been unusually difficult with every member of the staff experiencing illness, surgery, death in the family or additional responsibilities. We appreciate your patience and ask for your understanding.

MARY RAMSEY: ONE OF TENNESSEE'S MOST REMARKABLE PRODUCTS

by Dorothy Marr Roberson

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Mary Ramsey is among early Tennesseans whose genealogical history is traced in the Society's new book, Tennessee Settlers and Their Descendants. Information for the following article is taken from documents submitted in the Tennessee Ancestry Certificate Program by her great-great grandson, Charles Edwin Lemons, Jr., 612 N.W. 8th, Pendleton, OR 97801. Materials include an interview published in the Salem, Ore., Capital Journal in November 1905, family letters, and The History of Grant County, Oregon published in 1983 by Grant County's Oliver Museum.)

Tennessee has produced its share of remarkable persons. But surely one of the most remarkable of them all was Mary Ramsey.

Born 20 May 1787 on a farm near what is now Knoxville, she is the only person known to have lived under 25 U.S. presidents -- from George Washington, who took office when Mary was two years old, to Theodore Roosevelt who was nearing the end of his second term when she died at age 120.

She also was one of the few persons who could say they lived in the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries.

Mary's longevity alone is more than enough to qualify her as remarkable. But the story of her life is filled with remarkable accomplishments:

- . At age 66 she rode a bay mare along the Oregon Trail -- a 2000-mile, six-month journey from Independence, Missouri, to the newly formed Oregon Territory.
- . At age 67 she built and managed the first hotel in Hillsboro, Oregon, and later became the town's postmistress.
- . At age 118 she was a key witness in a civil action involving title to some property deeded more than 40 years earlier, testifying -- as one historian put it -- "with remarkable clearness."

Mary was one of six children born to Richard Ramsey and his wife Catherine "Kate" Gann, an English couple who migrated to America shortly after they married. Settling first in the Carolinas, they eventually pushed on into the territory that was to become Tennessee.

When she was 12, Mary joined the Methodist Episcopal Church -- an alliance that was to last for more than a century. Five years later, at age 17, she married Jacob Lemons, a prosperous farmer of Washington County, Tenn.

Their children, all believed to have been born in Tennessee, were:

- Mary Jane Lemons born in 1806; died in 1904 in Missouri
- William Isaac Lemons born in 1809; died c1865-66 in Kansas City, Mo.; married Hester Ann Amanda Noble in 1848 possibly in Holt County, Mo.
- Nancy E. Lemons born in 1816; died in 1868 in Hillsboro, Ore.; married Charles Bullock of Chicago
- Catherine Bridgett Lemons born 14 Oct 1830; married (1) James Southworth, (2) Charles Reynolds; died 15 July 1909 at Lents, Multnomah County, Ore.

Jacob and Mary moved to Alabama in 1837 and to Georgia in 1838. The following year Jacob died. Over the next 12 years, Mary moved from state to state, making her home with first one and then another of her children who by this time had scattered to Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, and Missouri.

In 1849 Mary moved to Missouri where she decided to join daughters Nancy and Catherine and their families in migrating to the Oregon Territory. On 28 March 1853, they left Franklin (Howard County), Mo., for Independence where they set out on the Oregon Trail in a wagon train made up of 50 ox carts. The longest of the overland routes to the West, the Oregon Trail wound some 2,000 miles through prairies and deserts, and across mountains. Catherine and her husband James Southworth, who was one of the wagon captains, rode in an ox cart while Mary made the arduous trip on a bay mare she called "Martha Washington Pioneer." True to her English heritage, she is said to have carried a small china teapot with her to make certain she would have her tea en route.

When they reached the junction of the California Road and turned toward the Snake River and the Barlow Trail, Mary waved her family on and stayed behind to provide her midwife skills to a Mrs. Applegate. The rest of the family continued down Sandy River to make a land claim in Lane County, OR, on 9 September 1853.

By the time Mary rejoined her family, they had settled in Hillsboro near what is now Portland. In 1854, she married John Wood and they built and managed the Washington Hotel, the town's first such establishment. Whenever court was in session, all of the jurors and court officials boarded at the hotel.

Through the years, Mary continued to practice her midwife skills, always riding horseback to wherever she was called. Eventually Mary became postmistress of Hillsboro, a position she held for many years. John died in 1867.

Two years later, the 82-year old Mary came down with the first serious illness of her life -- typhoid fever. As a result, she lost the sight in her left eye and part of her hearing. Even so, Mary continued to be quite active and maintained a lively interest in the world and its happenings over the next three decades. A staunch Democrat, she was especially interested in political events.

At age 118, she was living with her daughter Catherine, whom she called "the child of my old age" (born when Mary was 43). Mary, at that time, was walking daily about the garden or sitting on the porch to chat with neighbors.

"I believe company helps a body," she said.

In an interview with Reporter George Putnam of the Salem (Ore.) Capital Journal in 1905, she reflected on her status as a 118-year old woman.

"It bewilders me to think of the many things that have happened in my life," she said. "I can remember when there were no steamboats or steam cars and it was only yesterday that the telephone and electric light were invented."

Mary recalled that she was called "an old woman" when she first came to Oregon. Eight years later she was advised to "take things easy" and so she sold her hotel to her daughter.

"That was 40 years ago ... and now, the friends of my youth have been dead for half a century ... some of them for a full century. Even the friends of my old age are gone and I have only my daughter left. I am hard of hearing and blind in one eye," she said. "And yet I enjoy life, take an interest in the world, and try to be of as little bother as possible."

To the end, Mary retained both her Southern accent and her loyalty to Tennessee. Of the 26 presidents who held office during her lifetime, her favorite was Andrew Jackson. She could remember waving to him as he drove from his home to Washington for his inauguration.

"Old Hickory was the president for you," she would say. "He knew how to make laws and how to enforce them. He was a fighter."

How does one explain Mary's longevity?

For one thing, she came from hardy stock. Her mother, Kate Gann, lived to be 110, dying from an illness of a few hours. According to family tradition, the day before her death she walked five miles, knitting all the way, as was her custom. Mary doubtless inherited her "longevity genes" and passed them along to two of her daughters who lived into their 90's.

Vegetarians might say she owed her long life to her diet, pointing to the fact that Mary enjoyed eating cucumbers and lettuce for breakfast (as well as at other meals). But in her newspaper interview, Mary put that theory to rest. "I have always eaten meat, principally pork. I have drank strong coffee all through life -- and plenty of it."

Six months before she died, Mary was paid a signal honor by the Oregon Pioneer Association which bestowed upon her the title of "Mother Queen" of Oregon. She was the first pioneer mother in the state to receive the award.

On New Year's Eve in 1907, Mary asked Catherine to call her when the bells signaling the New Year began to ring. Her daughter did so, and five hours later -- on Jan. 1, 1908 -- Mary Ramsey Lemons Wood passed away quietly in her sleep at 120 years, seven months and 11 days.

Toward the end of her life, she gave her relatives explicit instructions about her funeral. "Whatever you do," she said, "don't convey my remains in no hearse. Load my coffin in a hack. I've lived as a Democrat and I'll go out in a democratic wagon."

Mary's funeral was just as she requested, even down to the quilt she picked out to cover her coffin in the hack en route to the Pioneer Cemetery in Hillsboro, where she rests today along with daughters Nancy and Catherine.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Prepared for publication by Mary Florence Peek Ray

GRIFFIN STALLINGS, CLAIBORNE CO, TN -Submitted by Paul R. Welch, 7840 N.E.
Hackamore Court, Bremerton, WA 98310-3811

Griffin STALLINGS was a pioneer settler in Claiborne County, TN in 1805. Mr. WELCH gives the following history of the family before their arrival in Tennessee.

Isaac and Isabella Stallings, parents of Griffin, lived in Montgomery Co, MD. Isaac was 66 and Isabella was 53 in the 1776 Maryland State Census. They had ten children, and by 1770 he had deeded most of his property over to them. His estate was probated in 1777. Isabella survived him and was still living in 1787, the year she sold property in Montgomery Co, MD.

Mr. Welch gives the Stallings family tree as follows:

Richard Stallings arrived in Calvert Co, MD in 1657, and died in 1707

Jacob Stallings, son of Richard, died c1752 in Calvert Co, MD

Isaac Stallings, son of Jacob, moved west to land which became Montgomery Co, MD

Ann Stallings, sister of Isaac, married a Mr. GRIFFON, and was so named in Jacob's 1852 will

Griffin Stallings, b c1749, was the son of Issac and Isabella. The 1776 Census gives his age as 27, wife Elizabeth as 17, and daughter Susanah 2 months

Jacob Stallings, a brother of Griffin was a Revolutionary War veteran from Virginia. His descendants spelled their name "STOLLINGS" in Logan Co. West Virginia, where Jacob died in 1819

In 1774 Griffin Stallings rented land from Lord Thomas FAIRFAX and settled in what is now Warren Co, VA by 1780. In 1785 the Virginia State Census listed five persons in his family from (then) Shenandoah Co, VA. They probably were:

- (1) Griffin Stallings, b c 1749 in Maryland
- (2) Elizabeth, wife, b c1759 in Maryland
- (3) Susanah, daughter, b 1776 in Maryland
- (4) William, son, b in the 1780's in Warren Co, VA
- (5) Sarah, daughter, b c 1781 in Warren Co, VA

After 1798, Griffin Stallings ceased to pay poll tax and may have left Shenandoah Co. In 1805, he bought fifty acres of land in Claiborne Co, TN from James GLASGOW. Griffin died after 1817 or 1818, the last time his name appears in that County.

Thomas Stallings, son of Griffin & Elizabeth Stallings is mentioned in the 1774 rental agreement with Lord Fairfax. It is believed that he was the eldest son of Griffin. Thomas' name appears in 1802 Claiborne Co, TN court records, and he was probably the same Thomas Stallings who settled in Maury Co, TN by 1807.

- (3) Susanah Stallings married William TURNER in 1797 in Shenandoah Co, VA.

They moved to Claiborne Co, TN, and she died there in the 1850s. William Turner was 90 in the 1860 census and living with their son, William L. Turner, a Methodist minister.

- (4) William Stallings had bought land in Claiborne Co, from James Glasgow in 1813. After the 1830 Census was taken, he moved to Sangamon Co, IL. The 1830 census lists an elderly woman in his family group, who was probably his mother, Elizabeth.

- (5) Sarah STALLINGS was given permission to marry John VAUGHT in December 1798 in Shenandoah Co, VA, when she was 17. Elizabeth signed her name, and Griffin made his "X" on the wedding document. [Ancestor of Paul R. WELCH] John and Sarah settled in Williamson Co, TN by 1803 on Mill Creek four miles east of Nolensville, TN. John Vaught was drafted into Andrew Jackson's Army in 1814 and fought at New Orleans in 1815. He was taken up the Mississippi River after the battle on a steamboat with the sick and wounded, and he died on March 24, 1815 at Washington, Mississippi Territory on the famous Natchez Trace Road. Sarah Vaught was left to raise nine children by herself. She later received a pension and was still widowed in 1861 when the Civil War broke out and all government pensions were cut off to "Southerners." Sarah died before 1870.

Griffin "STELLINGS" on the 1833 Claiborne County poll tax was probably a grandson of Griffin Stallings (b 1749). He married Malinda JENKINS of Claiborne Co, TN. By 1840 they had settled in Jefferson Co, TN and then moved to Knox Co, TN as recorded in the 1850 census. A Lucretia Jinkins, aged 69 was listed in the household, probably Malinda's mother. The 1860 census of Georgia lists this family at Tunnel Hill, where Griffin and his sons were carpenters. This Griffin "Stellings" is probably the eldest son of William Stallings (c1780s) and was born 1807 in Claiborne Co, TN.

Other children of William Stallings, Sr., son of Griffin (b 1749), were:

- (1) Wesley Stallings, b 11 May 1812, Claiborne Co, TN, married in 1830 Elizabeth MAYS, daughter of Thomas Mays. Wesley moved to Illinois and then in 1844 to Jasper Co, IA. In 1878 his biography was published in the history of Jasper County.
- (2) William Stallings, Jr. b in 1814, married Susannah and was living in Logan Co, IL in 1850.
- (3) John Stallings, b Christmas day 1816, died unmarried 12 Aug 1852 in Logan Co, IL.
- (4) Silas Stallings, b in 1824, married Margaret, lived in Logan Co, IL in 1850.

William Stallings, Sr., is believed to have died in Illinois before 1840.

WILLIAMS BIBLE RECORD - Submitted by Claude M. Williams, MD, 746 Brown Road, Cookeville, TN 38501

In 1780 Colonel James WILLIAMS served with the American forces which defeated the Tory forces at King's Mountain. In that engagement Colonel Williams was killed. He lived in the vicinity of Laurens District, South Carolina. Colonel Williams was by trade a merchant. While the Tory force under Major Patrick FERGUSON [killed at King's Mountain] advanced into the American back-country, it passed through the Laurens District and called at the Williams home. The Colonel's wife was permitted to leave with only an old family Bible. Everything else was burned. [Abstracted from a letter of John D. Williams, 17 Jun 1845, Milton, SC to Doct. CIVIL WAR BIOGRAPHIES
Compiled by Mary Louise Nazor

The original 1899 publication of Confederate Military History was a twelve volume set edited by Gen. Clement A. Evans of Georgia. About a third of each volume contains the Civil War history of that Southern State, and the last two-thirds gives biographical sketches and War experiences of general officers, privates & patriotic citizens. This history was a subscription set, and a prospectus of about twenty pages was circulated in early 1896. A person signed a contract for the $48 cloth or $60 half-leather set of books. At that time, the subscribers were asked to send biographical information to be included. At a later date, the Confederate Veterans Magazine sold the sets for half price so that the average man could afford it.

In the original set, Volume VII contained the Tennessee data. Since a full set of the 1899 version is rare, there was a 1987 Reprint Extended Edition of seventeen volumes (each state a separate volume) plus a two volume index.

Only genealogical information was abstracted from the biographies, each of which is usually one printed page, however some are more. Each man gave his Civil War record in his own words, but when a veteran was deceased, a relative or friend wrote the biography. These personal accounts are very detailed, containing many poignant stories. All locales given are in Tennessee unless otherwise noted.

To order a zerox copy of the full-page biography of a veteran listed in this Tennessee book, send the name and $5.00 to the Tennessee Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 111249, Memphis, TN 38111-1249.

WHERE IS NANCY WARD?

Contributed by Celia E. Graham
Rt. 1, Box 269, Meeker, Oklahoma 74855

For years we had wanted to see the Nancy Ward statue - the gray granite (Bear Creek stone) likeness of the Ghigau that seemed destined to honor her in a place that had NEVER been home to the Beloved Woman of the Cherokees.

The statue of Nancy Ward was carved by James Abraham Walker about 1910. His daughter, Annie Walker Burns, stated in 1950 that she was about 16 when her father created the image of the Beloved Woman in stone. He used written accounts and legendary descriptions to interpret her looks as accurately as possible. He put a lamb in her arms and added the inscription "NANCY WARD - WATAUGA 1776".

Annie remembered that in 1912 her father was readying to move his family to Harlan, Kentucky. "He hated to sell the statue so much for he really wanted it placed at the grave of Nancy Ward, but our finances were such that a small amount of money ($15.00) looked good to him on the eve of our move. So he sold it to his brother Elbert (Ebb) Walker for a monument for his daughter Maggie Farmer, promising that he would return and change the inscription to read 'MAGGIE FARMER, Born 1877, Died 1906' instead. But this he never did, so the 'NANCY WARD' inscription remained on the statue."

Published photographs, intriguing, and perhaps mythical, tales of an overturned raft and the statue's watery recovery added impetus to our desire to see the carving for ourselves.

In May of 1994, we had conquered the major obstacle to our quest. The 900 miles from Oklahoma City had been traversed. The explicit directions we obtained from the McClung Historical Collection at Knoxville's East Tennessee Historical Center made the additional 45 miles jaunt to the monument site a "piece of cake". Among the six of us who set out to find the 5 foot statue (with pedestal) were two descendants of Nancy Ward through her daughter Catherine's marriage to Ellis Harlan. For Jim and his mother Thelma, the sight of the 80 year old Nancy Ward stone carving would be especially meaningful.

To get to Maggie Farmer's grave in Grainger County's Arnwine Cemetery, we drove north out of Knoxville.

After several miles, our path left the paved highway. Bullen Valley Road took us alongside the lively, sunlit Clinch River for a time, passed the Salem Primitive Baptist Church; then twisted, turned and bounced up the shady Log Mountain Road toward our destination.

Not far down what we thought was the final "dogleg" of our journey loomed a huge tree limb that lay across Arnwine Road and directly in our path. There was no way to drive around it, it was too heavy to move and we had no saw to clear the way. Our situation appeared hopeless at first, but Jim hiked on ahead to scout out a possible foot path. He was back in minutes. He had spotted some headstones on a rise around the next bend.

Again our group's excitement and anticipation escalated as we hurried up the incline to find Maggie Farmer's grave. Her marker was found but there was NO statue - only the pedestal and the reinforcing rod that once supported the 400 pound monument! We stared at the pedestal with unbelieving eyes, unable to comprehend the unexpected.

We half-heartedly examined a few headstones, but clouds of disappointment hung over us and lingered as we retraced our steps to the car, each of us trying to mentally unravel the mystery of the missing statue.

Eager for our questions to be answered, we stopped at a house on Log Mountain about one mile from the cemetery. The man and his wife told us that when TVA brought electricity into that area about 10 years ago, a road was built into the last 6/10 mile stretch to the cemetery that had previously been open only to foot travel. Sometime during the past ten years the monument had evidently been stolen.

We hoped that perhaps, rather than being stolen, the statue had been legitimately moved. From our research, we knew that the artist's daughter, Annie Walker Burns, at one time asked for the statue because she treasured it as her father's work of art. Also the Chattanooga Area Historical Society, as well as the Chattanooga chapter of the DAR, were interested in obtaining the statue so that it could be placed at Nancy Ward's burial place south of Benton, Tennessee. However, on each occasion, Maggie Farmer's daughter Bertha so strongly objected to its removal from her mother's grave that it remained at Arnwine Cemetery and had been there for over 80 years.

A visit to Nancy Ward's immaculately kept grave site near Benton in September 1994 confirmed that the statue is NOT at that location. The Polk County historian, Marion Presswood, knows of no acknowledged change of location for the statue. Apparently the beautifully sculpted image of Tennessee's Beloved Woman has fallen into the hands of unscrupulous individuals whose personal motives, whatever they are, overshadow the historical significance of the statue for citizens of Tennessee, as well as all Americans.

Hopefully, another explanation exists, and the Indian Maiden of the Watauga is safe and, as the unique historical artifact that it is, is being preserved for posterity.

JUNE 22, 1871 Vol. XVIII #19

Died in this Co. near Eldad on Elk River on 16th inst., of old age, Mrs. Judith Ellis, aged abt 76 yrs.

OBIT-Jefferson Kelso was born in Clarke Co, KY on Jan 8, 1806 & died at his residence on Stewart's Creek in Civil Dist. #21 Lincoln Co, Tenn on June 17, 1871. In fall of 1807 his father, Henry Kelso, removed to & settled in the wilds of Elk River, then Bedford Co, some 3 miles south of the place where the town of Fayetteville was later located. Henry Kelso was one of many gentlemen commissioned as J.P. for Lincoln Co. in 1810. On Feb 26, 1810 he with others met at the house of Brice M. Garner, 2 miles west of Fayetteville & was duly qualified as J.P. of the new Co. & then organized the County Court & elected the various County officers. He continued to hold the office of J.P. to the day of his death. Jeff Kelso came to this County with his father when not 2 yrs old, was raised & educated here. He married & raised a large family of sons & daus. He never lived at a greater distance than 5 miles from the place that his father settled on Elk River in 1807. He was probably the earliest settler & longest living resident citizen in the Co. on the morning before he died. For many yrs he was a J.P. for the Co. He was for more than 30 yrs a member of the Methodist Church. A large circle of sorrowing friends sympathize with the bereaved wife & children.

letter of 30 Dec 1802 "I did not receive until the 1st of March. I immediately agreed with William WHITE, Esquire, Secretary of State to furnish me with the copies required. Mr. White was soon after attacked with a long and dangerous illness, which prevented his completing the Map etc. until the 10th Instant. The copies are now ready and will be forwarded by the first safe conveyance; As the map is laid down on a large scale, I think it more than probable it would sustain an injury if sent by the Mail unless you think proper to direct it by that conveyance...."

Archibald ROANE stated to the Legislature on 12 Oct 1803 that the map was not received and the fee of $20.00 not yet paid, and if the state didn't want to pay that much, he would pay the fee and keep the map for his own use. (4 pages)

30-1-1803 Petition of James HAMILTON for a law that will allow him to build a mill and dam on Stone's River. An existing law requires the river to be kept navigable as high as the forks, but a mill will be more beneficial to the public.

31-1-1803 Petition of Joseph LOVE, Deputy Sheriff of Knox County for reimbursement of money he paid for prison guards from 27 July to 21 Oct 1803. "Your petitioner, at the time that Joseph RAVENHILL was killed by Stephen DUNCAN and others, had the care of the jail for Hamilton District, & the insufficiency thereof put him under the necessity of calling on the militia or hiring a guard...."

32-1-1803 Petition of persons living "on and near Big Harpeth River" for a new county...beginning at the mouth of Little Harpeth where the Williamson County line crosses, thence with said line a southwest course to the Indian Boundary line..."thence down said line, thence northeast to Cumberland River, thence up the river to the ridge that divides Indian Creek and OVERALL's Creek, thence up said ridge 'contining' its course by Flatt Creek and Richland Creek, thence southwest to the beginning."

The petition [Mero District] was dated 18 Dec 1802 and "reported Unreasonable" 29 Sep 1803. Signers were: (4 pages)

34-1-1803 "Your petitioners humbly shewith that the laws now in force against gambling so far as they affect horseracing are in our opinions opposed to the interest of the people of this State, as they discourage the racing of good horses, the article most advantageous for us to carry to market, and we do believe the attention of the people throughout this State to the nurture of well-blooded horses to have degenerated ever since laws have been passed against horseracing, your petitioners further state that since the abolition of legal horseracing numbers of

ROANE COUNTY, TENNESSEE COURT MINUTES,
VOLUME A, Jun 1803 - Sep 1807
Abstracted from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm

p. 232 - State vs Thomas BROWN, James Brown & William Brown: (see file for Indictment). The charge was brought up at March court & the sheriff returned the capias marked "not found". At April court the alias capias was marked "executed". At June court, the state further prosecuting, the defendants were dismissed.

p. 233 - Present: Isham COX?, Geo. McPHERSON, Ab'm McCLELLAN, & Asa COBB, Esquires.

State vs William WHITE: (see file for Indictment). This charge was first brought up at court in June 1803 & the capias returned "not found". At July court an alias capias was issued and returned marked "executed 17 Aug 1803". At September 1803 court, William White said he was not guilty of the charge, and a jury consisting of the following persons declared they could not agree.

Daniel Mason	Little Page Sims	James Miller	Jesse Stubs
Right Roberts	Joseph Hankins	John Hankins	James Morris
Thomas Jenkins	William McKinney	William Walker	Joseph Bradley

The cause continued, and in June 1804 another jury of the following persons also declared they could not agree. The indictment was dismissed.

William Gardenhire	Ephraim Walker	Amos Marnay	Isaac Shinalt
Edmond Waller	John Platt	Alexander Brown	William McNutt
Francis Fulcher	James Willitt	Richard Oliver	Jas Montgomery

p. 235 - State vs William WHITE: Samuel Miller, who was summoned to appear on behalf of the state, failed to appear and was fined $125.00 unless he could show "sufficient cause of his disability to appear" at next court.

p. 236 - State vs Zachariah Cash: On motion by his attorney, a rule was entered "to Quash the Execution...which rule...is discharged".

Thursday, June 21st 1804 Justices present: Asa COBB, William BARNET & Joseph BYRD.

Jacob WEARING & Alec Wearing, Adm'rs vs George B DAVIS - "John STONE being sworn as Garnishee saith that he does not owe George B Davis anything. ## BOOK REVIEWS

Prepared by Marion Graves

HISTORIC SUMNER COUNTY TENNESSEE by Jay Guy Cisco. 1909 reprint. Soft cover, 5x8, 340 pp. Full name index. Order from Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointers Ridge Pl., Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. $25.00.

The development of Sumner County is briefly traced from 1779 to the close of the Civil War. Social, civic, and military history is covered; later events are included in the genealogies of the families of Sumner County, which make up a greater part of the book, and which will probably be of greater interest to the modern researcher. The Cage, Douglass, and Bledsoe families are followed in detail. Other families included are: Anderson, Barry, Bate, Bell, Bowen, Bowie, Campbell, Carmack, Carr, Donelson, Gaines, Guild, Gwin, Hall, Hallum, Hatton, Head, Judd Lauderdale, Lindsey, Malone, Morgan, Peyton, Rutherford, Shelby, Smith, Spencer, Winchester, and Wynne.

THE MELUNGEONS, The Resurrection of a Proud People, An untold Story of Ethnic Cleansing in America by N. Brent Kennedy with Robyn Vaughan Kennedy. 1994. Soft cover, 6x9, 156 pp. Full name index. Order from Mercer University Press, 1400 Coleman Ave., Macon, Georgia, 31207. $16.99 plus $3.75 P&H.

This is the first volume in a planned series on the Melungeons and related peoples of Appalachia. In the mid-17th century, explorers reported meeting dark-skinned, brown-and blue-eyed, European featured people who claimed to be "Portyhgee" in the southern Appalachian area. Written by an author of Melungeon descent, this is a scholarly, but warm, account of his family and a presentation of several theories concerning the origins of people who have been ignored by written history. Illustrated with family pictures, the lines of a number of families are traced to the author. An appendix includes lists of common Melungeon and related surnames. A Melungeon Research Committee has been formed and readers are invited to participate in on-going research.

PASSPORTS OF SOUTHEASTERN PIONEERS 1770-1823 Indian, Spanish and other Land Passports for Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Mississippi, Virginia, North and South Carolina by Dorothy Williams Potter. 1982 reprinted in 1990. Hardback, 6x9, 449 pp. Full name index. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. $32.50.

Most of the passports collected in this volume authorized passage through Indian or foreign-held territory in the area east of the Mississippi River in the period 1770 to 1823. At this time the Secretary of War was responsible for issuing passports. To maintain peace it was necessary to exclude trouble makers, so applicants were expected to furnish references from local officials or others who could vouch for them. Therefore, many of the documents contain names and locations useful in tracing the movement of individuals and families as they moved west. Brief explanations accompany the divisions within the book, such as Spanish passports, War Department passports, and various State & Indian agency passports.

RUTHERFORD COUNTY TENNESSEE COUNTY COURT MINUTES 1811-1815 by Carol Wells. 1994. Soft cover, 5x8, 187 pp. Full name index. Order from Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Pl., Suite 300, Bowie MD 20716. $18.00.

Into this small handy book, the author has abstracted items of genealogical interest from 1293 pages of county court records. Among these items are the appointment of guardians, care of the indigent and insane, paternity suits, apprenticeships, names of neighbors assigned to work on the roads, licensing of ordinaries and mill seats, lists of jurors. Deeds and wills were proved, administrators appointed, and securities given for bonds. Some residents were identified as in jail, confined in the stocks, or whipped. Also, property sold for delinquent taxes or debt was listed. These entries give a picture of life in the Rutherford County in the early nineteenth century.

PERSONAL NAME INDEX TO THE AUGUSTA CHRONICLE (Augusta, Georgia) Volume IV 1821-1830 compiled by Alice O. Walker. 1993. Hardback, 6x9, 880 pp. Order from Augusta-Richmond Co. Public Library, 902 Greene Street Augusta, GA 30901-2294. $27.50.

Published by the above-named Library with a grant from the R. J. Taylor, Jr. Foundation, this index includes over 49,000 entries taken from microfilm of the original newspaper. The alphabetical list of surnames contains the full name, name of spouse if given, type of event, date of event and a complete reference to the newspaper. Events covered range from death and marriage notices to probate announcements, grand jury presentments, business advertisements, legislative action and news stories. Augusta and Richmond County, Georgia are covered extensively, with additional entries from surrounding counties from Chatham to Elbert, from Gwinnett & Hall to Jones, Liberty & McIntosh, even as far away as Muscogee. Items from adjoining districts in South Carolina also appear. The Augusta Library and several other libraries own microfilm copies of these early papers and will make them available on interlibrary loan.

FROM MEMORIES TO MANUSCRIPT: The Five-Step Method of Writing Your Life Story by Joan R. Neubauer. 1994. Soft cover, 7x9, 30 pp. Order from Ancestry Incorporated, P.O. Box 538, Salt Lake City, UT 84110. $9.95.

This handbook is intended to help the individual write a quality autobiography that others will want to read. The five sections of the book trace the steps that professionals use when writing. The author leads the new biographer through research and organization to writing and editing. The final step is printing and publishing. The book is completed with an annotated bibliography.

ONLY THE NAMES REMAIN, Vol. 3, Saline District & Cherokee Orphanage by Sandi Garrett. 1994. Soft cover, 8x11, 119 pp. Full name index. Order from Cherokee Woman Publishing, P. O. Box 48, Spavinaw, OK 74366. $15.00.

This is the third volume in Mrs. Garrett's series. In 1851, the time of the Drennen Roll, most Cherokees did not have a white name. The assumption of surnames came during the Civil War, or when a census taker gave them one. This volume, like the two previous ones, is an attempt to link the names on the Drennen Roll and the later Guion Miller Applications. Relationships are identified if possible. Three more volumes are planned: the Goingsnake District, the Delaware District, and Tahlequah and Skin Bayou Districts.

A VIETS GENEALOGY: Doctor John Viets and His Descendants by Dorothy Dean Viets Schell. 1990. Hardback 8x11, 460 pp. Indexed. $35.00 ppd.

VIETS FEMALE LINES: Descendants of Dr. John Viets by Dorothy Dean Viets Schell. 1993. Hardback, 8x11, 247 pp. Indexed. $30.00 ppd.
Order both books from the author, 731 South Baine, Moscow, ID 83843

A VIETS GENEALOGY was published in 1990 and contains 460 pages of easy-to-read print. Three descendants from three generations are responsible for its compilation. First published by Francis Hubbard Viet in 1902, this continuation was carried on by Harriet Isabella Viets until 1950. It was then brought forward by Dorothy Dean Viets Schell. The Viets family is followed from Johannes Veet (Dr. John Viets) through eleven generations. Information on occupations, education, and names of spouses is provided for many of the individuals. The appendix includes information on possible descendants, a poem, and two Viets family recipes. An extensive bibliography completes the volume which won the 1991 Literary Award Contest of the Connecticut Society of Genealogists for the year's best book on New England family history.

VIETS FEMALE LINES, a 247 page volume, published in 1993, complements the Viets Genealogy. Female lines are identified and continued in sometimes ten generations. Additional information is given for some lines. Much of this information was collected by Harriet Isabella Viets. The volume is completed with a bibliography.

KINSHIP: It's All Relative by Jackie Smith Arnold. 1994. Second edition. Soft cover, 5x8, 109 pp. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD. 21202-3897. $9.95. P&H $1.50. Maryland residents add 5% sales tax; Michigan 6% sales tax.

The author concisely covers a wide range of situations relating to the family. Chapters include kinship, marriage, family, wills, kinship and your health, and tracing your family tree. Ms Arnold explains various forms of marriage such as: proxy marriage, common-law, benna marriage, and morganatic marriage. She also explains the "greats" and the "grands" and the "removes." If you are interested in how to tell your second cousins from your first cousins once removed, this book will show you in easy-to-understand terms and charts.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR BRITISH & IRISH ROOTS, A Complete Guide to Tracing Your English, Welsh, Scottish, & Irish Ancestors by Angus Baxter. 1991. Third edition. Soft cover, 6x9, 310 pp. Subject index. $16.95.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR CANADIAN ROOTS, Tracing Your Family Tree in Canada by Angus Baxter. 1994. Second edition. Soft cover, 6x9, 350 pp. Indexed. $16.95.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR EUROPEAN ROOTS, A Complete Guide to Tracing Your Ancestors in Every Country in Europe by Angus Baxter. 1994. Second edition. Soft cover, 6x9 292 pp. Indexed. $16.95.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR GERMAN ROOTS, A Complete Guide to Tracing Your Ancestors in the Germanic Areas of Europe by Angus Baxter. 1994. Third edition. Soft cover, 6x9, 114 pp. Indexed. $11.95.

Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD. 21202-3897. P&H $3.00 first book, each additional book $1.00. Maryland residents add 5% sales tax; Michigan residents add 6% sales tax.

British & Irish Roots reflects fewer changes because neither country experienced changes which affected basic genealogical methods. This volume offers detailed instructions for research by mail or on vacation. Sources close to home are explained. Correspondence with family history societies, record offices, and other organizations is covered.

Canadian Roots describes the National Archives in Ottawa, the holdings of the LDS Church which relate to Canada, and the vital records in each of the provinces and territories. It also lists libraries, societies, and archives.

European Roots includes new chapters on Germany and Eastern Europe. It discusses research material available in each country of Europe for search either by mail or in person. The various types of records in each country are explained. Information on church, state, and provincial archives is provided.

German Roots is designed to help with research in all German-speaking areas of Europe. It explores the resources of the LDS Church. In Europe it covers sources and archives, especially church records and state and city archives. Also included are genealogical associations in Germany and the United States.

Mr. Baxter is an experienced, "nearly life-long" genealogist, a native of Bristol, England who now lives in Canada. All four of his manuals have been updated to reflect changes and developments in genealogy. Some of these changes are: development of new research tools, availability of records and updated addresses.

RICHARD CHAMBERLAINE OF BRAINTREE 1642, His Norman and English Ancestors and Descendants, 865-1991, A Speculative Genealogy, Highly Biographical Based on Historical Facts and Premises by Welton Curtiss Chamberlain. Hardback, 6x9, 200 pp. Full name index. Order from Welton Chamberlain, Box 246, Pinckney, Michigan 48169-0246. $12.00.

In the Author's own words, "The primary task of this research is to establish the identity of Richard Chamberlaine of Braintree, Massachusetts. There is not the necessity of establishing a line back to the emigrant, as that extensive work has already been accomplished..." Therefore the Rev. Chamberlaine's goal is to determine what is fact and what is fiction surrounding this emigrant of 1642 and his European background, including the era of the Vikings and the Battle of Hastings. The family is followed from France to England, then to America. Brief comments on conditions of the period are included to explain the problems with which individuals had to contend. An appendix includes allied lines leading back to Chamberlaine of Braintree: Gates, Head, Johnson, Kremmer, Meriam, Osborn, Parker, Taylor, Weiser, and Weyandt. An extensive bibliography completes the volume.

TENNESSEE COUSINS, A History of Tennessee People by Worth Stickley Ray. 1994. Reprinted. Hardback, 5x8, 819 pp. Surname index. Order from Genealogical Publishing Company, 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $40.00.

This well-known book includes material from all Tennessee counties, as well as information relating to other southern states: the Carolinas, Georgia, Maryland, Virginia. The index lists over 6,000 names. Genealogical information such as abstracts of wills and deeds, tombstone inscriptions, marriage records, and sketches of early settlers. Important records include court records of Washington, marriages of Greene, Washington, Jefferson, and Knox counties. Roane County Revolutionary Soldiers are also given. Genealogists are fortunate to have this valuable tool again in print.

U.S. MILITARY RECORDS: A Guide to Federal and State Sources, Colonial America to the Present by James C. Neagles. Hard back, 8x11, 455 pp. Full name index. Order from Ancestry Incorporated, P.O. Box 476, Salt Lake City, UT 84110. $39.95 plus $4.00 P&H.

While most researchers are aware of military records, few of us are expert at knowing what is available and how to obtain it. Mr. Neagles has covered every facet of his subject from "Where to Begin" to resumes of American conflicts through 1975. Military records complete with illustrations of documents, are explained, including records created during service and after service, such as veterans censuses. Resources of the National Archives and its branches are listed, as well as history and research centers inside and out of Washington, D.C. State resources are listed state by state. Published volumes which relate to more than one state are listed separately. Neagles says, "To the lament of many a librarian and archivist, ...an astounding number of persons...arrive at research institutions completely unprepared to use them". This volume is a starting place, and should appeal to military history buffs, as well as to genealogists.

FAYETTE COUNTY, ALABAMA MARRIAGE AND PROBATE RECORDS compiled by Betty C. Wiltshire. 1994. Soft cover, 5x8, 363 pp. Full name index. Order from Pioneer Publishing Co., P. O. Box 408-D, Carrollton, MS. 38917. $27.00 ppd.

In 1824 Fayette County was formed from parts of Marion and Tuscaloosa Counties. Due to loses in courthouse fires most early records are not available. Marriage Book I begins in April 1866 but includes earlier marriages which were re-recorded. The two marriage books abstracted in this volume cover the early period through October 1892. The information includes, when available, names of brides and grooms, date of marriage, by whom consent was given, and place of marriage. The probate records cover the years 1851-1871, with some years missing. They include widow dowers, guardianships, insanity cases, and apprenticeships. Estate records frequently name heirs with ages and places of residence. A few estates were out-of state residents who had heirs in Fayette County.

PASSENGER ARRIVALS at the Port of Charleston, 1820-1829 compiled by Brent H. Holcomb. 1994. Hardback, 6x9 178 pp. Full name index. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $25.00 plus P&H. First book $3.00, each additional book $1.00. MD residents add 5% sales tax; Michigan 6% sales tax.

This compilation of passengers arriving at Charleston covers the only period for which such records exist. Two sources were used: (1) copies of original passenger lists by the local customs collector, (2) State Department Transcripts of the customs collector's quarterly returns. Both sets of records are in the National Archives. This transcript is taken from microfilm copies of these sources. The book includes several thousand names of individuals, mostly from Great Britain; however, passengers came from many parts of Europe. The data includes name of ship, name of passenger, age, sex, date of arrival, occupation, where the passenger is from, native country, and country which he intends to inhabit.
