OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Friends:

The time has come for me to announce my retirement as Editor of "Ansearchin'" News. For the past twenty-five years I have been a member of The Tennessee Genealogical Society and have served the organization in some capacity for all but two of these years. I have held the offices of Secretary, Assistant Librarian, and President, but most of my time has been spent on the Editorial Staff. One rarely succeeds in a voluntary position without help from staunch friends and loyal supporters, and I have been blessed with both.

Over the years four of us have developed an editorial task force which works well together, not always in total agreement, but never in anger. When four viewpoints are considered, the result is usually the best solution for all concerned. The first to join me on this team was Elizabeth Riggins Nichols, then Mary Louise Graham Nator and Gerry Byers Spence. We have traded assignments among us, travelled together to promote good will and sell our magazine, and ferreted out ancient maps and documents from archives and libraries - all in the interest of the TGS.

The larger Editorial Staff has given untold hours of work in sorting through original material, typing into typewriters and computers, proofing, indexing, correcting, re-proofing, re-typing, reading microfilm - all the detail work that goes into a reliable, scholarly product. Their names are listed from the beginning to the present issue inside our front cover, and each of them has my heartfelt thanks for his or her part in our work.

And as for loyal supporters, I have all you loyal subscribers to thank for articles you have contributed, queries you have submitted, back issues and books you have bought, letters of encouragement you have written - and just plain renewing your subscriptions. Together we have all produced a magazine to be proud of.

But the time has come, and I must write

SECRETARY OF STATE'S LAND GRANT FILES - SALT LICKS
Contributed by Bruce Pruitt, Box 815, Whitakers, NC 27891

Natural salt licks were an important asset to pioneers and Indians alike. They attracted the wild game which provided food, clothing and shelter for hunters and their families. Before Tennessee became a state, North Carolina had control over all the western lands not claimed by the Indians. Land records in both states provide the following information on Drake's Lick.

In 1782, North Carolina's Assembly passed an act to grant land in Tennessee to former members of the Continental Line. Part of that act reserved all salt licks and 640 acres of adjoining land for the common use of Tennessee residents. In 1787 that law was revised by an act which allowed commissioners to lease salt licks in Davidson County [see chapter 26 in 1787 laws; NC State Records vol.24 p.915]. Salt licks mentioned in this law were: French, Neeley's, Gasper's, & Ramsey's. The commissioners were: John Kirkpatrick, Lardner Clark, Jonathan Drake, William Simpson, John Boyd, Ephraim McLaine, & Robert Edmonson. In 1789, the law was revised again by an act which allowed another commission to sell the licks along with 640 acres of adjoining land [see chapter 29 in 1789 laws; NC State Records vol.25 p.31]. The salt licks in the 1789 law were in Davidson, Sumner, & Tennessee Counties [Mero District]; those named were Heaton's, Denton's, French, Neely's, Kasper's, Maddison's, Drake's, Stoner's, and Bledsoe's. The commissioners were Robert Ewing, Joel Rice, David Wilson, Edward Douglass, & Robert Nelson.

In the Secretary of State's land grant files, Montgomery Co, TN file #038, we find an undated letter from David Wilson, Edwd Douglass, & Robt Ewing (Commissioners for selling salt licks and springs) to James Glasgow. The commissioners certify Thomas Overton bought Drake's Lick with 640 acres of adjoining land for £51 "current money"; Overton gave a bond for the purchase money. Overton authorized the commissioners to ask that the grant for this land issue to Stockley Donelson, who bought the land from Overton.

In the Secretary of State's land grant files, Sumner Co, TN file #1, we find the survey for the land including Drake's Lick. Surveyed Aug. 4, 1790 for Stockley Donelson, assignee of Thomas Overton, 640 A including Drake's Lick in Sumner County, beginning at 2 beech trees on S bank of Cumberland R about 44 poles above the mouth of Drake's Lick Br, runs E 452 poles to a black oak, S 342 poles to a stake, W 183 poles to a stake, N 208 poles to 2 dogwoods on a ridge, W 318 poles to a cedar and white ash on the bank of the river, & up the same to the beginning. Surveyed by John Donelson, DS; Danl Smith, surveyor. The grant (#5) is recorded in Book 62 p.310 and issued Jun. 12, 1794. The original land grant files are now in the North Carolina Archives; microfilm copies are also available there and at the Tennessee Archives in Nashville.

The help of Russell Koonts is much appreciated by this author. He helped locate the survey mentioned above, proving that if you look in the right places and ask the right people you can get satisfactory results.

[Editor's Note: See Petition to the General Assembly of Tennessee #47-1-1803 on page 73 of this issue concerning the French Lick near Nashville.]

THE INTRODUCTION OF SORGHUM INTO HICKMAN COUNTY - *Submitted by Paul H. Owen
4102 Bear Creek Ct Ft Pierce, FL 34951-3301*

Elijah Monroe Spradling introduced the sorghum crop into Tottys Bend, Hickman County, TN about 1854. It was then known as black head sorghum cane. There was, however, no way of turning the cane into molasses. E. M. Spradling, being a wood worker, built a hand mill to process the crop. He lived with the David Spradling family until he married Sarah Jane Williams of the town of Tottys Bend in 1846. Elijah Spradling was born in 1825 in Tennessee, and had a brother, Joseph Columbus, born in 1829. Joseph lived with David Spradling's daughter Rachel until he married Margaret Williams, the sister of Sarah Jane. The two brothers settled in Franklin Co, MO, about 1860 and lived out their lives.

47-1-1803 "The respectful petition of some of the Inhabitants of the Town of Nashville and its vicinity humbly sheweth; that in pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly [of Tennessee] intituled 'an Act for the regulation of the town of Nashville' the Commissioners elected and chosen according to the provision of that Law have proceeded to make a by Law, by which they have authorised the Town Sujeant [Sergeant?] to sell, dispose of or destroy hogs the property of the citizens of the County not inhabitants of the sd Town to the great detriment and injury of many, and that it is impossible for your petitioners and others living near the said Town to prevent their stock from frequenting that place, there being so many incitements [inducements? 51-1-1803 People of Smith County have reason to believe that there will be petitions presented to your Honorable Body that the Cumberland River be the line between Smith and Jackson Counties and that would be injurious to both counties except for "a few designing characters excepted." Such a boundary would result in Smith being "a string nearly seventy miles long and about twelve or fourteen in width..." About one-fourth of Smith Countians would have to cross Jackson County and two rivers to get to courts and general musters. The petitioners ask that Smith County be left as it is. Some estates contain many more names, such as lists of persons who purchased at a sale. These are not included in the index. The ID (Identification) column indicates the relationship of that person to the deceased. Beside the normal abbreviations, two additional ones were used: frmly = formerly and decd = alternate spelling of deceased surname. See Vol. 36, No 3, 1989 page 105 for photocopy information; the address for the Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives is 33 South Front Street, Memphis, TN 38103.

Mrs. Dickson was the wife of Col. Wm. Dickson and was the sister of Roger Barton, one of Mississippi's greatest lawyers. She has a large circle of friends in Miss., Ala. and Tenn. Of six children, she leaves three to mourn her loss: Mrs. Tarpley Ward of "Dickson" & her only son, Barton Dickson, & Mrs. John L Strong, of Memphis

NOVEMBER 13, 1889 - Hon. Alexander Mosby Clayton, born in Louisa Co, VA, died at "Woodcote" his residence near Lamar in Benton Co., Miss. on Sept. 30, 1889. After leaving his native state, he settled at Clarksville, Tenn. where he practiced his profession as a lawyer. In 1836 he moved to Holly Springs, Miss. He was a trustee of the University of Miss. at Oxford. He was buried in Holly Springs, Miss.

MARCH 31, 1898 - Isaac D. Blumenthal departed this life at his home in this city on Tuesday morning at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Blumenthal became a citizen of our town about 18 years ago and soon commenced business in a small way which he built up to magnificent proportions. He was a member of Eunice Lodge #637; K.of H.; Morning Star Encampment #14; I.O.O.F.; H.W. Walter Lodge #18; K.of P. Charity Lodge #149; K.& L.of H.; Holly Springs Lodge #35; A.F.& AM.; and I.O.B.B. He was Grand Scribe of Grand Encampment, I.O.O.F. of Miss. & Grand Representative to Sovereign Grand Lodge. He was a native of Prussia & at the time of his death about 65 years of age. He was prepared for burial according to his own request, after the manner of his fathers. His remains were taken to Memphis for interment in the Jewish Cemetery on Wednesday morning. A large delegation of Odd Fellows accompanied the remains to Memphis.

APRIL 7, 1898 - Report of Memorial Committee - Holly Springs Lodge #30 I.O.O.F. A Memorial of the life and character of our late brother, Past Grand Master & Past Grand Representative, Isaac D. Blumenthal who departed this life Mar 29, 1898. Bro. I.D. Blumenthal was born Oct 25, 1832 at Kempan, Prussia, Posen. He was initiated into Odd Fellowship in Memphis Lodge #6, I.O.O.F. on Oct 7, 1862 and he continued his membership in this lodge for 4 years. In 1866 he moved to Okolona, Miss. and on Oct 23, 1866 transferred his membership to lodge at that place. In 1879 Bro. Blumenthal removed to Holly Springs, Miss where he resided until his death. Through his efforts this lodge was revived and reorganized and started again upon it's splendid work. During his long connection with Odd Fellowship he served the order from lowest to highest office with entire devotion. We bear our testimony for those who shall come after; we pay this our tribute of affectionate regard & esteem; say our last word of sad farewell; and the record passes on into the hands of God. May it meet a "well done, servant good & true". Resolved - that this lodge tender to the family of our deceased brother the assurance of it's sincere sympathy & condolence in their bereavement & sorrow. Respectfully submitted by committee: P.G. Sears, Wm. M. Strickland, W.G. Ford, H.L. Dix & W.A. Belk

AUGUST 1, 1901 - On June 27, 1901, a beautiful night, a life, more beautiful and serene, took its flight from among us for a life where she can behold her Saviour face to face. Mrs. H. A. Cheairs, wife of Thomas D. Cheairs, was born near Spring Hill, Maury Co., Tenn. on Mar. 19, 1817; she married Feb 16, 1837. She joined Old Hudsonville M.E. Church by letter. For 68 years she was in love with Christ. Now he has taken her to himself. (Her daughter).

JUNE 5, 1902 - Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Hannah Hastings to Mr. Sidney Albert Guy of Memphis, the ceremony to take place at the home of the brides mother, Mrs. Florence Hastings, 80 Court St., Memphis on Thursday morning June 12, 1902. (Hannah Hastings was daughter of John W. Hastings and granddaughter of Robert Hastings and his wife Hannah Westgarth Hastings) (Florence Hastings was Florence Buffaloe before marriage).

JANUARY 2, 1902 - On 24th Dec 1901, Mrs. Nettie Oswald Richmond departed this life at the home of her parents. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. T. B. and Mrs. Felicia Lumpkin Oswald and was married to Mr. E. L. Richmond of Germantown, Tenn in June 1897. She was a zealous member of the church. On Christmas day she was laid to rest in the Holly Springs cemetery, attended by relatives and friends.

JANUARY 2, 1902 - Mr. A. F. Brown was born July 11, 1886 and departed this life Dec 13, 1901. Finley was born & raised in Marshall Co. In the early fall he went to Memphis, Tenn. and was learning the streets of the city in order to take charge of and run a street car. While on duty, a car jumped the track and fell over an embankment, bruising him badly and it is thought that the accident was the cause of his death as he has not been able to do any thing since.

BOOK REVIEWS

MECKLENBURG COUNTY, NC MINUTES of the COURT of COMMON PLEAS & QUARTERS SESSIONS 1780-1800 transcribed by Herman W. Ferguson. 1995. Soft cover, 5x8, 276 pp. Full name index. Order from Herman W. Ferguson, 600 Chad Drive, Rocky Mount, NC 27803-1512. $27.50 pp. NC res add tax.

Mecklenburg County, NC was formed in 1762 from Anson County. The earliest minutes of her Courts, the first 12 years, have been lost, and the minutes from July 1774 to April 1780 have been transcribed by the late Doris Briscoe. This book begins where Mrs. Briscoe's book ends, on page 276 of the original book. Court minutes are an excellent source of information for finding early settlers. Almost every man was assigned to work on the roads, serve on a jury, or was hailed into court to serve as a witness. Jo White Linn, who wrote the Foreword, says "Mecklenburg is an important County, spilling over into the border counties of South Carolina before the state line was finally and categorically determined on the south and originally bordering Rowan County on the north, where the lands of many of the early German settlers fell into both those counties. Cabarrus County, formed from Mecklenburg in 1792, in turn, owes its heritage equally to Mecklenburg and Rowan."

WILLIAMSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE COUNTY COURT MINUTES, July 1812-October 1815 by Carol Wells. 1994. Soft Cover, 5x8, 162 pp. Full name index. Order from Heritage Books Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Pl., Bowie, MD 20716. $15.00.

Caroll Wells continues her series of Williamson Co TN Court Minutes (May 1806-April 1812) with this book. As usual, court minutes cover a wide variety of topics and miscellaneous information - lawsuits, disputes, building of roads and bridges, handling of insanity, illegitimacy, death, guardianships, apprenticeships, etc. The arrangement is in chronological order. The print is reduced, but clear and readable. Other County Court Minute transcriptions by Ms. Wells are on early Davidson, Dickson, Robertson and Rutherford Counties.

MISSISSIPPI CONFEDERATE PENSION APPLICATIONS, H-Q by Betty C. Wiltshire. No date given. ISBN 1-885480-05-9. Soft cover, 5x8, 312 pp. Order from Pioneer Publishing Co., P.O. Box 408, Carrollton, MS 38917. $27.50 shipping included.

Pensions were given to soldiers, sailors and their widows, for service during the Civil War, primarily after 1900. These applications, more informative than the few given in the 1890's, may give name, age, place of residence, service unit, names of unit officers, date of discharge, length of service, medical condition, property ownership and income, and person with whom the applicant lived. This book is to be used as an index to locate the applications. It gives the pensioner's name, date of application, county of residence and the service unit in many cases.

SETTLERS OF MARYLAND, 1679-1700 by Peter Wilson Coldham. 1995. Hard Cover, 5x8, 228 pp. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $25.00 plus $3.50 P&H.

This book is a continuation of Gust Skordas's renowned "Early Settlers of Maryland", extending the coverage of Maryland settlers through the last quarter of the 18th century. In alphabetical order, several thousand immigrants and their colorfully named tracts of land have been identified. There is a special index of the names of land tracts. Until 1680 most land was granted on the basis of "headrights" - fifty acres of land for each person transported into the Province. But in 1680 the headright system was dropped and land was purchased through three separate documentary processes - warrants, certificates of survey and patents. Entries in the book are arranged by family name, county, name of tract granted, acreage, date and reference to the original source.

WHITE COUNTY, TENNESSEE DEED ABSTRACTS, VOLUME II, 1820-1834 by Joyce Martin Murray. 1995. Soft cover, 8x11, 150 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 2921 Daniel, Dallas, TX 75205. $25.00 plus $3.00 P&H. Microfiche $7.00 plus $1.00 P&H.

Deed abstracts from Books G and H continue Ms. Murray's White Co TN series. In the 1820-1834 time period, White County included portions of the present counties of Van Buren, DeKalb, Putnam and Cumberland. Three separate indexes are given - full name index, place index and slave name index. Abstracts include deeds, indentures, Powers of Attorney, mortgages, Bills of Sale, bonds, Sheriff's sales, etc. Ms. Murray is in the process of publishing Greene County Deeds, which begin in 1785.

THE JACOB ENGELBRECHT DEATH LEDGER OF FREDERICK COUNTY, MARYLAND 1820-1890 compiled by Edith Olivia Eader and Trudie Davis-Long. 1995. Laminated cover, 8x11, 359 pp. Full name index. Order from Paw Prints, Inc., P.O. Box 52, Monrovia, MD 21770-0052. $32.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

Jacob Engelbrecht was a tailor in Frederick, Maryland, where he lived until his death in 1878. His observations of the happenings around him were written down in a series of loose papers and short note books that became known as the "Jacob Engelbrecht Diaries 1820-1878." The ledgers were not included in the original publication of the diary in 1976. When his manuscripts became wet after a flood in 1868, he copied the Death and Marriage Ledgers "from my Diaries which were very much defaced by the freshet in Carroll's Creek, July 24, 1868." The book has three indexes - full name index, place index and an occupation index.

WARNICK GENEALOGY, Volume I, The Jane Warnick Wilson Branch of the James Warnick Family in America by Anna Margaret Wilson Wohlhueter. 1994. Soft cover, 8x11, 125 pp. Full name index. Order from author, 15144 Cloverdale Rd., Dale City, VA 22193. $8.00 postpaid.

This work is an update of a volume written by Jessie Jewett in 1959, which traces the descendants of Jane Warnick, a daughter of James Warnick (born in Ireland c1740, emigrated to America c1758, died in TN in 1804) and his wife Rhoda Brown. Jane, who was born in North Carolina 1771, died in Illinois 1851; her husband, Benjamin Wilson, was born in NC 1774 and died in Illinois 1856. They had six known children surviving to maturity. Mrs. Wohlhueter has traced their descendants as much as possible to the present day. The index refers to the number assigned the descendant. Further volumes on the descendants of Jane's sister and brothers are planned, but are not yet available.

SIDE-LIGHTS ON MARYLAND HISTORY with Sketches of Early Maryland Families, Volume I and II by Hester Dorsey Richardson. 1995 Reprints. Hard Back, 6x9. Full name index, Vol. I 460 pp., Vol. II 498 pp. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 Calvert, MD 21202-3897. 2-vol set $85.00 plus $4.75 P&H.

First published in the Baltimore "Sun" from May 17, 1903 to Dec. 25, 1904 as a series of historical and genealogical sketches of the Old Commonwealth, which were gleaned by the author from the manuscript records of the State and the original Calvert papers, these two volumes were first published in 1913. Volume I contains seventy-five chapters, or articles, on a variety of subjects. Included are articles on the Ark and the Dove, the first Maryland settlers, muster rolls of colonial militia, the names of 1000 early settlers with their land surveys, etc. Volume II contains no source records, but consists entirely of genealogical sketches which carry Maryland families back to the immigrant ancestor. The book is illustrated with coats-of-arms, photographs and rare portraits.

THE GREAT HISTORIC FAMILIES OF SCOTLAND by James Taylor. 1995 Reprint. Hard Back, 6x9. Indexed, 841 pp. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 Calvert, MD 21202-3897. $55.00 plus $3.00 P&H.

This genealogical compendia of Scottish families was first printed as two volumes in 1887. The narrative form traces the families from their earliest recorded origins all the way up to the end of the 19th century, including their historical significance to Scotland and other families. Compared by one reviewer with the historical novels of Sir Walter Scott, it was said, "not to contain a dry page or a mouldy paragraph, and was no bare genealogical record." An Addenda gives corrections and additions to the first printing.

3. Show your name and address on the query sheet.
4. Be received before September 1 of the membership year.

GUIDELINES FOR SURNAME INDEX FILE CARDS

Be sure to include your name, address and the current date at the top right of each card. For a sample card see below. Members may request a search of this file for ancestors and persons who may be researching the same name—one family name per request please—and no more than one request per month. A LEGAL-SIZE S.A.S.E. IS REQUIRED FOR RETURN OF THIS INFORMATION. Each card should include at least one date and one place (even if they are estimated) in addition to the surname and given name. Names and birthdates of the subject's children should be listed on the back of the index card.
