From the Editor

—James E. (Jim) Bobo, Editor Pro Tem

On pages 6 and 7 of this issue we begin a Tennessee time-line of the War Between the States and reproduce the Tennessee Ordinance of Secession. Please note the first paragraph "...waiving any expression of opinion as to the abstract doctrine of secession, but asserting the right, as a free and independent people...." Tennessee was the last State to secede and did so only after President Lincoln called for 75,000 troops to suppress the secession of several sister States.

The War destroyed the sociopolitical life and the economy of an entire nation, the Confederate States of America. The banjo-strumming, mint julep sipping, warm summer evenings of plantation life was gone forever. But, to what extent did it ever really exist?

In this, the sesquicentennial of this tragic American event, we ask our readers, if they have not already done so, to develop an in-depth biography of at least one of their ancestors who lived (and maybe died) during the War. Did they live on a plantation as an owner, an overseer, a slave? Were they a rich man, Poor man, Beggar man, Thief, Doctor, Lawyer, Merchant, Chief, or were they hard-scrabble, 40-acres and a mule, subsistence farmers, the class that was most negatively impacted, economically, by slave labor and the class that furnished so much "cannon fodder" to the armies. Did they join the army after the battle of Shiloh when the Confederates enacted conscription laws? Which army, Confederate or Union?

Of Southern white males, between the ages of 13 and 43, alive in 1860, almost one in five (18%) died in the War. The number of Americans who died as a direct result of this War almost equals the combined totals of those who died in all other American conflicts.

We hope you will share your stories for publication in future issues of this magazine. Selections for publication will be made by the Publishing Committee and decisions will be based on accuracy and depth of documentation and general interest. If a rewrite of an article or editing other than for space is necessary the article will be returned to the writer for approval prior to publication. TNGS is a nonprofit organization and does not pay for contributions; however articles will be published under the writer's byline.

A first time contributor to Ansearchin' News is Patsy Vaughn New. (See George Crosthwaite's (Crosswhite) Descendancy starting on page 26 of this issue.) Patsy is a native Memphian; mother of two, both in college; a pediatric nurse; avid genealogist for 25 years, and author. Her first book, The Life and Times of Mary Elizabeth Wilson 1901-1990 and Andrew Granville Vaughn 1897-1981, was published in November 2007. She is currently working on her second book. Thanks, Patsy, for sharing with us.

President's Message

-B. Byron Crain, President

We are justly proud of the tremendous work of our volunteers here at the Tennessee Genealogical Society and we are always in need of more. If you can find some time, regardless of the amount, we will find a place for you to help either in the library or in our office. We would love to hear from you.

One volunteer that we counted on for as many years as I can remember is Juanita Simpson. So it not only saddens me but all of our volunteers that she is having to step down from her many responsibilities due to illness. Juanita will truly be missed not only for her work but for the bright smile she had for everyone every day. We wish her the best.

A second important volunteer has had to cut back on her work as Editor of this magazine. Kathryn Holderman, who has served as our Editor for the past three years has been unable to devote her normal hard work and time to the magazine. At least on a temporary basis, Jim Bobo has agreed to fill in as Editor. While we have been fortunate that Jim has been willing to take on that additional responsibility, we are in need of an Interim Editor to relieve Jim. That person could step in as Editor should Kathryn be unable to return.

We have several great programs already scheduled for this spring and summer, so be sure to stay aware of what is scheduled by checking our web site, www.tngs.org and our newsletters.

Let me remind all our members that no matter where you are located, we are always seeking interesting genealogy stories for our magazine. This can be a family history or a story about some interesting event that you have found doing your family history. We especially would like to have ideas for stories or events that happened in Tennessee, and as always your comments and suggestions are welcome.

The Tragedy Begins—War is Declared

by James E. (Jim) Bobo

It is not the intent of this commentary to determine the right or wrong of the many reasons for the tragic War Between the States. Millions of words have already been written about the subject—probably more than on any other event in the history of the world.

One-hundred and fifty years after its beginning, and in our current "politically correct" culture, it is often difficult for the family-history researcher to fully grasp the rhetoric and actions that even our ancestors, at the time, often did not comprehend.

It is simplistic to say the war was to free the black slave, even though President Abraham Lincoln was pictured as, and in the South widely believed to be, "a fanatical 'Black Republican' whose goal was to incite civil war, emancipate the slaves, and make blacks the social and political equals of whites."

It is simplistic to say the war was to protect states' rights, even though the United States was and is a nation of nations. In 1860 thirty-four nations were combined under a constitution that gave narrow and specifically defined authority to a central government in Washington.

There were good and honest men on both sides and both sides had their power hungry egotists. Did either have any great statesmen or were they all "just politicians?"

The road to disunion started at least as early as 1800 with the introduction of Eli Whitney's cotton gin. The gin made cotton a viable cash crop and slave labor more valuable, which in turn accelerated the growth of the economic and social differences between the North and the South.

How did our Tennessee ancestors act?

In the 1860 United States Presidential election Tennessee cast all twelve of its electoral votes for Tennessean John Bell of the Constitutional Union Party. This party was made up of conservative former Whigs who wanted to avoid disunion over the slavery issue. These Whigs teamed up with former Know-Nothings and a few Southern Democrats who were against disunion to form the Constitutional Union Party. This party propounded a very simple platform, "to recognize no political principle other than the Constitution." They hoped that by not taking a firm stand either for or against slavery, or its expansion, the issue could be ignored. The Party carried three states, Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

November 6, 1860 Abraham Lincoln is elected sixteenth President of the United States.

January 7, 1861 Governor Isham Harris asks the Legislature to adopt a resolution asking Tennesseans for a convention to consider secession. He recommends reorganization of the state militia and the purchase of arms.

January 9, 1861 The vote, by the Legislature, on the resolution for a Tennessee convention is defeated by a vote of nearly four-to-one. (On this date Mississippi secedes from the Union. United States President Buchanan's cabinet members begin to resign. Several Naval officers surrender their command.)

February 9, 1861 A Tennessee statewide election rejects secession by a vote of 54% to 46%.

February 18, 1861 Confederate States President Jefferson Davis is inaugurated at Montgomery, Alabama.

March 4, 1861 United States President Lincoln is inaugurated at Washington, D.C.

April 15, 1861 War is declared. A decree: "Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution and the laws, have thought fit to call forth, and hereby do call forth, the Militia of the several States of the Union, to the aggregate number of 75,000, in order to suppress said combinations, and to cause the laws to be duly executed. The details for this object will be immediately communicated to the State authorities through the War Department."

April 25, 1861 Tennessee Governor Isham Harris submits second ordinance of secession to the Tennessee General Assembly.

May 6, 1861 An ordinance of secession is sent to referendum by the Tennessee Legislature.

June 8, 1861 The Tennessee ordinance of secession is approved by a vote of 104,471 to 47,183.

TENNESSEE ORDINANCE OF SECESSION

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND ORDINANCE dissolving the federal relations between the State of Tennessee and the United States of America.

First. We, the people of the State of Tennessee, waiving any expression of opinion as to the abstract doctrine of secession, but asserting the right, as a free and independent people, to alter, reform, or abolish our form of government in such manner as we think proper, do ordain and declare that all the laws and ordinances by which the State of Tennessee became a member of the Federal Union of the United States of America are hereby abrogated and annulled, and that all the rights, functions, and powers which by any of said laws and ordinances were conveyed to the Government of the United States, and to absolve ourselves from all the obligations, restraints, and duties incurred thereto; and do hereby henceforth become a free, sovereign, and independent State.

Second. We furthermore declare and ordain that article 10, sections 1 and 2, of the constitution of the State of Tennessee, which requires members of the General Assembly and all officers, civil and military, to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States be, and the same are hereby, abrogated and annulled, and all parts of the constitution of the State of Tennessee making citizenship of the United States a qualification for office and recognizing the Constitution of the United States as the supreme law of this State are in like manner abrogated and annulled.

Third, We furthermore ordain and declare that all rights acquired and vested under the Constitution of the United States, or under any act of Congress passed in pursuance thereof, or under any laws of this State, and not incompatible with this ordinance, shall remain in force and have the same effect as if this ordinance had not been passed. (Source: Official Records, Sec. IV, vol. 1, p. 290).

Tennessee is the last State to secede.

Elizabeth Beaver Country Doctor's Wife

—Michael A. Ports*

Author's note: Spellings of surnames in this article are verbatim as found in the records. Early use of Beaver/Beavers, has in this family, in modern times, become Beaver.

Introduction

The following article is the tenth and last installment in the series of articles concerning the children of Stephen and Nancy (White) Beaver of Henderson County, Tennessee. The current subjects are their daughter Elizabeth, her husband and cousin, Stephen Beaver, and their family. The article attempts to present and summarize all of the available records concerning the subjects and place them in an appropriate historical context. It is hoped that their descendants as well as other researchers will find their story both informative and interesting. Of course, it also is hoped that others will step forward with comments, corrections, questions, and suggestions for further research.

The story of Elizabeth Beaver is typical for the wife of a country doctor in rural West Tennessee during the middle of the nineteenth century. She grew up in rural Henderson County where she acquired at least the rudiments of an education. She married her cousin Stephen Beaver and moved to rural Fayette County. There she managed their household, presided over the raising of their nine children, and supported her husband's medical practice. Elizabeth no doubt was proud of her husband, a successful doctor and farmer, as well as her children, all upstanding and productive members of their community.

Starting a Family

11. Elizabeth Beaver was born June 14, 1819 in Lincoln County, Tennessee, the daughter of Stephen and Nancy (White) Beaver.¹ She was just three years old when her family moved to Henderson County. It is presumed that she received at least some education from the local schools. She married her first cousin Stephen Beaver on December 19, 1836 probably in Henderson County.² Born November 7, 1813 in Alabama, he was the son of Michael Beaver and his wife Mary. Some descendants posit that Mary, or Polly as she often was known, was a Jackson, but the author has found no record to substantiate her maiden name one way or the other. In 1820, Michael Beaver resided in Lincoln County, Tennessee. By 1830, Michael had moved his family to Fayette County. It is presumed that Stephen Beaver came to Fayette County with his parents. It also is presumed that Michael Beaver named his son after his own brother.

That the elder Stephen Beaver and Michael Beaver were brothers primarily is documented in the memories of their descendants who have passed that knowledge down through letters as well as other sources of oral tradition. The fact that they were brothers also is supported, but not explicitly proved, by a substantial body of other records. The two families were associated closely in Lincoln County, Tennessee. Both left there at approximately the same time to settle in West Tennessee. Michael Beaver named his son Stephen in his will dated September 14, 1847.<sup>3</sup> In addition, Stephen Beaver is mentioned in the deed disposing of real property from the estate of his uncle and father-in-law, Stephen Beaver of Henderson County.<sup>4</sup>

After their marriage, Stephen and Elizabeth resided in Fayette County, Tennessee.

Stephen paid his poll tax there in 1836.<sup>5</sup> But, he was assessed no taxes there either for land or slaves. On March 21, 1838, Stephen Beaver purchased a tract of land from Moses Church for $291.6 The small tract consisted $291.6 The small tract consisted of 24 acres and had been part of a larger tract that Moses

Church previously had purchased from John McLemore. On November 21, 1839, Stephen Beaver sold that same tract of land to John G. Freeland for $300.<sup>7</sup> In 1840, the young household of Stephen Beaver contained just four persons.<sup>8</sup>

| Males                  | Females                |
|------------------------|------------------------|
| One, under 5           | One, under 5           |
| One, between 20 and 30 | One, between 20 and 30 |

Stephen and his wife Elizabeth presumably are the only two adults in the household. The young boy is presumed to be their son Henry. The young girl probably is their daughter Frances. Stephen did not own any slaves, but was engaged in agriculture. On December 7, 1842, Stephen purchased an undivided interest in a tract of land from his nephew Wilson T. Beaver for $5.9 Stephen also agreed to settle his nephew's debt to J. & J. Seanow in the amount of $24.27. His nephew Wilson had inherited an interest in a tract containing 82½ acres of land that had been owned by his deceased father John Beaver.

On January 11, 1847, R. P. Brooks of Jackson County sold a tract of land to Stephen Beaver for $315.<sup>10</sup> The tract consisted of 46½ acres of land and was situated adjacent to Stephen's other land. On January 6, 1849, Stephen sold his land to F. Loring for $1,179.<sup>11</sup> Unfortunately, the deed does not describe the tract in detail. It merely states that the tract was the one on which he lived. The high sales price implies that Stephen had made significant improvements to the tract, perhaps by erecting a house, barn, or other outbuildings, building fences, or clearing forest. On January 25, 1849, the State of Tennessee granted a tract of land in Fayette County to Stephen Beaver.<sup>12</sup> The 84¼-acre tract was located in Surveyor's District No. 11, Range 3, Section 4.

In 1850, Stephen Beaver gave his occupation as physician.<sup>13</sup> He is listed as 35 years old and a native of Alabama. No value was entered for his real estate. Elizabeth was listed as 30 years old and a Tennessee native. Six children, Frances, Henry, Mary, Nancy, Susan, and Isabella, completed their household and all were born in Tennessee. Stephen owned four slaves, a 27-year-old female and what appear to be her three young children.<sup>14</sup> The population schedules to the contrary, Stephen did own a small farm of just 20 acres of improved land.<sup>15</sup> The land was valued at $100. He valued his farm implements and machinery at $110 and his livestock at $275. His livestock consisted of two horses, one mule, three cows, ten cattle, three sheep, and ten swine. His small farm produced two hundred bushels of corn, five bales of ginned cotton, one hundred pounds of butter, ten bushels of potatoes, ten bushels of sweet potatoes, $10 in home manufactured goods, and $20 in slaughtered animals. Such production on just 20 acres of improved lands, while not prodigious, was significant and indicates an efficient operation.

On February 18, 1851, John M. Thomas sold a tract of land to S. Beaver for $100.<sup>16</sup> The tract contained 40 acres of land and was known as the James Kelly Place. On November 23, 1853, the Chancery Court decreed that all the right and title to a certain tract of land should belong to Stephen Beaver.<sup>17</sup> From a sworn statement of W. B. Beaver and J. W. Beasley, the court learned that Thomas N. Wortham had purchased the subject tract and later sold it to J. W. Beasley who in turn had sold it to Stephen Beaver. The 100-acre tract originally had been granted to Martha J. and Eliza J. Leonard.

Just when Stephen Beaver began his practice of medicine is uncertain. Also, whether he attended any medical school or simply apprenticed under another physician is uncertain. Is is known only that he was practicing medicine by 1850, possibly earlier. He worked as a country doctor in rural Fayette County throughout his life. He supplemented his income as both a farmer and small business man.

On April 12, 1854, Martha Jane Beaver sold all of her interest in her father's real estate to her brother Stephen Beaver for $65.<sup>18</sup> She executed the deed by placing her mark on it. Their brother W. B. Beaver witnessed the deed. On November 2, 1854, John W. Abel and his wife Lucinda and Spruce M. Williams and his wife Sarah Ann sold their interests in a tract of land to Stephen Beaver for $130.<sup>19</sup> Lucinda and Sarah Ann also were sisters of Stephen Beaver and then were residents of Franklin Township, Calhoun County, Arkansas. Together with their husbands, they sold their interests in the tract of land that had been owned by their deceased father Michael Beaver. The tract of 235 acres was located on the waters of Beaverdam Creek. Both husbands signed the deed, while their wives placed their marks to release their dower rights.

On June 15, 1856, a second deed was filed to record the sale of Martha Jane Beaver's interest in her father's land to her brother Stephen Beaver.<sup>20</sup> It is interesting to note that Martha Jane received $187.50 for her one-sixth interest in her father's tract located on Beaverdam Creek. Again, Martha Jane placed her mark on the deed which was witnessed by J. P. Braden and Malinda Waller.

Stephen was successful working as a country doctor. By 1860, his family had grown and his financial condition had improved.<sup>21</sup> The 46-year-old valued his real estate at $3,200 and his personal property at $11,600. His wife Elizabeth admitted to being 42 years of age. Both Stephen and Elizabeth are listed as native Tennesseans and both could read and write. Seven of their children, Frances, Henry, Nancy, Isabell, James, Daniel, and Sarah, were living with them. Stephen owned what appears to be one family of seven slaves.<sup>22</sup> The family, consisting of a 48-year-old male, 38-year-old female, and five children ranging in age from 14 to 5 years old, lived in one slave house.

It is presumed that Stephen Beaver was a patriotic Confederate. He owned slaves. His oldest son and three of his sons-in-law served in the Confederate Army. His other children were too young to serve. Many of his neighbors of military age also served the Confederacy. Thus, it seems reasonable to conclude that Doctor Beaver was at least sympathetic to the Confederate cause. Needless to say, the end of the war brought the emancipation of his slaves.

On January 28, 1869, Stephen Beaver sold a tract of land to T. R. McKnight for $203.33.<sup>23</sup> The small tract contained 13 acres, 2 rods, and 9.85 square poles. Stephen signed the deed, but his wife Elizabeth did not relinquish her dower rights.

Curiously, in 1870, Stephen gave his occupation as farmer.<sup>24</sup> It is presumed that he still was practicing medicine, but that farming produced a more important portion of his income. Listed as 58 years old, he valued his real estate at $3,200 and his personal property at $3,000. The 53-year-old Elizabeth was keeping house. Both Stephen and Elizabeth are listed as Tennessee natives and both could read and write. Only their three youngest children, James, Stephen, and Sarah, remained at home. His farm consisted of 20 acres of improved land and 84 acres of wood lot and was valued at $2,000.<sup>25</sup> Thus, it seems that Stephen owned other real estate worth $1,200. Perhaps he owned a house and lot in town where he lived and practiced medicine. Perhaps he owned other land. While not unusual during that period, no deed was filed recording his acquisition of any other real estate. He owned three horses, one mule, four cows, five cattle, nine sheep, and ten swine which he valued at $625. His small farm produced five hundred bushels of corn, three bales of cotton, two dozen pounds of wool, twenty bushels of potatoes, twenty bushels of sweet potatoes, and $30 in slaughtered animals. The total farm production for the previous year was worth $800.

On April 8, 1873, the County Court ordered Sheriff William H. Hester to sell a parcel of land at public auction to satisfy a judgment. The firm Galloway Beaver & Company, consisting of John M. Galloway, S. Beaver, and I. A. Thomas, recorded the judgment against William G. Adams in the amount of $314.56 plus costs. The sheriff sold Lot 16 in the village of Galloway Station on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad for $354.62, thus satisfying the debt and judgment. Just what the firm did is uncertain. It is presumed to have been a partnership. The firm may have invested in real estate or other interests. Perhaps the firm owned and operated a mill, cotton gin, or store. It is certain only that Stephen Beaver supplemented his income as a country doctor and small farmer through the business interests of the firm.

In 1880, Stephen Beaver gave his occupation as M. D. although it is evident from other records that he continued farming as well as his other business interests.<sup>27</sup> He is listed as 67 years old. He and both of his parents are listed as North Carolina natives. Elizabeth is listed as 62 years old and keeping house. She and both her parents are listed as natives of North Carolina. Both Stephen and Elizabeth could read and write. Leona Ralph, their 14-year-old niece, was working as a servant in their household. On September 7, 1885, S. Beaver and Ira A. Thomas sold a parcel of land to Wat Strong for $1.<sup>28</sup> The parcel of land consisted of Lot 16 in Gallaway that the partnership had purchased at the sheriff sale in 1873. The low sale price probably indicates that the firm was indebted to Wat Strong. The partners probably transferred the lot to satisfy their indebtedness. Both partners signed the deed. Their wives, Elizabeth Beaver and N. Thomas both placed their marks on the deed.

Dr. Stephen Beaver died January 29, 1888 at his home in Fayette County. According to his tombstone, he was born November 17, 1813. His birth year may be validated by comparing his age in the various census schedules.

| Census       | Year Age        | Birth Year          | Place          |                     |

It is evident that the various ages do not vary enough to cast significant doubt on his birth date on his tombstone. In 1860 and again in 1870, Stephen appears in the census schedules as a Tennessee native. In 1880, he is listed as a North Carolina native. Other evidence, including census schedules for his brothers and sisters, supports the 1850 listing that he was born in Alabama. He was buried in the family cemetery located in the northwest corner of the county on Poplar Springs Road near Braden. His will was entered for probate at the February 1888 Term of the County Court.<sup>29</sup>

I Stephen Beaver do make this my last will and Testement hereby revoking and making void all others by me at any time made.

First I direct that my funeral expences and all of my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any moneys that I may die possessed of or may first come in to the hands of my Executor. On October 12, 1888, H. P. Stovall and J. B. Beavers, as the administrators of the estate, filed an inventory and sale list of the estate.<sup>30</sup> It is curious that no medical items appear in the inventory. Of course, one or more of the several books listed may have been medical tomes. Perhaps Stephen had retired from his medical practice and sold or given his medical accouterments to a younger doctor. Whether or not he was retired, it is evident that Stephen enjoyed the art of angling. One is left to wonder just what 1 trong bone & medle were. Either the court clerk erred when recording the inventory or his handwriting has been misinterpreted. Could the correct entry be 1 strong box of metal?

His son-in-law J. M. Ellerson purchased sundry livestock and other items. His son J. B. Beaver purchased a few farm implements and various personal items that perhaps held some sentimental value. His widow Elizabeth purchased the buggy. The identity of Ellen Beavers is uncertain. She may have been a niece, granddaughter, or possibly a former slave. The promissory notes cited in the will are listed in the inventory. The items specifically mentioned in the will that were bequeathed to the widow, including the real estate, household furniture, etc. were not included in the inventory.

On January 22, 1890, the administrators filed an account of their administration of the estate.<sup>31</sup>

S. D. Beavers refused to settle, the adm<sup>r</sup> sued him before a Justice of the Peace in Tipton County where he lived on his note for $300.00 due the estate. the day before the trial said Beavers paid to the officer the balance due from him on his advancement as charged in S. Beavers will as follows advancements $25.00 for mule and $300.00 note and two years interest making $336.00 total of all $461.00 less his share of said estate $423.21 leaving a balance of $37.70 which S. D. Beaver paid to the officer and which is charged against the said Adm<sup>r</sup> in his settlement of October 8, 1890.

The office accepted the said Amt not knowing that a receipt was necessary. but the said S. D. Beavers from that time to this positively refuses to give a receipt for the said $423. $^{21}$  and I as Adm<sup>r</sup> still hold the note for $300. $^{00}$ . I have offered time and again to receipt the note and give it to him if he will receipt me for $423. $^{21}$  which he refuses to do.

Why old Stephen D. Beaver refused to cooperate with his brother by providing a receipt is uncertain. Perhaps he simply felt that his debts to his father's estate should be forgiven. Perhaps paying his debts may have been a hardship for him and his family creating a certain amount of resentment. In any event, his cantankerous refusal to provide a receipt served only to delay the settlement of his father's estate.

In 1900, Elizabeth was living in the family home near Braden.<sup>34</sup> The widow gave her birth as June 1819. She reported that only five of her nine children had survived her. Both she and her father are listed as Tennessee natives and her mother as a native of Pennsylvania. She also reported that she owned her farm outright, free of any mortgage. Also living in her household were her widowed daughter Frances Freeman and widowed grand daughter Bettie H. Hansen. Elizabeth Beaver passed away at her home on September 12, 1902. She was buried next to her husband in the old family cemetery. Her tombstone indicates that she was born June 14, 1818. Her birth date may be validated by her age as listed in the various census schedules.

| Census Year | Age      | Birth Year   | Place          |
|-------------|----------|--------------|----------------|
| 1840        | 20 to 30 | 1810 to 1820 |                |
| 1850        | 30       | 1820         | Tennessee      |
| 1860        | 42       | 1818         | Tennessee      |
| 1870        | 53       | 1817         | Tennessee      |
| 1880        | 62       | 1818         | North Carolina |
| 1900        | 81       | June 1819    | Tennessee      |

Again, her various reported ages do not differ enough to cast significant doubt on her birth date as shown on her tombstone. In spite of the fact that she is listed as a native of North Carolina in the 1880 Census, the preponderance of other evidence clearly indicates that she was a native of Lincoln County, Tennessee.

Because her late husband in his will had amply provided for her during her lifetime, there was no need for any further probate proceedings after her death. Nonetheless, a dispute arose among the heirs concerning the final disposal of their father's real estate. The suit was styled J. B. Beavers vs. Stephen Beavers et al. J. B. Beavers, acting as the administrator, was forced to file suit against the heirs apparently in order to be able to sell the real estate and distribute the proceeds among the heirs. On February 9, 1905, J. B. Beavers asked the court to dismiss Betty Henson from the cause because she was not necessary or a proper party to the suit.<sup>35</sup> The Court agreed and ordered her dismissed. The Court also appointed E. R. Scruggs to act as guardian for Burke Hill and Willie Simpson both minors and named defendants in the suit. J. B. Beavers also asked the Court to set a date for hearing the case in spite of the fact that the defendants Sallie E. Ellison and husband Jas. Ellison of Tipton County; Isabella Sloop and husband J. A. Sloop of Shelby County; Anna Vaughn and husband Golly Vaughn of Texas; and Stephen Ralph, Edna Lee, and husband Johnson Lee all of Mississippi County, Arkansas had not replied to the petition. The Court made no decision at that time.

The Court noted that at the time of his death Stephen Beaver had owned three tracts of land comprising in all approximately 164 acres. The first tract of 100 acres consisted of the western half of the original William Brown Entry No. 316 as recorded in the Registers Office, Book R, Page 1159. The second tract of 40 acres had been part of the James Kelly land. The third tract of 37 acres had been purchased May 8, 1867 from Francis Layton. The Court ordered the administrator to sell the three tracts at public auction from the courthouse door. On March 25, 1905, the said lands were sold to J. B. Beavers for $2,000. He paid $666.66 in cash and executed a note for the remaining $1,333.34 payable January 1, 1906. The Court Clerk then took the testimony of J. B. Beaver, W. B. Battle, A. W. McKnight, and George Ferrell and on June 3, 1905 filed a report. The report noted that since the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Beavers, her son J. B. Beaver had taken possession of the property and erected a new barn and stable, erected a new cabin and repaired an existing one, covered the dwelling house, and enclosed the yard and garden with a new fence at a cost of between $600 and $800. J. B. Beavers also had paid the funeral expenses for his mother amounting to $30 and the taxes for the years 1903 and 1904 amounting to $26.97. The Court ruled that the heirs should pay their respective share of the expenses charged to the estate out of the proceeds from the sale of the real estate.

The children of Stephen and Elizabeth (Beaver) Beaver were:

- 91. i. Frances Elizabeth, born April 1, 1838 in Fayette County, Tennessee. She married Elbert R. Freeman July 26, 1860. She died February 7, 1903 and was buried at the Beaver family cemetery.
- 92. ii. Henry Warren, born November 15, 1839 in Fayette County, Tennessee. He married Mary Ann Ralph December 19, 1847.
- 93. iii. Mary A., born March 15, 1842 in Fayette County, Tennessee. She married A. G. Ralph January 2, 1860. She died October 6, 1880 and was buried at the Beaver family cemetery.
- 94. v. Nancy Emaline, born September 19, 1844 in Fayette County, Tennessee. She married I.A. Thomas May 5, 1863. She died September 1, 1867 and was buried at the Beaver family cemetery.

- 95. vi. Susan Catherine, born May 5, 1847 in Fayette County, Tennessee. She died November 10, 1857 and was buried at the Beaver family cemetery.
- 96. vii. Isabella Adelia, born April 18, 1849 in Fayette County, Tennessee.
- 97. viii. James Bright, born April 14, 1851 in Fayette County, Tennessee. He married Frances T. Stovall June 5, 1879. He died March 31, 1935 and was buried at the Beaver family cemetery.
- 98. ix. Stephen Daniel, born November 7, 1853 in Fayette County, Tennessee. He married Mira Delashmit December 27, 1881. He died July 21, 1919 and was buried at the Ravencraft Cemetery in Tipton County.
- 99. x. Sarah Ann, born June 14, 1856 in Fayette County, Tennessee. She married James M. Allison. She died July 22, 1929.

Conclusion

Elizabeth Beaver was a fortunate woman. After growing up in rural Henderson County, she married her cousin Stephen Beaver and moved to Fayette County where they set up housekeeping. In spite of the fact that she signed some official documents with her mark, she was literate as an adult. She married well as her husband was a country doctor, farmer, and small business man. As a result, she lived a rather comfortable life. She raised nine children and no doubt was proud that eight of them survived to become upstanding and productive members of their communities.

The foregoing article presents all of the public and private records that we have found concerning Elizabeth Beaver, her husband Stephen Beaver, and their family. We are indebted to the staff of many public and private institutions for their patience, cooperation, and assistance. Special mention is due the helpful staff at the Tennessee State Library and Archives, Fayette County Courthouse, Mid-Continent Public Library in Independence, Missouri, Dallas Public Library, and the very kind ladies at the Clayton Library in Houston. Also, many thanks are due our cousin Billy B. Lassiter who generously shared his research with us. Hopefully, others will step forward with new information as well as suggestions for further research.

Historical Sketch of Liberty Church and Community

—By M. G. McCreery

In looking up the data for this sketch, the writer was impressed, not with the antiquity of our country, our state and our county, but rather with the youthfulness of it all, and the proximity of these events which so much concerns us all. My grandfather, Alexander McCreery, lived until I was 21 years of age, and his father, John McCreery, was ten years old when the Revolutionary War began. Thus we are only three generations from the beginnings of our national life.

We naturally take some community pride in being the oldest settled point in the county, and yet some of these earliest pioneers lived to be known and are well remembered by some there today. The wonder is that two or three generations should work such marvelous changes in a wild country, a virgin forest full of wild animal life and Indians.

I presume in 1804 when the seven Jordan brothers, the two Brownings, John Estes and Mr. Barbrey were seeking a location, after leaving the last settlement at Equality, and pressing westward through the wilderness, came upon this spot, which was mostly prairie with a fine little stream of water and flowing streams with forests of white oak, hickory and walnut timber. It must have seemed a veritable paradise on earth, and was a prize worthy of the toils, the hardships and the danger of subdoing.

As I understand it, these first settlers were squatters, perhaps securing no title to the lands, but constructing a blockhouse for protection from the Indians, subsisting on game, honey, and the little corn that they might keep the Indians and game from stealing. This blockhouse sheltered many families within the next few years. It was probably constructed by order of the governor in the year 1809, and stood on the south bank of the little creek about forty rods southeast of Mr. Ing's horse barn. Within its walls were born to John and Nancy Browning, twin sons, December 24, 1810, William R. and James K., the first white children born in Franklin County. I can imagine that event was properly celebrated that Christmastide.

To demonstrate how near we are to these first events in our history, James K.

Browning, one of the twins, was a father of our corner of Franklin County, and he is not classed with the old men either. In the year 1812, while James Jordan and Mr.

Barbrey were out getting wood, they were attacked by Indians. Jordan was wounded.

Barbrey was killed and scalped. My father used to point out to me the sight of his grave. It was about two hundred yards, a little southwest of Mr. Ing's barn, I judge.

I suppose that my grandfather bought out the interest of these first settlers. It seems from the records that he entered the land in 1815, settling in the blockhouse in 1816; later returning to Kentucky and marrying Ann Herrel, who was to prove a helpmate indeed, and whose mild, gentle spirit was to supply the restraining and softening influence to his rugged, positive nature.

My grandmother has told me that when they reached the Ohio River and she had bidden goodbye to friends and relatives and was shedding tears at the parting, my Grandfather said, "Never mind, Ann, you shall never regret your choice", and she declared, "I never did," although she told me of occasions when my grandfather would be away until after dark, and she would slip out of the house and hide in the woods for fear of Indians until she heard him return. The bear, the panther, and the deer were abundant. I remember the story of a wild horseback ride that a woman had when a panther chased her right up to my grandfather's front gate. Another, of my grandfather and his brother Robert, killing and piling up five bears in their yard in one day. Another of Monroe Crawford, Uncle George, and my father, when boys, finding two bucks with their horns locked just in front of my house site. They secured an axe and some dogs and went after the deer, and had one down when my grandfather rode up and shot the other. Judge Crawford became an eminent lawyer, is living in Jonesboro, and was invited to this celebration.

"Fancy Farms", the land composed of the farms of Mark Stull, Lem Kimmel, and Charlie Willhite, was one of the noted places in the early history of our country. It seems that my great-grandfather first settled the land, later removing to Saline County to the Dunk Kincheloe farm. Prior to 1821, at least, the Yost family occupied the place and they evidently brought their religion with them, for preaching services were conducted at their home at least that early, and these services led to the organization of Liberty Church no doubt.

In the history of Franklin County, the incident is told of the Rev. Braxton Parrish coming with his wife from North Carolina in 1821, and passing my grandfather's carrying a Bible under his arm and my grandmother saying, "He had a blank sight better have a grubbing hoe on his shoulder." Another time Uncle

Brack passed on Sunday morning on his way to Fancy Farm to preach, and caught my grandfather in the act of skinning a deer. When asked if he was going to church, he said he would be on directly, and he soon came in, and after the services invited the preacher home with him for dinner.

Later in 1824, at a camp meeting near McLeansboro, my grandfather and grandmother were converted, and soon after Liberty Methodist Episcopal Church was organized by the Rev. Jesse Walker. One authority gives the names of Henry Yost and his wife, Sion Mitchell and wife, Alexander McCreery and wife and John Walker and wife as charter members. The Rev. Benjamin Handcock, a soldier of the Revolutionary War, whose grave we sometimes decorate on the Ing farm, was perhaps a charter member of Liberty Church also. He is also given credit of organizing the Mt. Etna Church.

Sion Mitchell, a charter member of Liberty Church, and the first school teacher in the county, came from Wilson County, Tennessee in 1820, locating where George H. Mitchell now resides. He was a public spirited man of ability, was very religious and was devoted to the church. He raised a family, that for half a century contributed largely to the strength of this church and to the up building of the community.

On December 20, 1829, at nine years of age, Stanford Ing arrived in this community, and with his father's family drove up to my grandfather's in the midst of a snowstorm and was given the privilege of stopping in the old log church. The storm continued and the church, which stood where Uncle Stanford's grave now is, sheltered them all winter. Nine years later at the age of eighteen years, Stanford was converted at Fancy Farm, joining the church Nov. 1838. In 1850 he was licensed to preach at the Liberty Church.

He removed to Missouri in 1857, where he was actively engaged in the ministry until the war broke out. In 1861 he raised his first band of soldiers in that part of the state, and going with them, served in the federal army until 1863, when he returned to his chosen work. From 1868 to 1870 he had the distinction of serving as chaplain of the Missouri Legislature. Later he was presiding Elder of the Rolla District. His was an exciting and heroic life in Missouri in war times. Because of his pronounced loyalty to the Union, he was often threatened and mobs even made attempts on his life, but the Lord, "whose he was and who he served", brought him through dangers and after many, busy, useful years, gave him the desire of his heart to come back in his old age to the home of his childhood to rest a little while and to lay his wearied body down in this spot held so sacred by him.

I very well remember the Rev. Braxton Parrish, perhaps the most noted of the pioneer preachers and settlers of this community and for whom the town of Parrish was named. He went home from church with us one Sunday for dinner when I was a small boy, and scandalized himself in my eyes by firing a toy gun that I was showing him. I had been better trained than to shoot a gun on Sunday.

Along with these already mentioned were Zadoc Mitchell, who died on the night the stars fell, Robt. Wilson, John Kelley, Joshua Barrett, Bowen Webb, Wm. Boyd, Cornelius Swain and Anthony Waite, who with their families were pioneer settlers of the church, whose names are familiar to some of us who never saw their faces. Other early settlers were the Clarks, Crawfords, Newmans, Hurats, Laymans and the Plasters.

Among the early preachers, local and traveling, were David and Henry Yost, Elkins, Launius, Prentiss, Files, Parrish, McMustry, Crawford, Lock, Shepherd, Cullom, Nall, Sears, Casey, Kimber, Carter, Allen, Lopas, Johnson, Earp, Lowe, Hill, Spencer, Bruner, Rutledge, Vancleve, Thatcher, Lakey, Knapp, Holt and Laughlin. The first building erected in 1826, stood just north of the one that succeeded it, and was used for both school and church purposes. After it was destroyed by fire, a second log house was built where, Uncle Stanford, at his request, was buried. I remember this building very well for two reasons, there I attended the first Christmas tree of which I have any recollection, and where I spent my first day of school.

The incomplete list of preachers above brings us down to the time of the erection of this building. The contract was let to J. G.Mitchell. The building was dedicated June 26, 1864, during the pastorate of Rev. R. W. Laughlin and by the Presiding Elder, Rev. J. H. Hill. The writer of this sketch made his first public appearance on that occasion, being two months old.

This in brief is the early history of our church and community, very imperfect I feel, but giving you a glimpse of the beginning of things in our midst. I find one item of much interest to me. In one of the histories, it is told that the legislature in 1841 authorized the establishment of a college within two miles of the residence of Alexander McCreery, which was to be known as "Fancy Farm College" with Alexander McCreery, Henry Yost, Sion Mitchell, Richard Cantrell, Wm. Jones, Wm. Mitchell and John Roberts as trustees. But it seems that the college failed to materialize. Fancy Farm in 1852 or 1853 came into the possession of Geo. R. Marvel from Indiana, who distinguished himself during the Civil War, becoming Colonel of the 13th Ill. Cavalry.

The forefathers early provided good school advantages and the community was widely known as an educational center. Only lack of time and the fear of tiring you with the length of this paper prevents me from bringing to those characters of the second generation and those families that located in the fifties and sixties and who were bearing the burdens of the church and were active in the community life when the writer was but a boy.

The Tates, Uncle George and Uncle Charley; the Shepperds, Uncle Hamilton and Uncle Asher; Joseph Briggs, Dr. J. F. McAnally, the Marvels, W. A. Stewart, Cynis McCreery, the Mitchells, J. G., Zadoc and Charley; the Kays, Louis and George; the Poindexters, Mr. Delavey, David Goodwin and others that might be mentioned; local preachers, exhorters, class leaders, Sunday School teachers, superintendents, stewards, trustees, members, efficient, faithful, loyal, are held in sacred memory.

I suppose that Aunt Lavinia Newman has the distinction of having longest been a member for 65 years or more. She is now 83 years of age. My mother, Mrs. S. A.

McCreery, perhaps holds the second place. She is 82 years of age and has been a member of the church for 62 years. What more shall we say; we are indeed "reaping where we have not, where we digged not". Ours is a blessed heritage.

For over ninety years the gospel of righteousness and true holiness has been preached and exemplified on this sacred spot. The writer of this sketch had a respect and reverence for the patriarchs, the fathers and mothers in the church that was akin to awe, and after over forty years of membership and association with her members, can say that in the main, he has had the utmost confidence in their sincerity, their pure motives, their religion. Let us be true to our trust. We have our twentieth century problems. May we be the "worthy sons of noble sires", and in the last great day, the day of reckoning, may the Liberty Church be presented to the Master, "a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish". Amen and Amen. (Read at the centennial celebration at Liberty M.E. Church August 10, 1918.)

In 1782 Joseph II Copeland was one of the first settlers of Jefferson County, TN. He settled south of the French Broad, seven miles above Danbridge. (Annuls of Tennessee – end of the 18th Century.)

Joseph II Copeland is said to have been one of the first three settlers in what is now Overton County. He became a friend and associate of Nettle Carrier, the chief of the Cherokee Indians who resided in this area when the white people began their settlement in this section. Also David Crockett lived in this area. Also among the early settlers were Joseph I's son, Stephen Copeland and his son "Big Joe."

In September 1793, after several other invasions, the Joseph II Copeland home was plundered by a party of 30 Indians, but escaped by crossing the river, and was an eye witness. (Territorial Papers Volume IV 1790-1796)

Col. Stephen Copeland and his son Joseph (Big Joe) came to the upper Cumberland area about 1799 from North Carolina, following Indian trails across rough territory, according to Goodpasture in his Overton County History. They came into the wilderness and planted what is said to be the first crop of corn in Overton County about 1 mile north of the headwater fork of Roaring River, about 4 miles west of Livingston, which was over the Indian line which they didn't realize, on 640 acres granted to Col. Stephen because of military service in both the American Revolution and War of 1812. They became friends with Nettle Carrier, chief of the band of Cherokee, often hunting together. Big Joe married a Cherokee girl, Hannah Thatcher Ward. Col. Stephen laid out and helped build the Roaring River United Baptist Church. He belonged to the Stockton Valley Association and is buried here.

Eventually Big Joe owned all of Copeland Cove, working as a farmer and stock dealer, buying and driving cattle to Baltimore, Maryland. Big Joe became a legend in this area, he was 7'3" tall and weighed 350 pounds plus and his sons were all about the same size. He was a giant in both strength and intellect, with many stories of feats of strength. For example, on one occasion he was plowing and a man came into the field wanting to fight him. Big Joe became so irritated he threw the man over the fence and then threw the man's mule after him. It is said he killed 60 mature bears, one of which he killed with one blow. He could crack black walnuts with his teeth, and was known to have lifted a grown tree out of his path. He lifted a 40 gallon barrel of water to take a drink – and many, many similar feats of strength. In the book History of Overton County, TN., the listing of his children include Jefferson Madison, my greatgreatgreat grandfather.

Jefferson Madison Copeland was born ca 2-1812 in Copeland Cove, Overton County, Tennessee; died 11-1867 in Liberty Hill, Williamson County, Texas; married ca 1830/32 in Copeland Cove, Overton County, Tennessee to 2nd cousin Mary Ann/Jane Copeland who was born 10-1814 in Livingston, Overton County, Tennessee; died ca 9-1905/07 in Liberty Hill, Williamson County, Texas; her parents were Richard and Margaret Peggy (Hartsaw) Copeland. Their children were Jasper Newton, Richard Marion, Elmira,

They spent their last night at her Uncle Jim Copeland's. From the front porch of their log cabin, four miles north of Liberty Hill, Tx. – the Jim Copeland family waved as they were riding off in the ox driven wagon. After spending one night out of Wills Point, TX., they were getting ready to leave, and one of the oxen rared up, fell back on to tongue of the wagon. The men rode into town, got a new tongue, came back, put on the wagon, and by then Margaret was sick; therefore, the family rented a farm in the Wills Point area. Margaret died and the family farmed 4 more years before deciding to go on to Oklahoma, along with others, except James E.'s brother stayed in the area. Heading to Oklahoma were 9 covered wagons, 1 surrey, 35 head of cattle and some horses. The first night they camped on the river near Denison, Texas. From there they crossed the prairie, making their own roads. They went to the Burns Flat, Okla. area and became prosperous farmers. # Book Reviews

Carteret County, North Carolina was formed from a part of Craven County, North Carolina in 1722, although the deeds in this book began in 1713. Immigrants came to Carteret county from Beauford, Craven, Pasquotank, Perquimans counties and Norfolk County, Virginia. Many families came from New England and several estate divisions relating to Bristol County, Maryland were recorded in Carteret County, North Carolina records.

Two deed books are abstracted for this book, the first labeled Books A, B, C, E and F, and the second Book D. Each of the A, B, C. E. and F. books are shown separately, not necessarily chronologically. In addition to the name index, a place index and slave index are included. Each abstraction contains the date, names of all parties, including prior owners, terms of sale, name and geographical marking of property, and names of witnesses. The location of the original records is not known, which makes these abstracts from microfilm more valuable.

Wanted! U. S. Criminal Records, Sources & Research Methodology By Ron Arons, 8 ½ X 11, 367 pp, paper cover, cc 2009. Cost: $49.00 plus s&h of $5.00. Purchase from: www.RonArons.com. Tax: California only 9.75 percent.

This book by Ron Arons is a timely and much needed research tool for the genealogist as well as investigators, writers, and others. In genealogical research, your chances of having an ancestor who has had dealings with the law and prisons have multiplied in recent years. A recent report shows that at the beginning of 2008, there were 2,319, 258 adult inmates in prisons in the United States. In addition there are many more who have served their time and been released, and others who went through trials and never served time in prisons.

The book begins with a chapter on how to get started in your research and how to use the book. Such topics as family stories, records covered, census records. newspapers, city directories & telephone books, prison records, criminal court documents, parole records, executions, investigative files, police records etc. are covered. To show the different records available, the book is set up by individual State. Each State shows the records available in that State and where to find them. Also included is the location or call number, author, title, description including web site if applicable. Copies of some documents you might find are included. The address and web site of the State and Federal Archives are also given.

Most records found in this book are not on line. This is a most comprehensive book dealing with the research on all phases dealing with criminals. Every library, including genealogical libraries should have a copy of this book in their stacks.

The Complete Beginner's Guide to Genealogy, the Internet, and Your Computer Program, Updated Edition By Karen Clifford A. G., 8 ½ X 11, 360 pp., paper back, indexed, cc 2001 Order No. 1047, Cost: $39.95 plus s & h, Order from: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (For additional ordering information see end of reviews)

Because of the increased use and reliance of the genealogical researcher on electronic resources author Karen Clifford has updated her guide.

This new addition contains all of the information for "getting started" in genealogical research as did the earlier addition: organizing your material, overcoming conflicts, and why and how to document. It still contains the guides for using primary sources like court houses and other archives such as Regional Record Service Facilities, State and National Archives, as well as public libraries, Family History Centers.

The purpose of this update is to make the computer technology simpler and easier to use. The information on computer programs includes links to data which shows the features of individual programs so that they can be compared. Computer check lists are added and web site addresses are given at the end of each chapter. There are many illustrations, charts and examples to aid the researcher and definitions of genealogical terms are scattered throughout the volume. This book is much more than a beginner's guide. It is a guide for the researcher throughout the research.

Scottish Genealogical Research By David Dobson, 8 ½ X 11, 4 pp., Folded, laminated, cc 2011 Order No. 1464 Cost: $7.95 plus s&h Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (For additional ordering information see end of reviews)

Who better to put so much information in this Scottish, Genealogy at a Glance, booklet than David Dobson who has written so many books concerning Scottish research.

The first page contains a brief table of contents, as well as Quick Facts about the Scottish people. Among the topics discussed are: Scottish emigration, passenger lists, unlocking Scottish family history, including the unique topic of Scottish surnames, census records, registration of births, marriages and deaths, inscription lists, Kirk Session records, services of heirs, Burgh records, Estate and family papers and major online resources. At the end of each topic are listed the names of books and other sources to use for further investigation, which in some cases includes web sites.

It is difficult to realize how much genealogical information is contained in such a small space. Since the information is contained in a small space, it can readily be carried with you and can be at your finger tips at all times.

French-Canadian Genealogy Research By Denise R. Larson, 8 ½ X 11, 4 pp., folded, laminated, cc 2011. Order No. 3286.Price: $7.95 plus s&h. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. (For additional information see end of reviews)

This is another in the series, Genealogy at a Glance, to aid the researcher in finding their French-Canadian ancestors. As with other booklets in this series it starts with a brief table of contents and Quick Facts about the nationality discussed.

The first page has several paragraphs on French Canada, and French-Canadian surnames. Other topics discussed are Quebec, Acadia, Huguenots (French Protestants), civil and church records, census returns, major record repositories in Canada and major on-line resources. At the end of each topic, names of other resources are shown for further reference, including web sites if applicable.

Like the others in this series, this laminated booklet can be carried with you at all times and always be at your finger tips.

Directory of Scots Banished to the American Plantations, 1650-1775: New 2nd Edition: By David Dobson: 254 pages paper back: Published in 2010 by Clearfield Company, 3600 Clipper Mill Road, suite 260, Baltimore MD21211: www.genealogical.com $29.50 plus $5.50

This edition this publication contains fresh material from America and obscure sources in Scotland, and at least 30% more convict passengers than did the first edition. The introduction clearly explains from where and why the Scots were banished and the time frame for each of the three major events. If the reader is only generally familiar with the terms, "Jacobite" and "Covenanter" the introduction will help you understand the history of each and their use. Also noted are some who were accused of stealing or being a trader. In many cases the occupation of the banished person if given.

The researcher must also note the source reference key that tells where the information was located that make up this book. For example the first entry is for "Abbott, Frederick, a Jacobite, trader on the Elizabeth and Anne, from Liverpool on 29 June 1716, landed in Virginia. (SPAW.1776.310) (VSP.1.186). The key on pages vii-ix SPAWI translates to State Papers, America and West Indies page 310 of the 1776 entries. (VSP) means from Virginia State Papers Volume 1 page 186.

All the names are in alphabetical order, with each entry containing both first and last name, in most cases the reason for banishment, the date and where the ship departed, where it landed in the Colonies and the sources as noted above.

I would recommend this book as a great research tool, even if you don't find a relative listed, simply because the sources that are referred to offer the researcher many new places to search for their Scottish ancestors. For example in researching my wife's Glasgow line, I did not know that there is such a thing as "Glasgow Records," now I have a new source to research.

The Tennessee Genealogical Magazine, Ansearchin' News

Tennessee Ancestry Certificate Program

The Tennessee Genealogical Society sponsors this program to recognize and honor the early settlers who helped shape the great state of Tennessee. Persons wishing to place their ancestors in this roll of honor are invited to submit an application with supporting documents or other evidence that proves their prime ancestor lived in Tennessee or the area that became Tennessee before 1880. Family charts or computer printouts are not considered sufficient proof.

Attractive hand-lettered certificates suitable for framing are issued each person whose application meets program qualifications. The certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor's name, when and where he or she settled in Tennessee, and the applicant's name.

The application form for the certificate can be printed at our web site www.tngs.org or via snail mail from TNGS P. O. Box 381824, Germantown, TN 38183-1824

INVITE A FRIEND TO BECOME AN ACTIVE OR SUBSCRIBING MEMBER OF THE SOCIETY!

Ansearchin' News Policies

Contributions: Everyone is invited to submit unpublished material of genealogical value. Pre-1945 Tennessee material is our priority. This includes diaries, letters, tombstone inscriptions, deeds, church records, military records, etc. If a photo is needed for an article, please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.

TNGS is a nonprofit organization and does not pay for contributions; however the contributor is recongnized with a by-line.

All correspondence with TNGS should include name, address and telephone number and/or email address of the writer.

Queries: Queries do not have to be Tennessee related. Queries will appear in Ansearchin' News and on the TNGS web site, www.tngs.org

Members are entitled to two free queries each year and may place additional queries for $3 each. (Nonmembers pay $5 for each.) Queries should be 50 words or less. (See "Queries" in any current issue for correct form.) Please submit queries typed or printed.

Surname Index File Cards: Members are urged to send vital statistics of ancestors to be included in our Master Surname File. Please type or print information on a 3x5 index card Information should include subject's surname, given name, middle name, dates of birth, marriage, death, parents, spouse, children, origin, state and county. Please include name, address and e-mail address on the back of the card.

Book Reviews: Books will be reviewed in Ansearchin' News if the book is donated to The Tennessee Genealogical Society. After a book is reviewed, it will become part of the GRHGC library. All books will be reviewed in the order received.

Tennessee Ancestry Certificates: TNGS sponsors this program to recognize and honor the settlers who came to Tennessee before 1880. To place your ancestors in this roll of honor, please request an application from Myra Wright, Director of Certificates, at www.tngs.org or the Address at the end of this page. Upon completion of the application, please return it along with supporting documents or other proof of your ancestor's residency, along with a $10 application fee. Attractive certificates suitable for framing are issued to each person whose application meets program qualifications. Certificates are inscribed with the prime ancestor's name, date and place of settlement in Tennessee along with the applicant's name.

Note: TNGS has published two volumes of Tennessee Settlers and Their Descendants compiled from information contained in these applications, and will publish a third volume when an adequate number of additional applications are received.

Photo Gallery: TNGS may publish pre-1945 unidentified photos in Ansearchin' News. Please advise us of the origin of the photo and any other information that might aid our search. Please contact us about how to submit an electronic copy.

Letters to The Editor: All letters to the editor should be forwarded to "Editor" at addresses shown at the end of this column. Please feel free to send any comment or suggestion. In many instances, throughout the magazine, grammar and spelling are left verbatim in order to preserve the character and charm of the era.

Volunteering and Donations: TNGS is strictly a nonprofit organization. It exists to keep the history of Tennessee and our ancestors alive. Volunteers run every aspect of the Society, and if you would like to join the "cause," please contact a Board member or other volunteer. There is no job too small — remember, Tennessee is the Volunteer State!

TNGS is a federally recognized nonprofit, tax exempt, educational organization, and as such contributions are tax deductible within the IRS guidelines. Your gift will be acknowledged by mail and will include the TNGS tax number.
